Academy of Music? I think that is a very nice idea. The Foyer is perfectly beautiful, convenient and for the big meetings when supper is served has all these accommodations too. It seems to me a wise move. I understand Mrs. Jack Geary is not going to be a patroness next year. Mary will probably be in Europe and then she will come out and there are no younger daughters in the family so Mrs. Geary feels that she will be busy enough without affairs.

Mary, or Bunny as she is called, was. Mary, or Bunny as she is called, was graduated this week from Springside. She was the class prophetess and from all I heard of her work did splendidly. all I heard of her work did splendidly. Quite a number of attractive girls were in the class which received diplomas Wednesday morning. There were Suc Goodman and Virginia Carpenter and Rosemary Howe and Martyn George and Frances Bicknell, Amelie Seixas, Nancy Stoughton, Marian Donaghue, Lucylle Austin, and ever so many others, twenty-seven in all, if I have heard right.

THE baby is just a year and a half THE baby is just n year and a half old, but that whole year and a half is full of love of one person and that is: Mother. She can talk very little and just put her words together, so she does not say much, and in moments of keenest joy she becomes very, very quiet: The other day she sat on the floor playing while Grandma was with her and Mother had gone out. She did not seem to miss Mother but played contentedly and quietly there till suddenly the front door was heard to open. A radiant smile spread over the tiny face and in the veriest whisper to Grandma, she said: "Here she tums." NANCY WYNNE.
