

"FLASHLIGHT" A JUMPER. He was ridden in one of the events of late yesterday afternoon, at the Devon Horse Show, by Arthur J. Fox. Ledger Photo Service.

SKETCHING. Marquise de Fraysseux de Mazieres, who is visiting friends in this country, busy at the Devon Horse Show, yesterday. Miss Alma Wanamaker is posing. Ledger Photo Service.

HER FAVORITE. "Witchcraft" is owned by Mrs. William du Pont, Jr., of Wilmington, who rode the horse in several events of the Devon Horse Show, this week. Ledger Photo Service.

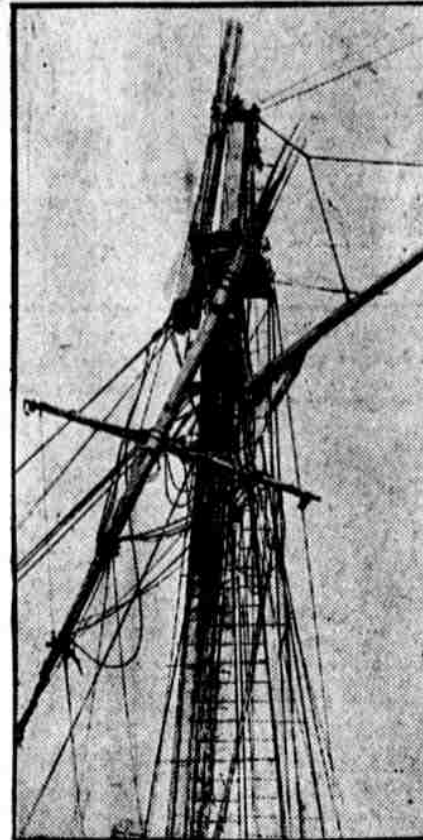

LOOKING WEST. The photographer found a place in City Hall where he could snap Market street. The bridge runs across from Broad Street Station to the Commercial Trust building. Ledger Photo Service.

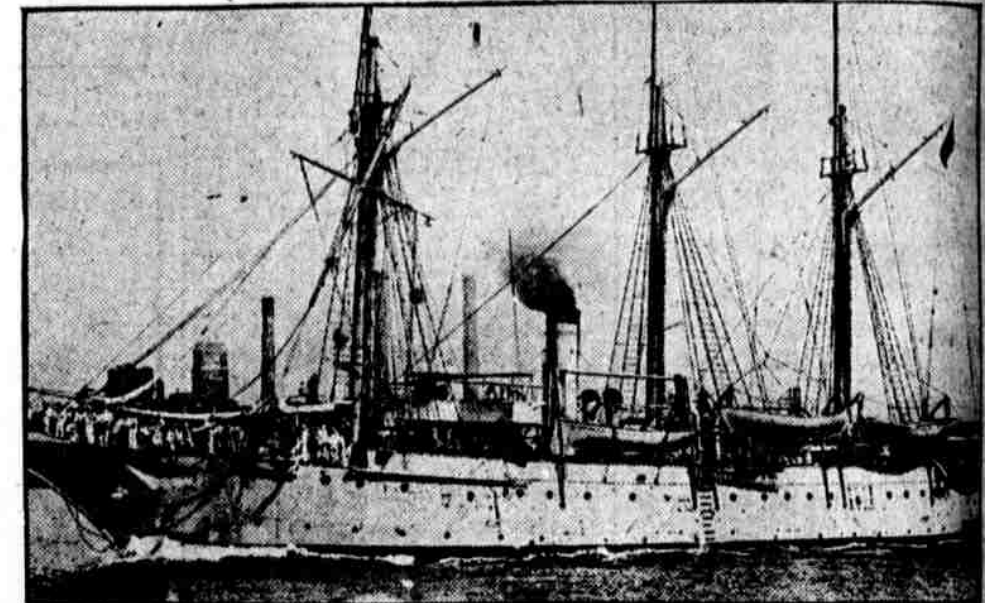

HIGH HURDLES. Two of the girl athletes of the Temple University in action at the Northeast Athletic Field, yesterday morning, during the interschool competitions. Ledger Photo Service.

IT WAS A CLOSE RACE. At the left is Miss Neil, first in a heat of the 75-yard dash at the Temple University games of yesterday. Miss Semple was second. Ledger Photo Service.

ENCOUNTERED STORM. The school ship Annapolis arrived in the Philadelphia port yesterday after a long cruise, with one of the mast heads badly shattered by storm. The etching at the left shows the damaged mast. The photographs were taken from a city tug as the Annapolis proceeded up the Delaware. Ledger Photo Service.

"WIGS" FOR EYELIDS. False eyelashes have been introduced. Samples are made up in all shades to suit the complexion of Milady. Kadel & Herbert.

PENN CHARTER WINS INTERACADEMIC MEET on Franklin Field. The annual event, held yesterday afternoon, brought hundreds of athletes to Franklin Field. The 120-yard hurdles event was won by Riday, of Penn Charter. Four of the contestants are shown. Conley, of the Germantown Academy, won the shot-put. At the right is George Pawling, Jr., of the Episcopal Academy, winner of the mile run. Ledger Photo Service.

PAGEANT OF OUR COUNTRY. The pupils of the Hanna School, Fifty-eighth and Media streets appeared before their parents and friends, yesterday. Miss Alberta Harris as "Keystone State" (left). In the Spirit of '76 group are Adelbert Crampton, Victor Wilson and Morris Rothman. Ledger Photo Service.

OUR CITY'S WORKERS AND WHAT THEY DO

MISS MARY O'DONNELL, 1438 East Oxford street, operating a stitching machine, at the National Fiberstock Envelope Co., 429 Moyer street. She is stitching expanding wallet envelopes. Ledger Photo Service.

WITH HER FLORAL GIFTS. Emma Trentini, the singer, sailing from New York to her home in Milan. Underwood & Underwood.

SEMAPHORE SENTINELS

ONE OF THE NEW-ONES. For six months Reserve Patrolman Charles Stephens has been a member of the police force and for that time has served at Broad and Spring Garden streets. He lives at 3028 North Hutchinson street. Ledger Photo Service.

IN "H. M. S. PINAFORE" CHORUS. Miss Esther Jones, as seen last night, the second evening of the opera, at the Broad Street Theatre. Ledger Photo Service.

SHE HAS PASSED WASHINGTON. Miss Olga Crane Grover, of Boston, accompanied by her mother, is autoing to California. A few days ago she passed through Philadelphia. Harris & Evans.