

VISITING I. O. O. F. AT SHORE TODAY

Conclave Here Ends With Installation of Grand Lodge Officers

DICK IS GRAND MASTER

Atlantic City was the playground of the visiting Odd Fellows and their ladies' auxiliary, the Rebekahs, on this the last day of their centennial celebration. Several thousand left early this morning on special trains over the Reading Railway. They were accompanied by many hundred orphan children, who are being cared for by various homes supported by the order. They will return late this evening and tomorrow leave Philadelphia for their homes.

Thousands of Odd Fellows and members of the Rebekah assembly yesterday afternoon thronged Willow Grove Park at the first outing on a large scale given during the centennial celebration of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows of Pennsylvania.

A special train in two sections of ten coaches each left the Reading Terminal for Willow Grove at 2 o'clock in the afternoon. Many others went by automobile. The children from the orphan homes conducted by the order went by trolley to the park early in the morning where field sports with substantial prizes were arranged for them.

With brilliant and impressive ceremony officers of the Grand Lodge were installed yesterday morning in the Metropolitan Opera House. Thousands of Odd Fellows from every section of the State were present as were virtually all of the past officers.

Albert N. Dick, of Pittsburgh, was installed as grand master; Charles C. Bulkeier, of Philadelphia, deputy grand master; Charles E. Mertens, of Erie, grand warden; Fisher A. Hall, of Philadelphia, grand secretary; Frederick C. Harson, of Scranton, grand treasurer,

BEATS SISTER IN RACE FOR "BIKE"

William Thomas Williams, who won out in a friendly contest with his sister Catherine, to see which of the two would be the first to be awarded one of the "Black Beauty" bicycles being offered by the Public Ledger. William is thirteen years old, and lives at 458 East Wildy street.

BOY BEATS SISTER IN RACE FOR BIKE

Took Him Only Ten Days to Get 35 Subscriptions to Public Ledger

SHE IS NEARING GOAL, TOO

William Thomas Williams, thirteen years old, of 458 East Wildy street, has beaten his fourteen-year-old sister Catherine in a friendly race to see who would win a "Black Beauty" bicycle, but then William had a flying start with his subscription book before Catherine decided to enter the contest. Moreover, Catherine, who already has twenty of the requisite thirty-five subscriptions for the Public Ledger, declares that she will come back strong when it comes to an actual race with her brother astride their Black Beauty.

For William hasn't learned to ride yet. He has seen other boys' bicycles, and once a pal let him hold the handlebars and jab the pneumatic tires with his thumb. But not even his pal would let him learn to ride. Now, he has his own. He marched triumphantly off with it yesterday, a broad grin on his bright face.

William won his bicycle in ten days. His sister, who entered the contest last Friday, says she will have a Black Beauty in less time than that. Then she declares she will ride rings around her brother. But William isn't so sure. William said it was "pie" winning his Black Beauty. A little work among friends after class was all he did. He is a pupil at the Chandler School, Montgomery avenue and Wildy street.

RALLY FOR WELLESLEY

Alumnae Will Begin Final Drive for College Fund

More than 200 Wellesley College alumnae from Eastern Pennsylvania, southern New Jersey, and Delaware will attend the final rally of the endowment campaign in this district which will take place tonight at Green Hill Farms Hotel, City Line and Lancaster pike, Overbrook.

The rally, which will begin with a dinner at 7 o'clock, marks the formal closing of the local drive for $200,000. The national quota of the fund is $2,700,000.

A total of $108,000 has been reported to date by the local campaign committee. An effort to bring this amount up to the necessary $200,000 is to be made at the rally and during the week that follows. The endowment fund must be entirely raised by June 20, the commencement day of the college.

$1 BILLS GO TO $10

That is Reason U. S. Agents Arrest Alleged Forger

Charged with passing counterfeit money, Peter Zerewich, Fairmount avenue near Second street, was arrested by United States agents yesterday. Zerewich is alleged to have purchased groceries of Harry Mann, 110 Fairmount avenue, and tendered in payment a $10 bill, which it was found had been raised from a $1 note.

Zerewich was arraigned before Commissioner Manley and held under $1000 bail for the Grand Jury. He was identified by Mann as the man who had given him the raised bill.

THE MASTER

A Real Man's Shoe

It is a new shape in the new brown shade

ANOTHER Walk-Over combination-fitting Oxford is something entirely new in shoe construction. Not only new in style, but in the cast of the shoe. It has the right instep fit that evenly distributes all the weight. It feels good.

THE heel fits as though it were tailored. It is wide at the bottom and converges at the top. It would stay on without lacing.

The new brown shade is a deep, rich tone. Not a surface color, but right in $10 this Top-Grade Russia Calf.

June Sale Saturday Will Eclipse All Like Events In Philadelphia

Disposal of upwards of three thousand new Summer Suits at prices averaging their cost of production in every notable group.

Oak Hall has been famous for years for its great out-clearings of good clothing in the month of June. But for five years market conditions have been such as to forbid a June event that even approximates the saving opportunities of such outstanding importance as the men and young men of Philadelphia will find at Sixth and Market Streets today and tomorrow.

THE SEASON'S GREATEST OPPORTUNITIES FOR MEN!

$18.50 for $25 and $30 suits	$30.00 for $40 and $45 suits
$22.50 for $30 and $35 suits	$35.00 for $50 and $55 suits
$25.00 for $35 and $40 suits	$39.50 for $65 to $85 suits

At $25 there are hundreds of new woolen suits—each with an extra pair of trousers—which means virtually two suits at the cost of one.

In this group there are new double-breasted two-button models and plenty of three-button sack suits for business use for conservative men; as well as extra sizes for stout men.

At $35 there are more than five hundred guaranteed standard Oak Hall blue serge suits—each with an extra pair of trousers—$50 and $55 qualities every one.

Plenty of gray and brown herringbones—pin stripes, pencil stripes, chalk stripes—gray serges, gray worsteds, silk mixed worsteds—in sizes for extra-large men.
