SOME NEW RECIPES COME TO MRS. WILSON'S KITCHEN

A Tasty Pudding of Her Own Invention and an Appetizing Way of Fixing Up Leftovers—Three Nice Desserts

By MRS. M. A. WILSON

FROM coast to coast in the course of a year I am continually searching for new recipes for this corner. Sometimes I must journey far from the beaten pathway of travel into the mountain communities that lie miles and miles from the railroad travel. Then again from the highway I will write me about some household way of fixing up leftovers that I feel you will like. Try them, they are a change, and if you have some particular recipe that your family likes and it is a bit out of the ordinary, like and I will try it out and send it to me and I will try it out and send it to our readers, who I know are always anxious for new dishes.

By the way, I have just invented a new pudding. Try it and think you will find it a very tasty. Place in a mixing bowl

Three-quarters cup of brown sugar, Three-quarters tablespoon of melted butter, One-half teaspoon of salt, One and one-quarter cups of flour, One level tablespoon of baking powder, Three-quarters cup of milk, One-half cup of chopped nuts, One-quarter cup of chopped citron, One-quarter cup of chopped coconut.

Mix and then turn into a well-greased mold and then spread over the pudding one-quarter of a package of seedless raisins. Steam for one hour. Turn from the mold and serve either warm or cold with this brand-new sauce:

Mrs. M. A. Wilson's Baboon Sauce Place in a mixing bowl Three tablespoons of boiling water, One tablespoon of butter. Stir to dissolve the butter and then add

Talk of one egg, One cup of confectioner's sugar, One cup of water, One cup of flour, One-half cup of apple jelly. Beat until the mixture holds its shape and then add to the sugar and jelly mixture.

Two teaspoons of vanilla, One-half teaspoon of lemon extract, One-half teaspoon of white of egg and jelly mixture, mixing well.

Dear Mrs. Wilson—Accept my thanks for the white layer cake recipe in reply to my request. I quite agree with you that after many years of housekeeping the old recipes get a little monotonous, while the new ones make a pleasant change in the menu. As you remark that good and homey recipes sent you are always welcome, I will inclose one which is a change from many of the left-over chicken dinners.

Chicken Puffs

Place in a bowl One and one-half cups of cooked macaroni, cut in small pieces, One large soda cracker, rolled fine, One-half cup of chicken gravy, One-half cup of milk, Talk of one egg, Beat the yolk of egg in the milk, One teaspoon of salt, One tablespoon of finely chopped parsley, One-half green pepper, chopped fine, One and one-half cups of chicken, Chopped fine, meat picked from neck and creases, Mix and then fold in the stiffly beaten whites of two eggs. Turn into well-buttered custard cups and set in a pan of warm water and bake for one-half hour. Turn out and serve with gravy prepared as follows:

One and one-half cups of chicken stock, Seven tablespoons of flour, Dissolve the flour in cold stock and then bring to a boil and cook for five minutes. Season and then add the yolk of egg. Beat hard and serve.

Here is a recipe for a plain cake by Mrs. E. L. Kries:

One-half cup of butter, Two cups of sugar, Four eggs, One cup of milk, Five teaspoons of baking powder, Three cups of flour, One large lemon, grated rind only.

One-half cup of sugar, One whole egg, One yolk of egg. Creaming egg and sugar before adding to tapioca. Cook for five minutes and then add one teaspoon of vanilla and remove from the stove. Use white of egg for meringue.

E. J. B. We usually have some coffee left over and my New England conscience would not permit me to throw it away, so I pour it into a jar and set in the icebox and use it for the custard.

Dear Mrs. Wilson—I am pleased to send you an inexpensive steamed walnut pudding recipe. As a family, we think it fine.

MRS. J. H. One-half cup of sugar, One cup of flour, One-half cup of milk, One-half cup of chopped nuts—black walnuts give a better flavor, Two teaspoons of baking powder, One-quarter teaspoon of salt, One teaspoon of vanilla.

Two tablespoons of butter, melted, One egg, Mix the flour, sugar, salt and baking powder and add the egg, well beaten, vanilla, milk, butter and nuts. Steam for three-quarters of an hour. Serve with white sauce.

MRS. G. B. B. Dear Mrs. Wilson—I am sending you my recipe for butterscotch pie, which I think is the nicest one I know.

Butterscotch Pie Melt and mix thoroughly together One cup of brown sugar, One tablespoon of butter, Two tablespoons of milk, Cook slowly for five minutes, now have ready in a bowl Three tablespoons of flour blended with one cup of milk, Two egg yolks, Teaspoon of vanilla, Combine the mixture and cook until thick. Turn into a pieplate which has been lined with plain pastry and then bake in a slow oven for twenty-five minutes. Use the whites of eggs for the meringue. Brown slightly.

This is Bedcalo bedstead number #710, finished in rich mahogany, walnut, oak, or dainty ivory enamel. Also built in twin sizes.

2 cents a week for rest 20 cents a week for candy

WHAT a chance for the American woman to build happiness and health for her family! Today she is scrimping on the one thing that health demands—real rest. Yes, scrimping!—for on the average, only 2 cents a week per-person is invested in good beds, mattresses and springs, while ten times that much is spent on candy!

But real rest requires good beds. The buying of good beds is not spending—it is investing. And the dividends are energy, health and happiness.

What you can do today

Look over your beds today: Are they sturdy or do they rattle? Are the mattresses billowy or bumpy? Are the springs elastic or saggy? Then list every bed, mattress and spring that fails to meet these tests—fails to supply the real rest your family needs. Then go to your furniture dealer. Probably he will recommend Barcalo steel beds and mattresses and springs, because they are made to furnish the utmost in real rest. You will probably find to your pleasure, that a paltry few dollars a year will make your beds so sure to yield real rest that your family will bless you for your wisdom.

BARCALO BEDS

This Barcalo twin is number 2150, finished in rich mahogany, walnut, oak, or ivory enamel. The same design is also furnished in a standard full width bedstead.
