St. Davids Man Leaped to Death From Hotel Window

Kirk Moore, of Lancaster pike, St. Davids, who leaped to death yesterday from the seventeenth floor of the Pennsylvania Hotel, New York City, probably will be buried from New York.

Moore was twenty-six years old and an employe of the Sturges Leather Co., of New York City. He was a son of Edward Moore, a cotton broker of Robert R. Moore, president of the Commercial Trust Co., Broadway and Forty-first street, New York City.

Moore was to have made a plea today in the County Court at Norristown to charges made by the parents of several children. Moore was accused of enticing children into his automobile. Relatives of the young man say his mind was affected as a result of a severe attack of influenza while a lieutenant at Camp Custer, Michigan, during the war.
