buy in that little house and give it to Angelina Spall, and I'll settle a regular income upon her. I can afford it, and I'll take the prettiest bonnet you've got here as a present.

Hannah took the petunia hat out of the window. "This is the prettiest hat," she said, and tried it on before him. The Judge looked and looked—and looked, and Hannah blushed and hastily took off the hat. This loosened some of her faded hair and made her seem quite pretty.

"Put that one away," said the Judge at last. "I think I'll give Angelina the money and let her choose her own hat."

"I believe she would rather do that," said Hannah honestly. "You've lost a sale, Hannah Clay," smiled the Judge, putting out his large hand.

PONGEE IS STRIKING WITH JADE GEORGETTE

Yesterday in school Miss Kisty told the class she would have a examination in jogger's today. Jogger's being one of my weakest things on account of the names of the places and the boundaries, and this morning I went up thinking, Aw heck, a examination in jogger's.

And while I was getting dressed I noticed the mark from my sore toe that I had last week, thinking, Gosh, I bet if I put all my weight on when I waked I bet it would still make me limp, darn that jogger's examination.

Which I tried it to see, and I limped easy as anything, thinking, Holy smokes, this sore toe ain't half better yet.

By CORINNE LOWE "The days of real sport," to borrow from a famous cartoonist, have been supplanted by the days of the unreal sports dress.

Above we are showing a simple but effective costume combining natural color pongee with jade green georgette. This allance of fabric is exceedingly popular this year, and often the pongee is touched off by bindings of figured foulard in either of those two colors which go best with the natural color pongee—green or red.

Here the skirt of jade georgette is plaited, and a sash of the same material is further re-enforced by bindings of crepe at neck line and sleeves.

It took Judge Scott several months to discuss Angelina Spall with Hannah and he spent many evenings in the pretty little shop with its rag carpet, old-fashioned chintz curtains and rush-bottomed chairs.

Tests That Prove Muslin Quality

Perhaps you have bought muslin that looked fine in the store, but appeared thin as cheese-cloth after washing. That muslin was adulterated with chalk. Sometimes this powder is added so cunningly that your only test is thorough washing.

Fruit of the Loom Muslin

Washing after washing does not harm its fine, smooth texture or firm body, for it is all muslin without filler. Be reasonably careful that the soap is rinsed out and it will stay as white as the day you bought it.

The Question Corner

- Today's Inquiries 1. Into what odd and pleasing shape a new-colored candle fashioned? 2. When the metal lace on an evening dress has become tarnished, how can it be cleaned? 3. Describe a useful and attractive gift that can be made for the bride's shower.
