

WRESTLING ON HORSEBACK. R. L. Baker, the Australian sportsman, in Los Angeles, introducing Australian pastimes. He is throwing James Warwick International.

AT BRYN MAWR. Dr. M. Carey Thomas, president of Bryn Mawr, and Dr. Simon Flexner, yesterday's commencement orator, head the procession. Ledger Photo Service.

BRIDE AND GROOM. Natalie Talmage and Buster Keaton, well-known stars of Filmdom, at Edgewater View, Bayside, L. I., just after their marriage. Keystone View Co.

THE FIRST CALLER. A few minutes after United States Senator Boies Penrose returned to his Spruce street home, yesterday afternoon, his brother, Richard Penrose, called. Ledger Photo Service.

DOING HEAVY WORK. Theda Bara might have lifted Johnny Coulon, had not the boxer placed his thumbs on her neck cords. They both arrived on the steamship Olympic International.

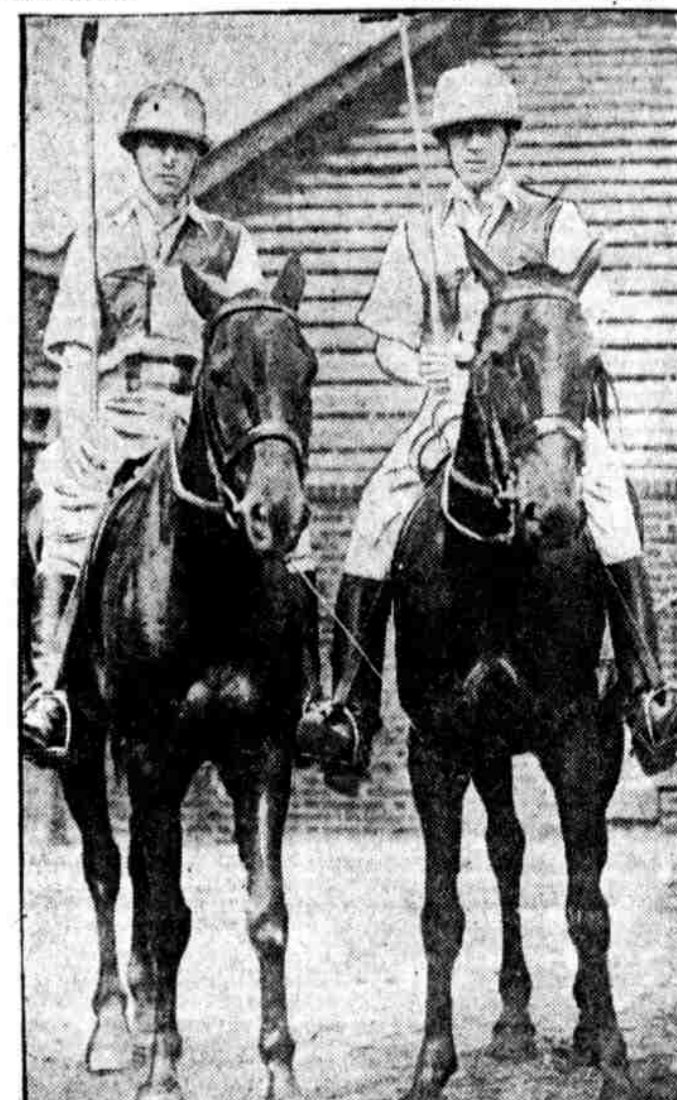

KILLED INTRUDER—GETS BOX OF FLOWERS. The Denver (Col.) Coroner is handing Mrs. James Cass the flowers, after she had been exonerated for shooting a man who insulted her. Underwood & Underwood.

MASS DRILL. Pupils of the Vaughan-Dickinson public schools at their first annual play day, held yesterday at the Kensington Recreation Center. The girls did their drill work to notes sent forth from a talking machine. Ledger Photo Service.

MAJOR C. PARKER. He is the captain of the Sixth Field Artillery polo team, stationed at Camp Dix. Ledger Photo Service.

PENN POLOISTS. They have been playing in the indoor contests. Both Sexton (left) and Byck have made a splendid showing. Ledger Photo Service.

LACROSSE. British girls photographed as they play a fast game at Ealing, near London. They play a snappy game. Central News Photo.

MRS. GEORGE McIVER. Her work in the presentation of "H. M. S. Pinafore" last week was well received. Ledger Photo Service.

HELPED CALIFORNIA. Kirksey, the star sprinter of Leland Stanford University, capturing the 100-yard dash in the Inter-collegiate matches. International.

SOLD CIGARS. Miss Margaret O'Neill, one of the aides at the lawn fête for the St. Vincent's Home, at Lansdowne. Ledger Photo Service.

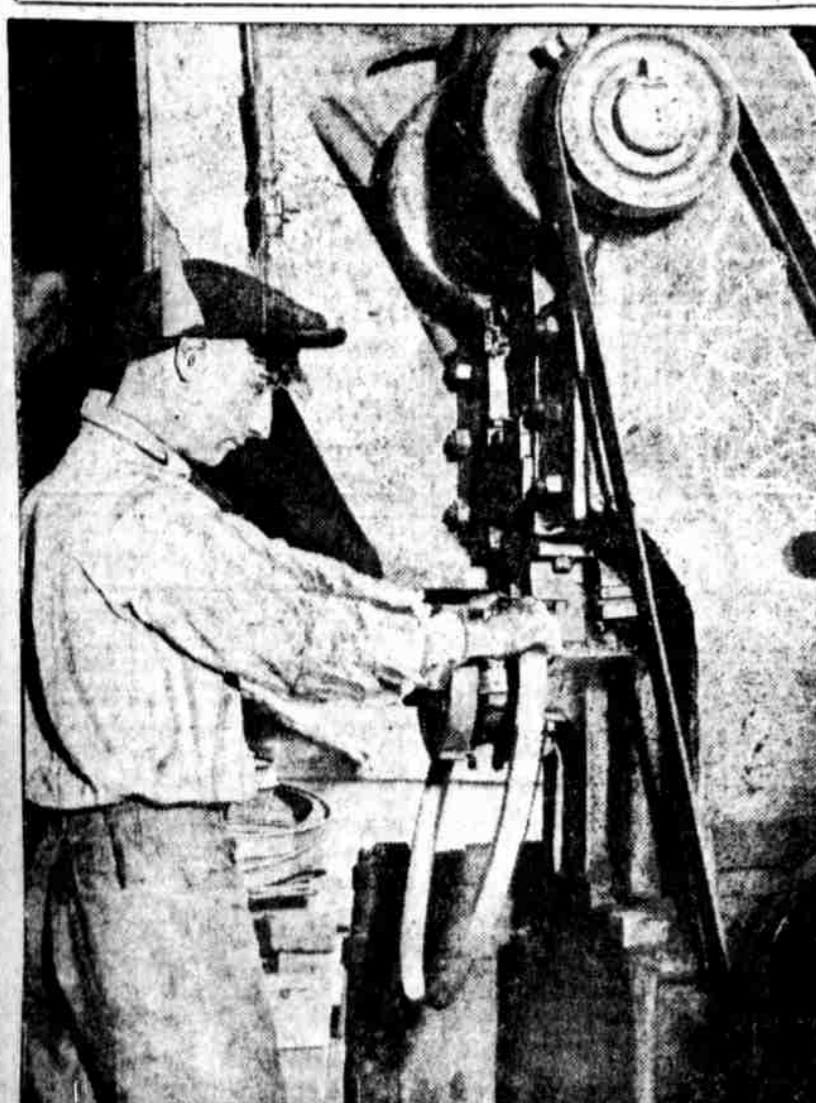

"SHE LOVES ME — SHE LOVES ME NOT." One of the lads of the St. Vincent's Home, Lansdowne, tries his wind on a dandelion head. Ledger Photo Service.

HORACE WELLS SELLERS talks on the restoration of old buildings in an Editorial Page interview. Photo Crafters.

OUR CITY S WORKERS AND WHAT THEY DO

SIX THOUSAND A DAY. H. Frundt, 1831 South Second street, riveting hoops for barrels, at the factory of N. & H. O'Donnell Cooperage Co., Moore, Water and Swanson streets. Two rivets are placed in each hoop by this machine. Ledger Photo Service.

THEOPHILE CAVILL. She is fifteen years old and holds several swimming records in Australia. Ledger Photo Service.

SEMAPHORE SENTINELS

AT NEW TRAFFIC POST. Patrolman Bernard M. Campbell, at Fortieth street and Lancaster avenue. The semaphore has not arrived, so the arms and whistle do the work. He lives at 6104 Reno street. Ledger Photo Service.

GROWING BETTER BABIES. It is for the benefit of these and many other kiddies of Chester, that the Bohm Ballet, will be presented at the armory in Chester twice today. Mrs. Sproul, wife of Governor Sproull, and Mrs. William Ward, Jr., of Chester, are sponsors of the affair.