

COMING FAST. Jerry Dülmager, one of the Philadelphians who fought in France, getting ready for the American Legion games on Franklin Field today. Ledger Photo Service.

AFTER A NEW RECORD. Frank Loomis, of the Chicago A. A., as he went over the hurdles in practice on Franklin Field. He'll try for a new 440-yard hurdle record. Ledger Photo Service.

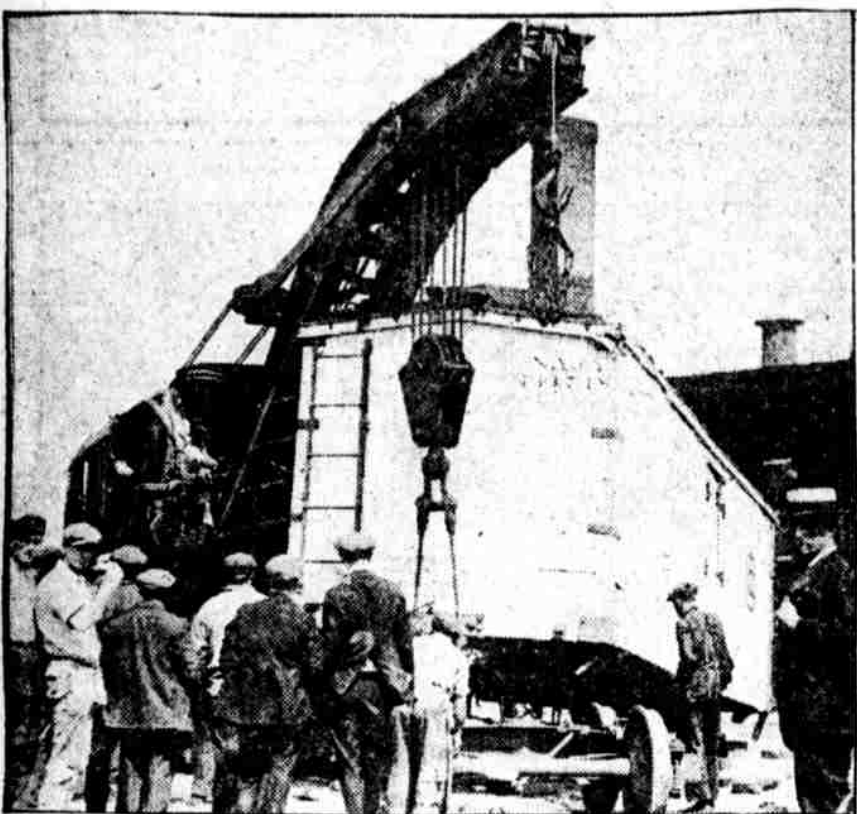

THE CANADIAN COACH. W. R. Knox brought with him from Canada a score of good athletes to join in the American Legion games. Ledger Photo Service.

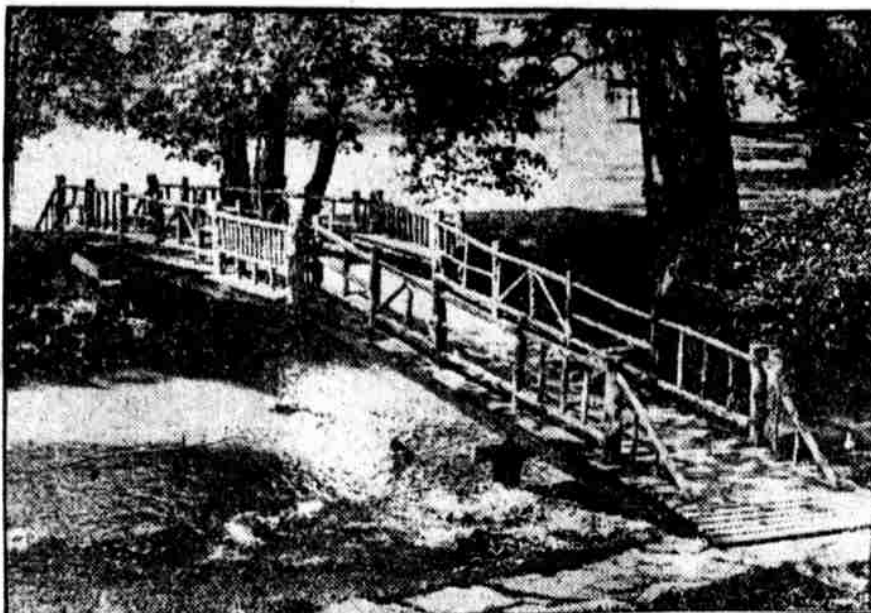

JURY DISAGREES. In the trial of Cecil Burkett, eleven years old, charged with slaying his seven-year-old playmate, Benny Slavin, at Ora, Indiana, the jury deliberated eighteen hours. Cecil is shown with his mother. International.

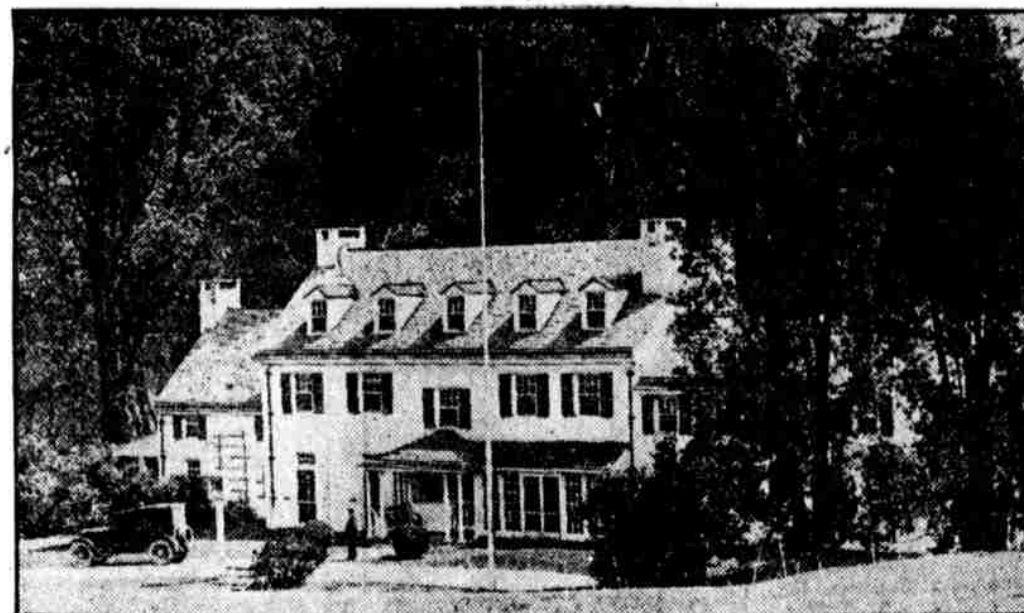

AT LIVERPOOL. Admiral William S. Sims went to England to receive a degree of LL. D. from Oxford University. He is acknowledging cheers from sailors. Wide World Photo.

MANY EGGS UPSET. This refrigerator car, laden with many thousand eggs upset in a collision at Front street and Washington avenue, yesterday. The derrick is now in action. Ledger Photo Service.

PRESIDENT AT KNOX ESTATE FOR THE WEEK-END. The President and Mrs. Harding motored up from Washington today for a brief period of rest and relaxation at the beautiful country home of Senator Knox near Valley Forge. The Knox mansion nestles against a wooded hill. The little footbridge is among the rustic charms of Senator Knox's fine estate. Ledger Photo Service.

MISS BEATRICE BECK, daughter of Solicitor General and Mrs. James M. Beck. Harris & Ewins.

MANAYUNK FETE. The Girls' Friendly of the St. Andrew's Church conducted the event yesterday afternoon. Miss Harriett Marriott, Mrs. W. C. Neilson and Miss Esther White were among the workers. Ledger Photo Service.

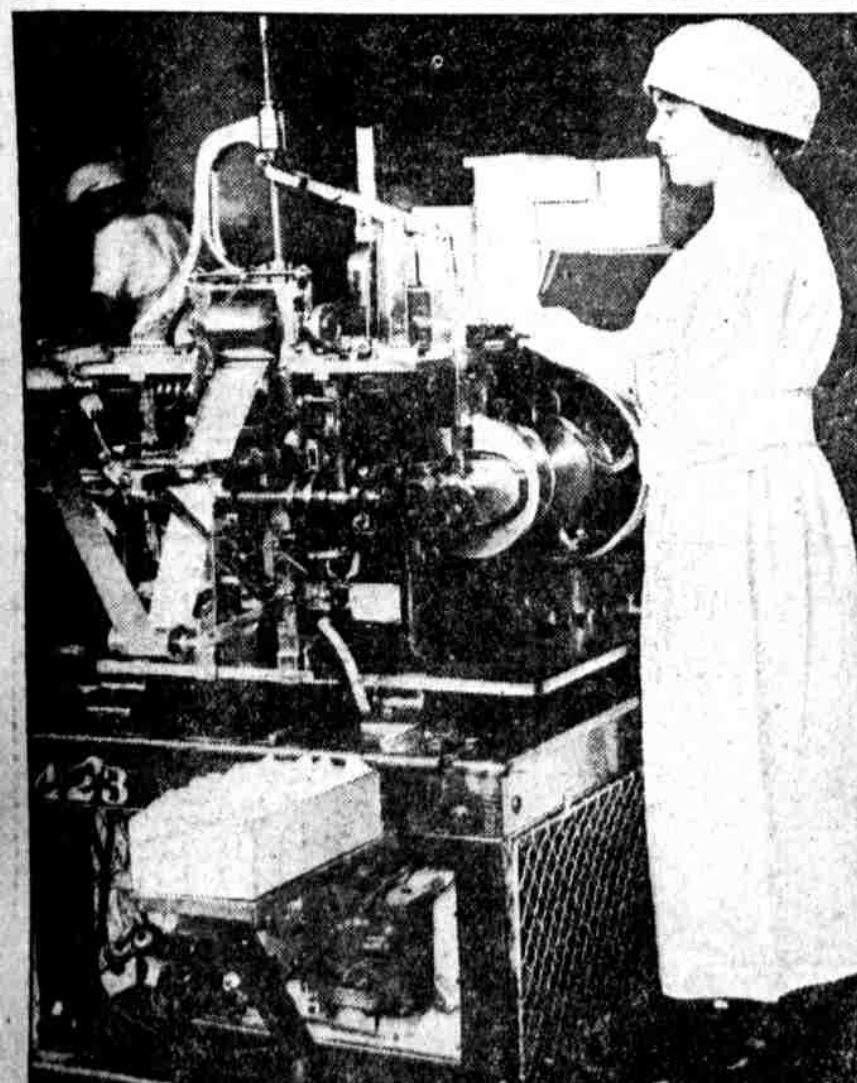

CHAMPIONS. Miss Phyllis H. Walsh (left) and Miss Anne B. Townsend are the new lawn tennis champions of Pennsylvania and Eastern States in doubles. Yesterday they defeated Mrs. Gilbert A. Harvey and Mrs. M. Brooke Huff. Today the Misses Walsh and Townsend will oppose each other for the singles championship. Ledger Photo Service.

A MODERN TOUCH. A khaki-clad member of the British army in a Roman chariot at the Royal Navy and Military tournament, held a few weeks ago, at the Olympia, in London. Central News Photo.

OUR CITY'S WORKERS AND WHAT THEY DO

MISS CLARA KURTZ, operating a sanitary wrapping machine in the chocolate factory of H. O. Wilbur & Sons, Inc., 235 North Third street. The pieces of chocolate are wrapped with tinfoil and other types of coverings. Ledger Photo Service.

MISS ELSIE PARSONS, of New York, arrives from Europe on the S. S. Adriatic, to complete plans for her wedding. Central News Photo.

SEMAPHORE SENTINELS

RESERVE PATROLMAN WALTER HARRISON, who has been stationed at Fifteenth and Chestnut streets for several years. He lives at 4408 Mitchell street. Harrison is well known as a long-distance walker. Ledger Photo Service.

A LAND DIVE. At Kingston-on-the-Thames, England, one of the athletes is going over four members of his team during Bank Holiday stunts. Central News Photo.

CAPTAIN DAVID F. SELLERS, U. S. N., has been made personal aide to Secretary of the Navy Denby. Central News Photo.

MAKING A HIT IN PARIS. Germanine Mitty, the French dancer, whose dancing and unique costumes have brought her fame. Wide World Photo.