

ARCH ST. RUMORED FOR BRIDGE SITE

Surprises Predicted in Forthcoming Report of Commission's Engineers

COST UNDER EXPECTATION

Surprises are predicted in the report of the Delaware River Bridge Commission engineers...

George S. Webster, one of the engineering experts working on the bridge plans...

The commission is the court of last resort. What it decides to do will be done...

One reason for the decreased cost, it is said, is the discovery through borings in the river...

The State already has appropriated $2,500,000 to pay for its share of the bridge costs...
