

WILL CALL WOMEN IN STILLMAN CASE

Four Alleged Co-respondents Expected to Be Put on Stand by Banker's Wife

HEARING ON WEDNESDAY

New York, June 13.—Open hearings, with the evidence heard in public, in the demand of Mrs. Anne U. Stillman and her lawyers in the future conduct of the celebrated divorce proceedings which will be resumed on Wednesday.

Mrs. Stillman is determined to have a more secret star chamber hearings which may be used to her disadvantage by James A. Stillman.

The deposed president of the National City Bank has brought two new witnesses from Canada to testify for him when the new hearings in his divorce suit are resumed.

The witnesses are from Three Rivers, Quebec, and that is all that was known of them last night except they are now in New York preparing their testimony.

New Charges Against Wife This is the bomb with which the financier hopes to wreck Mrs. Anne U. Stillman's defense.

There are several new sensations ready to be sprung soon after the hearings are resumed in Poughkeepsie on Wednesday.

James A. Stillman, former president of the National City Bank, is to be put on the grill. John E. Mack will cross examine him.

Should this happen Poughkeepsie will have on Thursday or Friday an exhibition of Broadway shades of hair and costumes that will startle.

Another move will be made today to add to the list of women to share the position of Mrs. Florence Lawrie Leeds and "Clara."

Her family is known but is not disclosed. Counsel for Mrs. Stillman will not admit it, but it is a fact that in the aggressive counter-attack planned the names of two persons of high character are to be witnesses.

One is a woman and the other is a man who was for years chummy with "Jimmy" Stillman.

Another move will be made today to add to the list of women to share the position of Mrs. Florence Lawrie Leeds and "Clara."

Her family is known but is not disclosed. Counsel for Mrs. Stillman will not admit it, but it is a fact that in the aggressive counter-attack planned the names of two persons of high character are to be witnesses.

One is a woman and the other is a man who was for years chummy with "Jimmy" Stillman.

Sacrifice in Vain

Edward, who had been injured in an automobile accident, died in the Episcopal Hospital Saturday night, after a blood transfusion, to which his father, Albert, submitted, failed.

MAN GIVES BLOOD IN VAIN TO SAVE LIFE OF HIS SON

Father, Already Weak From Illness, Made Sacrifice Eagerly

A sacrifice made by Albert E. Shenk, 2756 Amber street, who gave his blood to save the life of his ten-year-old son, Edward, proved in vain.

The boy, who had been injured in a motorcycle accident, died late Saturday night at the Episcopal Hospital. His father submitted to a transfusion operation, although in a weakened condition as the result of illness.

Edward Shenk was on the way to attend a baseball game Saturday afternoon and while turning into Emerald street from Turner was struck by a motor truck. The boy was thrown several feet and his head struck a fireplug.

The truck was driven by Charles Weber, 5107 Frankford avenue. He took the boy to the hospital, where it was discovered his skull was fractured.

On being informed that transfusion was necessary to save the boy's life his father readily assented to submit to the operation. Edward Shenk died soon after the operation.

The Government maintains Gill killed Diamond with a monkey-wrench while the murdered man slept, because it is contended the two were involved in a counterfeiting plot, and Diamond had weakened and intended to confess the next day.

This is the first murder case to be tried in the Federal Courts here for twenty-six years.

Complete Investigation of Fourth and Race Streets Station Ordered

An investigation of the Fourth and Race streets police station was started today by Director Cortelyou as a result of a more charges that several patrolmen of the district have made a practice of "shaking down" saloonkeepers for money on the promise of protecting them from arrest.

After a conference with City Solicitor Smyth, Director Cortelyou sent several detectives to the district to check up on reports.

Friday a complaint was made to Director Cortelyou by a saloonkeeper who said two patrolmen compelled him to pay $1000 for protection. Since then complaints against several others have been received.

To Dance on Parkway

The Parkway, from Sixteenth to Eighteenth streets, will be turned over to the American Legion for a street dance on the night of July 4, it became known today.

A court of honor, recently erected by the city at a cost of $10,000, on that section of the Parkway, will be redecored for the occasion. The names of the engagements in which American troops participated in France will be painted on the pillars of the court.

The Police Band will furnish music for the open-air dance.

Commercial Trust Company. LET US furnish you with travelers' cheques for your journey. You will then be independent of banking hours and require no identification. We also offer our assistance in securing passports and making steamer or railroad reservations. Call, Write, or Telephone, Spruce 8200

MRS. CRAWFORD EXCUSED AS JUROR

Wife of Art Body Secretary Non-Believer in Circumstantial Evidence, She Says WAS ON MURDER PANEL

Mrs. Andrew Wright Crawford, socially prominent, was this afternoon excused from service on the Federal Grand Jury on the ground that purely circumstantial evidence was not sufficient to warrant her returning a first-degree murder verdict.

Three other women also were excused by Judge Dickinson before whom Raymond P. Gill, a sailor, is being tried for murdering his bunkmate, Samuel J. Diamond, on the U. S. S. Columbia. It is the first murder case to be tried in the Federal courts here for twenty-six years.

Mrs. Crawford, dressed in a blue gown, chic hat and ebony beads, took the stand questioning by the United States District Attorney she said she had no scruples against capital punishment, and that if the Government testimony was strong enough she would return a first-degree verdict.

When she was told the evidence would be greatly circumstantial and that no one could be produced who saw Gill commit the crime, she watered and said she felt she could not return a first-degree verdict which would take Gill's life on purely circumstantial evidence.

Mrs. Crawford lives at 2421 Spruce street, and is the mother of a family. The other three women excused from jury duty on this case are Miss Mary Campbell, Potstown; Miss Mary Farrell, Norwood; and Alys F. Fleisher, 2801 Green street.

Five Men Selected The five men selected are Irvin F. Leidy, Hamburg, foreman; Edward B. Starb, Potstown; Nathan B. Grubb, 442 Olddale street, Philadelphia; M. Wyant, Hamburg, and W. F. Smith, Berwyn.

Robert J. Sterrett, counsel for Gill, who is nephew of William Gill, former judge of Elmira, N. Y., indicated his client would not take the stand in his own defense.

Gill in sailor's uniform, appeared unconcerned. He winked to several of the court attendants when brought into court. He sat scribbling and rarely raised his head from the papers.

The seven women are occupying the front row. Completion of the jury is expected this afternoon. Henry W. Braude, assistant United States District Attorney, is representing the Government.

Gill, who is said to have already served a term in prison, is represented by former assistant United States District Attorney Robert J. Sterrett, who was appointed by the court. The Government is represented by Assistant United States District Attorney Henry W. Braude. The chum of Gill, Samuel P. Diamond, was found dead in his hammock, on the cruiser Columbia, while the vessel was lying in Guantanamo Bay, Cuba.

CONFERENCE HELD ON SITUATION IN GERMANTOWN

A conference was held today between R. H. Horton, representing the Rapid Transit Co.; J. R. Conroy, of the City Transit Department; and J. E. Lewis, president of the Citizens Improvement Association, preparatory to a study of the Germantown trolley situation.

Citizens of that section are protesting against the rerouting of Route 19, which no longer runs to Germantown, necessitating a transfer at Westmoreland street. Public Service Commissioner Samuel M. Clement, who heard the petition of the residents that the old Route 19 routing be restored, ordered a survey by representatives of the public, the company and the city. The report must be made Friday.

BOY DROWNS SAVING CHUM

Camden Scout Loses Life After Rescue in Newton Creek

A Camden Boy Scout gave his life to save a friend, an investigation of a Saturday evening drowning showed yesterday. The dead hero was Thomas R. Robinson, thirteen years old, of 505 Fairview street, Camden.

The boy he saved is Edward Moore, thirteen years old, of 525 Gordon terrace. At his home today the boy told of the tragedy.

"Four of us were together at Newton Creek near the railroad bridge. I don't know anything about swimming, but I thought I would take a chance. I know if anything happened to Tom I would save him because he was a good swimmer. Something did happen to me and Tom saved my life and lost his own. When I called to him to help me he caught me by the shoulder and the hair and had just about saved me when he became exhausted and dropped like a log under the water."

Excused From Jury

MRS. ANDREW W. CRAWFORD wife of Art body secretary, says she does not believe in circumstantial evidence. She was excused from jury duty today

REBURY NARBERTH HERO

Private Charles Connelly Died in France After Armistice

Private Charles Connelly, twenty-three years old, of Narberth, who died in France two days after the armistice was signed, was buried this morning with full military honors.

His funeral was largely attended, and many who fought with him in the World War were present.

The funeral took place from the home of his sister, Mrs. Joseph Slinn, 207 Forest avenue. The body of Connelly was among others which arrived from France last week.

Services were conducted in St. Margaret's Church by the Rev. Dr. Joseph Cowley. Interment was in St. Denis' Cemetery. Connelly enlisted in the Tank Corps of the Rainbow Division.

He spent twenty-six months abroad and was wounded once in battle. Later he contracted pneumonia, which caused his death.

Members of Harold D. Speakman Post of the American Legion and other military organizations attended the funeral.

FINE FRAMING PAINTINGS CLEANED AND RESTORED

THE ROSEBACH GALLERIES 2320 Walnut Street

Write YOUR Confidential and Important letters & documents here:

Special Copy Work STENOGRAPHER - NOTARY Report, MASTER OF ENGLISH, Confidential, Experienced in all lines. Moderate. Quick. HOTEL VENDIG 1000 Locust Street, Philadelphia

MONEY spent for advertising is not a tax on sales.

It tacks on sales by strengthening your sales attacks.

HERBERT M. MORRIS Advertising Agency Every Phase of Sales Promotion North American Bldg. Philadelphia

YOU save enough in days off that you don't take, to pay many times over for the invigorating, health-preserving exercises designed expressly for you at the Collins' Institute.

Collins Institute of Physical Culture COLLINS BLDG., WALNUT ST., AT 15TH

HANSCOM'S Fancy Orange Pekoe Ceylon Tea 40c lb. or 5 lbs., $1.75

Exceptionally fine for iced tea. By the way - drink iced tea in the Hanscom Restaurants these hot days, only 5c glass.

MARMON

That the Marmon 34 will run smoothly at walking pace - on high gear - is proof that the Marmon driver has comparatively little shifting of gears to do, even on a long tour.

1228 Market St. and throughout the city

THE HATCH MOTORS CO 720 N. BROAD ST. - PHILA. Showroom Open Until 9:30 P. M.

INFANT IS LOSER IN RACE WITH DEATH

Mother Faints as Child Dies in Her Arms on Way to Hospital WAS PNEUMONIA VICTIM

Mary Allen Clark, ten-months-old daughter of Mrs. Tillie Clark, 2212 South Boulevard street, died at 8:10 o'clock this morning as her mother was frantically running toward St. Agnes' Hospital, with her daughter in her arms, in the hopes of saving the child's life.

Feeling the body of the child grow cold, the mother fainted and was found unconscious, her baby still clasped to her breast, at Fifteenth and Millin streets. Through the night the mother had watched at the baby's bedside. The child was restless and coughed continually. This morning the mother took the child to the office of Dr. R. W. Jamison, 2133 South Sixteenth street. After an examination, the physician said the child was suffering from pneumonia, and that there was just a possibility it might live provided it was hurried to a hospital and given emergency attention.

Sobbing, the mother picked up the baby, ran from the physician's office, and started in the direction of St. Agnes' Hospital. She knew she had lost the race with death as the child's hands grew cold. The mother sought to rub the child's limbs, and then fainted.

Peter McGoldrick, 1809 Wolf street, saw the mother fall. He hurried to her aid and summoned a patrolman. The mother and her dead child were taken to the hospital in a patrol. The mother's condition is serious.

BAND CONCERT TONIGHT

The Municipal Band will play tonight in Jackson street between Ninth and Twentieth streets.

FOOT AND LIMB TROUBLES Instantly relieved by our special arch supports, fitted and adjusted by experts. Our Seamless Elastic Hoop, the most comfortable support for various ailments, swelling, limb, weak knees and ankles. Trusses, abdominal and athletic supports of all kinds. Largest manufacturer of deformed appliances in the world. Philadelphia Orthopedic Co., 49 S. 13th St. Cut out and keep for reference.—P. L.

BAILEY BANKS & BIDDLE CO. FINE PEARLS for June Birthdays Pearl Necklaces - Sautors - Finger Rings - Pendants - Tassels - Bar Pins - Brooches - Bracelets

Rummage SALE Women's Summer Footwear Today, Tomorrow and Wednesday The greatest bargains ever offered to the women of Philadelphia! Thousands of pairs of smartest oxfords, strap pumps and slippers, in the fashionable leathers & styles. Practically all Sizes in the Sale! $7.50, $9.50 to $12.50 Values $1.00 Three Days $2.00 Only $3.00 Only ROYAL BOOT SHOP FOR WOMEN 1208 Chestnut St.

ARE YOU Satisfied With the Ordinary Garden Variety of Clothes?

If you are not particular about appearance, you can get what you want at almost any clothier's.

But if you are interested in procuring garments that will look well on you—that are attractive and which differ exceedingly (and to advantage) with the ordinary run of clothes, then you owe it to yourself to see our Spring and Summer assortments.

Prices are $30 and upward. At $45 and $50 we have especially notable values.

JACOB REED'S SONS 1424-1426 Chestnut Street

EXTRA GUARD AT TRIAL Alleged Bank Robbers in Reading

Reading, Pa., June 13.—(By A. P.)—In order to secure the safety of the Reading and New York lawyers will prisoners from rescue and to handle the large crowds in attendance, it was decided here today to have an extra force of State police, deputy sheriffs and city police on hand tomorrow when the trial of the six New York men, charged with robbing the People's Trust Co. of $180,000 four months ago, begins.

Blue Week at Perry's

To Demonstrate the Beauty and Variety of our Blue Serge Stock

Featuring a Wonderfully Comprehensive Range of Patterns in Blue Serge—the most staple suit style known for general Summer wear, at Prices made especially attractive for this One Week Demonstration of Blue Serge Suits!

Regular Values much higher conservatively stated

$28 $33 $38 $42 $48

Blue Serge does not mean with us only a plain twilled Blue Suit. We have plenty of those. We have besides, Blue Serges in self stripes and silk stripes; Blue Serges in beautiful herringbones—narrow herringbones, medium herringbones, broad herringbones; Blue Serges in fine soft twills; Blue Serges in twills resembling the old English Clay weave—some skeletonized with silk, some with mohair, some plainly lined; seam edges piped—single breasters, double breasters with two or with three buttons, beautifully tailored and finished.

Doubly attractive with Special Value Prices on Every Blue Suit

$28 $33 $38 $42 $48

PERRY & CO. Sixteenth and Chestnut Streets

my! how dainty! My! How clean and appetizing! Lily 'glasses' are for your lips alone. No wonder the best fountains boast: "We serve in Lily 'Glasses'—the most popular paper glasses ever made." PURITY SPECIALTIES CO. CHARLES L. HUFF, Owner and Manager Denckla Building, Philadelphia

drink from a LILY

Quick and efficient service in your garage or service station will please your patrons. Advertise for mechanics in

THE LEDGER MORNING and EVENING Walnut 1000—Main 1601