maha Man, Former U. S. Official, Mystified as to How He Reached City

IT FUNERAL IN CLAYMONT

An aged man found early today near ifteenth street and Allegheny avenue, old police he thought he was in Omaha, Teb., his home city, instead of in Philadelphia.

He later was identified as Joseph Carr Thomas. seventy-six years old, formerly a United States Customs appraiser at Omaha. He came East, he said, to attend a funeral at Claymont,

Mr. Thomas said he was a guest of Mrs. J. E. Addicks, widow of a once widely-known politician who lives in Claymont. He could not recall how he reched this city. Detective Joseph shay, of the Missing Persons Bureau, aranged to send him back to Claymont. Thomas, who was well-dressed and of venerable appearance, was seen in a porch chair at 1512 Allegheny avenue in eighbors shortly after midnight.

As the man was a stranger to them their suspicions were aroused, and they notified police of the Twenty-second street and Hunting Park avenue station.

A patrolman approached the aged man and asked him what his business was and where he lived. live around the corner on Binney Thomas told the bluecoat. The latter knew of no Binney street in the Thomas insisted that his home is a Thomas insisted that his home is at 2010 Binney street and that he was in Omaha, Neb., at that minute. He appeared astounded when told he was in Philadelphia.

The aged man was taken to the station house. He had about $500 in bank anotes in his pockets.

Against Bluecoat Who Hit Him Street Sergeant John J. Little, of the Eighth and Jecerson streets station, refused to press charges against Patrolman Robert H. Frantz, of the same station today and Frantz was accordingly discharged by Magistrate Renshaw in Central Court, in connection with the charge of assault and battery and disorderly conduct. Sergeant Little testified he had been Frantz's home last evening the patrolmon to appear at to notify the City Hall for examination in connec tion with the liquor scandal which last week led to the suspension of Acting Lieutenant Burke and four patrolmen of the Eighth and Jecerson treets station.

Frantz was detailed on garage duty at the station house on the night of the attempted theft of a truckload of liquor, which caused the suspensions and resulted in the detailing of Acting Captain Van Horn to the Third rolles division.

According to Little, Frantz drove to in a taxicab, entered and attacked the sergeant who then arrested him. Frantz has been suspended.

3 BOY BURGLARS SNARED

Are Locked in Room by South

Youthful burglars caused a mild flurry in South Philadelphia this morning, when Mrs. Catherine Hulty, 1508 South Bancroft street, discovered three youngsters, all under ten years, ransacking the bureau drawers in her bed-

Mrs. Hulty locked the door of the bedroom and summoned police. Detective Baldino responded and took the children into custody.

The boys were sent to the House of Detection. They are Thornton Rustes, nine, Peachwood near Fifteenth, and Edward and Stanley Smith, nine and seven, respectively, of Bancroft and

MISSING PUPIL RETURNS

Left Devereaux Manor School When He Was Held for Observation Miss Helena Devereaux, principal of the Devereaux Manor School, Berwyn, announced yesterday that Samuel Berk-er, who recently disappeared from the lastitution, had returned to his father's home in Philadelphia.

Mise Devereaux contradicted the police story that the twelve-year-old boy had slid from a third-story window by means of a rope of bedclothes. He left by the front door, she said. The following day he was to have been tunsferred to another institution, after having been taken to the Manor school ing been taken to the Manor school observation, Miss Devereaux said.

BAND CONCERT TONIGHT The Municipal Band will play to-night at Germantown and Chelten ave-

War Risk Seeks Woman's Address M. H. Cole, field examiner for the United States War Risk Insurance, is axious to find the present address of Elizabeth Smith, wife of Robert C. Smith. The information should be sent to 140 North Broad street.

MacDonald & Campbell

Knickerbocker

Sport Suits

$30 to $65

are the reputed headquarters for ready-to-wear outing clothing and these distinctively tailored, good-looking suits are ideal for their several purposes. We are having great success with New Model Sport Coat, made without pleats, and our Knickerbockers are the most becoming.

Men's Hats, Clothing, Haberdashery,

Motor Wear

1334-1336 Chestnut Street

Unusual values at exceptional prices.

The smartest Tweeds, Homespuns, Cheviots and Imported fabrics of exclusive patterns. Specially selected for their appropriateness. We suit worn by Mrs. J. Brooke Nichols, were features of the fashion show in connection with the June fete held to-day at the Huntingdon Valley Country Club, on Old York road near Noble Station, with many society folk in at-tendance

The fete, proceeds from which will go to Abington Memorial Hospital, be-gan at 2 o'clock, and will continue until 11 o'clock tonight. Mrs. George Horace Lorimer is chairman of a group f socially prominent matrons who are in charge.

Booths along the midway were varied, including everything from fruit and vegetables, in charge of Mrs. Marmaduke Tilden, Jr., to one for bath requisites, in charge of Mrs. William P. Denegre. Mrs. Alan Reed was in charge of the playground, where children rode ponies, slid and went on merry-go-rounds. A booth where all the fluffy things for baby's wardrobe was in charge of Mrs. Cyrus H. K. Curtis and Mrs. John C. Martin.

PETER HALLAHAN BURIED

Cardinal Dougherty Celebrates Mass for Deceased Shoe Manufacturer The funeral of Peter T. Hallahan, president of Hallahan & Sons, shoe manufacturers, was held this morning from the Oliver Bair Building, 1820 hestnut street.

Cardinal Dougherty officiated at the solemn requiem mass which was cele-brated at St. John's Roman Catholic brated at St. John's Roman Catholic Church, Thirteenth street above Chestnut, at 10 o'clock. The Cardinal also performed the absolution of the body after the mass. The celebrant of the mass was Monsignor Nevin Fisher. The sermon was preached by Monsignor James P. Turner, A. P. N. A. The Right Rev. Phillip McDevitt, Bishop of Harrisburg, gave the final blessing of the body at the Hallahan family mausoleum in Holy Cross Cemetery.

The veteran shoe manufacturer died omaha, Neb., at that minute has a manufacturer died in Atlantic City Saturday, never regaining consciousness after suffering a stroke of paralysis in St. Nicholas Church May 26.

Mr. Hallahan was for many years identified with the shoe manufacturing industry of Philadelphia. He was one of the founders of the joint board of arbitration which settled all labor disputes between shoe manufacturers and shoe between shoe manufacturers and shoe paralysis of Painting Court War he was paralysis of Painting Court War he was paralysis of Philadelphia. He was one of the founders of the joint board of arbitration which settled all labor disputes between shoe manufacturers and shoe between shoe manufacturer died in Atlantic City Saturday, never regaining consciousness after suffering a stroke of paralysis in St. Nicholas Church May 26.

Mr. Hallahan was for many years indentified with the shoe manufacturing industry of Philadelphia. He was one of the founders of the joint board of arbitration which settled all labor disputes between shoe manufacturer died in Atlantic City Saturday, never regaining consciousness after suffering a stroke of paralysis in St. Nicholas Church May 26.

Mr. Hallahan was for many years in the civil war he was one of the founders of the joint board of arbitration which settled all labor disputes between shoe manufacturer died in Atlantic City Saturday, never regaining consciousness after suffering a stroke of paralysis in St. Nicholas Church May 26.

Mr. Hallahan was for many years in St. Nicholas Church May 26.

Mr. Hallahan was for many years in St. Nicholas Church May 26.

Mr. Hallahan was for many years in St. Nicholas Church May 26.

Mr. Hallahan was for many years in St. Nicholas Church May 26.

Mr. Hallahan was for many years in St. Nicholas Church May 26.

Mr. Hallahan was for many years in St. Nicholas Church May 2 between shoe manufacturers and shoe workers. He had been virtually retired workers. He had been virtually retired from active business for many years. During the last years of his life he devoted his time to looking after his large realty interests and other investments. He was noted for his many generous contributions to charity. In 1910 he erected a chapel at Tryon, N. C., in niemory of his son, John W. Hallahan, 3d, who was killed in an accident at Cape May.

Mr. Hallahan, was a member of the

Mr. Hallahan was a member of the Phildelphia Country Club, Catholie Club, Seaview Golf Club and Northfield Country Club. He is survived by three Sons, Walter J. Hallahan, Charles E. Hallahan and Edmund P. Hallahan, one brother, D. F. Hallahan, and a sister, Mrs. E. H. NcMichan.

WANT AVENUE WIDENED

Tacony Manufacturers' Delegation Calls on Mayor

The widening and improving of Delaware avenue from Fairmount avenue to Levick street was advocated by a delegation representing the Tacony Manu-facturers' Association, which called on Mayor Moore today.

Council has appropriated $750,000 for widening Delaware avenue from Fairmount avenue to Laurel street. The delegates today urged that the ex-tension of that thousughfare through the street and the Roosevelt boulevard.

The manufacturers also urged the extension of the railroad belt line to Tacony. Alba B. Johnson, chairman of the Chamber of Commerce Belt Line Committee, outlined the history of the belt line in this city. Kern Dodge was spokesman for the delegation.

RECALL TRIP HERE Abington Institution Aided by Affair at Huntingdon Valley ("The modest gown," worn by Bear trice Sewell and Aided by Bear DIFS AT ACF OF St.

wife died about seven years ago.

Mr. Crozer for years used his Upland residence as a summer home, passing his winters in his town house, 2037 De Lancey place, this city. Of late years he had also lived at the Aldine Hotel. He was a member of the Art Club and of the Union League. Manufacturer and Philanthropist Was One of Most Promineńt Baptists in U. S.

DEATH COMES IN HIS SLEEP

George K. Crozer, manufacturer and philanthropist, and one of the most prominent members of the Baptist Church, died in his sleep at his home in Upland early this morning. He was in his eighty-second year.

George K. Crozer, Jr., his son, said Ir. Crozer's death was hastened to the death of Miss Ada Crozer, one his three daughters, who died Februry last. He never recovered from the shock, his son said.

the shock, his son said.

Mr. Crozer was to have awarded diplomas today to the graduating class of the Crozer Theological Seminary. He was president of the Board of Trustees of that institution, which was founded by his father, John Price Crozer.

Mr. Crozer presided at the annual meeting of the Seminary Board of Trustees yesterday.

tees yesterday. Mr. Crozer a Mr. Crozer also was president of the Board of Trustees of the J. Lewis Crozer Hospital and Home for Incurables and of the Robert H. Crozer Hospital at Chester. Those institutions are memorials to two of his brothers. A third brother was Samuel A. Crozer.

A third brother was Samuel A. Crozer.

Mr. Crozer retired from the cotton manufacturing business in 1896, but retained the presidency of the Keystone Drop Forge Co., of Chester. He also was a director of the Delaware County

PAINTINGS CLEANED AND RESTORED

THE ROSENBACH GALLERIES

THE extra care that we give all orders pays us well in the host of pleased customers who are satisfied with nothing less than The Holmes Press

quality

THE HOLMES PRESS, Printers 1315-29 Cherry Street

The steno wouldn't lick a stamp.

"What? Run the risk of germs?" she'd argue. "I guess not."

She was the same about pencils. "It's a dangerous habit to put a pencil in your mouth. You can't tell what germs -," and she related a sad but true tragedy.

But did she question the common office drinking glass - "lipped" daily by perhaps a dozen different mouths? She did not. But doctors know that colds and other sicknesses are often traced to the common drinking glass.

To keep everyone healthy and on the job every day, modern offices are fast abolishing the common glass. Instead,-Lily Cups; your private paper cup-used once and thrown away; shaped round like a tumbler; with a curved lip that fits your own.

Purity Specialties Co. Charles L. Huff, Owner & Mgr. Denckla Bldg. Philadelphia, Pa.

ommissioned a captain of infantry and erved with a regiment of Pennsylvania olunteers. In 1866 he married Emma Pauline Snodgrass, daughter of a cotton merchant of this city. Mrs. Crozer died in 1895. Seven years later Mr. Crozer married the widow of Dr. Frank Muhlenberg, of Lancaster, His second wife died about seven years ago.

5TH AND BERKLEY STS. ALSO

Besides his son, who lives in Wynne-wood, Mr. Crozer leaves two daughters. Mrs. Robert H. Page, of Bryn Mawr, and Mrs. Gamble Latrobe, of Wilming-ton, Del. Washington square at this end and Fifth and Berkley streets in Camden were indorsed last night as the ideal terminals for the proposed Delaware River Bridge by more than 1000 residents. Blaze Outside Park Provides Unex pected Thrills-Lumber Destroyed

FIRE AT WILLOW GROVE

oncert in Willow Grove Park last night when a spectacular fire nearby billowing from

dents of Camden. The plan, suggested by W. Leonard Hundreds of persons deserted the band Hurley, merchant, banker and ex-Commerce, includes provision for a boulevard from the Camden terminal of the bridge to Haddon avenue.

destroyed a large quantity of lumber in the utility yard of the Philadelphia Rapid Transit Co. and damaged a storage building and a paint shop. Last night's meeting was in the Cam-don Y. M. C. A., at Broadway and Federal streets, under the auspices of The fire was about 300 yards from the park. Crowds hurried over the grass to watch volunteer firemen battle with the flames. The final number of the band concert was played to an almost empty auditorium. the Camden Chamber of Commerce.

Mr. Hurley, who was present, and prepared folders which were distributed. showing the advantages of his proposals.

The feature of the Hurley plan and the objections to placing the bridge north of Federal street in Camden, which would necessarily result were the Philadelphia terminal to be at After a hard fight the volunteer fire-men saved the paint shop. The storage building was heavily damaged. The loss was estimated at several thousand dol-Spring Garden street, were pointed out by James V. Moran, of the Camden Chamber of Commerce, "Virtually every member of the Camden County Federation of Civic Park visitors taking a final ride for the night on the 'Chase Through the Clouds' had another thrill added to the zippy ride as they saw the flames from the burning lumber and Associations and all farmers and busings.

Associations and all farmers and business men in South Jersey wish to have

BALLEYBANKS&BIDDLE

DIAMOND ENGAGEMENT RINGS

Navette - Emerald Cut - Square

Pear Shape -

More than 97%

of Americans die

It is amazing so many men should fail to provide for the proper distribution of money they have given their lives to without making a Will.

acquire.

Quality and value that assure enduring satisfaction

"The people here believe, whether correctly or not I shall not say, that the Pennsylvania Railroad, after opposing the bridge project several years, now recognizes that the bridge is bound to be built and that it is back of the project to have the Camden end of the span in North Camden.

More Than 1000 Camden Residents Favor Site for Terminal of Delaware Span

"A site in North Camden would benefit few. Ninety-five per cent of the business and commercial interests of Camden, and probably the same percentage in Philadelphia, are opposed to having the bridge terminal north of the car they were driving was in which they were held was larceny of an automobile.

Four of the men were arrested near trenton, Saturday morning, after a running fight with Trenton policemen, in which they were held was larceny of an automobile.

Market street. "Fifth and Berkley streets, Camden, is the natural site. It would line up with Washington Square. Property could be condemned at Fifth and Berkley streets with a minimum of outlay.
All riverfront property between Berkley street and Federal street is owned by the Pennsylvania Railroad and Ferry Co., and an attempt to take it over would probably result in litigation and greatly added cost in the bridge project."

Wants Pay for Use of Streets The Mayor today approved an ordinance permitting Henry Disston & Sons to lay conduits under Disston and Milnor streets, but said he had instructed Director Caven not to issue a few months of the firm permit for the work until the firm has entered an agreement to pay the city for the use of the streets.

First Penny Savings Bank

Idle money is as useless as an idle man. Put it to work and make it bring results.

21st & Bainbridge Sts. Central Branch 1343 Chestnut Street (Broad & Chestnut) JOHN WANAMAKER,

41/4% Interest and Absolute Safety

"LIGHTHOUSE" quality

mirrors are characterized by a lustrous satin polish. Solid silver backs that gather and return the light to the eye make a deep,

clear and true reflection, deline-

Deposits Over $8,555,000.00

Theft of Aute

Theft of Aute

Five men, suspected of banditry, were held under $1500 bail each for court by Magistrate Renshaw in Central Station today. The charge upon der $1500 bail.

Ret street west of Twentieth. A statement they are said to have given Detective Mabaffey, admitting the theft of the car they were in, implicated Patrick McCarty, Nineteenth street near Lehigh avenue, who was also held under $1500 bail. tral Station today. The charge upon which they were held was larceny of Trenton, Saturday morning, after a running fight with Trenton policemen, in which the car they were driving was riddled with bullets. They are John Murphy, Twenty-fifth street near Somerset; Charles O'Connell, Clear-

Business Manager

Wanted for the Campaign

"Save the Surface and You Save All"

THIS campaign conducted by some three hundred members of the Paint and Varnish industry, wants to get in touch with a man well equipped to act as its business manager. The headquarters are in Philadelphia.

This man's responsibilities

(a) to direct activities at headquarters,

(b) to merchandise the cam-paign and its benefits throughout all branches of the industry—manu-facturers, dealers, mas-ter painters,

 (c) to organize trade meetings in connection with
 (b) and to address them effectively, (d) finance.

Aside from the usual essential qualities of character and record, this man should possess a practical, successful experience in sales and merchandising, that ties up with and capitalizes advertising; executive ability; effective salesmanship; tact.

If you fit this job, address a letter at once, containing full particulars about your-self, experience and refer-

G. B. Heckel, Secretary, Paint Manufacturers Asso., 632 The Bourse, Philadelphia Pa.

PLATE

SKYLIGHT

CORRUGATED

WIRE

DECORATIVE

LEADED

Newest Inlay Strap Pumps

Black or Tan Calf Strap and Inlay-

Baby French Heels

A MOST unusual, striking effect that an instant appeal to young women of fashion, and, at DelMar—you are assured of a worth-while

Silk Hosiery to Match $1.95

Del Mar & Company

1211 Chestnut Street

UPSTAIRS STORE FOR WOMEN

Next door to Oppenheim, Collins & Co.

MOST unusual, striking effect that will make

In White

Reignskin

Also Tan Calf

Black Satin

Brown Satin

the Camden end of the bridge below HOLD FIVE BANDIT SUSPECTS Birnbaum, Taylor street near Twenty-third; Birnbaum, Taylor street near set, and Stephen McKiernan, set, and Stephen McKiernan, set street west of Twentieth.

"Gilt Edge" Investments

An investment in Perry's Clothes is always safe, but just now it is a particularly profitable one for you!

We honestly believe tnat never before have we been able to give such splendid comparative values as at present.

These are investments in which we will guarantee you can make a profit of several dollars on each pur-

Perry's

Come and visit our Big June Sale. Started with about 2000 Suits. Grouped at Three Prices. $28-$33 -$38. Neat Worsteds in blue and black. With white pencil stripes. Silk mixtures. Light colors. Quiet herringbones. Blue Serges. Novelty mixtures. Short story. Long on values. At $28, $33, $38. Perry's Tropical feather - weight worsted Suits. Fabric less than nine ounces to the yard. Just feather light. Handsome quiet colors. That look as cool. As they are. Grays with colored stripes. Coffee and cream. Dark Oxford with subdued pencil stripes. Coat and trousers. Or Coat, vest, and Trousers. Price, $35.

Perry's

Mohair Suits. Look so cool. Every one who sees you in one. Will envy the coolness of your looks. Patterns that you never saw before in Mohairs. Pencil stripes. Novelty mixtures. Silk trimmed. Splendidly tailored. The handsomest made, $22.50 and $25. Plenty at $20. Good Mohairs as low as $14.50.

Why worry because you can't go to Maine? You can get complete comfort in a Palm Beach Suit. Colors and patterns as quiet as if you wore a worsted. Sand tones. Browns. Oxfords. Tans. Inside seams. Silk piped. Some as low as $14.50, $16.50. Beautiful novelty patterns, $18, $20.

Our Combination Sports Suits. Are the Hit of the season. For Golf. For Country Club. For business. Knickers or Long Trousers, or both. $38 up. Extra Knickers. Or long trousers. $7 up. Perry's

Summer wouldn't be Summer. Without a pair of White Flannel Trousers. Plenty here. At $9, $10, $12. Striped Flannel Trousers. NOT serge. But FLANNEL. $8.50. Perry's 16th & Chestnut Sts.

- I Because of our long experience in the clothing business and our intimate contact with men who are really well dressed, we are especially well qualified to produce clothing
- Therefore, we are first in the field with all the new and worth-while styles in clothing-not freaks or absurdities, but new, smart and fetching ideas in shaping, style and fabric that instinctively appeal to men who appre-
- You may have this type of clothing at moderate prices— Spring and Summer Suits are marked at $30 and upward, with wonderfully attractive values at $45 and

1424-1426 Chestmut Street

The NEW Things are first shown at Reed's

that is truly stylish and in good form.

ciate well-appearing garments.

IACOB REED'S SONS