ACCUSE 4 WOMEN OF KABER SLAYING ON NURSE'S STORY

Miss McArdle Played Piano as Assassins Explored House, Says Signed Statement

EIGHT OTHERS NAMED IN PUBLISHER'S MURDER

By the Associated Press Cleveland, O., June 13.—Four women are now formally charged with the murder of Daniel F. Kaber, who was stabbed twenty-four times by hired assassins in his home in Lakewood two years ago.

Implies Marian McArdle

According to the officers who questioned Mrs. Colavito, a signed statement of Mrs. Colavito, in part reads as follows:

When we reached the home that evening we were taken through the halls and rooms to help deaden the noise.

"It was on the Wednesday before the murder that we were to inspect the rooms and find out where Kaber slept. Two men, known as Sam and Tony, who were to do the work, were with me.

When Mrs. Kaber came to me the first time and wanted something for her husband's "nasty habits," I gave her a bottle containing a mixture of kerosene oil that wouldn't kill anything, but I don't give her any poison and simply gave her the other stuff to get rid of her.

"The next morning I read of the murder in the newspapers and I was told that the men were to be hanged. When Mrs. Kaber came to me the first time and wanted something for her husband's "nasty habits," I gave her a bottle containing a mixture of kerosene oil that wouldn't kill anything, but I don't give her any poison and simply gave her the other stuff to get rid of her.

Friend Was Detective

The women were confronted with Mrs. Ethel Berman, who continued an acquaintance with Mrs. Kaber after the murder and who was a private detective with the Ohio State police.

Five hundred dollars had been given to Mrs. Colavito, she said in her alleged confession.

"Mrs. Kaber declared she would not pay for the murder of her husband, but with some weapon so that she could collect an accident insurance policy." This is denied by Mrs. Kaber.
