

AS SUNSHINE. Miss C. Anita Preston, of the Temple University physical education class, dances in "The Gardener," at the home of Mrs. Dobson Altemus, Falls of Schuylkill. Ledger Photo Service.

ONE OF THE "POPPIES." Miss Edna Weil in dancing pageant, given by 1921 normal physical education class, of Temple University. The class graduates tonight. L. P. S.

ARRAIGNED IN OHIO. Mrs. Eva Catherine Kaber, widow of Daniel F. Kaber, a wealthy publisher of Ohio, for whose murder she is being held for trial. Mrs. Kaber is shown, as she appeared before Judge Bernon, at Lakewood, Ohio. U. S. U.

WORKING GIRLS AT BRYN MAWR. Margaret Hickey, Holbrook, N. Y., and Rose Finklestein, Boston, telephone operators, among the ninety summer students. L. P. S.

VERY SERIOUS MOMENT—"HUMORIST" WON. The field in the annual Derby race at Epsom Downs, England, a short distance from the finishing tape. The winner is owned by J. B. Joel. Central News Photo.

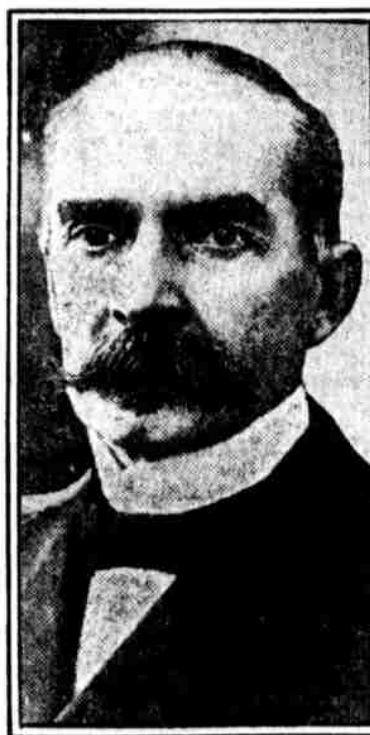

ENTERTAIN CHILDREN. A carnival is being held at Broad and Bigler streets, under the auspices of the William T. Shetzline Post No. 96, American Legion. Fifty children of the Southern Home for Destitute Children enjoyed the merry-go-round and many other attractions yesterday. Ledger Photo Service.

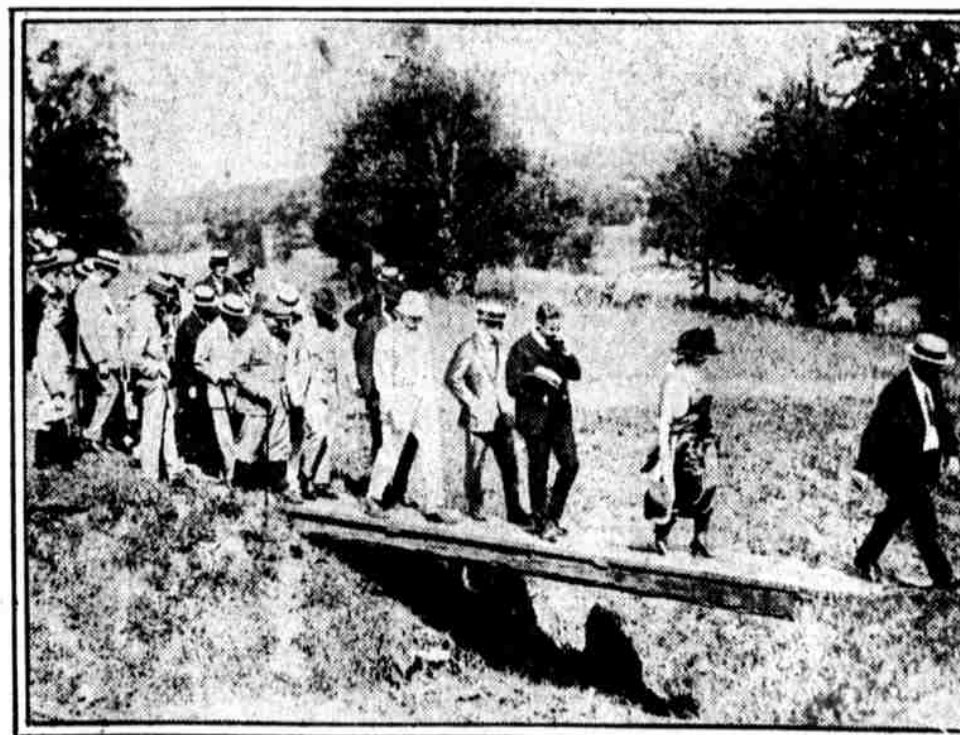

MISS MARRIE ORRMAN, Swedish beauty, who sailed for Paris on Monday, where she will star in the comic opera field. Underwood & Underwood.

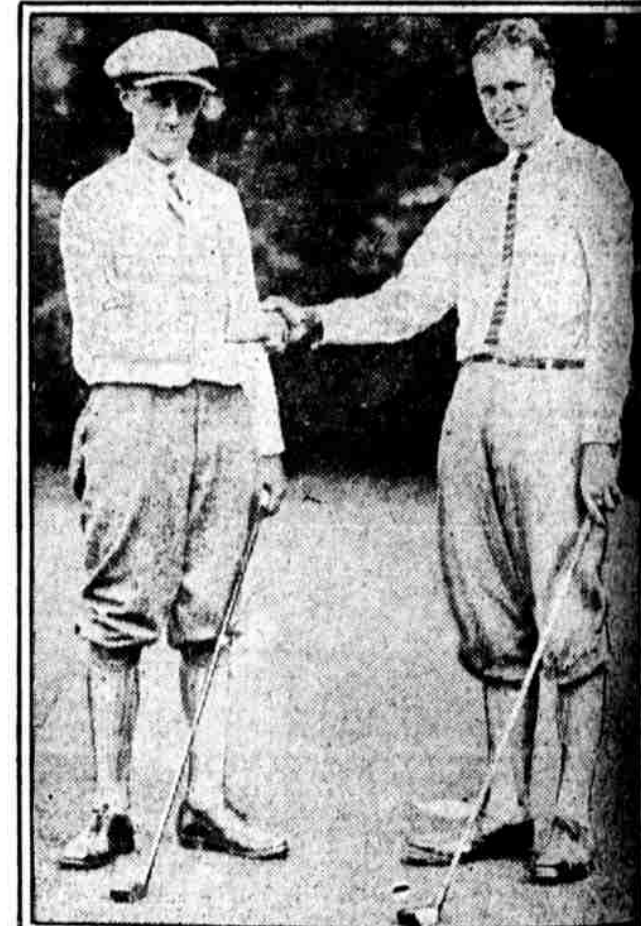

MRS. JULIAN FLEISCHMANN was selling hats and the Egyptian statue, to aid the Italian babies, when she was snapped at the Villa Marina Fete. Lone Island. Central News Photo.

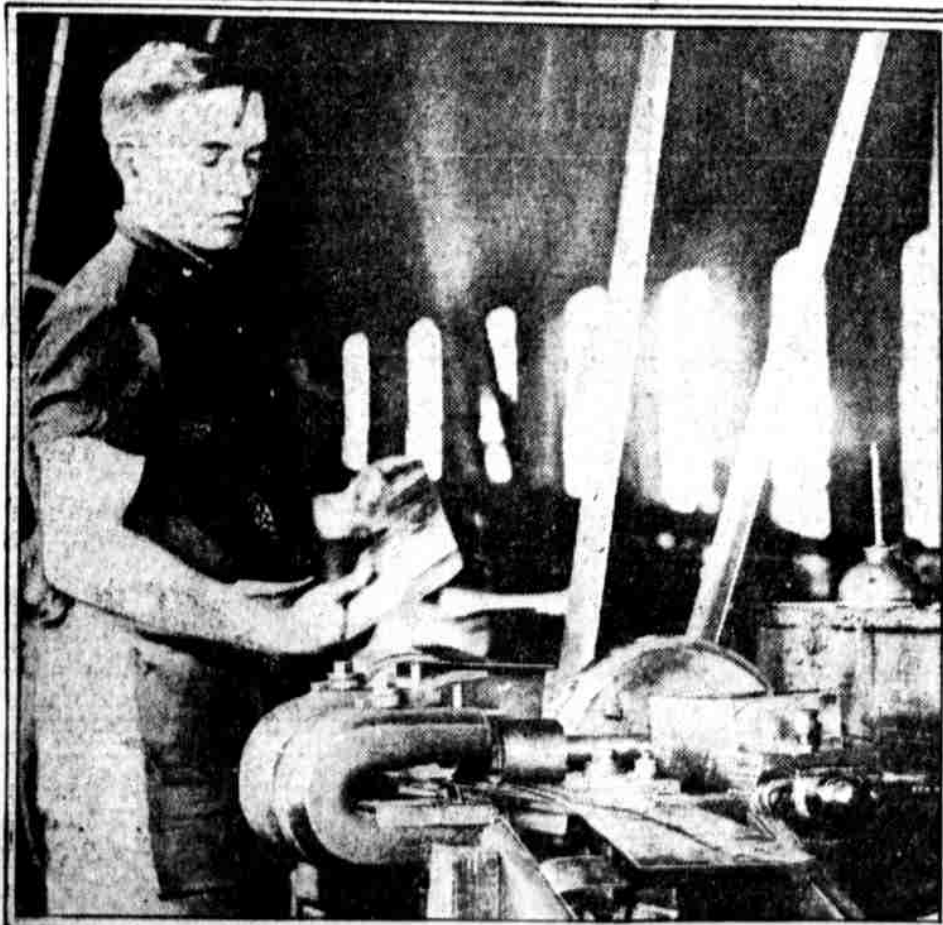

PRESIDENT AND FIRST LADY. Kaarlo Juho Stahlberg, first president of Finnish Republic and wife. Finland's chief executive was a former college professor. He was elected by the Diet.

MARSTON WINS. Part of the gallery at the golf classic, for the Lynwood Hall golf cup, on the links at the Huntingdon Valley Country Club during the final round. Max Marston, of the Merion Cricket Club, played J. J. Beadle, of Cedarbrook. They were square at the sixteenth hole. Beadle (left) and Marston before the contest started. Ledger Photo Service.

OUR CITY'S WORKERS AND WHAT THEY DO

FRANK CRAVEN, 2622 East Venango street, operating a machine that cuts teeth in hand saws, at the saw factory of Henry Diston & Sons, Inc., Tacony. The machine has a capacity of 3000 saws a day. Ledger Photo Service.

MRS. ELI KIRK PRICE, Mrs. Charles S. Wurts and Miss Elaine Darling (left to right) helped at the fair, in Chestnut Hill, in aid of Italian women.

SEMAPHORE SENTINELS

AT FIFTH AND MARKET STREETS. He is Reserve Patrolman Thomas Toon, who lives at 5882 North Marvine street. L. P. S.

J. B. FENNO, JR., of Harvard, picked to play against the Cambridge-Oxford tennis team.

MRS. MARSH ALLEN, as Beatrice, and Fritz Lieber, as Dante, in pageant, staged in the New York studio of George Grey Barnard. Underwood & Underwood.