Emphasizes Importance of Physical Excellence for All at Conference

EXERCISES DEMONSTRATED

Close connection between intellectual and moral grace with physical grace was brought out at the second day of the onference of the Middle Atlantic Physical Directors' Society at the Central Y. M. C. A. this morning in a talk by the Rev. J. E. Crowther, pastor of the Arch Street Methodist Church.

Dr. Crowther pointed out the Ameri can people have come to think more of physical prowess and demand a high indard of physical excellence in all heir leading men. He pointed out he physical strength is so often used in arguments for political candidates. The other morning speaker was W. Ball, of, the physical department of International Committee, Y. M. C. Pointing out that all sports progress as they are clean, Mr. Ball said that the great need of in all athletics that physical directors everywhere should attempt to educate a great body of the right type of men for official posi-tions in all kinds of sport. Following the talks the sixty-seven physical directors who are attending the conference donned gramasium suits and onference donned gymnasium suits and of the morning was spent in door. The rest of the morning was spent in demonstra-tions of various kinds of exercises and dances that have been found successful by the various directors. The effort was to arrive at a proper sort of drill to build up the busy man and also the proper drill for small boys.
