APPEAL TO FORBES PARTY

P. I., June 8.—After high mountains, riding pine forests and fording the Forbes party reached Bonince, where they found a genal positive desire to have the Ameri-positive desire to have the American resume control of the Government and schools. Filipinos have run both the Government and the schools of the province during the last few years.

The people of this province differ in appearance, dress, customs and language from those on the other side of the mange. They are stronger, more stronger and bolder than the others. The man wear little straw bonnets to set on the back of their heads and they are maked axcept for gee strings.

A delegation of these mountaineers amplained to Mr. Forbes that their table were three poses a year, while the people in the lowlands paid only two. They also said they had to work five. They also said they had to work five the five of the

It is understood that the Democrata party, which has only one member in the insular Legislature, has alleged that the Nationalist organization seized the power of government through unfair action methods.

Complaints received by the commis-cion on many subjects in the various provinces visited, will be referred to the pareaus having jurisdiction over the matters, it was announced yesterday. The mission made public its intention to spend much of its time here in ascertaining whether the administration of justice has been impartial and

Freight Costs:

SARCASTIC contributor once put in the church missionary box an envelope containing a cent and a dollar, with a note saying, "This cent is for the heathen. The dollar is to pay for getting it to them."

Paying our freight bills to-day makes us think of this man, when we add those heavy bills to the cost of the lumber.

Compared with last year, lumber now is very cheap-but freights and wages are not. Is it better to build now, or to wait?

Waiting may seem safer; but if you watch, you will notice that it is always the men who act that come out ahead. The demand for buildings this year will give them a higher value that will more than repay the extra cost. Wise men are putting on steam and going

Some day you'll build. If you want the work finished on time, see that the lumber comes from LLOYD.

"DECEPTION" is the purple patch that Paramount has clipped out of history to show the astounding love-record of Henry VIII, and the roses and thorns that bestrewed the path of the ladies he wed.

See Europe's greatest emotional actress, Henny Porten, in the role of beautiful Anne Boleyn, the girl whose beauty gained her a throne.

See Emil Jannings, the star who glittered so brightly in "Passion." He is Henry VIII.

7000 in the cast

Think of the most costly and kaleidoscopic photoplay ever produced: "Deception" easily outshines it!

Medieval architecture by the mile, drawbridges, portcullises, frowning castles, Westminster Abbey, all the pomp, plunder and ritual of a gaudy age and a ruffled court!

See "Deception" and realize once again how far Paramount Pictures are in advance of the whole screen industry.

> "Deception" was seven months in the making;

-200 carpenters; -400 stucco workers;

-12,000 square yards of canvas; -14,000 sacks of plaster;

-200,000 tons of sand; -220,000 pounds of iron; -three months spent in building -125,000 pieces of walling stones -84,000 roof tiles, and -12,000 square yards of
