TY COBB COMES BACK AFTER GETTING RAZZ AND WINS BALL GAME

Detroit Manager Gets Undeserved Panning From Fans and Then Socks Home Run in Tenth Inning Which Brings Victory to His Side—A's Play Sand-Lot Ball

By ROBERT W. MAXWELL

Sports Editor Evening Public Ledger COBB put over a revenge act at Shibe Park yesterday. After receiving the rollicking rawsberry from the fans, dodging a vacant bottle inaccurately rown by a person who meant no good and challenging the entire center field come out and fight, the Detroit manager went out and won the ball game for his side in the tenth inning of a terrible ball game.

For some reason or other Tyrus was as welcome as poison ivy yesterday He was razzed from the start, and from what we could observe, he didn't de-However, Cobb took everything except the flying bottle, and before the game was over he was the most popular player on the field. Even in the south inning, when he won the game, he was handed cheers when he slid across Tyrus stepped up in the tenth, with two out and Bush on base. Hasty was pitching in his usual form and slipped one in the groove. Cobb pasted t on a line to center field and Welsh fielded it as he usually fields line drives center. The result was a home run, for the ball sailed between his legs and did not come to a stop until it reached the scoreboard.

It was a fitting ending to the game, which had all the earmarks of a and-lot contest between a pair of once-a-week ball teams. The A's got off to a good lead, but couldn't stand prosperity. They did their best to lose and

Two runs were scored in the first five innings, and then came the bloods bloofe striff. One was out in the sixth. Brassler on second and Blue knocked 6 by into left. Walker and Galloway went after it and it fell safe. Brassler tried to score and Galloway made a perfect throw to the plate. Perkins could have tagged the catcher by several feet, but Keefe wandered into the picture and tried to intercept the throw. The ball squirted out of his hands and lowed into the dugout, allowing both runners to dept the saucer. In the seventh, three errors in a row gave the Tigers their third run.

The visitors couldn't help scoring. The Athletics played a miserable game and did everything they shouldn't. Wild throws, poor head work, bum hitting in the pinches and sloppy running contributed to their defeat.

THEY acted as if they had stage fright and played real high school baseball. Outside of that nothing can be said.

Giants Probably Will Buy Groh

THE time has come for the New York Giants to make their final drive for A the National League pennant. In a couple of weeks the team will be strengthened materially and Pittsburgh will have a fight on its hands. signed at the figures submitted by the club-meaning $10,000 per season.

Yesterday it was announced that Heinie Grob had signed a contract with Cincinnati, but declared emphatically he would not play with the Reds. He Heinie wanted $12,000. The understanding is that Groh will be traded to another club as soon as be has been reinstated by Judge Landis. The Judge is considering his case now and probably will render a decision in a couple of days. After this the trading will be fast and furtous and the Giants will get the star third-sacker. Last week it became known that Groh was on the market. New York writers beldly predicted he would be with the Giants, and it looks now as if cy were right. The Reds need a few players and money-principally the latter. The club is not going good, is hovering around last place and the gate receipts have fallen off alarmingly.

One magnate is said to have offered Garry Herrmann $50,000 cash money Heinle and no players. Garry smiled and shook his head. He wants more ough than that and will get it. That brings New York into the picture. The Giants have the money and some players which might be needed. King and Benny Kauff and a couple of nitchers might be used in addition to a big bale of legal tender. The Chicago Cubs could use Heinle, and so could the Phils and Boston, for that matter. However, they cannot compete with John McGraw's bankroll, so everything is washed up. With Heinie on the hot corner, Bancroft at short, Frisch at second Kelly at first, New York will have a classy infield. Every man can field and sock the pill, which is all that could be desired. The outfield is good, and the same goes for the catching staff. McGraw's pitchers are not in the best of shape, but they won't have to be good with that gong of fence-busters bust-

McGraw is likely to be panued and accused of buying another pennant This will be unfair. The manager of the Giants is willing to spend money to set a ball club together and never balks at the amount. Therefore, if he can purchase Heinie in the open market against the blds of the seven other clube,

PITTSBURGH will have some stiff opposition from now on. The Pirates are going good, but they will have to go better than that if Groh dons a Giant uniform

Stars in Legion Games Tomorrow

THE greatest track and field stars in this section of the country will compete in the American Legion games on Franklin Field tomorrow. Dr. George Orton has entries of the star college athletes and they will be on hand to try for new records.

Thomson, of Dartmouth, the greatest burdler since the days of Bob apson, will step over the sticks against Smalley, of Penn, and Barron, of Penn State. The Dartmouth athlete ran the 120 high hurdles in 14 2-5 seconds in the Intercollegiates last Saturday, and feels he can better that mark, He also did well in the low hurdles.

Allen Woodring, of Syracuse, winner of the 220 yard dash at Cambridge and Leconey, of Lafayette, one of the greatest sprinters who ever wore the Maroon and White, will hook up in the dashes. These races alone are well worth seeing. In addition, there will be a special 600-yard dash with a

We haven't had a big track meet in Philadelphia since the relays in April. Franklin Field was crowded on that day and the spectators theroughly enjoyed the racca. It will be the same tomorrow.

DR. ORTON staged the relays and also has charge of the Legion games. He will give the audience a good run for its money.

Many Stirring Events Carded for Legion Games Tomorrow Afternoon on Franklin Field

SPRINT SENSATION

With the arrival of more than a hundred athletes from all parts of the country to take part in the second annual American Legion games on Frank lin Field tomorrow afternoon, the stage is set for one of the biggest track meets held in Philadelphia in years outside of the relays and the intercollegiates. Five hundred in all have affixed their signatures to the entry blanks in the many events scheduled to start at 1 clock tomorrow afternoon. The Army Navy and Marine Corps all have squads of athletes entered, while the best in college and club ranks in the East and Middle West will be seen in the bigger

Frank Loomis, the Chicago A. A athlete, arrived this morning and stated that he was out to break a record in the quarter-mile hurdle race. Anthony Desch, of Notre Dame, made the new record in the relays and Loomis, who was not entered at that time, says that he is going to break Desch's mark if given any kind of competition. He will not have to worry for competition. He will not have to worry for competition with Frank Riley, of the Knights of St. Anthony Club, of New York, on scratch with him and the best in the East having yards on him. With Loomis after the record in the hurdles and the 600-yard record in denger of falling with such stars as Eby and Paddy Driscoll in the race, track enthusiasts are due to see some exceptional performances,

Five Yards for Smalley Five Yards for Smalley
George Orton, who is managing the games and making up the handicaps for the various events, stated this morning that Everett Smalley, the Pean star, and Martin, the Red and Blue freshman diminary, would have five and seven pards, respectively, on Thomson, the Dartmouth world's champion hurdler. Dartmouth world's champion nurgier.
Thomson has never defeated Smalley by Cleveland New York more than five yards since the two have en running against each other. Harold Barrou, who will also be on scratch, pushed Thomson to a world's record at the Olympic games last summer.

An army captain will try his luck in the marathon race that is due to start at Villauova and finish after a lap on Franklin Field. He is R. E. H. Roberts, of the Third Army Corps. He has been a star long distance runner for several years and hopes to beat the field of ninety-two and carry the chamto his army post.

Canadians Here The Canadian relay team which is entered in the one-mile relay race against Philadelphia. Beston and New York arrived this morning and stated to a man that they hoped to score a victory over the three American teams. The local team, consisting of Eby, Brown, Maxam and Rodgers, of Penn, is the favorite, but all three of the other teams have quartets of stars capable of turning the mile in close to record time Williams, the Lafayette star sprinter who has come to the fore this year with a rush, will have two yards on Allan Woodring, the Olympic 220-yard champion, and Al Leconey, of Lafayette, the scratch men in the sprints. CALIFORNIA READY FOR TIGER EIGHT

Coach Ben Wallis Says' There Will Be No Alibis if Princeton Wins

HARDEST WORK IS OVER

Princeton, N. J., June 3 .- "My men are in the finest possible condition, and if we lose tomorrow it will simply be because Princeton is the better crew.' declared Ben Wallis, coach of the California eight today. He continued: "We will have no alibis, and, although the water is different here from that on the coast, it will be just the same for Princeton as it is for us."

The visitors spent their time yester-day practicing on racing starts, and Wallis said that the hard work of prep-aration is over. He also divulged the time of their three-mile trial this week as 16:32, which is considered excellent under the water conditions, but said that it was at least a minute slower than their regular time in California due to the fresh water of Lake Car-

Dr. Duncan Spacth sent the Princeton varsity through only the lightest of workouts, fearing that too much effort would tire the men. Exams and scholasts apparently have been tir ing the eight, and there is a pronounced fear on the campus at Old Nassau that it may become stale.

An evidence of the perfect good feel-ing existing between the two crews was seen in Wallis' announcement that to-day he intends to take Dr. Spacth out with him to look the Western giants over from the coaching line launch and get a line on them.

The Princeton R. O. T. C. Field Ar-Cambridge, Mass., June 3 - Harvard's tillery Unit will tonight stage its new Sims shell which recently arrived first annual show at the Princeton race track, seventy students taking part.

Different viewpoints even among individuals, are sufficient to start an argument.

Between nations they lead to even longer discussions. England, for example, is not nearly so strong a believer in the supremacy of youth in sport as America is.
