

INTERNATIONAL POLO MATCHES ON TODAY. At Hurlingham, England, the series between the American and British four will attract thousands. Members of the English team are shown in practice.

CROWN PRINCE GUSTAVUS Adolphus, Sweden, to wed Princess Mary, of England, is rumor U. & L.

MRS. STILLMAN AT EASE. Scene on veranda of home of John M. Mack, at Poughkeepsie, N. Y., where Mrs. Anne U. Stillman is staying while divorce hearings are on. She is chatting with newspaper representatives International.

SALT LAKE CITY FIRE. Fifteen men were killed and damage amounting to $1,500,000 done, when lightning struck a huge gasoline tank in the Utah city Underwood & Underwood.

REFUSED IMMENSE FORTUNE. Charles Garland, Harvard graduate, keeps on farm, ignoring fortunes from his father and an uncle in England.

ENTERTAIN WOUNDED AND SICK. Children of the John H. Webster School, at the hospital in the Philadelphia Navy Yard danced, sang and recited for sailors and marines. At the left is Dorothy Goldie Williams. The other dancer is Emma Hartzag Ledger Photo Service.

TAKES PART IN MANY TOURNAMENTS. Miss Maria De Kosenko, as she drives golf ball at Haverford U. P. S.

FRIENDLY WITH THE LLAMA. A blind girl in the London Zoo. The kindly keeper allowed the child to play with the harmless animal and then explained their habits Central News Photo.

PRETTY BABIES. Some of the tots seen during the baby show held yesterday afternoon at the West Philadelphia General Homeopathic Hospital. Fannie Brown, of 437 North Fifty-second street (left) and Ralph Prosten, 1237 North Fifty-third street Ledger Photo Service.

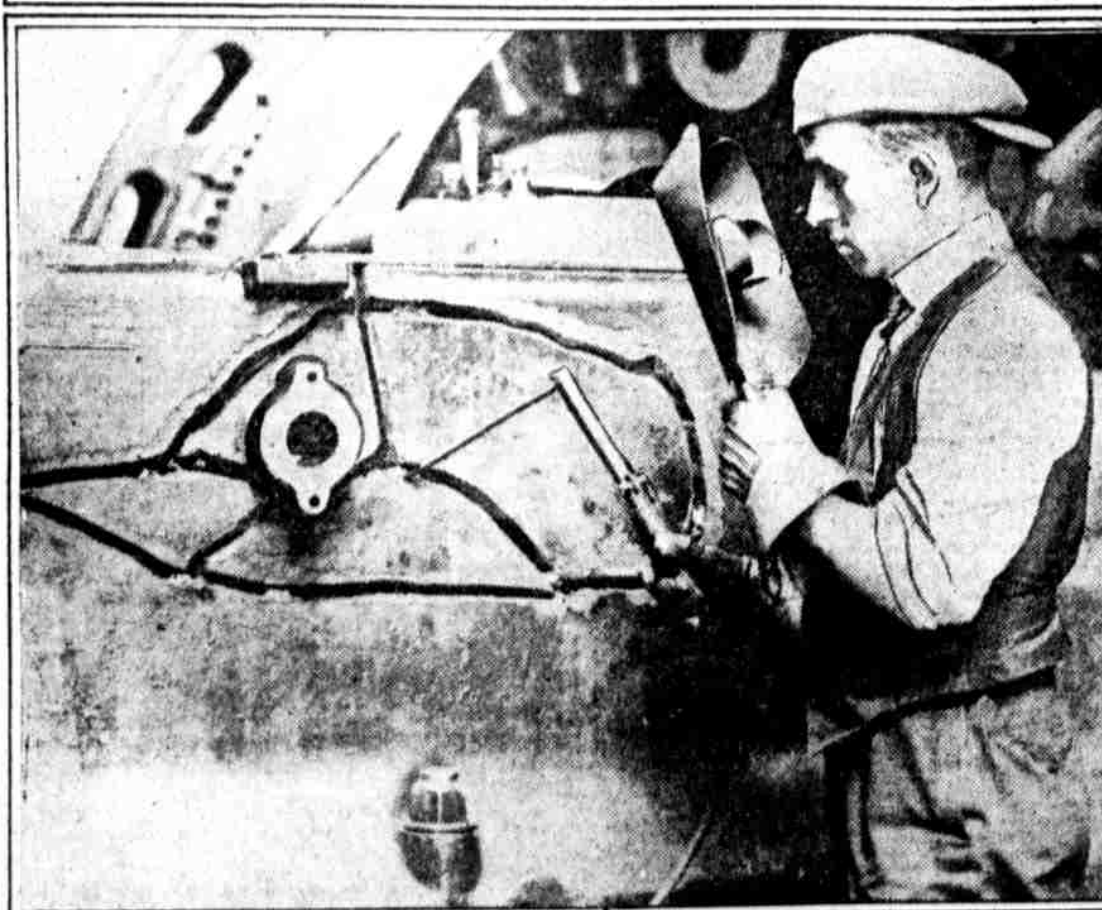

FRANCIS R. JONES, Director General of the U. S. Employment Service Harris & Ewing.

116 BOYS GRADUATE at commencement exercises of West Philadelphia High School for Boys, held in the school auditorium last night. The commencement orator was ex-State Senator George W. Cartwright, of California. Class officers (left to right) are Ewing Tennant, president; Harry Werst, treasurer, Aaron White, prophet; Marcus Blitzstein, valedictorian, and Carroll Heady, historian. L. P. S.

OUR CITY'S WORKERS AND WHAT THEY DO

GEORGE L. BRIGHT, 3060 Frankford avenue, is an engine housing in the plant of Hafleigh & Co., American and Cambria streets. Work is being done by the Standard Electric Welding Co., E. 100th & Locust streets Ledger Photo Service.

DR. MIRIAM B. KENNEDY at alumnae meeting of the Woman's Medical College L. P. S.

SEMAPHORE SENTINELS

RESERVE PATROLMAN ELWOOD SEIGLE, who does traffic directing at Eleventh and Arch streets, on force six years L. P. S.

WONDERFUL NEEDLE-WORKERS. Girls of the Blaine Public School, Thirtieth and Norris streets, in a fashion show. Clara Glassman, at the left, is displaying a kimono. Lillian Barak appeared in a dancing costume Ledger Photo Service.

