

STARS GRADUATE FROM CENTRAL H.

Trachtenberg, Bonivitaola and Bauer Among 15 Athletes to Get Diplomas

TO ENTER PENN IN FALL

When the commencement exercises at Central High School are completed several athletes will be lost to the Crimson and the Gold. Three of the most prominent stars are Mendel Trachtenberg, Bonivitaola and Bauer.

Trachtenberg is a three-letter man, having starred in football, basketball and soccer. While at school he achieved great laurels on the football team at one of the halfback positions.

Bonivitaola the Mirrors had a star who had accomplished many things. He played for two years on the championship football team and was on another championship team when he rowed number six on the crew which beat West Philadelphia High School for the championship of Philadelphia.

Bauer is another man who has done great things at Central. He first took to soccer and was looked upon as one of the best forwards in the league. Football was next and he received the coveted letter in this sport also, acting as a capable understudy to Dickie Wells.

Ketchel Dropped Johnson, but Negro Stopped Him in 12th

Anybody who wasn't afraid of Jack Johnson and who packed a stinging wallop in either fist was known as a white hope after the Texas Negro had come heavyweight champion of the world.

He was no match for the powerful Johnson, who knocked him out in twelve rounds at Colma, Cal., October 16, 1909. Ketchel weighed only 177 pounds, while Johnson's total displacement was 198 pounds.

Only once in the twelve rounds was there an opportunity for the Michigan fighter to win. This was just a moment before the finish, when Ketchel sent the champion to the floor with a left swing to the jaw. Johnson toppled over on his back and made several attempts to rise before he succeeded.

Whether he was purposely staying down for a rest, no one ever learned. Seeing that Johnson appeared dazed, Ketchel rushed at the Negro as soon as he arose. Johnson calmly awaited the attack and jammed a right and then a left against the challenger's jaw.

Both men were on the floor when the referee began calling the seconds. Johnson got up, but Ketchel remained prostrate and was counted out.

Semi-Pro and League Gossip

Herman Baerzel, who has been officiating at Penn has been selected to umpire the third game of the American League and the first game of the National League.

Followers of the Philadelphia Manufacturers' League will be out in force tomorrow if the two grades, one there will be five teams tied for first place.

Ed Caskey, of Bridgeburg, has stoned a new harrier, and he will make his first appearance in the saddle there tomorrow with the Brooklyn Royal Giants.

The League Island Navy Yard has turned out a number of good cyclists in the "Cyclists' League" which is now in progress.

Sam Germon, of the Lit team, announces that he hopes to soon have a game with the store boys who play football ball. They are the attraction at North Philadelphia tomorrow afternoon. Barney Stauffer will hurt.

CARPENTIER PROVES COURAGE IN RING

Knocked Down, Georges Came Back and Stopped Opponent. Started at 12

HE MET STARS WHEN 18

Georges Carpentier, challenger of Jack Dempsey, is one of the most unusual boxers who ever competed for the heavyweight championship.

In temperament and intelligence, there has been none like him among aspirants for heavyweight honors. He will be outweighed by Dempsey when they clash. Other physical measurements may also appear to be to the disadvantage of the Frenchman, but the essential item of courage will not be included in these shortcomings.

Carpentier, born in the coal mining district of Lens, France, fought as a youngster of twelve years and progressed steadily through the various weight classes, meeting the best boxers of France, England and America until he now stands near the pinnacle in pugilistic sport.

A survey of the opponents Carpentier has met in the ring and sketches of several battles in which he revived from a count of nine to outpoint or knock out his rivals in subsequent rounds convince one of his ring courage.

He has fought among others Joe Jeannette, Frank Klaus, Billy Panke, Jeff Smith, Harry Lewis, Bombardier Wells, Joe Beckett and Gusbant Smith. Some of them he met as a youth in his late teens. His fight with Frank Klaus and Billy Panke when he was only eighteenth are declared to have been the most grilling in his career.

In victory or defeat throughout his ring campaign, Carpentier has been guided by Francois Desamps toward the heavyweight championship goal which he will endeavor to reach at Doyle's Thirty Acres in Jersey City on July 2. The list of opponents Carpentier has met is more impressive than that of Jack Dempsey's rivals. In ring experience, Carpentier is by far the older.

The first battle with Bombardier Wells at Ghent is declared to have been one of the most impressive exhibitions of courage by the young Frenchman, who was outweighed many pounds. He took the count of nine in the first round to come back and knock out his opponent in the fourth. Before they met the second time, he predicted Wells might last one round, but the Englishman was knocked out in less than one minute.

Harry Lewis, in the fourth round of a bout, broke two bones in his right hand, hitting Carpentier on the cheek bone with a smash that cut a deep gash under the eye. Carpentier came back to outpoint Lewis in twenty rounds. When he lost a fifteen-round decision to Joe Jeannette, Carpentier was sent to the mat two or three times, but refused to quit and dropped the Negro twice for a count of nine.

But this anomaly of the boxing game has done his most important fighting outside the ropes. The cockpit of an army combat plane has seen his most thrilling engagements and greatest demonstration of courage.

Cited for heroism several times in the World War, Carpentier wears the Croix de Guerre and the Military Medal, of all decorations, the most prized by the French soldier.

Scraps About Scrappers

A territorial tilt will be decided in the open air at the Cambria Club tonight, when Joe Latta and Eddie Mullen meet in the wind-up. Both hail from Fort Richmond.

Victor Ritchie, of New York, will arrive in Atlantic City next week and go into training there. Ritchie will box under the management of Ralph Janatny.

Several local boxers will appear in bouts at an "Eks" smolder near Norristown tomorrow afternoon. Knockout Al Wagner, Joe Jackson, Ray Belmont and Young Joe Borrell also to give their services in respective matches.

Al Wagner is training daily at Adam Ryan's, sparring with Tommy Cleary. The former is preparing for a bout Monday night at the Eleventh Street Arena with Bobby McCann, of Grays Ferry, while Cleary is getting in shape for a fifteen-round bout with Martin Judge the same evening at West Manayunk.

Johnny Fasson will appear in a four-round bout at the Gaiety Theatre tonight with Harry Dusen as the person of the second part.

A dozen amateur boxers are scheduled to compete this evening at the Blue Theatre. Bouts will be decided in four different classes.

Billy Jackson, 105 pounds and a protegee of Jack Sperry, will be in a four-round bout with Jimmy Ryan, Little Bear, Benny Bass and Johnny Boyce.

Jack Sperry, Southwick's promising bantam, will go on in the semi-final of the Wagner-McCann match at the Eleventh Street Arena Monday night. Sperry's vis-a-vis will be Jimmy Ryan, another South Philadelphia. The prelims will be Jack Diamond vs. Harry Burke, Ray Mitchell vs. Paty Bradley and Joe McDougall vs. Johnny Quinn.

Pat Bradley, at one time a rugged and hard-hitting southpaw batter, has been preparing for a come-back for several months. Bradley has gained a lot of weight since retiring from the ring.

Two six-round bouts and one four-round match will be held as preliminaries to the Cleary-Judge set-to at West Manayunk Monday night. Bobby Burns will clash with Charley Walters, Jimmy Cleary will take on Willie Clark and Dave Griffith will face Kid McKey.

Bobby Burns, who scored two victories last week, one being a fifteen-round knockout, is out with a challenge to Gus Francis at 130 pounds.

Peek Miller will box in Clay Turner's place against Jackie Clark at Reading July 4 in the star bout, of which program Lew Dandy will take on Tim Bremer.

Denny Ferguson is preparing for a return to the ring here since his discharge from the United States Navy. He probably will appear in a fifteen-round bout at West Manayunk June 27. Ferguson wants to go on with Young Jack O'Brien.

Denny Grievie will challenge the winner of the Cleary-Judge bout at West Manayunk. Grievie also is a Manayunk mittman.

Joe Kennedy has undertaken the management of Jimmy Gibbons of Grays Ferry. Gibbons is a waterfowler.

Newcomb Leads Big Field Lancaster, June 17.—C. H. Newcomb, of Philadelphia, led the field in the opening Philadelphia State trapshooting tournament at the home of the Lancaster Athletic Club, breaking 105 doves out of 200 at a sixteen-yard range. Newcomb gave a fine exhibition of marksmanship, breaking more than his nearest competitor, W. W. Fozz, of Lancaster. Philadelphia produced another winner in the person of William Cameron, who led the Class B shooters by smashing 127 targets.

Yanks to Try Collegian Winthrop, Me., June 17.—Del Blaisette, recently of Georgetown University, may prove to be the southpaw pitcher that the New York Yankees have sought for a long time. After a successful season of college play Blaisette came to his home here for a brief rest and has now come to New York to try his left-hand shoots and twists in the big leagues.

TROLLEYMEN PLAY MADISON

Downtown Colored Team Will Clash With All-Stars Tomorrow

The P. R. T. All-Stars will stack up against their most formidable opponent of the season tomorrow afternoon at Tenth and Butler streets when the trolley men take on the Madison Stars, the crack, downtown colored baseball team.

Williams and Rose will be in the points for the visitors, while Buck Mason will hurl for the transit nine. Williams last Saturday shut out having a great season. The All-Stars are the representative team of the local transit force, picked from the fourteen clubs that play in Sections "A" and "B" of the daily league. The grounds at Tenth and Butler are among the finest in the city.

Bridenburg with but two hits and b

Duffy Lewis is Free Agent

Boston, June 17.—Duffy Lewis, star of Boston outfield for several years, may wear a Red Sox uniform again. Word has been received here that the outfielder, who was transferred from Boston to the New York Yankees, has been declared a free agent. He is understood to have indicated a wish to rejoin the Red Sox. Ty Cobb, manager of the Detroit team, who is here, wants him for Detroit.

Men's Solid Leather Belts

Most men prefer to wear a Belt made of one-piece good solid leather. The M. & M. Belt is one piece of Fine Harness Leather (not split). It outwears any stitched belt.

Always keeps its shape. Refined looking and durable.

Persons who know the advantages of a solid leather belt, made by the most renowned SADDLERS in the country, wear nothing else.

Two Keys That Will Cost A Fortune!

To keep these keys would have meant such an enormous increase in rental that we would have to abandon giving the values that our low expenses enabled us to give in the past. To give them up meant a tremendous loss as well, for we would be forced to sell out quickly before our time was up.

That was the trying problem we were made to face. We met the issue squarely by refusing the increase demanded—and our stores were rented over our heads.

We are now in the midst of what is unquestionably the greatest sacrifice sale of Men's Apparel Philadelphia has witnessed in 10 years. We have reduced our prices on everything a full HALF—and in many cases LESS THAN HALF.

To YOU, it means a bargain opportunity so great that you cannot possibly afford to miss it. It means that you can buy the finest brands of clothes made in America for just HALF and LESS than their worth.
