Nancy Wynne Talks of Various Happenings in the Social World-Mr. and Mrs. J. Bertram Lippincott to Give Garden Party at Country Home Tomorrow

THE J. Bertram Lippincotts will have a delightful garden party tomorrow afternoon at their home Melmar, in Bethayres. Mrs. Lippincott, who is a most delightful hostess, will be assisted in receiving by her two daughters. Mrs. William Paul O'Neill, who was Marianna Lippincott, and Mrs. Nicholas Biddle, who was Sarah Lippincott. Mrs. Joseph Wharton Lippincott, a daughter-in-law, also will receive. The Lippincotts have a beautiful place and especially fine gardens. I slways think there is nothing so delightful as an out-of-doors party in early June. Later in the season the Lippincotts will go up to Jamestown, R. I., where they have a honse up on the Dumplings, that beautiful end of the island which com-THE J. Bertram Lippincotts will have

Do You Want a Vacation?

A real vacation, that builds you up a strength and energy, that puts a new gladness in your step? It is a vacation that you can prolong for week after glorious week, always gaining in health and efficiency. You want such a vacation? Then try the Cantillever Shoe the Cantilever Shoe.

Give your feet a Cantilever vaca-tion. Your whole body will feel better. Ordinary stiff-soled shoes restrain the foot muscles, check the circulation, weaken the arch, upset the nerves and subtract from your atrength and your vitality. But the Cantilever Shoe gives the foot perfect freedom. It has a flexible shank that bends WITH the muscles. t encourages the foot to exercise. Cantilevers correct and prevent flat foot by strengthening the muscles surrounding the bones of the arch.

The natural shape of the shoe and the well-set heel encourage correct posture. With the weight properly distributed, you can walk or stand for a long time in Cantilevers without the fatisee experienced in other footwear. The style of Cantilever Shoes is correct for daytime wear.

Trim exfords in several leathers or white linen; also high shoes. Widths from AAAA to E.
