

BACK FROM FRANCE. One of the fifty-one thoroughbreds, part of the racing stable of the late W. K. Vanderbilt, now the property of A. K. Macomber, which came home on the Old North Steer

DOLLY WILSON. A first-prize winner in the New York baby health contest. Girls predominated as winners

AT FASHION FAIR. It was given in aid of the Haddock Memorial Home for Infants, in Germantown, yesterday afternoon. Miss J. Van Seiver (left) aided in selling flowers. The lot with the balloon is Jane Elizabeth Eddy

PUNCH BOWL ATTENDANT. Miss Grace Crozier filled many a glass at the Haddock Memorial Home fashion fair held at the Rev. David E. Crozier's home

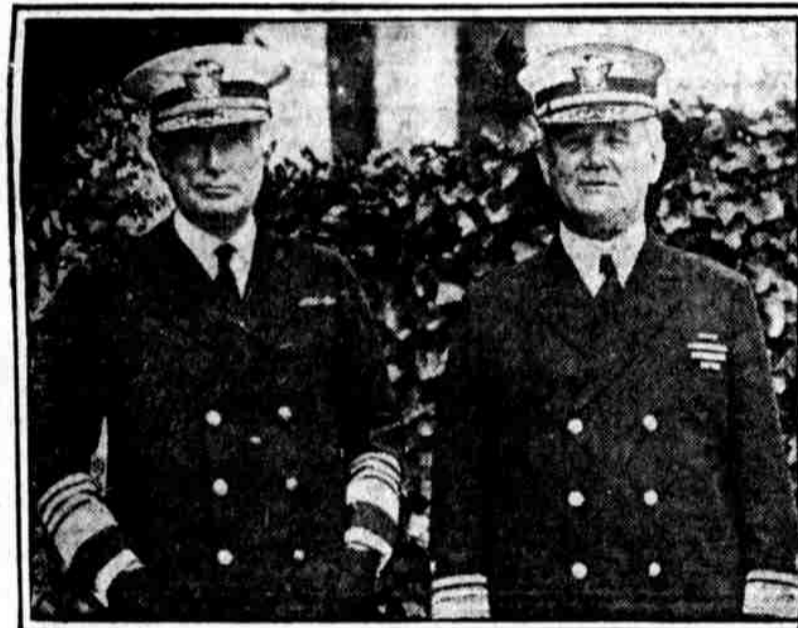

TOO MUCH SPEED! Miss Mary Mahood at the wheel in a demonstration conducted by the Keystone Automobile Club to show that time can be made through city without "too much speed"

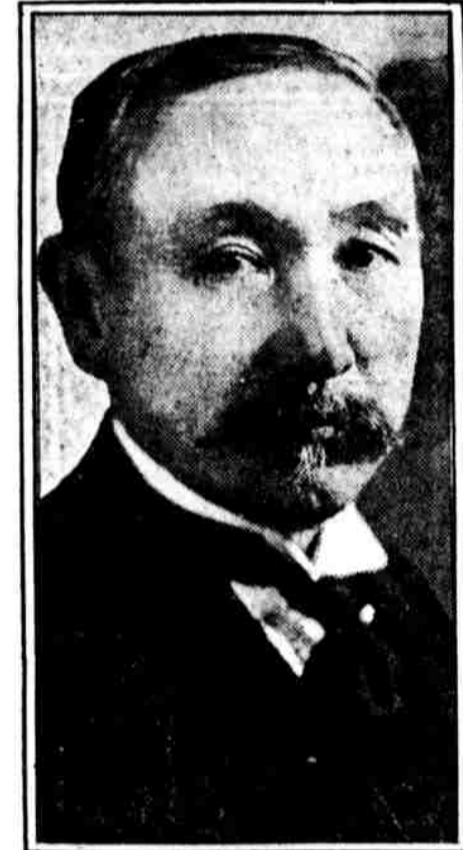

GREEK DANCES. English girls giving some beautiful dances in Lady Limerick's lovely garden, at Hall Place, near London. They were symbolizing "The Spirit of Youth"

CHILDREN SHOW HANDIWORK. The pupils of the McIntyre Public School, Thirtieth and Gordon streets, held their annual display for the benefit of parents and friends. Bessie Kremens made a pretty dress and gave it to Zelda Verb, who wore it yesterday. Jack Sigmund is one of the best frame-makers. He was glad to show it

NEW ANNAPOLIS HEAD. At the left is Rear Admiral Wilson, who has been selected to head the United States Naval Academy. The present superintendent is Rear Admiral A. H. Scales (right)

BARON SOTOKICHI URIU, admiral of the Japanese navy, graduate of the United States Naval Academy

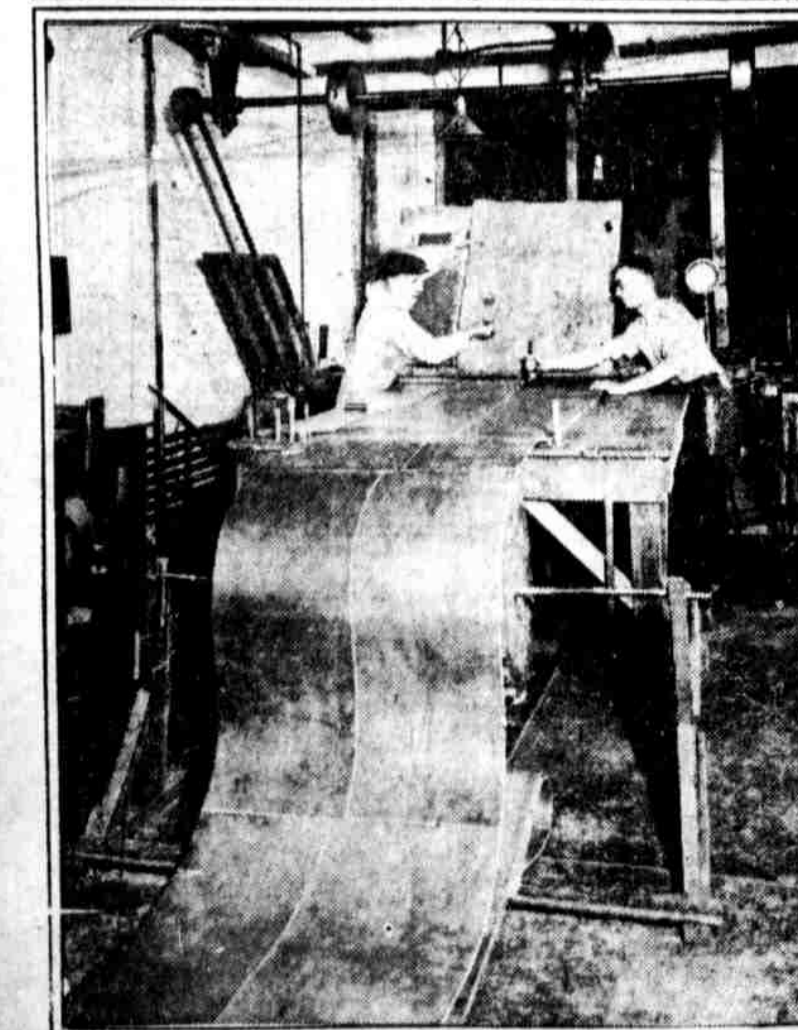

P. M. C. CADETS. The photographer caught them as they finished a seven-mile hike. They are returning to their temporary camp at North Springfield where they are scheduled to spend two weeks under canvas

WATCHING THE HORSES. The smart set of New York was well represented at the horse show held at Tuxedo Park. We show Mrs. Biswell Lorillard and her two children, Ellen Tuck French and Virginia

OUR CITY'S WORKERS AND WHAT THEY DO

CHARLES BOLDT, 2712 Dover street, and Harry Griffin, 2057 W. Bellevue street, putting on the inner ply of a 48-inch belt, at the Philadelphia Belting Co., Sixth and Spring Garden streets

GENERAL EMILIANO CHAMORRO, former president of Nicaragua, will be the next Minister to the United States

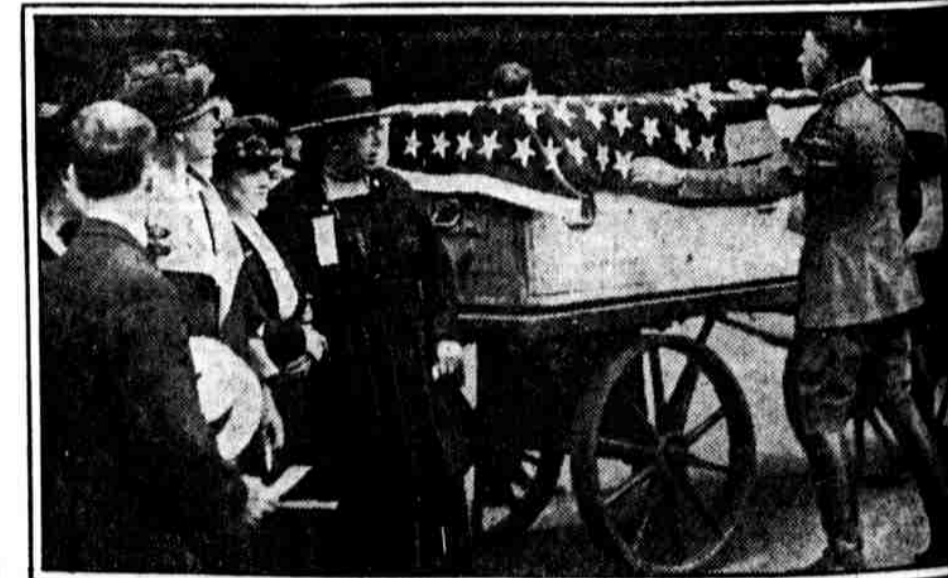

SEMAPHORE SENTINELS

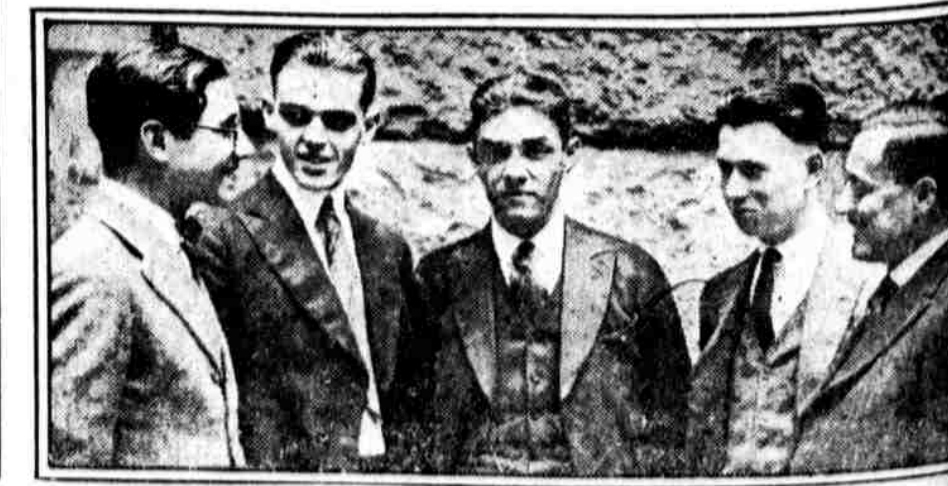

PATROLMAN JOHN A. THISTLE for eight years has been looking after traffic work at Broad street and Susquehanna avenue

"MILK SERGEANT." Assisting on the Cambrai, the war bride and baby ship from Germany

ONE OF THE TWENTY-SIX. The "gold-star" heroines gathered at the Reading Terminal to pay tribute to Philadelphia boys who died in France and whose bodies arrived yesterday. An American flag covered each casket

THE 136TH CLASS. Officers of the Central High School class soon to graduate. Joseph Rosenberger, vice president; Charles M. Brookfield, treasurer; Alexander S. Bausch, president; Ernest Tatcher, secretary, and Professor M. E. Wise, class advisor