CODGAN BOWS S STAR AT STANLEY

nkevshines Clever in "Peck's and Boy"-Elsie Ferguson in Barnett Film

"Peck's Bad Boy" is a leture. In it little Jackie Coogan as the mischievious son. Ifvin has greatly improved upon the 's writing by making the sub-lmost as funny as the actions of almost as funny as the actions of an character. The Arile Chaplin took little the as his side-kick in the making The Kid." the child was given by of lee-way in fun-making, but ing quite as funny as his antice the quite as funny as his antice the state. Action has been centered by and the kid makes the most altrations.

mond Hatton appears as the gro-in whose store much of the action place. Doris May, Wheeler Oak-and James Corrigan are the other in support of the littlest big

New or Never." one of this come-is best fun-makers. Singing of rologue from "I Paglacci," by word Albano, was well received, as the orchestral effects of "Fun In and Store." dded feature is Harold Lloyd's "Sacred and Profane." "Sacred and Profane." "Features Blais Ferguson in the results of her recent stage success. mod Bennett wrote the play which is Grawford Ivers made into scenario William D. Taylor directed." "William D. Taylor directed." This is an unusual tale of love and otion of a prudiah girl, whose affairs is a celebrated plaulat result in sav-hin from ruin, and later gaining the from win, was really dramatic a Ferguson was really dramatic reserved way while in Conrad is revealed an actor of fine schoolnomas Holding reappears after a sheence. Helen Dunbar and thy absence. Helen Dunbar a Boy Brataway are in support. "Boy" assiss, which have been so Head. It is an exceptionally good dy, and worthy of the theatre in the it is appearing. The musical tions were well received.

"The Traveling Salesman"

Photoplays Elsewhere ALLEGHENY - Bebe Daniels in "Two Weeks With Pay." IMFERIAL - "Black Beauty," with Jean Page. GREAT NORTHERN-Hobart Bos-worth in "His Own Law." COLONIAL - Mas Murray in "The Gilded Lity." MARKET STREET.-"A Small-Town have important parts.

Arcadia.-"Shaa" is the story of a woman whose cleverness enables her to ward off bill collectors while she is "putting up a front" to her social crowd. In this movie version of the stage play Ethel Clayton has starring honors. Elmer Harris and Geraldine Bonner v. ote the plece, which Thomas Heffron directed. Theodore Roberts, Walter Hiers and Heien Dunbar are in support. ALBAMBRA-Tom Mix, in "Hands LOCUST-Jane Novak in "Isobel." RIVOLI-Anna Q. Nilsson in "What Women Will Do." BRANONT-Wanda Hawley in "Her First Elopement." STRAND - Mas Murray in "The

Helen, Dunbar are in support. Gilded Lily." LEADER.—W. S. Hart in "O'Malley of the Royal Mounted." COLISEUM and CEDAR.— Pauline Frederick in "The Mistress of Shenstone."

Regent-"The Heart of Maryland" is another of those pictures which have been given new life by a new director. been This

Shenatone." The Mistress of Shenatone." Shenat

Crane Wilbur is once more before the camera lens with good effect in a leading role, while his support is care-fully selected.

Capitol-"Proxies" is a George D. Baker production of the crock story by Frank R. Adams. It is a well-told tale taken up the more quie; forms of comedy. The story has to do with a drummer who goes to a small town and there meets the belle of the place. In a sit-uation which demands immediate action he champions the girl's cause, and not only folis the villain but gains her love, and eventually marries her. Joseph Henaberry, former actor, is the director, and has entered into the spirit of the place with the result that the story has been well handled for the screen. It may be sealled that this same place was an early release, but the new version is much better. Betty Ross Clark is the chief feminine lead, while Frank Holland and Wilton Tay-lor are in support. The organ selec-tions were excellent. of men and women who act the role of of men and women who act the role of reformed crooks in a convincing man-ner. The story is somewhat episodic, but gets its big points across. Norma Kerry and Zeena Keefe are intrusted with the chief roles and carry the story forward at a rapid pace. The plot is not a new one, for it deals with the machinations of a man who is con-tending for honors, in which he sees an opportunity to "frame" a crime upon reformed criminals, Victoria—"Not Guilty" is the story by Harold MacGrath which appeared under the title of "Parrot and Com-pany" Bidney A. Franklin. a youth-ful director in charge of the undertak-ing, has made an excellent job. He will be recalled as a former director of "kiddis" stories for Fox.

with the sense of the dramatic that marked the writing of the piece. Rich-ard Dix is exceptional in the dual role, while Molly Malone and Herbert Prior Bays important Stranger State Sta GOOD KEITH'S BILL

> Francis X. Bushman and Beverly Bayne Have Comedy

> > Act-Local Boys Please

Keith's-Francis X. Bushman and Beverly Bayne are here in person in a matirical comedy entitled "Poor Rich Man." which pleased an enthusiastic boliday audience. The playlet gives the motion-picture stars an opportunity to display some of the finer points of real acting.

The plot has a moral although the fun-making is its chief object. Bush-man is seen as a multi-millionaire whose life is plotted against by radicals. Miss Bayne has a prominent part in the plotting and helped give it a sur-prise finish.

the plotting and neiped give it a sur-prise finish. Brown and O'Donnell, two Philadel-nhia products, had the house rolling in laughter. Their initations of the other acts were well done. The team also presented some clever dancing numbers, Percy Bronson and winsome Winnie Baldwin were seen in "Visions of 1971." The act is a dainty one and attempts to prophesise that fifty years from now the male will be subordinate to the female and pleasure trips will be had in flying boats. One bottle of whis-ky puts an end to the scheme. Mallia-Bart Co. in "The Baggage Smashers" have a clever act with acrobatic stusts executed amidet noyel surroundings. Rolls and Royce, a pair of exceptional dancers, have an act which has both class and speed. Vinie Daly, operatic singer, added several dancing numbers which pleased. Sully and Mack in "Shoot Me" aroused laughs. Dooley loleen sang and performed several thrilling tunts on the wire. A real novel act was that of the three Bel-Giobe-An up-to-the-moment musi-cal skit presented by the California Bathing Girls heads the show. The act scored. Blatko's Rolliekers offered the Intest ideas in jazz. Other entertain-ing acts included those of Bussell and Hayes, acrobatic comedians: Marlow and Thurston, song comedy: Hasel Harrington and company, clever play-let; Holliday and Willetts, comedy hit; Ollie White, violinist, and Bert Wheeler and company, funsters.

Broadway-Henry B. Toomar. as-sisted by Helen Lowell, kept laughs going in "The Wife Saver." "A Tele-phone Tangle" overflowed with laughs. Hits were scored by Behwarts and Clifford and Faber and McGowan who appeared in acts based on novel ideas. Mae Murray in "The Gilded Lily" is the film attraction.

film attraction.

Orces Keys - A lively comedy show is offered with "Little Cinderells," a musical tabloid leading. Lew Cooper dispensed nome 1921 laughs. Good re-sults in the song and comedy line were achieved by the Lew Tow Four, Elaine Sisters and Hurd, Holland Baum and Eva La Rue. A good comedy is offered on the acreen. the screen.

of Wilkes-Barre, in his younger days. The story is rich in humor and sen-timent. The benign influence of the title character is powerful over the liver of the other characters with whom he comes in contact. His lovable and poble qualifies are well portrayed by William Desmond. Heart interest and agreeable William Penn — William Demarest and Estelle Collettes have a comedy act which scored. Pearson, Newport and Pearson have a meritorious skit. Chris Richards kept the house in laughter. Clinton sang several songs well and showed off a step or two. "Prisoners of Love" was the photoplay. romance are also a due part of the plot This is a wholesome movie but not

Grand — Yvette and Eddie Cook and Kino Clark were seen in a musical com-edy which obtained headline honors. Lew Hawkin's Minstreis had to render several encores. Stanley and Eby have a good wire act. Jimmy Fallon and Marjoris Shirley were well received. "The Strong Man" was the photoplay. Nixon - "Musical Bits," musical monts. These boys used toys to hold the attention of the audience. And they comedy, won headline honors. The com-edy of Cahili and Romaine was well received. The skit of Le Toy and Vest went over well. Raymond and Barrows presented a good comedy act, while a real novelty was that of Hartman and Tricker. "The Tomboy" was the pho-toplay.

Sec. 1

Walton Roof-Seasonable songs are offered by Carrie Reynolds, who has a captivating style. Woodward and Mor-rissey aroused laughter in their skit. "Hank the Mule." Entertaining num-bers were presented by others.

who Good Music and Funny Comedy "is stage as the starring vehicle for Dan stage as the starring vehicle for Dan is version. It carefully preserves the con-tinuity of the original plot, but, thanks to be imagined in the stage version. It will be remembered that this piece of Wilkes-Barre.

vie but not a standing in the carefully selected support.

This week's bill is varied; colorius, "Emeraid Isle," with a proportiate arising of Irish melodies, but a feature, and induber is a new Suith of trained voice, won applause with "Mother Machree" and Cadman's "An Dawning." Choir boys from Cl. Clement's gave a number of churchly numb on top of the Ritz Carlton Hotel. The daintiest little garden in the country, where you find everything just a little better than the other place. Luncheon, Dinner, Supper, Tea Dansant.

The Ritz Roof

The photographic work deserves com-mendation for a lot of double exposure work, in which one character plays both parts. When the man has occasion to shake hands with himself it seems to be uncanny. This marks an advance in camera work and credit is due Millard L. F. Webb for his co-

The action is laid in India

Dancing at Tea and Supper

Try Our Avion French Bread

-baked electrically, if you want the very best bread that you have ever tasted. Electrically baked bread is just as different from bread baked in the ordinary oven as cream is from milk. Electrically baked bread is "exclusive" with us in Philadelphia.

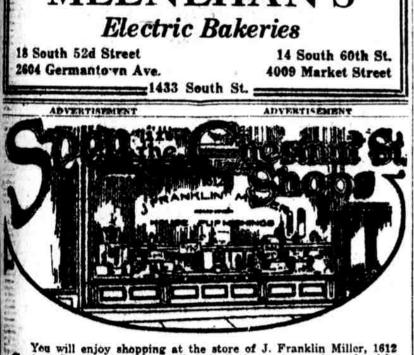

MEENEHAN'S

C. J. HEPPE & SON

1117-1119 Chestnut St., or N. W. Cor. 6th & Thompson Sts.

LOTO

Chestnut Street, where you will find all the necessary housefurnish-ings and conveniences for the summer home.

Deborah Sogan

HOW often, while sitting opposite THE man who is fond of riding and your husband at the breakfast T who appreciates the comfort of your husband at the breakfast le, have you heard him say, well-fitting clothes while in the That's the matter with this coffee ? | saddle, should visit the store of Mac-What's the matter with this coffee? It isn't as good as usual!" If you boil your coffee it is impossible to took it so that it will taste exactly the same morning after morning, indextally if you use a metal pot which will destroy the flavor and discolor the coffee. The best and post economical way to make coffee so in a Tricolator, where no boiling is both of domestic and English make. So in a Tricolator, where no boiling is both of domestic and English make. Hours and where the coffee will re-beautifully tailored and finished vitrified china pot. This device and style for which all their wear well as many clover contrivances, ing apparel is noted. You will also pful to the housekeeper are for be pleased with the variety of mate-at the store of J. Franklin rials from which you may make your er, 1612 Chestnut Street. selection.

WITH what pleasure the young BEFORE investing in new clothes, bride surveys her table when B it is a good and economical plan sees it spread, for the first time, to look over last summer's wardrobe which she has betweed as wedding gifts. In the of clothing which, if properly cleaned, would be worth salvaging. I know of no company which does this sort of work more satisfactorily than beautiful flat silver. The well-beautiful flat silver. The well-beautiful because the silver has been see how beautiful some of the sport Inted table is charming in every il because the silver has been ted with the greatest care and ideration from the store of ay, Banks and Biddle Company, th company houses the finest col-tor of the kind in the world. If chests of flat silver as well as a see how beautiful some of the sport hats which they had cleaned looked, as well as the many sweaters, skirts, dresses, etc. And while you are taking your own things to Barg's, why not take your husband's white fannels or pongee coat? Someday, the services are unequaled in qual-and workmanship. and workmanship.

THE CHESTNUT STREET ASSOCIATION

$25

70c a Year for a Steel Filing Cabinet

This sounds like a promise of 50 years' service. It will sound more like a hundred years when you consider the test that it has been given.

One of the drawers, heavily loaded, was opened and closed 100,000 times-the equivalent of 50 years of service.

The drawer still works as smoothly and true as when the test started. This file is the GF Allsteel Dreadnaught, the lowest-priced fourdrawer Steel Vertical File in the line.

Other demonstrations of strength, rigidity, and endurance are given that will astonish you. See them yourself at our store, or call us up and let us explain this or other items in the line of

The General Fireproofing Company Bulletin Building Philadelphia, Pa. Phone: Bell, Spruce 5887 Lerotone, Race 2104