AUTO THIEF GANG ASYLUM NO BENEFIT BROKEN UP, BELIEF TO SLIGHTLY INSANE

Three Boys Held for Grand Judge McCullen So Declares in Jury-Another Is Sent to House of Detention

CAUGHT AFTER CHASE SHE WILL BE FREED

Police believe the breaking up of a sing of youthful automobile thieves ame this morning when two boys were construction of the factory of Joseph R. Foster & Sons, at Second and Clearfield streets.

The William Arndt, a member of the farm, saw three boys, acting suspiciously, get into it and drive off. He jumped into his own car and followed them.

The boys speeded north on Second to Allegheny, Allegheny to Kip and then through the small streets of the neigh-borhood, all the time followed by Arndt.

until they crashed into an awning pole in front of the store of Charles Appletree, at A and Willard streets. Arndt jumped from his machine and caught two of the boys. The other youngster short time later by a crowd who gave chase.

The boys were arraigned this morning before Magistrate Deltz at the Front and Westmoreland streets station. Howard Harrigan, seventeen, Lehigh arenue near Third street, and Delta it can be swife and Cullen then said, "Unless it can be swife at the said." avenue near Third street, and Robert B. Hallman, nineteen, Lehigh avenue near Third, were held in $3000 each. William Harrigan, fourteen, brother of the other Harrigan, lourreen, brother of the other Harrigan, was sent to the House of Detention. Police claim they have a warrant for Hallman on a similar charge. They say the boys have been mixed up in auto thefts for the last week, their practice being to steal a car. dismantle it, and sell the parts.

Police also claim John Allen, seven-teen, Wendle street near Clearfield, who was arraigned at the same time as the others, although he was arrested before they were, was a member of the same resterday. Allen was held in $500 bail for further hearing.
