AT CUPID'S CALL By MAY CHRISTIE

ry Drew is Carrington Bellairs' to scorefory, and is in love with t his clients. Dick Calardin. Bel-ward. Eve Rochester, has ob-a position through Julian Vanda-an unscrupulous adventurer, who movem Dick in Alaska and is ans-"I know it. And I like you for it." and a position through Julian Vanda-ber, an unscrupulous adventurer, who as known Dick in Alaska and is anz-cus to get a diamond which Dick owns ad always carries. Dick is in love with Mary, but Eve has her cye on im as well as on Julian. Bellairs waits to marry Mary, who is staying a his country estate to do some work or him there.

Please don't peak so sharply o me." Her lips rembled for a moment in a small, pathetic smile. "I have enough to bearin the present sit-- without The small pa-etic smile re-inded Dick a ittle bit of Mary MAY CHRISTIE Drew, And, therefore, it impressed m. Perhaps, he told himself, he had m mistaken in thinking Fve Rochesa designing.

"I don't wish to be unkind." he said.
"I don't wish to be unkind." he said. Perhaps, he told himself, he had een mistaken in thinking Fve Roches- the

In a softer tone, "but frankness always soo pays, I think. Of course, if you assure glimpse of her. me that you didn't create any false imtween you and me, then that's all right." resion as to the situation existing be-

"Of course, it is. I never even hinted Her vanity was strong enough to be-that you liked me." Eve protested, "But-Dick"-she leaned a little for-irresistible! ward till her left shoulder touched his thought so, that would hurt me terri-way she could see no signs of Julian bly. Honestly it would.

There was an intoxicating light in Eve's blue eyes, an alluring curve to her young lips. Had Dick not loved had met Mary Drew and was quite Miss Mary Drew so utterly he surely happy and interested in that damsets must have felt some momentary attrac-tion toward the girl.

But no answering light glowed on the young man's face and Eve at once de-cided that a different "line" would have o be attempted.

"There's one thing I want to ' she said, with apparent frank-dropping the sirenish pose, "and that I want your friendship Please don't connect me wit either engagements or intrigues-I'm of them. I've no wish to be mar--no designs on any man. I don't wish to hear the slightest rumors on the subject. But-I do need friends,"

A momentary compunction touched the man. He had been too hard on Eve, Tomorrow-Swift Progress

THROUGH A WOMAN'S EYES By JEAN NEWTON

Is It a Home?

A man who was sent to jail because, zled person with a dust-cloth in one his wife said he treated her with con-tempt says he would stay in prison for life rather than return to her, add-wiped her shoes on the door mat. ex-

"Home was never like this. These about going back to my wife, but it has only strengthened me. I have had days of heavenly quiet and considerate treatment from the institution. I pre-ture of home! It vindicates the man fer the rest of my days in jail to going who finds in jail a peaceful haven, and back to her torture. to her torture.

it spells the reason why so many really back to her torture. "My wife," he explains, "has a person for cleaning. She cleans, cleans, ever and always. There isn't selves to the scrubbing brush and the selves to the scrubbing brush and the selves to the scrubbing brush and the Eve's slim fingers closed for a moment over Dick's big hand. "There' That's a bond of friendship. Scaled!" Dick felt uncomfortable. He did not teally fathom Eve. But his heart was sore over the news of Mary Drew's en-THE game was not lost yet, of course thought Eve. She would try another the set along that line. "Of course, what I've told you is absolutely confidential." quoth Eve. Dick moded miscrably. He was not on panionship. And Eve was doing her best along that line. "Of course, what I've told you is absolutely confidential." and Eve.

going to challenge Mary to an explana-tion. After yesterday's disturbing scene—the scene he had inadvertently witnessed-it was Mary's part to com to him and try to clear the wretched matter

And Mary had not come. He could not know that Mary was uffering just as acutely as himself, and that she had walked over to the and that she had walked over to the Barley Mow for the express purpose of "setting matters right" this very afteroon, but that the sight of Eve and imself in intimate conversation over friendly cup of tea had roused her pride -and a whole pain of longing-and that miserably she had gone away !

girl again-to catch the some

And so-when Eve pressed the invi-tation on him-he accepted cagerly. The stil was pleased. She thought that Dick and she were "getting on.

Their ten finished, Dick walked back side.

Vandaveer. She would have been considerably company

It was dark along the country roads now. Eve kept close to Dick. She placed a small, appealing hand upon his arm and artfully applied a constant dose of flattery. It was well-done flat-tery-not too obvious. Eye calculated that it ought to be successful in the end.

"Au revoir, then-till this evening !" She gave his hand a quick, firm presure. The bond was not yet strong mough for any sentimental lingerings. Eve was clever enough to realize that She hurried to her room, to rest. Fo she must look her best tonight.

The farewell dinner in town and the dinter party in the summer home differ in respect to informal sum-clothes, but the table appointments may differ are the same. The dinner-cloth should be of plain inen damask perfectly laugdered, with hapkins to match. It is usual nowadays zled person with a dust-cloth in one to have a large monogram embroidered hand and a broom in the other, de-manding to know whether she had wiped her shoes on the door mat. ex-postulating at her fingers on the newiy polished arms of the chair and groan. have been so folded in froming that the monogram appears on top. The dinner-roll is placed inside of the napkin on the service plate. The place-cards, each bearing the name of a guest, are ar-ranged to the left-front of the service plate. At the right are the meat knife. fish knife and soup spoon; at the left, three forks for fish, entree and roast. As other silver is needed, it is served with later courses. Modern usage has hanned the old-time armory of silver at the service plate. polished arms of the chair and groanthe service plate.

Making More Money

yourself. Here are some suggestions:

THE oblong shapes which look like A butterfly pillow would be lovely fastened invisibly at the ends, or fin-I miniature bolster rolls are often with one large butterfly in the center, ished with a couple of silk tassels, f shirred and smaller ones near the corners. overed in taffeta, with rows Some of the wash pillows could be the tucks set in. The tucks are about onetucks set in. The tucks are about one-fourth inch wide, and there might be a cluster of three at each end—settins the tucks maybe two inches apart. Then the ends, which measure seven or nine inches, have the tucks niso. Some of the wash pillows could be finished with a narrow, rather heavy ince edge, or an embroidered scallop. And the heavily padded raised satin stitch, used for black-eyed susans on a brown pillow. A most attractive porch or bedroom pillow can be made of gingham in a small check. This should have a ruffle stitched in with the seam all around. Care has to be taken at the The ends, which hucks also, inches, have the tucks also, For the porch, sun parlor, or lounge in a brown pillow, would be stunning. For the porch, sun parlor, or lounge in a brown pillow, would be stunning. For the living room or den, one of justed. The hem can be simply stuched or a line of feather stitchin a bedroom, linen in rose, green, blue. For the living room or den, one of justed. The hem can be simply tan or brown will be good-looking, with the beautiful furniture tapestries would stitched, or a line of feather stitch some design in colored floss in a cross-stitch pattern. Make the cover an easy fit, and have the underside plain; then prices. These pillows should be made work one or more designs on the upper perfectly plain, and a silk cord blind excellent for a cross-stitch design, and side.

100

WHAT'S WHAT .

By HELEN DECLE

looping the cord once or twice close to pillow.

 MMR. 24" Advises reprint the pillow.
 A most attractive porch or bedroom pillow can be made of gingham in a small check. This should have a small check at the small of them, but the low small a pal who makes a date and keeps it a pal who makes a date and keeps it. There with all of them, but the low mall a pal who makes a date and keeps it. Make him welcome in your sex. And, let me small check are that show a sout, but it is darn hard to find among your sex. And, let me add. I graduated to long trousers long and have met a few girls, some met to talk seriously. Let the fellow start it. We fellows want companion-ship as much as you, but it is darn hard on some pretty bad ones, too. "MISTER 24." hats.

"Mr. 24" Advises "Pep"

Dear Cynthia—Just an answer to Pep." Would you have us believe that

Please Tell Me

By CYNTHIA

Tells "Pep" to Cheer Up

What to Do

O. HENRY, JR.

Doesn't Sound Like "McWizzburg"

Decan't Sound Like "McWizzburg" Dear Cynthia-To express my admira-tion of "Prudence" and "The Piebe" would mean to undergo both torture and delight. Undoubtedly they realize that J without vice there can be no literature : I art must have its lights and shades. But perhaps "McWizzburg" is a bit a human and naturally resents superfluous censure. Even the versed "Prudence" will admit that the fiber literati loathe coardeness of expression, and outragecoarseness o' expression, and outrage-ous condemnation is attributive of the ous conductive of the stands defensive "Johnny Blue Eyes" stands defensive of sports. He bruits that they are the right kind of men. In part, I echo his sentiments. He has touched me in a

$4. "4.75." you repeat, in a dull tone handing her a

THE REMORSE THAT COMES FROM BUYING AN EXTRA HAT

Is Pretty Deep, but Not So Deep as the Pleasure That Results From Getting What You Want

A THIEF may feel guilty after the to "save this week"-"I'll take it with me, please. Thank you. Yes, I think it's very pretty."

No doubt a child has a pricking con-And you go out, bothered all the rest of the day with that burdensome cience after stealing jam from the paper bag. Bothered with something else, too! pantry.

Perhaps the firebug experiences a few qualms when his neighbor's nice new garage goes up in beautiful flames, kindled by his hands.

Tells "Pep" to Cheer UP Dear Cynthia—Poor "Pep"! (And, by the way, I really do not think the cos-nomen quite in harmony with the tone of your letter, even as mine might be similarly in discord with this epistic.) I hope you haven't actually decided to become a member of the "Sisterhood of Spinsters." For, you see, there are heaps of good fellows still floating around. Honest and truly there are Yes, and I happen to know several o them; good, clean, virtuous boys. Also, I unfortunately am acquainted with the other kind. You say you have tried the church. Well, that would seem to be the most promising place to look the other kind. You say you be the other kind. You say you the the church. Well, that would seem to be the most promising place to look for a model husband; and yet, do you know that a large percentage of the males attend church only because they are "shanghaied" by the girls? But do not despair. "Pep" there are fellows who do not wear ultra-modern clothes with pearl buttons, rabbit-eared lapels, flaring skirts slit half way up the back, long pointed vests and bell-shaped trousers. There are fellows who are worthy of you, even as you (and I am judging solely from the thought derived from your letter) are worthy of them. True, they may not meet every qualification of your hero of "The Harvester," but I assure you they will make excellent partners with which to work during this comparatively short journey here on earth. O. HENRY, JR. And we know how guilt stands out all over us when we break one engagement and get caught keeping another on the same day.

girdle.

today.

But-with all due regard and sympathy for those who have suffered in of it"! Unless, of course, they have ever bought a reduced hat at a higher price absolutely have to have it. And when they needed millions of other things worse! But when that feeling wears off at last —is there anything to be compared with the smug feeling of complacency you have every time you put on that hat? After all, there's nothing quite us nice as getting what you want when you want it! these ways-there is one "guiltest feeling" which beats all the others to a standstill!

And that is the one which is experi-enced by every one of us just before and immediately after we purchase a bar-gain hat that we didn't mean to get!

Oh, that's the deepest guilt that any criminal ever carried ! You count up your expenses and your wherewithal that very morning. "Now, let's see," you meditate, "I won't have to buy any big thing this week, because I can wait until that dress is almost finished before I get the

"Yes, I ought to be able to come out on top, if I don't more than get just a sandwich and some iced tea for lunch

Lucky Weddings If you take the family cat where it can witness the wedding ceremony it will bring good luck. It is unlucky in France to have a person older than the bride enter the church door first. It is lucky for the couple to run out of the church hand in hand, for rapid progression in ousiness. A stick is held at the church door for the church hand in her; but if she falls, wore be unto her. The bride to jump over. If she clears it, all will go smooth with her; but if she falls, wore be unto her. The bride and bridegroom must not look about or recognize any one on going up the church aisle, for the one who does it will go elsewhere for love in a shert time. The more steps the couple so un when

No. INDEED, criminals may feel remorse, but they know something about of it'!

Lucky Weddings

CO, POCKETING 'the wherewithal D and the decision, with the careful calculations and the determination, you start off. As you gaze absently into a window

The more steps the couple go up when entering a church to be married the more happy their lives will be and the longer they will live. n your way to lunch you see a sale of And right in the middle of the win-

To Kill Ants A temporary expedient for controlling-ants is to moisten small sponges with sweetened water and place them where the ants are most numerous. Attracted by the sugar, they will crawl into the sponges and may be killed by dropping into boiling water. The sponges should be baited again with the sweetened water and, if necessary, set in different places until the colony leaves the house places until the colony leaves the house,

Even if you don't get another bite or nibble on your fishing trip, you've had a whale of a time if you get plenty of bites of Ancre

Cheese. It's a far more wholesome and appetizing food in summer than most meat. Its new, sanitary, coated wrapper keeps it

ANCRE

Cheese

fresh.

dress. "Heavens, it's only four dollars!" you shout to yourself with galloping heart. "And it couldn't be better! No. I don't need it; I can get along with the ones I have." You go resolutely past the window.

clutching your pocketbook as if some-body had been trying to get it away from you—as indeed somebody has! "Minced chicken is cheaper than sliced-I might take ham; no, I must have some chicken, can you take my order? I want a minced chicken sandwich and some iced ten, please; yes please, this one is really awfully shabby and I haven't anything else but that black one, which isn't just right, and then that old blue thing !" Your thoughts are somewhat chaotic during that inexpensive little lunch.

WHEN you come out into the street again your mind wants you to go across the street to get those little things that you need, but your feet absolutely refuse to obey. And, with your conscience protesting all the way, you walk firmly down the street again, try on the brown and yellow hat, find it becoming and ex-actly right—and ask the price.

Of course, you have read the tag With the Genuine Roy wrong, and it is $4.75, instead of just after the saleswoman, handing her a five-dollar bill-the very one you hoped

Saves Time - Saves Health

Here is a table drink made as quickly as you can pour hot water into the cup

INSTANT POSTUM

Barry Neil is arrested for embez-sling funds and Harriet, his wife, in order to prove his innocence, obtains a position in his office under an assumed name. There she is persecut-ed by Charlic Harmon, the son of the head of the firm, and she also dis-covers that Lucy Pratt, one of the office stenographers, is in love with Charlie. She can discover nothing else, however, until one night she is recognized by Sadie Howard, who is cager to inform the police of Har-riet's whereabouts. She takes her story to the Evening Star, and Donahuc, a young reporter, is sent out on the case. He trails Harriet to the the case. He trails Harriet to the offices of Harmon & Graves after hours one evening and there breaks in upon a scene. Charlie has been trying to persuade Harriet to run alcay with him, and at a crucial moment, Lucy Prait, who has been listening outlies hursts into the

"A ONE-MAN WOMAN"

By HAZEL DEVO BATCHELOR Copyright, 1921. by Public Ledger Co.

Denty of people who will believe them, don't you forget that." "But you couldn't say anything about me, it wouldn't be true."

Larry walked up to Charlie quickly,

Larry walked up to Charlie quickly, his blue eyes threatening. "That'll be about enough, or we'll t settle this matter here and now be-tween us. You're not dealing with a woman this time, Mr. Charlie Harmon, a and I think a good thrashing would do you a lot of good. You know it wouldn't look very well if I happened to mention that you tried to bribe me a few minutes ago. Now, Miss Pratt." and he turned to Lucy, "dld you see Mr. Harmon take those bonds?" "Of course she didn't," Charlie burst out, "She hasn't any proof and no one

"She hasn't any proof and no one be found with a microscope. The pur-pose of the house is to be kept clean rather than to be lived in." or children at home. No doubt these women who are cleaning fiends mean well. They think have beds open in the daytime. It is that is a home, yet is not unfit for re-needless to say that very soon she did fined habitation.

the came home from work, or even from the man who works for it and looks school, tired, aching for complete re- forward to it has had his nightly raschool, tired, aching for complete re-laxation of muscles and mind, yearning faxation of muscles and mind, yearning tion of the pleasure and rest of home for the easy chair and heaving a sigh of and leaves it contented in the mornrelief at the thought of home.

Perhaps she can remember, too fit Perhaps she can remember, too fit iner they will hever have to contend must have come to her from some one). with the lure of a jail and they will or it will serve if she can just imagine. have gone a long way toward being as she dropped then into the first in-withing haven, meeting a tired and frazviting haven, meeting a tired and fraz-needless to say that very soon and there. Let them scrub and clean, if it makes not have to open them at night, either: she was left with the house in perfect them happy and does not spoil their health or good looks. Let them go health or good looks. Let them go erder and no one to upset it. I wonder if either of these women health or good looks. Let them an about picking up to their hearts' con-tent, but let them wait for this until tent, but let them waits for it and looks

ing. Then they will never have to contend they will Tather than to be lived in." This reminded me of a woman I they are doing their duty as home. where said if her husband or one of her she said if her husband or one of her she said if her husband or one of her she said if her husband or one of her she said if her husband or one of her she said if her husband or one of her she said if her husband or one of her she said if her husband or one of her she said if her husband or one of her she said if her husband or one of her she said if her husband or one of her she said if her husband or one of her she said if her husband or one of her she said if her husband or one of her she said if her husband or one of her she said if her husband or one of her she said if her husband or one of her she said if her husband or one of her she said if her husband or one of her she said if her husband or one of her strike the happy medium of a home have beds open in the daytime. It is a while I had about a ton of it in the back yard. "Then, because I needed the space for a garden, I started out to get some-body to cart it away and found, to my great surprise, that it was worth money -not as much as I get now, because it was getting for a week's work. After was getting for a week's work. After wasn't sorted, but about as much as 1 was getting for a week's work. After that I got boys to go around the city with buckets and pails, gathering the glass, and I paid them a few cents each for their trouble, teiling them to be sur-and look out for the clear, uncolored glass and the broken bottles. STRAW TRIMMINGS "It wasn't long before we had to get

The stress and less and the strests and less in the strest in the strest is up and bringing it home in the strests and less in the strests and less in the strest is up and bringing it home in the strests and less in the strest is up and bringing it home in the strests and less in the strest is up and bringing it home in the strest is up and bringing it home in the strest is up and bringing it home in the strest is up and bringing it home in the strest is up and bringing it home in the strest is up and bringing it home in the strest is up and bringing it home in the strest is up and bringing it home in the strest is up and bringing it home in the strest is up and bringing it home in the strest is up and bringing it home in the strest is up and bringing it home in the strest is up and bringing it home in the strest is up and bringing it home in the strest is up and bringing it home in the strest is up and bringing it home in the back yard.

Harriet shrank back, but her eye continued to meet his evenly.

Futurity needs such men. Femininity should adore them. For they live through natural periods of open danger and challenge the gods in their casual chivalry intent upon the quest of pure. volatile pleasure. And once they are enlightened as to certain exigencies, they are cautioned, and again trail forth zealously, having received more of an education than it is the lot of thousands to share. "McWIZZBURG." No "McWIZzburg." futurity does not THERE are times when it would seem that the universe revolves around that the universe revolves around Hoyle—everything appears to be run "according to Hoyle." I have often wanted to see one of his books and have wondered if he listed his "don'ts" in a

First, A young man should not smoke to share. McWizzburg," futurity does not love the kind of sport you describe. Sconer or later riotous living will get him and he will pay for over-indulgence.

THE WOMAN'S EXCHANGE

R. D. L.

Sponge this place with a damp cloth Byonge this place with a damp cloth and then press over it with a dry cloth between the dress and the iron until it is dry. This will remove the gloss and take away the shape of the iron from the place. Be sure to make it wet all over the edges of the mark, so that there will be no sign of it left.

Wants Her Brows Back Again

To the Editor of Woman's Page: Dear Madam—This is the first time have come to you for advice, wishing you can please help me out. I had my gebrows arched a long time ago. I still arch them. I now want them to grow in again. I hope you will please tell me what will make them grow in fast, because I am going to be brides-maid soon, and I have never arched them right. After they grow in I will have them arched right. M. P. I doubt very much whether you can make your eyebrows grow in soon enough to have them arched before this wedding if it is to be soon. But if you rub pure vaseline on them every night before you go to bed and let it stay on all night you can encourage the growth of the brows and make them come back more quickly than they naturally would. I hope you will be able to do it in time, To the Editor of Woman's Page:

Things You'll Love to Make

Stunning Bathing Bag

Taking Out a Shiny Place To the Editor of Woman's Page: Dear Madam—Will you kindly tell me how I can get the shine made by a hot iron out of a blue crepe meteor dress? I do to let the bride know this, but the bridesmaids really are noticed almost, not quite but almost as much as she is.

If these gifts are to be given by the

If these gifts are to be given by the class as a whole you can make them something nicer and more expensive than you could if they were presented by an individual. For instance, a good

For a June Wedding To the Editor of Woman's Page:

Dear Madam—As I am a constant reader of your paper I would appre-clate your answering following queations:

For a quiet June wedding, the bride to wear a plain white summer dress and hat, what would be proper for the bridegroom?

What would be a nice menu for a nall wedding breakfast? In it proper for a wedding cake to be berved at a wedding breakfast? If busi-ness suit is permissible for the bride-groom, what color tie? A READER

Tou can make a STUNNING BATH, is an of get that, make it of raw, or if you cannot get that, make it of raw, or if you to can of get that, make it of raw, or if you to can of get that, make it of raw, or if you to can of get that, make it of raw, or if you this bag quite roomy, as you will use allopers and other necessities for a days is practical for carrying wet things and the practical for the practical for carrying wet things and the practical for the pra

Gifts for School Teachers To the Editor of Woman's Page: Dear Madam—Kindly state a few ap-trociated gifts that would be appropriate given by a grammar school graduating class. If these gifts are to be given by the shows the way the business page: Dear Madam—Kindly state a few ap-trociated gifts that would be appropriate given by a grammar school graduating class. If these gifts are to be given by the shows the way the business page: Dear Madam—Kindly state a few ap-trociated gifts that would be appropriate given by a grammar school graduating class. If these gifts are to be given by the shows the way the business page: Dear Madam—Kindly state a few ap-trociated gifts that would be appropriate given by a grammar school graduating class. If these gifts are to be given by the shows the way the business page: Dear Madam—Kindly state a few ap-trociated gifts that would be appropriate given by a grammar school graduating class. If these gifts are to be given by the shows the way the business page: Dear Madam—Kindly state a few ap-the truck and the other equipment.

The Question Corner

Describe a clever dish for the breakfast tray that economizes space in an attractive way. 2. What can be done to preserve the colors of a printed linoleum? When a girl is graduating as When a girl is graduating as a nurse, what pretty and suitable gift may be given to her? Tell the meaning of the French expression, "Honi soit qui mal y pense." On a new pair of rompers, what 5.

isual elastic? 6. How is the newest veil for mo-toring fashioned?

2. A

droops from the lowest side. When hemming is being done, a small nail file will catch the ma-3 terial and turn it under easily and quickly.  $\Lambda$  'bon mot' is the French phrase for a witty saying. On a smart dress of rose geor-gette, an original trimming for-the skirt consisting of circles of tiny feathers such as are used in back for trimming turbacc bands for trimming turbans. Sleeves are such a strong feature of the new bathing suits that the sleevcless ones are quite behind the times.

By CORINNE LOWE

Straws show at least how the fash-

Today's Inquiries

attractive way of finishing the bloomers takes the place of the

Yesterday's Answers

1. The little Eskimo girls play with costly dolls made of ivory and costly dolls made of ivory and dressed in ermine or other kinds furs. delightfully unusual-looking candle-screen is fashioned of amber-colored silk, shirred into the center, where it is finished with a tiny wreath of roses; while the screen itself is completed by an edging of narrow plush braid and a long tassel that terial and turn it under easily ions blow this summer. This trimming in much glorified form is one of the smart cape cost of navy gabardine.

a pipe when with a young lady. Second. When dining, one should re-member that eating is not to be made a A CLEVER NEW IDEA vocal exercise. And so on, announcing in a very trite and uninteresting way the ear-marks of culture. But I have found a pocket edition of a book in which ye series of rules such as:

page. I had just had a long, exceedingly dusty train ride, and was frantically preparing for a removal of dust that was streaked from ear to ear. A thoughtful hostras had made ready for me and I reached for a jar of cold cream that was on the dressing table I dimed my fingers in the inr and rubbed cream that was on the dressing table I dipped my fingers in the jar and rubbed into my skin the most refreshing of cleansing cream. When clean and feel-ing human, I reached for the jar again to examine it more closely. The cream is a very delicate pink and has a very taint perfume of rose—pure oil of rose is used in the preparation. I wanted to eat some of it, it looked so tempting. As a cleansing cream it was perfectly As a cleansing cream it was perfectly fine, and it left my skin soft and re-freshed. A pound jar can be had for sixty cents, and it's a worthwhile investment.

For names of shons address Women's Page

Every cup of

"SALAI

TEA

Gives genuine satisfaction and solid comfort non-of-the-world writes a series of letters to his son, teling him how to behave himself under any circumstance. It is not a book such as our friend Hoyle would write, but a most cleverly compiled and entertaining little book. It sells for $1 and is full of interst, from the few lines of the "Busy Pub-lisher" throughout to the very last

At all our Stores

