Doctor Discovers New Treatment for Skin Troubles

While trying for a quick antidote for sunburn. Dr. George A. Bunting, one of Baltimore's best-known druggists, found that ell of cloves whencombined with a grease'ess Skin Gream, scothes the nerves of discased or injured skin as easily as it alleviates the pangs of toothache. It knacked Eczema so quickly he gave it the name Nozzema Grease-less Skin Cream.

Ask your druggist for a jar, of the Noxsema Chemical Co. of Bal-timore. Md. will mail you a sou-venir lar upon receipt of this clip-ping and 10c to cover postage and packing.—Adv.
