

WOLCOTT ACCEPTS DELAWARE POST

Governor Denney Says, Half in Jest, That He Himself May Get Senate Seat

POLITICAL JUGGLERY SEEN

Wilmington, Del., May 25.—Governor William D. Denney today announced that United States Senator Joseph O. Wolcott has accepted appointment as Chancellor of Delaware, the State's highest judicial office.

The Governor also stated that he himself may succeed Mr. Wolcott in the United States Senate for the remainder of the term. He added that he was half in jest, but said it was within the bounds of possibility.

There were the new developments to the amazing play in big league politics in which Federal patronage and control of the Republican party in Delaware are the stakes and a United States Senatorship and the Chancellorship are regarded as the pawns.

World Displace Republicans One amazing feature of the movement is that Senator Wolcott is a Democrat and Governor Denney is a Republican. The Delaware State Senate confirms the appointment of Senator Wolcott to displace Chancellor Curtis, a Republican, who has held the office twelve years.

In the background of the situation stands General T. Coleman du Pont, who is certainly not pleased by the appointment of United States Senator L. H. Helder Hall in the political affair of the State because of the differences between them which led to the National Convention last year.

Governor Denney today frankly admitted that he would consult General du Pont's wishes in naming a successor to Senator Wolcott.

"Why Not?" Asks Denney "General du Pont's wishes will be consulted; why not?" the Governor asked.

The Governor added that he intends calling a special session of the State Senate "about the middle of June."

Democrat Advises Move Eben B. Frazer, Democratic chairman for Newcastle County, admitted today he had advised Senator Wolcott to accept the chancellorship.

Named for Judiciary

JOSIAH O. WOLCOTT Present United States Senator from Delaware, has accepted the Governor's nomination for the post of Chancellor

Chancellor of Senator Wolcott as appointment. "Well, he probably thinks it was the result of a deal," he said.

Term Is Twelve Years The chancellorship term is twelve years and the salary $7,000 a year. In the ordinary course of events Senator Wolcott, if he desired to continue in the Senate, would have to face a hard campaign next year, as his senatorial term expires in 1923.

Among those regarded as possibilities for the senatorship are Judge Daniel H. Hastings, of this city; former Governor Charles Miller or former Governor John G. Townsend.

In addition to announcing the appointment of Senator Wolcott to succeed Chancellor Curtis, Governor Denney announced these appointments to the Delaware Judiciary:

James Pennewell, Dover, to be Chief Justice, succeeding himself; William Watson Harrington, Dover, resident Associate Justice for Kent County, succeeding William H. Boyce, and Charles Suller, Richards, Georgetown, resident Associate Justice for Sussex County, succeeding Henry C. Conrad.

Democrat Advises Move Eben B. Frazer, Democratic chairman for Newcastle County, admitted today he had advised Senator Wolcott to accept the chancellorship.

Democrat Advises Move Eben B. Frazer, Democratic chairman for Newcastle County, admitted today he had advised Senator Wolcott to accept the chancellorship.

Democrat Advises Move Eben B. Frazer, Democratic chairman for Newcastle County, admitted today he had advised Senator Wolcott to accept the chancellorship.

MAYOR INSPECTS 'KEYSTONE STATE'

Moore Says City and Commonwealth Appreciate Naming of New U. S. Vessel

PLEASED BY CONSTRUCTION

Mayor Moore, representing the city, today inspected the Keystone State, the second large passenger and freight steamship built at the yards of the New York Shipbuilding Corporation, which will leave the shipyard at 4 o'clock tomorrow morning on her trial trip.

With the Mayor were City Solicitor Smyth, Director Sproule, of the Department of Wharves, Docks and Ferries; John S. W. Holton, president of the Maritime Exchange, and H. P. Barnes, the Mayor's non-in-law.

The party arrived at the corporation's offices in Camden at 9:30 o'clock and was greeted by these officials: E. A. Oppelt, representing the United States Shipping Board; Robert Workman, assistant to the vice president of the New York Shipbuilding Corporation; Norman Parker, assistant to the secretary-treasurer; Walter L. Huff, librarian; Ernest H. Ritz, naval architect; J. T. Wickersham, secretary-treasurer; L. G. Buckwalter, purchasing agent; W. G. Grossbeck, vice president; John H. Irwin, cashier, and A. G. Connell, also an assistant to the secretary-treasurer.

They were shown a model of the Keystone State, which is of 21,000 tons with a speed of seventeen and one-half knots, and is the second of nine similar vessels to be built for the United States Shipping Board by the corporation. She will carry 250 first-class passengers and 300 third class.

The vessel was launched May 15, 1920. After inspecting the model the visitors were taken to the shipyard in Gloucester, where they were greeted by the yard officials.

As the Mayor stepped aboard the Keystone State, the flag of Philadelphia was broken out at the forepeak of the vessel. The Mayor was generally pleased with the construction and fittings of the vessel. Standing in the passage of deck No. 2, he said:

"The City and Commonwealth of Philadelphia appreciate the compliment conveyed in the naming of this vessel, Keystone State. We are all proud of the shipbuilding development along the Delaware River."

"The Delaware has become a greater shipbuilding stream than the Clyde, and in commerce it stands first among inland rivers of the United States, and possibly of the world."

"This ship is a municipality in itself. The people appreciate the supremacy of the State and City in commerce, but many overlook the great asset of the Delaware River. The Keystone State will carry our commerce into the Orient, and will improve our relations with other nations."

MRS. STILLMAN MAY POSE FOR MOVIES

Film Producer Said to Have Made Her Offer of $100,000

WILL USE HUSBAND'S NAME

New York, May 25.—Mrs. James A. Stillman may go into the movies. One of her friends admitted Monday night that she has received an offer from a moving-picture company which is willing to pay her almost any price to capitalize her publicity in the Stillman divorce case and that she is seriously considering the proposition.

According to this friend of Mrs. Stillman, the moving-picture company has offered her $100,000 to pose in a series of productions. She is said to have held conferences with a representative of the company in question and to have expressed herself as confident of her ability to please the moving-picture public. She has had some experience in amateur theatricals in society circles, it is said.

If the negotiations with the moving-picture company are concluded, Mrs. Stillman will be billed on the screen as "Mrs. James A. Stillman," and wide publicity for her screen work may be expected.

Mrs. Stillman communicated with her lawyers yesterday, telling them to refrain from any bickering or bargaining with her husband. She is said to have demanded they deliver an ultimatum to her husband's attorneys.

It was said Mrs. Stillman told her attorneys that neither they nor she had anything to arbitrate and that the banker would either agree to make a public declaration that Guy Stillman was his son and that he made false statements in his petition for divorce or he would be forced to continue his suit and listen to his wife's countercharges.

TO GIVE MUSICAL PLAY Columbia Club Will Present "Foolishness" Tonight

"Foolishness," a two-act musical comedy, will be given at the Columbia Club, Broad and Oxford streets, this evening, by the Junior Council of Chavvas Chased Congregation, Germantown.

Stanley Solomon wrote and staged the piece, and will be in the cast, which will include David H. Robinson, Leonard Smith, Reba Brown, Sophie Orlow, Albert Knopf, Ben Goldgarb and Sara Grant.

These will be a chorus of pretty girls, including Bertha Lents, Jerry Levinthal, Reba and Betty Brown, Emma Lewis, Ida Porter, Rose Freeman and E. Ethel Solomon. Miss Solomon trained the dancers.

MRS. STILLMAN MAY POSE FOR MOVIES

Film Producer Said to Have Made Her Offer of $100,000

WILL USE HUSBAND'S NAME

New York, May 25.—Mrs. James A. Stillman may go into the movies. One of her friends admitted Monday night that she has received an offer from a moving-picture company which is willing to pay her almost any price to capitalize her publicity in the Stillman divorce case and that she is seriously considering the proposition.

According to this friend of Mrs. Stillman, the moving-picture company has offered her $100,000 to pose in a series of productions. She is said to have held conferences with a representative of the company in question and to have expressed herself as confident of her ability to please the moving-picture public. She has had some experience in amateur theatricals in society circles, it is said.

If the negotiations with the moving-picture company are concluded, Mrs. Stillman will be billed on the screen as "Mrs. James A. Stillman," and wide publicity for her screen work may be expected.

Mrs. Stillman communicated with her lawyers yesterday, telling them to refrain from any bickering or bargaining with her husband. She is said to have demanded they deliver an ultimatum to her husband's attorneys.

TO GIVE MUSICAL PLAY Columbia Club Will Present "Foolishness" Tonight

"Foolishness," a two-act musical comedy, will be given at the Columbia Club, Broad and Oxford streets, this evening, by the Junior Council of Chavvas Chased Congregation, Germantown.

Stanley Solomon wrote and staged the piece, and will be in the cast, which will include David H. Robinson, Leonard Smith, Reba Brown, Sophie Orlow, Albert Knopf, Ben Goldgarb and Sara Grant.

These will be a chorus of pretty girls, including Bertha Lents, Jerry Levinthal, Reba and Betty Brown, Emma Lewis, Ida Porter, Rose Freeman and E. Ethel Solomon. Miss Solomon trained the dancers.

These will be a chorus of pretty girls, including Bertha Lents, Jerry Levinthal, Reba and Betty Brown, Emma Lewis, Ida Porter, Rose Freeman and E. Ethel Solomon. Miss Solomon trained the dancers.

MRS. STILLMAN MAY POSE FOR MOVIES

Film Producer Said to Have Made Her Offer of $100,000

WILL USE HUSBAND'S NAME

New York, May 25.—Mrs. James A. Stillman may go into the movies. One of her friends admitted Monday night that she has received an offer from a moving-picture company which is willing to pay her almost any price to capitalize her publicity in the Stillman divorce case and that she is seriously considering the proposition.

According to this friend of Mrs. Stillman, the moving-picture company has offered her $100,000 to pose in a series of productions. She is said to have held conferences with a representative of the company in question and to have expressed herself as confident of her ability to please the moving-picture public. She has had some experience in amateur theatricals in society circles, it is said.

If the negotiations with the moving-picture company are concluded, Mrs. Stillman will be billed on the screen as "Mrs. James A. Stillman," and wide publicity for her screen work may be expected.

Mrs. Stillman communicated with her lawyers yesterday, telling them to refrain from any bickering or bargaining with her husband. She is said to have demanded they deliver an ultimatum to her husband's attorneys.

TO GIVE MUSICAL PLAY Columbia Club Will Present "Foolishness" Tonight

"Foolishness," a two-act musical comedy, will be given at the Columbia Club, Broad and Oxford streets, this evening, by the Junior Council of Chavvas Chased Congregation, Germantown.

Stanley Solomon wrote and staged the piece, and will be in the cast, which will include David H. Robinson, Leonard Smith, Reba Brown, Sophie Orlow, Albert Knopf, Ben Goldgarb and Sara Grant.

These will be a chorus of pretty girls, including Bertha Lents, Jerry Levinthal, Reba and Betty Brown, Emma Lewis, Ida Porter, Rose Freeman and E. Ethel Solomon. Miss Solomon trained the dancers.

These will be a chorus of pretty girls, including Bertha Lents, Jerry Levinthal, Reba and Betty Brown, Emma Lewis, Ida Porter, Rose Freeman and E. Ethel Solomon. Miss Solomon trained the dancers.

MRS. STILLMAN MAY POSE FOR MOVIES

Film Producer Said to Have Made Her Offer of $100,000

WILL USE HUSBAND'S NAME

New York, May 25.—Mrs. James A. Stillman may go into the movies. One of her friends admitted Monday night that she has received an offer from a moving-picture company which is willing to pay her almost any price to capitalize her publicity in the Stillman divorce case and that she is seriously considering the proposition.

According to this friend of Mrs. Stillman, the moving-picture company has offered her $100,000 to pose in a series of productions. She is said to have held conferences with a representative of the company in question and to have expressed herself as confident of her ability to please the moving-picture public. She has had some experience in amateur theatricals in society circles, it is said.

If the negotiations with the moving-picture company are concluded, Mrs. Stillman will be billed on the screen as "Mrs. James A. Stillman," and wide publicity for her screen work may be expected.

Mrs. Stillman communicated with her lawyers yesterday, telling them to refrain from any bickering or bargaining with her husband. She is said to have demanded they deliver an ultimatum to her husband's attorneys.

TO GIVE MUSICAL PLAY Columbia Club Will Present "Foolishness" Tonight

"Foolishness," a two-act musical comedy, will be given at the Columbia Club, Broad and Oxford streets, this evening, by the Junior Council of Chavvas Chased Congregation, Germantown.

Stanley Solomon wrote and staged the piece, and will be in the cast, which will include David H. Robinson, Leonard Smith, Reba Brown, Sophie Orlow, Albert Knopf, Ben Goldgarb and Sara Grant.

These will be a chorus of pretty girls, including Bertha Lents, Jerry Levinthal, Reba and Betty Brown, Emma Lewis, Ida Porter, Rose Freeman and E. Ethel Solomon. Miss Solomon trained the dancers.

These will be a chorus of pretty girls, including Bertha Lents, Jerry Levinthal, Reba and Betty Brown, Emma Lewis, Ida Porter, Rose Freeman and E. Ethel Solomon. Miss Solomon trained the dancers.

MRS. STILLMAN MAY POSE FOR MOVIES

Film Producer Said to Have Made Her Offer of $100,000

WILL USE HUSBAND'S NAME

New York, May 25.—Mrs. James A. Stillman may go into the movies. One of her friends admitted Monday night that she has received an offer from a moving-picture company which is willing to pay her almost any price to capitalize her publicity in the Stillman divorce case and that she is seriously considering the proposition.

According to this friend of Mrs. Stillman, the moving-picture company has offered her $100,000 to pose in a series of productions. She is said to have held conferences with a representative of the company in question and to have expressed herself as confident of her ability to please the moving-picture public. She has had some experience in amateur theatricals in society circles, it is said.

If the negotiations with the moving-picture company are concluded, Mrs. Stillman will be billed on the screen as "Mrs. James A. Stillman," and wide publicity for her screen work may be expected.

Mrs. Stillman communicated with her lawyers yesterday, telling them to refrain from any bickering or bargaining with her husband. She is said to have demanded they deliver an ultimatum to her husband's attorneys.

TO GIVE MUSICAL PLAY Columbia Club Will Present "Foolishness" Tonight

"Foolishness," a two-act musical comedy, will be given at the Columbia Club, Broad and Oxford streets, this evening, by the Junior Council of Chavvas Chased Congregation, Germantown.

Stanley Solomon wrote and staged the piece, and will be in the cast, which will include David H. Robinson, Leonard Smith, Reba Brown, Sophie Orlow, Albert Knopf, Ben Goldgarb and Sara Grant.

These will be a chorus of pretty girls, including Bertha Lents, Jerry Levinthal, Reba and Betty Brown, Emma Lewis, Ida Porter, Rose Freeman and E. Ethel Solomon. Miss Solomon trained the dancers.

These will be a chorus of pretty girls, including Bertha Lents, Jerry Levinthal, Reba and Betty Brown, Emma Lewis, Ida Porter, Rose Freeman and E. Ethel Solomon. Miss Solomon trained the dancers.

WILL MARY OR KATE DARRAGH (AT CHESTNUT HILL CONVENT SCHOOL IN 1868) OR MEMBERS OF FAMILY PLEASE COMMUNICATE ADDRESS BOX "J," PUBLIC LEDGER, 366 MADISON AVE., NEW YORK CITY.

TWO WAYS to increase your sales force—Add men or ad-men.

HERBERT M. MORRIS Advertising Agency North American Bldg. Philadelphia

You cannot sidestep the claims of the body by ignoring them. A day of reckoning will come. Collins' men do get sick—but they resist sickness longer and rally and recuperate more quickly than others.

May we mail our booklet? COLLINS INSTITUTE OF PHYSICAL CULTURE COLLINS BLDG. WALNUT ST. AT 10TH

Manufacturers' Clearance SALE—20% OFF Framed Mirrors Picture Frames Fine Mouldings

Matthew Schramm & Son 39 North 9th St. Second Floor WHOLESALE RETAILERS

WANTED Job Compositor Cylinder Pressman Job Pressman Only first-class men 48-hour week

RADIUM UNIVERSAL NEEDLES and TUBULAR APPLICATORS

Emanation Apparatus Installations Correspondence by Hospitals and Physicians Invited

The W. L. Cummings Chemical Co. Established 1912 Works and Refining Laboratories LANSDOWNE, PHILA.

BAILEY BANKS & BIDDLE CO. SPECIALIZING IN POLISHED GIRDLER DIAMONDS

Appropriately mounted for Graduation Gifts Unrivalled standard of quality for almost a century

THE HATCH MOTORS CO. 710 N. BRAD ST. PHILA. Showroom Open Until 9:30 P. M.

Next Year's Prices Now

FINE FRAMING PAINTINGS CLEANED AND RESTORED THE ROSENBAUGH GALLERIES 1280 Walnut Street

Linde 1/3 and 1/2 Off Sale Furniture, Rugs, Linoleums

Nothing like it has ever been seen in Philadelphia. Such values, such quantities, such quality, such savings have never before been placed within reach of the home maker in any sale.

Please remember that this is an Extraordinary Sale. It embraces hundreds of complete, new, up-to-date suits and thousands of single pieces direct from eight of the leading makers of the country, as well as a large portion of our admittedly superior stocks.

Don't delay your selections. The buying has been heavy and the demand last week was beyond all expectations. While the assortments are great, they will not last long in the present rush.

Bed Room Furniture Dining Room Furniture Living Room Furniture Wicker Furniture Rugs and Linoleums One Half Off

HENRY LINDE 23d, Columbia & Ridge Ave. Store Open Every Friday Evening Until 9:30

JOHN LOUX Furniture Manufacturer

2552-2549-2551-2553 GERMANTOWN AVE. and 126 N. 10th St.

This 4-Piece Queen Anne WALNUT Bedroom Suit $120

This 3-Door All-White Enameled Refrigerator $28.75

This 3-Piece Fiber Reed Suit $39.50

Overstuffed Tapestry Suit This 3-Pc. $95

URGES CUSTOMS BUILDING Congressman Ransley's Bill Would Provide $2,000,000 Structure

STATE ELECTION CALLED Successor to Late Congressman-at-Large Garland to Be Chosen

TO GIVE MUSICAL PLAY Columbia Club Will Present "Foolishness" Tonight

Today and Tomorrow Only! Special Offering about 400 Pair Standard Quality White Flannel Trousers at $7.75

At the opening of the Summer season, and just in time for Memorial Day—a Limited Quantity—about 400 Pairs all told—of Standard 1921 White Flannel Trousers, splendidly made—just fresh from the tailors' hands—that we will sell today and tomorrow only at the exceptionally low price of $7.75 a pair.

Search the city over—look in every good store, and you will find White Flannel Trousers selling everywhere at $10, $12 and up to $15—prices that will prevail all season.

Due to Limited Quantity, only Two Pair will be sold to any one customer.

Every other seasonable need—Beautifully made Palm Beaches—Wide and narrow pencil stripes in handstom Mohairs ever seen—Blue Serges, light gray worsteds and cassimeres—heringbones, homespuns—a wonderful stock of Summer Suits!

All at prices consistently low—and quality that makes the Value consistently high. PERRY & CO. Sixteenth and Chestnut Sts.

WHILE clothes don't make the man, they may go a long way toward making a sale. This is a quotation from an advertising expert which is so good and so true that we borrow it.

The man who has confidence in himself is twice the man who is without it. Good clothes will stimulate his self-respect and confidence and favorably influence the man whom he is trying to sell.

Spring and Summer Suit prices begin at $30. Especially notable values at $15 & $20.