

PART OF GALLERY. Many from New York and Washington mingled with Philadelphia society as poloists fought for the Bryn Mawr cup. General Pershing is chatting with Mrs. W. Hinkson (right) and Mrs. W. C. Sproul. L. P. S.

NEW YORKERS WON. The Meadow Brook Ramblers put over eight goals against three, made by the Bryn Mawr four, on the Main Line field yesterday afternoon. The players were snapped as they followed the ball along the boundary board. Ledger Photo Service.

AN ORANGE GIRL. She was selling luscious fruit during an English garden party for disabled soldiers. C. N. F.

STARTED SOMETHING. General Pershing tossing out the polo ball that opened the final contest between the Bryn Mawr Polo Club and the Meadow Brook Ramblers. Ledger Photo Service.

MRS. LYDA SOUTHARD on her way from Honolulu to Idaho, where she will be charged with the murder of four husbands, a child and a brother-in-law. Revista View Co.

YOUTHFUL ATHLETES. Boys of the McCall Continuation School held their final track meet, at Starr Garden, yesterday afternoon. Hundreds of parents and friends watched the doings. George Schumacher won the high jump. In the broad jump, Joe Labrum was the winner. Ledger Photo Service.

NEW UNIFORM. In a short time reserve patrolmen will be wearing this outfit. L. P. S.

COLONEL J. B. HOUSTON presents a flag to Samuel Shoemaker, for the Carpenters' Co., at 148th anniversary of the Quartermasters' Corps of the United States Army, at Carpenters' Hall. Ledger Photo Service.

THOMAS BANNAGAN, of Hartford, Conn., vice-commander of American Legion. Curtis Hovick.

DOCTORS MEET. Members of the Alumnae Association of the Woman's Medical College at the annual meeting. Dr. Clara Marshall (left), for twenty-nine years dean of the college. At the right are Dr. Harriett Harly and Dr. Ellen Potter. Ledger Photo Service.

A NEW SPORT FOR THE SEASIDE. Girl members of a Brooklyn (New York) riding club going over the jumps with their horses, and then train the animals to rush into the ocean and fight the breakers with their fair riders. International.

LOAFING A LITTLE. Becky Lanier (left) and Corinne Poth, well-known horse exhibitors, sitting on a fence as they await their turn at the Westchester horse show, held last week, in the New York town. C. N. F.

OUR CITY'S WORKERS AND WHAT THEY DO

FRANK MARCHETTI, 630 Christian street, operating a caramel cutter in the factory of F. M. Paist Co., manufacturing confectioners, American and Jefferson streets. This machine cuts 6000 pounds a day. Ledger Photo Service.

MRS. JACQUES LEBAUDY. With her daughter, Jacqueline, she was snapped at the Italian garden fete, at Roslyn, L. I. International.

RESERVE PATROLMAN WILLIAM F. CLARK, who looks after traffic doings at Sixteenth street and the Parkway. L. P. S.

MRS. GEORGE PINCHOT, an interested spectator at annual meeting of Westchester Horse Show Club. C. N. F.

CLARA EAMES. The well-known actress shows Cleveland art students how an Elizabethan headdress should be worn.