FOR THE BABIES AND PETS. It is no longer necessary to employ a nurse to care for the baby while you golf. California women have adopted a large caddy bag, which guarantees the youngsters plenty of fresh air. Underwood & Underwood.

SERVING. T. C. Leonards, one of the seventy-two entrants in the lawn tennis tournament, for the championship of Pennsylvania, which started at the Merion Cricket Club yesterday. L. P. S.

NO BUSINESS YESTERDAY. It was all play for the members of the City Business Club for, after attending a luncheon at the Hotel Adelphia, they motored to Tinicum Inn, Essington, where baseball, swimming, boating and numerous other pastimes filled up the afternoon. Edward Morris forced William E. Driver (right) to quit, excuse being—sun too hot. Fred Shannon (at the left) won the spoon race. Note the eggs. L. P. S.

MISS ALICE LEE. At Columbia University, N. Y., where she is studying painting. She was formerly secretary to the president of the Chinese republic. K. & H.
