Peggy was struck with sorrow when she saw the chocolate youth in the hands of his enemies. She felt that it was her fault. She had wished that a bee might sting Mighty Spear and it had stung him. Stew and Hot Coals MIGHTY SPEAR, chief of the Hot-tentors, quit his howling as he looked up into the tree where Youth of the Lion Heart was hiding. Mighty Spear forgot the bee sting which had made him yell. He thought only of this impudent stranger who had stolen into village and who dared to laugh at

Mighty Spear pointed his finger at Youth of the Lion Heart and shouted an order. Four savage warriors leaped into the tree and grappled with the stranger. The chocolate-colored youth put up a brave fight, but they were four to one. Quickly the warriors tore him from the tree and hurled him to ground. There he was quickly bound hand and foot.

The captive girl looked on in horror. She gave a cry of Jespair when she saw her sweetheart made a prisoner.
Peggy, Billy and Folly Wisher, the goblin, hid in their nests above. For-tunately for them the four warriors

Gave Much Time To The Improvement Of Their Complexion

It is said that the most beautiful women of history are the ones that spent most of their time in the cultivation, improvement and prolongment of the life of their beauty. They used all safe mesns they could find to accomplish this charm.

Black and White Beauty Bleach will remove skin blemishes, such as lan, sun and wind freckles, blotches, liver spots. It will clear your complexion—make your skin soft and youthful.

plexion—make your skin sort and youthful.

Black and White Bleach is a delightfully perfumed, pink-tinted cold cream compound, approved and used by particular women. It will not grow hair on the face, and when applied forms an invisible coating on the skin.

Black and White Soap should always be used with Black and White Beauty Bleach. Its regular use will keep the skin in perfect condition.

Peggy's heart was heavy. She wondered how she might rescue the lovers. Chief Mighty Spear heard the captive girl's cry of despair at the seizure of the youth, and saw the look in her cyes as she gazed upon her sweetheart.

"Ha! So this is the youth who was coming to punish me for stealing you from your home," sneered Chief Mighty Spear, giving the Youth of the Lion Heart a dig with his long spear, but keeping away so the youth could not bit him again. "And for you red-hot coals."

Peggy was so indignant she couldn't help making another wish. "Hot coals, indeed," she whispered. "I wish I had a lot of hot red pepper to feed to you and your savages."

At that instant Peggy felt something swinging against her side. She looked down. There was a sack, such as newsboys carry, and the sack was filled and running over with red pepper.

And Peggy got her wish. The youth sank his teeth into the chief's leg. The chief gave a howl, jumped back, banged against his couch-throne, and told tomorrow.

25% Discount on Real French Willow!

Kayser & Allman, at 1522 Chestnut street, noted for the finest of French willow made, is having a sale of the beautiful stuff, at a 25% discount! Only those fortunate enough to wander into the shop and discover it will know about it—and, of course, you. Even the original prices were lower than usual, and now, owing to the discount, a large, stunning $15 St. George armchair is only $13.25, a wicker davenport is $33 instead of $44, and there will be a 25% discount from even a $10.50 Bar Harbor chair. Everything in willow will be discounted because the shop is a bit overstocked—they'll decorate it for you, too, f you wish, very reasonably.

Favorite Union Suits for Men

At Guilford's, 1430 Chestnut street, I've found a particularly worthwhile item for men. It is the pride of the shop really, and is snapped up upon sight-a summer athletic union suit particularly liked by fastidious men, of that silky white Soiesette which is at one and the same time so cool and luxurious. The genuine Soiesette garments, full cut and finely finished, are now very scarce, but Guilford's, the largest exclusive haberdashers in the State, have them in all sizes and at an exceptionally low price at that-$2. Be sure, very sure, to get the genuine Solesette garment; otherwise the economy, comfort and luxury of the real garment described cannot be appreciated.

Exceptional Sweaters and a Blouse

Wouldn't you like to have a reproduction of an $82 sweater for? Who wouldn't? Lenbert's, at 1328 Walnut street, decided to reproduce the luxurious all-silk one in a good quality fiber, and must say it is a success. It is a graceful Tuxedo with semi-detached panel collar, coming in black, navy, white, and the luscious colors so fushionable now. There are also some $75 sweaters reduced to $25. would have you look also at one of the prettiest little blouses ever for $6.95. The French voile is a simply beautiful quality, the model is a modified Peter Pan, and there are broad bands of real filet, and the lace about 11/2 in, wide adorns simply perfect cuffs-only $6.95!

'Different" Mirrors for Wedding Gifts

One of the most universally acceptable wedding gifts is a mirror. The other day I found some perfect beauties at Wright, Tyndale & Van Roden's, 1212 Chestnut street-in all sizes and individual designs not seen elsewhere. Little panel mirrors of charming pattern are as low as $8.50 and prices and sizes gradually increase until quite a large, handsome salon mirror is reached, at $45. A bride never receives too many mirrors-for many mirrors make a large house cheerful and a small house spacious, and distinctive mirrors such as these enrich an interior

Attention! Hats for $3!

It is amazing that such a good little millinery shop as Gertrude Hammond's, 131 South Sixteenth street, offers hats for $3. Miss Hammond is noted for unusual tailored models—hats always in perfect taste, and these for only $3 each do the nice shop credit. The hats are valued higher, of course, $6 up in fact. There are smart sailors, especially in black and white, and a semi-tailored soft-crowned sports hat that is generally becoming-with the new folded ribbon crown and straw brim. I think there are even a few dress models. Of course, Miss Hammond has many other models at various prices—every one, however, emphatically reasonable.
