Retire After Palestine Fund Policy Is Repudiated by Vote of 153 to 71

EXECUTIVE BOARD QUITS

By the Associated Press

Cleveland, June 7 .- Repudiation of the administration of the officers of the American Zionist organization by the twenty-fourth annual convention early today resulted in the resignation of Judge Julian W. Mack, of Chicago, and six other officers of the organization and thirty-five of the fifty members of the National Executive Committee, in cluding Jerome J. Rothschild, of Philadelphia

Peter J. Schweitzer, treasurer of the organization, was the only incumbent to retain his position.

The resignations came at the end of long night session, which ran over into the early morning hours, and were an-nounced from the floor by Judge Mack after the convention had voted, 153 to 11, to disapprove the president's annual

Justice Louis D. Brandeis, of Washington. honorary president: Rabbi Stephen S. Wise, of New York, hon-orary vice president: Henry Frieden-wald, of Baltimore, and Nathan Straus, New York, vice presidents; Jacob De Haas, secretary of the Palestine de-partment. Reuben Horchow is secretary, and all except Justice Brandels are members of the Executive Com-

Committee Members Resigning Other Executive Committee members who resigned are: Maurice L. Avner, Pittsburgh; Is-tel B. Brodie, Baltimore; Benjamin, Cohen, New York; Max U. Finkelstine, Scranton; Bernard Flexner, New York; Felix Frankfurter, Cambridge; George Gordon, Minneapolis, Minn.; Max L. Grant, Providence, R. I.; Max Heller, New Orleans; J. O. Jurman, Waterbury, Conn.; Horace M. Kallen, New York; Nathan D. Kaplan, Chicago; Irving Lipsitch, San Francisco; Emanuel N. Mohl, Jerusalem, Palestine; Louis S. Posner, New York; Sam-uel Rittenberg, Charleston, S. C.; Soi Rosenbloom, Pittsburgh; I. Rude, Denver; William Sauber, Green Bay, Wis. : Abba H. Silver, Cleveland : David York; Harry H. Leverson, Boston, and Jones Rosenfield, Dalias, Texas.

No Loud Demonstration In contrast to the many demonstrations which have taken place repeatedly since the opening of the convention Sunday afternoon during many heated arguments, there was extreme quiet when the vote was announced.

was in accord with a request by Judge Henry J. Dannenbaum, of Hous-ton, Tex., chairman of the convention, that there be no demonstration in view of the subject of the vote.

Delegates to the convention showed signs of fatigue when they reassembled last night for the session which ended resignations. They had listened debates on the report during all of sessions since Sunday night, some Treasurer Schweitzer and Louis Lipand Rabbi Silver and Felix Frankfurter delivered eloquent addresses defending the administration.

Text of Resolution The delegates then adopted the following resolution : "Having received and discussed the report of the president of the Zionist organization of America, relating to the differences that have arisen between the present administration of the Zionist organization of America and the world Zionist organization, particularly in reference to the Keren Hayesod, and hav-ing given careful consideration to the arguments and explanations advanced for and against the position taken in that report, we, the representatives of the Zionist organization of America in opposed by every one interested in foreign trade. All in all the prospects of reaching an agreement in the party fullest extent the services rendered to are not at present good. A certain de-Administration, we regard it, however, the country will be demanding our duty to state that the course especially on taxation reform. of action pursued by the present Administration constituted a violation of the discipline of the organization. fraught with danger to its integrity, and contrary to the highest interest of the Zionist movement at this time, and we. therefore, regretfully express our dis-approval thereof."

Mack, in which he declared he was in complete agreement with the principles and policies adopted by the National Executive Committee.

"Strict adherence to those principles is demanded by the high Zionist idea's read the letter. 'Steadfast pursuit of those policies is essential to early and Jewish homeland.

and policies cannot properly take part on hour of injuries received, but Doninany administration of Zionist affairs aldson recovered after spending several which repudiates them.

can drive me or the others from memrship of the organization. "I accept, of course, what I fore-saw long ago. No action you will or can take will lessen by slightest degree the intensity of our Zionism and devotion to Palestine and zealous work at conventions. "I tender to my successor my deepest, most heart-felt ro-operation in schievement of our end, and offer any abilities that I may have evolved as a result of the experience which I have gained through by three years as presi-

The convention then adjourned until 11 o'clock this morning.

The rock upon which the Zionist organization of America split is the Keren Hayesod, or Palestine Foundation Fund, which was organized and martered in London to raise $100,000.

The late administration of the America

The late administration of the American Zionist organization, headed by Judge Mack, contended that five directors of the Keren Hayesod had been clothed with Harris & Ewing. SCOTT E. BONE Nominated by President Harding as Governor of Alaska, Mr. Bone is a resident of Seattle, Wash., but for several years has been associated with newspaper work in Washington, D. C.

ident of the World Zionist organization who is attending the convention as a guest, contended that the Keren Hayereport of his stewardship. Besides sod must have the unqualified support of Judge Mack. American Zionist organi- Zionists of all countries, and that if zation officials who relinquished their there are any faults in the charter they lonal Zionist Congress, Atlantic City, June 7 .- A strong note of Americanization aimed at Bolshevists and others not in sympathy with the United States Government and its institutions was injected into the na-tional convention of Brith Sholom here resterday afternoon by Joseph L. Kun Deputy Attorney General of Pennsylvania. Martin O. Levy, of Philadelphia, the grand secretary, precipitated a brisk discussion by proposing that admission to the order be along the insurance

Harding Program Confronts Peril

would work in the present confused conomic situation of the world in which abor paid abroad in paper receives no one knows what. Mr. Longworth's proposal is a compromise between the low tariff and foreign trade program and the high tariff and home market idea. Ultimately it is likely to pre-vail, for President Harding is keenly high tariff and home market W. Simons, Detroit; Robert Szold, New York; S. J. Waldstein, Boston; Leo Wolman, New York; Irma Lindheim, New York; Samuel J. Rosensohn, New ducers, but just when it will presail ducers, but just when it will prevail

If the Fordney bill is not reported till July, it will not reach the Senate till nearly August. There will be an extensive reconsideration of the bill in the Senate Finance Committee, which will hold public hearing on it. Then on the floor of the Senate the tariff will move slowly. Two or three months' debate is certain to follow, which may be prolonged by some filibustering which might carry the bill over into the next

Will Push Tax Bill Forward

In the meantime the Senators who feel that the taxation measures should be acted upon before the tariff are sure to become active. In the Senate as well as in the House the demand for early tax reform is strong. If the various families in need of help, so that every one in actual want will be succored and much time, a move which may be suc cessful is likely to be made to displace the tariff bill on the schedule and put the other revenue measures ahead of it. Moreover there are various time-con suming disputes on the tariff besides the fundamental conflict between the have their high protection under the emergency tariff. They are not greatly concerned about dumping of other than farm articles. The more dumping there s the better the market abroad for American wheat and cotton.

"That while we appreciate to the of reaching an agreement in the part of the fullest extent the services rendered to our cause by the present officers of the lay will be tolerable, but before long breaking and approaching flood waters the country will be demanding action.

Numerous false reports of dams breaking and approaching flood waters the country will be demanding action.

DEATH-CAR CASE UP AGAIN

Erle County Sheriff Offers $10,000 Reward for Conviction of Driver

Erie, Pa., June 7. — The famous formation bureau of the death-car case, in which City Solicitor Rangers. The list follows: The resignation of Justice Brandels death-car case, in which City Solicitor was presented in a letter, read by Judge Cornell figured prominently last No-We who believe in those principles and State street. Schultz died within

Justice Brandeis authorized Judge Mack to present his resignation in the event that Mack resigns.

Won't Leave the Organization

"Judge Mack then assured the delegates that he and the others who resigned with him would remain in the ranks of Zionism.

"I desire to state to the world-"I desire to state to the world-Jewry," said Judge Mack, "that no action has been taken, no action can be taken and no action will be taken which

CANCER BLAMED ON SALT

Eradication of Disease Within Ten

Years Predicted in Chicago Chicago, June 7.—Cancer should be eradicated within ten years, according to Dr. Edward P. Robinson, of New York, who addressed the Illinois State to Dr. Edward P. Robinson, of New York, who addressed the Illinois State and Tri-State Medical and Surgical So-cieties of Michigan Wisconstn and Il-linois in joint convention here.

ing and curing cases of cancer simply by reducing the amount of salt eaten and administering potassium nitrate to relieve the cells from the irritant action of sodium chloride and to assist in "mineralizing the tissues."

Girls to Hike to Valley Green

rectors of the Keren Hayesod had been clothed with authority to use autocratic powers which would enable them to use the fund for purposes aside from the actual restoration of Palestine, and that contributors to the fund have no woice in the administration of the fund. The pro-Weizmann forces, headed Dr. Chaim Weizmann, of London, pressure of Girls' Clubs, White-Williams Foundation and the Y. W. C. A.

LASKER MAY HEAD SHIPPING BOARD

President Harding Expected to Name Chicagoan for Post Today

REFUSED JOB ONCE BEFORE

Washington, June 7 .- It is reported that President Harding will name Albert D. Lasker, president of Lord & Thomas Advertising Co., of Chicago. chairman of the Shipping Board. It is tated that the announcement of Mr. Lasker's appointment will be made by the President today after a talk with Mr. Lasker, who is on his way to Wash-

Secretary of War Weeks and Post master General Hays are both said to Charles M. Schwab recommended Charles Piez, also of Chicago, and a was not aproved by President Harding. The names of the other members of the board are expected to be named at nent is announced. It is considered ertain that ex-Senator George W. hamberlain, of Oregon, will be one of Several Cabinet officers are said to contemplate urging the President to ap-point C. H. Houston, of Chattanooga. Tenn., as chairman of the Shipping Tenn., as chairman of the Shipping Board if Mr. Lasker does not accept

Mr. Houston was recently appointed Assistant Secretary of Commerce. The chairmanship to the Shipping Board was offered to Mr. Lasker about a fortnight ago by President Harding but Mr. Lasker declined. When he saw the President at that time Mr. Lasker urged the appointment of Walter C. Teagle, president of the Standard Oil Co. of New Jersey.

o. of New Jersey. Mr. Teagle was called to Washington but he convinced the President that on account of the conditions of his health he couldn't undertake the duties of head of the Shipping Board. It was said by friends of Mr. Lasker last night that when President Harding renewed his offer today Mr. Lasker would almost certainly accept.

Mr. Lasker is credited with having responsible for the selection Judge Kenesaw Mountain Landis as ker owns important interests in Quaker the Mitchell Motor Car C Van Camps, manufacturers of pork and beans and soups. He is a patron of baseball and owns stock in the Chi-

Pueblo Cleans Up; Men Forced to Work

tion, with the exception of a few street

Centinued from Page One

lights. A broken levee lets the water into city whenever there is any rise. Various projects were definitely ing of the Oed Cross last night, at which the heads of the various departments and a number of out-of-town Red Cross workers were present.

According to Dr. J. F. Pierce, local medical director of the Red Cross, the field hospital will be able to accommodate 250 patients. The "tent colony" will handle homeless flood sufferers in a scientific and sanitary manner. The relief workers will search out one in actual want will be succored and duplications will be avoided Twenty-two Dead in Three Towns

Four bodies were recovered and a total of twenty-two declared known to be dead in the towns of Avondale, Vine-land and Boone, and the district bethe fundamental conflict between the strict protectionists and those who are thinking just of foreign trade.

The agricultural clique is opposed to the plan to make the new Fordney bill immediately applicable. The farmers have their high protection under the save fundamental protection under the save fundamental protection of the survivor. He got to the roof of the house and was rescued after floating several miles with the current.

Three United States Army airplanes are here from Fort Sill, Oklahoma, and will be used for scouting purposes, it The American valuation plan is also opposed by every one interested in foreign trade. All in all the prospects Bradley, of the air service, in charge > since Friday night and the planes will be used to investigate such reports, it was stated at the military headquarters by Colonel Patrick J. Hancock.

List of Identified Dead

Cornell ngured prominently last Noste agreement with the principles offices adopted by the National dicies adopted by the National mittee Committee.
rict adherence to those principles anded by the high Zionist idea's." the letter. "Steadfast pursuit of policies is essential to early and y development of Palestine as the homeland.

The car was the property of City administration of Zionist affairs repudiates them."

Cornell ngured prominently last Nomittee of figured prominently last Nomittee again when Sheriff Fox, acting for a committee of fifty private citizens, offered a reward of $10.000 for the arrest and conviction of the driver and occupants of the car on the night it struck William Schultz and William Donaldson, William Korpel, Mrs. Sahttio, William on hour of injuries received, but Donaldson recovered after spending several weeks in the hospital.

The car was the property of City
Deaber, Frank Irwin, Henry Miller, In Cantilevers the weight is dis-Deaber, Frank Irwin, Henry Miller, In Cantilevers the weight is dis-Minnie D. Shatto (possible duplication). The bureau also listed two unidentified women and four unidentified men.

Washington, June 7.—(By A. P.)—
Governor Shoup, of Colorado, has sent a telegram of thanks to President Harding for his offer of Federal aid in the Lueblo flood disaster, but did not indicate definitely to what extent it would be required.

be required. A report on what the Army has cieties of Michigan Wisconstn and IIlinois in joint convention here.

Dr. Robinson attributed cancer largely to the indiscriminate use of common salt in food. Dr. Charles Woodward, of Chicago, president of both societies and chairman of the convention, said Dr. Robinson was treating and curing cases of cancer simply

PRAYS; FLOOD EBBS

Pueblo, Col., June 7.—(By A. P.)— A graphic description of the plight of passengers caught by the flood in the Missouri Pacific and Denver and Rio Grande trains during the flood Friday night was given by Mrs. Ruby Ellis. of Wichita, Kan., who was imprisoned in an overturned Pullman coach with her four hours. "The car turned over gradually ento its right side as the water rushed in." suid Mrs. Ellis. "My little daughter. Mildred Mary, and I were thrown to the bottom of the car into the water. I struggled to the surface and found mattresses and bedding over me. Then

Female Bandit, Young, Pretty, Sinks Teeth Into Jeweler's Cheek in Hold-Up

CONFEDERATE IS CAUGHT

Mary had not cried nor complained up to this time and she asked: 'What shall I do, mother?' And I told her New York, June 7 .- Thousands of home-goers were flocking from the tow-"Then she repeated over and over 'Jesus, I trust You." ering office buildings about Forty-secand street and Sixth avenue about "It seemed only a few minutes then until the water began to recede. We 5:30 o'clock vesterday afternoon and made our way to the end of the car man and woman stepped into the doorbroken a window and were helped to the

The man, slight of build and about Fifty-five persons have been rescue from the Denver and Rio Grande Raiload train which turned over in the railroad yards at Pueblo Saturday morning, according to a statement is-sued by A. R. Baldwin, receiver of the road. Thirteen persons are still unac-The Platte River, which yesterday overflowed its banks, reached its high-est stage at 3 o'clock this morning and today was receding slowly. The Globeville bridge over the river was Globeville bridge over the river was washed out after midnight, making a total of four bridges over the Platte swept away near here. The damage

San Francisco, Calif., June 7 .- (By . P.)-Two carloads of food have been ellected by San Francisco merchants or immediate dispatch to Pueblo for relief of flood sufferers there. The Board of Supervisors voted to defray expenses The Board found my little girl and pulled her to the top of the car, which was not yet filled with water. We stood on the rods of the upper berth and held on to the rods on the other side of the car.

"The water rose rapidly until it had reached my chin. My little girl was clinging to my neck. Fortunately the rentilator windows were open and we were able to breathe freely.

"I had given up hope of life when the water came to my chin. Mildred where some woman in the train side of the coach by the rescue party.

New York to Aid Flood Sufferers New York, June 7 .- (By A. P.) Mayor Hylan today appointed a mittee to raise funds for relief of ravaged Pueblo. The Board of Esti mate voted to place at its disposal any moneys left over from previous funds collected for similar purposes. Rodman Wanamaker, deputy police commissioner, was named chairman. A repre-sentative will be sent to Colorado to supervise distribution.

in Denver was slight.

SNUB DR. ELIOT

Boston "Ancients" Remember marks About Intoxication

Buston, June 7 .- The Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company, the oldest military company in the country, observed its 283d anniversary here yesand fourteen veteran organizations in line at the annual parade.

The list of invitations to the anniversary banquet, which was held at the tupley Plaza last night, failed to include Dr. Charles W. Eliot, president emeritus of Harvard University. reason for the snub was given as Dr. hostile remarks concerning the Ancients and intoxication at forme banquets. Commissary Sergeant George W Hocker, of the Ancients, was asked if Dr. Eliot had been invited to the ban-"Absolutely uet, and replied: "Absolutely not. sider it. President Lowell, of Harvard, has been invited, but has declined.

A New Sense of Freedom

An incomplete list of identified uses was posted this morning at the information bureau of the Colorado lilting step, a new rhythmic swing of the weight from one foot to the Cone is the vise-like re-In Cantilever Shoes you walk with a new sense of freedom, a new Edna Gray, eleven; Mary Gray, other, Gone is the vise-like re-three; Mr. and Mrs. Hubbard (Ne striction of stiff soles, gone is the Many bodies probably never will be found, as they were carried down stream below Pueblo by the terrific force of the flood. Search of the buildings was constituted as weekens. ducted as rapidly as workmen cleared away the debris. In some cases where bodies are known to have been found, it was impossible to learn where found, it was impossible to learn where the small bones of the arch.

Trim oxfords in several leathers and in white linen; also high shoes and pumps. Widths from AAAA

CANTILEVER SHOE SHOP 1300 Walnut Street Over Cunard Office

hurrying to the subway when a young way of the Harvard Building, 729 Sixth wenty-four, quickly adjusted a black mask and drew two revolvers from his street. hip pockets. Then he and his com-panion tiptoed up one flight of stairs no one knew. He would not tell who and stepped into the office of Morris she was. Sapo, jeweler and diamond merchant.

Sapo, forty and husky, was shunting rays of jewelry into the safe preparatory to closing for the day. A halfdozen clerks, one of them a young woman, were making ready to go home.

Sapo turned, expecting to encounter a customer. Instead he faced two revolvers held perilously close to his

'Up with your hands and keep quiet.' was the low spoken command

Sapo tried to yell, but the robber's emale confederate had slapped one hand over his mouth and another on the back over his mouth and another on the back of his neck and held him in a firm grip. He struggled vainly. But one of the clerks had crept under the counters to the Sixth avenue windows of the shop that overlook Grant Park and shouted for help.

Woman Prevents Outcry

Patrolman Nicholas Moore responded. Meantime the hold-up man and the woman retreated toward the stairs; not, nowever, until Sapo had been bitten on the cheek by the woman and struck on the head with the butt end of a pistol. Backing down the stairs, bolding off with a pistol a group of tenants in adjoining offices who had answered the call for help, the man and woman reached Sixth avenue before Patrolman fire at noon today. The place was used Moore arrived. The woman, about

Throng Joins Chase

Sullivan tried to head off the fleeing man, who turned west to Forty-first street, pausing to fire two shots at Moore which went wild. From every Moore which went wild. From every cross street men, women and children swelled the through. Moore fired three more shots in the air and Sullivan four. From Broadway and Forty-first street came another traffic policeman. Two more shots came from the pistol of the

The man turned into what formerly was the servants' entrance to the old Knickerbocker Hotel. He reached a stairway leading to the cellar and stopped at the bottom long enough to fire a last shot at the three patrolmen who followed into the Knickerbocker's

Suddenly there was a flare of light in the northwest corner of the basement. The policemen stole toward it. They reached a closet-like room. Forcing the His hands were up. In a switchboard they found his revolver with one cartridge remaining.

The prisoner, who said his name was George Brewster, twenty-four years old, a clerk, of 115 West Houston was bleeding from a scalp

He was taken to the prison ward,

Bellevue Hospital. WIFE SLAYER'S PLEA DENIED

Lawrence County Judge Overrules Exceptions to Mixed Jury

New Castle, Pa., June 7.-Judge S. Plummer Emery yesterday refused application of Albert Torrence White, convicted wife murderer, for a new rial, and sentenced him to the electric nounced, surned to his counsel, Robert Mayor now has his application under S. Wallace, former State Representa-S. Wallace, former State Representa-tive, and asked, "Is that all?" The right of women to serve as jurors formed the basis of the defending attorney's exceptions resident of Lawrence County, was convicted at the April term of court. After beating his aged wife to death he hid her body in his barn, where it was discovered a month cited crowd. The man ran south on Sixth avenue. Moore was at his heels The loss was about $800.

Germantown Barn Burned

PRIVILEGES ENDED

Somers Point Mayor Tells Women He Is Misunderstood

MAN, 70, WOULD BE CENSOR

on One-Piece Suits

Atlantic City. June 7. - Memers of the Women's Republican League of Somers Point, at a meeting that lasted last night until midnight, obtained a retraction from Mayor Robert Crissey of his wholesale invitation to bathing nymphs in one-piece bathing suits to come to the Point and enjoy the freedom of the bathing beaches.

The women were prepared to adopt a petition demanding explanations from the seventy-two-year-old chief executive, but he heard of the plan and sent word that he had been misunderstood in his proclamation, and that he would have a statement to make today. The petition, the contents of which were held back from the public which were held back from the public by the conference of the women, who met in executive session, was temporarily shelved to see whether the Mayor's statement would be satisfactory.

Previous to the Mayor's backdown developments had come thick and fast. Mayor Crissey had his first shock yesterday when Commodore William Tanguay, a retired Philadelphia manufacturer, who owns the Chatcau, a fine estate near the bathing district, asked to be appointed official censor without

The Commodore, who is 70, believes there should be a real censor and the

"Although I'm 70 years old, I'm still able to see right well without the aid of glasses." said the Commodore. I of glasses." said the Commodore. understand the city has no funds available to pay for the services of a censor for the beach. I'll take the job for nothing. The people seem to want a it plain to the Mayer what their sires may be. It has been my exience in close to fifty years in ministry, that they are quite cap of handling such situations as without any other assistance."

BOY'S BURNS FATAL

Five - Year - Old Youngster With Matches

With Matches

Herbert Soyers, five years old, 2750
North Dover street, died this morning at the Woman's Homeopathic Hospital as the result of burns received at ha home yesterday afternoon.

While playing with matches during the temporary absence of his mother, the temporary absence of his mother, the boy's clothing was ignited. His screams were heard by Henry Josephs a fireman of Engine Company No. 45, who was passing the house, Josephs three off the boy's burning clothing and summoned the patrol of the Twenty sixth and York streets station.

The police gave the boy first-size. The police gave the boy first-aid treatment on the way to the hospital He was badly burned all over the body

THREE SENTENCES IMPOSED

Camden Judge Gives Jall Terms to Men on Different Charges

James Jackson, a Negro, thirty-nine years old, Newark, N. J., was sentenced to from two to seven years in the State Prison today by Judge Kate. in Camden Criminal Court, on the charge of robbing the homes of Florence Frost, 437 South Third street; Harry Angelus, 511 South Third street, and Charles Williams, 252 Walnut street, in Camden.

Frank Kelly, thirty-eight years old, Quinn street near Falver, this city, was sentenced to from two to seven years by Judge Kates on the charge of breaking and entering the garages of Huling Antrim and John McLeod, of Merchantville, and the garage of Conrad Ott, a Camden attorney.

Edward Conway, a Negro, of Camden, was sentenced to thirty days is jail on the charge of having contaband liquor in his possession

INSISTS ON LOBBYIST PROBE

King Has Resolution Referred to Sub-Committee of Senate

nothing. The people seem to want a censor right bad, so why not please 'em I have my own ideas about what should be allowed on the beaches here and I'll say I'm not in favor of restricting the girls too much in their swimming togs.'

The Rev. T. D. Stultz, pastor, of the Methodist Protestant Church at the Point believes the question is one for the women to settle themselves.

"The fair sex has the right of franching in the said. They are citizens and can express themselves. I think it entirely within their province to make it entirely within their province to make it entirely within their province to make it entirely make the sea of the sent to a sub-committee of Senate Washington, June 7.—Senator King's collision proposing an investigation of alleged activities of lobbyists in connection with tariff, revenue and other legislation was referred yesterday, at his request, to a sub-committee of the Senator King's alleged activities of lobbyists in connection with tariff, revenue and other legislation was referred yesterday, at his request. The fair sex has the right of franching the proposing an investigation of alleged activities of lobbyists in connection with tariff, revenue and other legislation was referred yesterday, at his request, to a sub-committee. Senator King's alleged activities of lobbyists in connection with tariff, revenue and other legislation was referred yesterday, at his request, to a sub-committee. Senator King's alleged activities of lobbyists in connection with tariff, revenue and other legislation was referred yesterday, at his request. The fair sex has the right of franching the proving the resolution proposing an investigation of alleged activities of lobbyists in connection with tariff, revenue and other legislation was referred yesterday, at his request. The fair sex has the right of franching the proving the sex has the right of fair proving the resolution proposing an investigation of all legislation was referred yesterday, at his request. The fair proving the proving the fair proving

Goodrich Tire Prices reduced 20 per cent

The last word in Quality The best word in Price Silvertown

CORDS

Anti-Skid Safety Tread SILVERTOWN

SIZE 30×3½ 32×3½ 32×4 33×4 32×4½ 33×4½ 33×5

SILVERTOWN CORDS Anti-Skid Safety Tread $24.50 $32.90 $41.85 $49.65 $58.90 $61.90

TUBES $2.55 $2.90 $3.55 $3.70 $4.50 $4.65 4.75 ^{$}5.55 $5.80

Fabric Tires

Smooth 30×3 $12.00 Safety

35×5

Safety Safety Safety

THE B.F. GOODRICH RUBBER COMPANY Chron, OHIO