ly recently that

WINIFRED HARPER COCLEY nale juries everywhere have acquitted sost women murderers who did away ifth their sponses. In Chicago, in a tertain number of years, there were wenty-five husband-murderers, and not through life miscrable little crippies and ray, I guess: Or, perhaps, way down to get rid of such undesirable things.

leep in the conscience of nearly all In all countries and ages. girls here.

psychologists declare that womineased at times, and she is hardly declaring she is possessed of devils:

countable. Feminists are apt to deide this, and insist that we are not a cor, irresponsible sex. It cannot be

In many lands and for many cen-sourse refers to this roused fury of maternal protective instinct. For centuries men, probably on acunt of superior physical strength, cer-

The Eskimo chooses his mate, not for From one sex to its complement!

So it was true—his fear! Miss Mary Drew had definitely prom-ised to become the wife of Carring-ton Bellairs!

He tried to menk—but not a ingle word would come.

Man's Inhumanity to Woman SEEMS impossible to get a verdict stands straight as a sapling, looking of guilty when a woman murders beavenward, and boasting of his vic-

All juries apparently tories in chase and war.

The museums of Europe are filled with instruments of torture, invented by men, usually to discipline women Steel corsets and iron strocities strike horror to the modern heart. One won-ders how the frail ladies thus encased ver bore a healthy race.

Men made all the laws; they do today. In England the famous common law, from which America modeled its code, permitted a man to beat his wife with a stick, "no larger than his thumb.

In some of our States, within the memory of many folks now living, a man could will away his wife's fortune and clothes, brought from her own fammally is a matter of record that most ily, and even could will away his un-conviction. The dear men regarded puppers. They are said to have thrown so rotten in their treatment of when the newly born was pronounced romen that most of them ought to be female, a sigh or a curse was heard, illed! even from the mother. Even today, Seriously, one can but marvel at the thorn the motor. Even today, there is a proud, complacent air when a man announces "I have a new son!"

What is so remarkable about his wooed one passionately and loved No one who reads history can deny tenderly must engender a bitter- the horrors and cruelties of the pracces that drives a woman to fury and tices of males against females through-nhinges her mind. In Africa, when a woman does not bring forth a nervous condition is morbid and her baby for several days, they beat her, content of the conten they are roused, as a lioness is in proceting its cub. The offensive couplet,

"The female of the species Is more deadly than the node."

The elders in various religions declared that they had the divine right to enjoy a large harem, and enjoined stience and ptance upon women, because it was

Even American laws until very reently showed innumerable gross injusorced us to be the burden bearers, to tiers, and children were torn from and cringe and crawl. They denied the mothers that had borne them in the and therefore made us de- | Valley of the Shadow of Death. spised of all the earth. They burned us cartion and wage-earning in remunerabecause they could not hear the thought taken from them, and their wages—tings when they were dead. The cave—own. The wife was the property of the heard. The husband, and her property was his, around by the hair of the head. The fat, sleek Filipino today sits under a All this tyranny from men who profat, sleek Filipino today sits under a All this tyranny from men who profat, sleek Filipino today sits under a All this tyranny from men who profat, sleek Filipino today sits under a All this tyranny from men who profat, sleek Filipino today sits under a Charlie turned on Harriet. "And tree and lets his wife do a ten-hour day fessed to love and adore the sex they tunt in weaving cloth. The Eskimo chooses his made, beauty or charm, but for strong teeth in has brought about a complete revolution hides and cooking talents in pre-bating hides and cooking talents in pre-tion. Men in the aggregate were bar-The Indian may woo his Minnehana barous, while individual men made love to us. Man's inhumanity to woman matha, but to the visible eye he seems is ceasing.

The both to the visible eye he seems is ceasing.

We wonder if woman is becoming like a scene from a play, isn't it?

lefinite information."

had won. He cared for her tremen-doubly. Eve's beauty, social position. Miss Eve's lips parted in a well-all her charm and prestige—these things achieved astonishment.

all her charm and prestige—these things counted for naught against the sweet amplicity of the little typist.

And Carrington's plain speaking, too, came back to irritate her. He had told her that she could not captivate a "worth-while" man. Her adorers he had classified into two kinds—the "nin-compoops" and "rotters." There had the property of the *Worth-while" norn. Her adorers as had classified into two kinds—the "nin-compoops" and "rotters." There had not been a worth-while man among the Eve. with lifted brows. Oh. how she Eve. with lifted brows. Oh. how she had been most awfully upsetting. She slow away so thoroughly. She Eve-her cost. She was paying part of that told her that she always did. She had cost just now in "making up" to Dick overreached herself.

His criticism of Julian Vandaveer hated Mary Drew, who had given the

Calardin. Incidentally—and this ought was more attractive -she was Yes, she would make Dick love her paying back both Dick and Mary Drew for daring to ignore her.

Pick fixed a cold, hard eye on lice.

gement from the housetops?" les were not exactly pleasunt.

really care for Carrington.

ou dear, unsophisticated back-sman! How I love you for your dry!" She laid a slim, white on Dick's brown palm. "Now.

going to see this matter through.

Tomorrow-Dick's Sympathy

Nice, Clean Hair

A ONE-MAN WOMAN

By HAZEL DEYO BATCHELOR Copyright, 1921, by Public Ledger Co.

Barry Neil is arrested for embezzling funds, and Harriet, his wife, in order to prove his innocence, obtains a position in his office under an assumed name. Charlie Harmon, the son of the head of the firm, falls in love with her. Harriet discovers, too, that Lucy Pratt, one of the office stendgraphers, is in love with Charlie but herd. Charlie, but finds no clue to the puilty party. One night Harriet is seen and recognized by Sadie How-ard, a girl who is jealous and determined to hand her over to the police. Charlie, however, carries Harriet off in a taxi and Sadic takes her story to Evening Star, which paper sends out Donakue, a young reporter, who trails Harriet to the offices of Harmon & Graves. Charlie is trying to persuade Harriet to run away with him when they are suddenly con-fronted by Lucy Pratt, who has been listening outside. Lucy denounces Charlie and at a crucial moment Donahue appears on the scene.

The Truth at Last!

IN THAT moment when all four young people stood facing one another there there was a breathless silence. The few words that Donahue had spoken still vibrated through the aid like electricity. nsane act as murder. To endure in-what is so remarkable about his her violet eyes met the smiling bine ones and who achievement? Harriet stood as if turned to stone, and look he had ever seen on the face of a woman. His romantic young heart skipped a beat as he stared at her, for he had not expected anything so lovely. find the woman he had expected the usual thing, probably an ordinary looking girl, but this beautiful woman ap pealed to his chivalry, and her terror at Harriet as though she could not be-lieve her ears, and yet surely this man had said : I want to speak to Mrs. Nell a mo-

"Mrs. Neil!" Lucy finally gasped incredulously, Larry nodded nonchalantly. "You are Mrs. Neil, aren't you?" he asked Harriet, and his tone was more than ordinarily gentle. She nodded.

Then Charlie spoke. Who are you?" The words were Charlie turned on Harriet. "An you let me make love to you, you let me believe you cared," he went toward her threateningly, but Lucy suddenly stepped between them Again she was smiling that strange little smile.

"I'm here," she said softly, "and haven't settled with you yet. It's quit "The wronged young wife "Your prospects." said Miss Eve, reletantly, as though the words were regged from her. "She seemed a litle worried that I couldn't give her any efinite information."

Dick faced her squarely. He was oing to see this matter through.

for the man they loved. In a way she and Lucy had fought their battles side by sida, and Lucy had lost because hers was the losing fight. It wasn't till then that realization came to Harriet as to what this meant. It meant that her own fight was over, that Barry would be through cornflower blue organd word, wouldn't one feel set up!

If you like to embroider you r interested in the little girls' that come already stamped. Har own fight was over, that Barry would be for the tiny tot makes her le was cuse my frankness, but didn't you demand in this man's life.

Where she had failed, the other girl had won. He cared for her tremental more than friends?"

"I happen to knew that you did discuss me with Miss Drew." he said, his vivid blue eyes fixed on Eve's piquant face, "but, indeed, I gathered that the topic was a rather different one! Excuse my frankness, but didn't you deliberately try to give Miss Drew the impression that you and I were—rather more than friends?"

To the pent to knew that you did discuss me with Miss Drew." he said, his vivid blue eyes fixed on Eve's piquant face, "but, indeed, I gathered that the topic was a rather different one! Excuse my frankness, but didn't you deliberately try to give Miss Drew the impression that you and I were—rather more than friends?" freed, that they would be together again. But even in that moment of exultation there was such pity in her heart for Lucy that the keen edge of her triumph

Tomorrow-"Because I Loved Him.

was dulled by this other woman's mis-

To Economize Use an egg beater to beat soap flakes to a foam. It makes better suds, and one needs much less of the flakes,—Mc-Call's.

Things You'll Love to Make

Novel-fringe Sash

This NOVEL FRINGE SASH is quite inusual. Its novelty lies in the fringe which consists of strips of picoted silk Each strip is one inch wde and eight whe would "compromise" him, anyhow. She would tear him from the tender clasp of Mary Drew.

His diamond, too—she almost had foresteen it. Yundayer had called it foresteen it. Yundayer had called it His diamond, too—she almost had forgotten it. Vandaveer had called it Dick's "mascot"—had assured her that he wore it round his neck. That was precisely the stupid, sentimental sort of thing that a man of Inck's callber would do. Oh, well, his loss would be her gam.

"Yes, Mary Drew told me that she fully intended to neept my guardian." As she repented this astounding his the young girl wondered if Dick would have to take a chance on that.

"Is novely les in the fringe mustry dusty oil. For such a boun, he will forgive her any number of dance slips. And it is easy to keep your had shining and clean if only you will have the strips of picoted silk. Each strip is one inch wde and eight in less two clear water and dry in the sum of the sum of lock is force that brush your hair with a family scented half brush. Three strips are of gray, blue and striped sliks to match the sum and and passed lightly over the bristles of your brush is the secret of the subtle, elusive fragrame that should cling, aimediately rush to Mary, asking her the chance on that.

"Did she tell you confidentially? Or she intend you to announce the en-But Miss Eve was in no whit put out as she replied: "It isn't officially announced, of urse. I'm only telling you privately, cause you're such a family friend!" te smiled a coquettish little smile at "And also because I'm so im-by worried, Dick! For Mary doesn't really care nor have and po-know it. It's the-the money-and po-"That isn't true!" Dick sprang to feet, his young face blazing. "I on't sit here listening to such talk! tell you she isn't a bit that sort of i! I know her—" Eve raised her brows.

Safeguard Your Rugs and Carpets

Moths love to gather in the corners or the soiled places-and you run the risk of having an ugly bare spot staring at you next Fall, unless you insure the safety of your fine rugs and carpets through the Summer by having them Bornot drycleaned. You will be amazed and delighted with the soft, fresh colorings which our famous process will restore. Unless it is threadbare, your old rug or carpet, Bornot cleaned, will be almost as good as new. Our wagon will quickly respond to a postal or phone call.

Please Tell Me What to Do

"Bound" to Be Good

Looking

Photo by Old Masters A frock of figured crepe does duty for many occasions and times of day, especially when it has one of these attractively draped pieces on each hip and is finished with a rippled binding of satin ribbon. The hat is just right for the dress, and the veil, of course, adds greatly to the charm of the whole costume. A worth while feature is the short, close-fitting sleeve, also bound, with the ribbon forming a bias line from the cuff up across the shoulder to the neck, making a yoke effect in the back of the blouse-a fine idea if you have to cut your sleeve out of two pieces and want to dis-

Adventures With a Purse

guise the seam

If you like to embroider you may be interested in the little girls' dresses that come already stamped. Handwork

By CYNTHIA

Congratulates Trio Dear Cynthia — To "McWizzburg," "Te Jure" and "Sophist"—the intellectual "trio"—allow me "who runs and reads" to congratulate you on your inevitable unity of thought and strikingly similar literary style. JEALOUS.

Send Her Flowers

Let the Girl Decide

Her Billy Boy—It seems to Cynthia that not very many men are making more than you are a week and as you are both young it seems a pity not to wait a year or two. Long engagements as a rule are not wise, but if a man and girl love each other in the right way and are not able to marry or financial reasons for several years they can certainly have an understanding about it.

growth of bad manners to gain as sider her a cry-baby, a poor sport or a "weak sister," a man, under the same conditions, must find some one, preferbulic schools will have closed. The long summer vacation need not be wholly unprofitable if parents can devote a little time every day to the lessons in courtesy which, foreign critics say, are more needed by American boys and girls than by any other children on the face of the globe.

And baving unburdened himself of them, and impressed her so with their greatness that she half assumes the responsibility of them in order to relieve him, he goes on his ordinary way, and nine times out of ten has to be reminded of them the next time he sees her. girl love each other in the right way and are not able to marry or financial reasons for several years they can certainly have an understanding about it, and work and save and plan together for a home. If you both feel you do not want to wait more than a year, wait that year until the girl has reached an activity then he married quietty. wait that year until the girl has reached her majority, then be married quietly, in spite of families' desires for big wedding—remember, you both have your own lives to live and your own happiness to look to. If there is love enough between a man and woman they can manage on $130 to $135 a month by careful planning and economical buying. It is hard on the girl, of course, if she is used to having everything, but with youth and energy and brains the man will make more soon and the troubles. will make more soon and the troubles will smooth out and there is a happi-

Dear Cynthia—It seems that in almost every edition of your paper there are queries from girls. i. e., Elue Eyes, etc., inquiring as to where they can find a modern model man.

Churches, clubs, etc., have been recommended, yet I wonder how many have followed this bit of advice? Personally I think that a church, if one was interested in its social affairs, is the best, from a moral point of view. Here, however, is a bit of advice that might meet with approval, yet it, too, has its bad with approval, yet it, too, has its bad

Now, girls, you want to meet real men, and for what purpose — "object AT CUPID'S CALL

By MAY CHRISTIE

Mary Dree is Carrenge Reliator

Leve Redoctor, the first body on any low ellisted out that the coult with the same of the first body on any low earse of the KNOW a perfectly adorable little baby. Jane Winifred. Isn't that a sty name? One of those warm days their time thusiy at present are going to lead the others a merry chase after you, So, I say, wait and watch the unwary and unprepared drop by the way, while the real man lopes home to his goal—a that come already stamped. Handwork for the tiny tot makes her look so dainty, and after all is not so much trouble. These dresses I saw have not so very much work on them, and are only ten cents. Doesn't seem possible, does it?

For sames of above address woman's bare Editor or Phone Wainut or Main 3000.

California's now law prohibiting capital punishment for minors under eighteen, was framed by a woman member of the General Assembly, Mrs. Anna Saylor.

All of course, this does not tell you extend the composition of the general tile work on the real man lopes home to his goal—a gir!

Of course, this does not tell you extend to the composition of the general tile work of the gipt kind. Cynthia has to do you to go to church. How about meeting them at work or at school or through mutual friends? There is an answer to every problem, you know.

Blue Eyes, men appreciate the company of real girls like you—one who prefers to entertain at her home. As a general rule, those who run every night are usually a shallow, fickle, fiirtatious and undependable lot. Notice, please, I said "as a general rule."

NOM DE PLUME.

MANN & DILKS

1102 CHESTNUT STREET

Sold Here Only

REDUCTIONS

Ladies', Misses', Girls'

Plain Tailored Suits

18.75

Also Top Coats

These plain tailored suits and coats are in models that are always in style

MANN & DILKS

1102 CHESTNUT STREET

NOM DE PLUME.

WHAT'S WHAT

Be HEVEN DECIE "

Dear Cynthia—I am a youth of eighteen. She is a lass of seventeen. We are very intimate friends.

She has completed her course in high school. In honor of the occasion she is giving a dance. Of course I am in the wilded that the state of the younger teachers, because the your would deem appropriate to give her, an intimate friend.

Also by what means—through the merchants, personally, or otherwise?

ONE OF YOUR FAITHFUL.

Order a corsage bouquet of sweet learning handsome; send your visiting card in an envelope in the box and have it delivered at her home by the fiorist on the afternoon of the dance.

Let the Girl Decide

"As soon as a man gets something all talked out, puts it out of his system and makes somebody else bear part of his burden, he's all right, but a woman has to keep everything to herself and the way within reach of her mind in sold the private state of the younger teachers, way be partly responsible for this. Her testing the private state of the younger teachers, way be partly responsible for the freedent of the private states; they "talk back" in jeering handsome; send your visiting card in an envelope in the box and have it delivered at her home by the fiorist on the afternoon of the dance.

Let the Girl Decide

"A public school principal complains all talked out, puts it out of his system and makes somebody else bear part of his burden, he's all right, but a woman has to keep everything to herself and made way swithin reach of her wind and makes somebody else bear part of his burden, he's all right, but a woman has to keep everything to herself and made way swithin reach of her wind and makes somebody else bear part of his burden, he's all right, but a woman has to keep everything to herself and made and makes somebody else bear part of his burden, he's all right, but a woman has to keep everything to herself and made and made and made and made and made and made and makes somebody else bear part of his burden, he's all right, but a woman has to keep everything to herself and made and hate to

The Woman's Exchange

times the daily papers there are offers be strong for himself alone.

from firms which give out postal cards.

There is no one he can tell about it, from firms which give out postal cards to be tinted at home. Watch the columns carefully and answer some of the advertisements. I am sure you will be advertisements. I am sure you will be able to get some of this work to do.

will smooth out and there is a happiness in such love and planning that many a person who has plenty of money would long to buy and could not.

It is a question that no one can decide for you, but remember this, if you decide to wait a few years, say two or three, also plan not to see each other every day. Long engagements are very wearing and twice a week would be a wise plan for seeing each other, unless you both go around agreat deal to parties, and if you do that, you will not be able to save much, either in money or character. Cynthia thinks it's up to the girl to decide.

Advice on Finding Model Man

Dear Cynthia—It seems that in almost every edition of your paper there are queries from girls, i. e. Elue Eyes, are quer

DOES A MAN SUFFER MORE DEEPLY THAN A WOMAN?

We Have More Resources of Consolation in Ourselves Than Men, Although We Can Endure Longer and More Patiently

OH, MEN don't know anything or some one dependent upon him who about the way women suffer!"

But if there is nobody he is completely lost. forgets a thing in a few months, but a oman goes on suffering for years."

A WOMAN has so many more reroman goes on suffering for years."

conditions, must find some one, prefer-conditions, must find some one, prefer-away from the nasty, slippery mud pud-dle that made him fall and hurt himself.

of them the next time he sees her.

BUT, on the other hand, there is nothing to be compared with the suffering of a man who is away from friends and family, in sorrow or trouble. He must bear it all himself: he must

When r man is sick or hurt or sad or A woman endures pain longe worried he goes back to little boyhood. better, no doubt, but she has mo

BUT suppose mother's shoulder isn't there to rest upon, he cannot hear that soothing voice, and that guiding hand does not reach out to help him-what does the little boy do then?

Why, he cries and sobs and wails in mother's shoulder to rest upon, his mother's soothing voice to comfort him, his mother's wise hand to guide him his mother's wise hand to guide him

In sorrow or grief she can be, if not consoled, at least diverted by a bouquet the most heartbroken way!

When he is grown up he cannot take refuge in tears, he must 'be a man'— but he deesn't want to.
And the suffering wells up in his heart until his nerves give way and his temper breaks loose.

He must have some one to comfort him sources, more ability to bear it alone,

Two Minutes of Optimism By HERMAN J. STICH

Unprofitable Merchandise *CORRY," a modest storekeeper said in response to my request for a certain

D article, "we don't keep that,"

"How's that?" I asked. "Well," he explained, "it's only once in a blue moon we get a call for it, It's rather an expensive thing, and besides tying up a lot of capital, it would eat up too much costly space. It's really unprofitable merchandise, and we can't the nails?

I am also considered a fairly good cook. Would you please tell me what to put into a chocolate icing to make it hard like a fudge, instead of putting it in the refrigerator.

How can I prevent myself from making large holes in the toes and heels of stockings? Am I too young for those baby Louis heels? I am fourteen and five feet one inch tall. I would like to it in the refrigerator?

What would be a pretty, inexpensive gift for my best girl friend who gradconstantly to better your best. If you won't improve your last efforts, the man what would be a pretty, inexpensive gift for my best girl friend who graduates with me? I am pretty handy with the needle. I can embroider, knit or crochet.

ANXIOUS.

think you've come to stay you to supplie the man of And poor health. Of course, there are some sad cases. But with most of you what those goods are.

A. F. BORNOT BRO. CO. Brance