NAVY HEADQUARTERS

Cottages Begin to Fill Early With Regular Visitors to This Resort

Newport, R. I., June 15 .- Newport is planning for a season of unusual social activity. Many of the cottagers are arriving for the summer and a number of the palatial summer villas are now open

There will be considerable interest in naval circles this season, for a large number of destroyers of the United States Navy will make headquarters in this region, and probably a notable panorama will take place in the waters of Narragansett Bay. It is stated some 150 destroyers and auxiliary craft will assemble here for the season.

Perhaps the chief topic in social car-cles is the recently announced engage-ment of Miss Gladys Deacon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Parker Deacon of Boston, to the Duke of Mariborough. The Duke is the divorced husband of Perhaps the chief topic in social cir-Consuelo. the only daughter of the late William K. Vanderbilt, and the present Mrs. Oliver H. P. Belmont.

Mrs. Oliver H. P. Belmont, who arrived here on the William K. Vanderbilt

vacht Eagle, has leased Sea Cove Villa for the season. There is some specula-tion as to whether Marble House, Mrs. Belmont's beautiful villa, will be reepened or not. Captain and Mrs. Hugh L. Willoughby, who returned not long ago to Philadelphia from Florida, have arrived their summer residence here.

At the Newport Country Club golfing has been revived. During the week many golfers have made the rounds over many golfers have made the rounds over the links, which are in fine condition. Bailey's Beach will reopen today for the season, and here, far from the "madding crowd," the so-called smart set will find diversion basking in the sunshine on the sands or taking a re-freshing dip in the invigorating

Tennis has engaged the attention of a number of the cottagers, and the Casino courts have recently been the scene of lively practice matches. The invitation tournament will take place the first week in August and the Davis

Cup events August 18-19.

Reginald C. Vanderbilt is in Europe and presumably will be a spectator at the international pole matches. It is said he plans to visit Paris, but to return to Newport in time for the open-ing of the annual horse show, August 29. The members of the Executive
