It was simply great. They had dinner first and then Mr. Mitchell played Savoy music for at least an hour and the men "took off" the girls in the chorus and the girls "took off" the men, and it was a scur-ream. You should have seen the men come skipping into the room to "Gailey skipping, lightly tripping," holding each others' hands and then curtesying with their coattails. held out like skirts, and the girls did the sailor's hornpipe, as it were.

Lots of the principals in the casts of former years were there as well as this year's leading people, and Leslie Joy sang Koko's song, "Taken From a County Jail," in which he scored such to the annual Savoy company party.

THE June Fete out at Noble yesterday was lots of fun. Every one was there and it was cool enough to be comfortable. The booths were beautifully arranged with little ornamental tops painted by one of our local artists and they were placed along the club pathway on "Main Street." Beyond the booths were the playgrounds, space for the fashion show and the baby show.

In Mrs. David L. Short, of Cresheim and Peilham roads, Germantown, who will sail for Europe on June 25, will be the guest of honor at a luncheon, followed by a bridge party, this afternoon, to be given by Mrs. Frank A. Sobernheimer, of 323 Green lane, Roxborough, at the Bala Golf Club.

which so many of us are interested, will have its annual June fete tomorrow afternoon out on the grounds of the home. I am sure that everyone who knows and loves Mrs. William Woodward, and if you know her you are bound to love her, is interested in that home which is her pet charity. You know Mrs. Woodward has been blind know Mrs. Woodward has been blind herself for more than twelve years and just lives to help others, because he has become so efficient herself that she can do almost anything that we who have our sight can do. She sews and knits and has trimmed hats and weaves wool, and really I can't and weaves wool, and requived from the begin to tell you all she has accomplished. Then she is chairman of the auxiliary of the Chapin Memorial Home and is one of the managers on the general board. Mr. John Cadwalader is president of the trustees; Mr. Caleb Milne, Jr., vice president; Mr. William H. Woodward, secretary, and Mr. W. Bruce Borrow, treasurer. Mr. W. Bruce Barrow, treasurer.
