EVENING PUBLIC LEDGER-PHILADELPHIA, SATURDAY, JUNE 18, 1921

IUST GOSSIP ABOUT PEOPLE

Nancy Wynne Tells of Pretty Frocks Noticed Recently. Mr. and Mrs. Plunkett Stewart Give a Dance for Their Daughter at Their Haverford Home

WHAT pretty clothes people are wear-ing these days! I think the white anton crepe frocks are exquisite. I aw Mrs. Edward Robinetta the other in Chestnut Hill looking stunning in s frock of white crepe, the bodice in s frock of white crepe, the bodice made with the straight, plain lines across the shoulders and finished about the hips with a wide sash girdle of the with. She wore small pendant ear-ings of exquisite jade and a short the summer at Beaver Camp. Mrs. Charles McKean Bayard and her daughters, Miss Adels J. Bayard, Miss Meta W. Bayard and Miss Elsie Gill Bayard, and her sons, Mr. Joseph Wilson Bayard and Mr. S. McKean Bayard, and his daughters, Miss Polly Bayard and Miss Frances McK. Bayard, of 106 East Johnson street, Germantown, will leave July 1 for Seal Harbor, Me., where they will remain for the summer. Miss Polly Bayard will later sail for Europe. Mr. and Mrs. Frances L du Pont and

Mr. and Mrs. Edward M. Story, of City line, Overbrook, will entertain at a small informal musicale, to be fol-

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest L. Tustin, or Church road and Lancaster avenue, Overbrook, who left last week for sev-eral weeks visit to Des Moines, Ia, will, their return home, leave for Mr. and Mrs. Ernest L. Tustin, of on their return home, leave for Watking Glen, where they will spend a

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Taylor, of Over-white, She wore sinds and a short rings of exquisite jade and a short necklace of the same beautiful stone. Her hat was of basket-straw weave in jade green straw and was bound with jade green straw and was bound with inter daughter. Miss Elizabeth H. Har-ria, and their son, Mr. Joseph M. Harris, of ivy Cottage, Gemantown, will leave on July 1 for their camp in the Pocono Mountains. Miss Marianne F. Harris will leave the latter part of this month for East Union, Me., where she will spend the summer at Beaver Camp. fowers. Mrs. Robinette's hair is suburn, and the green and white with her coloring was most effective.

THE Plunkett Stewarts gave a delightful dance last night in Haverford for their daughter Catherine Kelso Casantt, who is known to her intimates as Sissie Stewart.

She was named for her aunt, the late Mrs. Jane Hutchinson, who was Cath-erine Cassatt, and was usually called Sissie because her brothers and sisters name as so often happens. Sissie is a charming little girl and has Bissie is a charming little girl and has because her brothers. Ne was name as so often happens. Sissie is a charming little girl and has be summer. Mr. Hubert I. du Pont and their caughter, Miss Elise du Pont, and their sons, Mr. Hubert I. du Pont, Mr. Edward du Pont, Mr. Alexis I. du Pont, 1423 Spruce street, will shortly leave for Northeast Harbor, Me. where they will remain for the summer.

real personality. The party was for members of the school set, and there were about seventy-five boys and girls. Mrs. Stewart was Miss Elsie Cassatt, a Alexander J. Cassatt.

the summer. Mrs. Daniel Moreau Barringer and her two daughters, Miss Sarah Barringer and Miss Elizabeth W. Barringer, of 2105 Walnut street, left yesterday for a visit to Princeton to attend the Com-mencement Week exercises of Princeton University, where Mrs. Barringer's two sons, Mr. Brandon Barringer and Mr. Daniel M. Barringer, L. are graduating. sons, Mr. Brandon Barringer and Mr. Daniel M. Barringer, Jr., are graduating. They will be entertained as the guests of Mr. William S. Magie, the dean of the college, and Mrs. Magie, and will re-turn the latter part of next week. T DOES not seem possible that we have passed the middle of June and that next Tuesday will be the longest day of the year. I declare this daylight-Mr. and Mrs. Pope Yeatman and their daughters, Miss Jane Bell Yeatman and Miss Georgina P. Yeatman, and their son, Mr. Pope Yeatman, Jr., of 1118 Spruce street, who are occupying their summer home at Chestnut Hill, will sail on the Berengaria on Thursday, June 30, for Europe. Their cousin, Miss Ger-trude Watkins, will accompany them. They expect to remain until the autumn. Mr. and Mrs. Edward M. Story, of wing time is very nice. for it is lovely to walk out in the country after an early dinner, or to take a long walk early and have something to eat late evening. You feel fine when you

WITH the middle of June the sum-W mer exodus grows greater, and many have already started for New England. the Clem Wainwrights and their family have gone to Narragansett for the summer. Really I have seldom men anyone who has changed so little Wainwright with the course

lowed by supper, at their home tomor-row evening in honor of their guest, Mrs. Henry P. Kirby, of New York, who arrived yesterday to remain over the week-end. of years. She was out at the June Fete at the Huntingdon Valley last week and wore one of the model dresses Mrs. Alexander M. Fox, Jr., of 2008 Spruce street, and Mr. and Mrs. Whit-well W. Coxe, of 2041 Spruce street, will sail on Wednesday, July 6, on the Adri-atic for Europe, where they expect to remain for the summer. n the fashion show. And she looked In the fashion show. And she looked like a little girl instead of the mother of a boy of fourteen or fifteen. She was wearing a frock of pink crepe de chine made with a plain bodice, rounded neck and short sleeves, and the skirt was fashioned of silk braid fringe, the remain for the summer. Mr. and Mrs. William Baker Whelen, of Devon, will entertain as their guests the latter part of next week Mrs. W. K. Dunlap and her daughter, Miss Eliza-beth Dunlap, who will arrive on Friday to remain over the week-end. Mr. and Mrs. Whelen will entertain at dinner at their home on Wednesday evening next. Covers will be laid for twenty-five runate was fashloned of silk braid fringe. the full length of the frock, and it was hung over a slip skirt of the crepe. The hat was a narrow-brimmed white straw trimmed in front with a huge pompom bow of white ribbon, and sne looked so pretty and sweet. It seemed were back in the days of the as if she were back in the days of the old Saturday Evening, when we wore organdie dresses and our first low-necked frocks and had such good times. Mrs. Wainwright was Miss Eugenia Dixon or Niny Dixon, as she was generally called. She is a daughter of the Tom Dixons, of Chestnut Hill, and ester of Mrs. Ed Norris. Mrs. Jack mretta Dixon, who plays tennis so much. The Wainwrights have a beau-tiful place on Chestnut avenue, close of New York.

guests.

NORTH PHILADELPHIA

MISS CATHERINE LEE WEDS MR. E. J. LESTER Interesting Marriage of Miss Rosa S. Elias and Mr. Fletcher Schaum North PHILADELPHIA Mr. and Mr. Fletcher Schaum North PHILADELPHIA Mr. and Mr. Fletcher Schaum

The N. E. Ladies' Ald Society held boast in a few years that they discovat the ered him early in his literary career.

eraily called. She is a daughter of the Tom Disons, of Chestnut Hill, and Mrs. Claude Taylor, of Over-Tom Disons, of Chestnut Hill, and Mrs. Claude Taylor, of Over-Tom Disons, of Chestnut Hill, and Mrs. Claude Taylor, of Over-Tom Disons, of Chestnut Hill, and Mrs. Harry Lents, Atlantic Clity, where they hotel Dennis, Atlantic Clity, where they will be autumn. Miss Catherine Lentz, daughter of Mr. Bouquet of pink sweetpeas and lark-tot the same material, embroidered with pink flowers, and will carry a contrasts between the hotel Dennis, someth. The Wainwrights have a beautiful place on Chestnut avenue, close to the Wissahickon.
I SUPPOSE you do get confused these days about the trolleys. In one you
I days about the trolleys. In one you

NOTABLE BOOKS OF THE WEEK

A Novel Worth While

There has emerged in Chicago a novelist whose work will be followed by the sort should be.

a discriminating public. His name is nis latest novel, "Four Corners," (George H. Doran Co.) that has pro-voked this estimate and forecast. The book is a subtle, ingenious and pene-trating study of life in a large village or a small city. As it is a study of benefit Mr. Raymond does not trouble or a small city. As it is a study of have been all sorts of exposes, exposi-people Mr. Raymond does not trouble tions, apologias, defenses, charges and counter-charges concerning the British high commands, both naval and miliprecision where the action takes place tary, and of them this is one of the precision where the action takes place ave that it is in America. One reader thought it was in New England and another got the impression that it was in the Middle West, but it does not matter where it is. The story is so true that it might have happened any-where. The author puts his charac-ters in four houses on the corners of two cross streets. One family is that ington and others have written widely, if not always wisely, about the strategy two cross streets. One family is that of a childless banker who lives in the of a childress banker who lives in the show place in the town. Another fam-ily consists of an old man who is blind, and his wife, who is a persistent forge and an assailant of Sir William and malicious gossip. The third is the moerial general staff for several years, ind, malicious gossip. Inc. ind malicious gossip. Inc. family of a manufacturer, in which there are numerous children. The fourth occupies a house with no win-dows opening on the street and sur-rounded by a high brick wall. The wife is never seen by the neighbors. The husband is an amateur astronomer, kindly and tolerant, who nevertheless insists on keeping his affairs to him-self. The gossip insists that there is something wrong in the relations be-man and the woman in the was seen. was the director of military open-as well as against Colonel Repington. their chief supporter in the press-first and then of the reactionary and caste-conscious Tory Morning Post. Of the leased with Marshal Petain and Mar-shal Hsig. He calls Haig "an elderly in a were law. their fulligence"; Clemenceu, "a husber were "in-and edity in the volume. with vivid pen and there is much to interest and edity in the volume. GRIM. By Svend Fleuran. New York: Al-read A. Knopf.

The mystery surrounding his wife. At bottom it is an exhibition of the proceeses of retributions. It might have been made melodramatic, but Mr. Raymond has told his story quietly and splendid human qualities that can be found in almost every one. Yet beneath the implacability and inevitableness of the Greek fates. It is a work of out that must command
 Section of Lloyd George and the extremited and qualitatively uncertain little Welch statesman will, doubtless, go rather far to reduce trust in other parts of his book which on the face appear reasonable, and even well is only and inevitableness of the grounded, assuming that his report of the trust command.
 Section of Lloyd George and the extremited in other parts of his book which on the face appear reasonable, and even well is only and inevitableness of the grounded, assuming that his report of the trust command.

decision, of prejudiced judgment and even of downright careerism in the proud to exalted circles which used masses of fighting men as pawns in the war game.

For the exposure of this tendency Cap-tain Wright deserves praise, but it is hard to see just how conditions can is remembered modified in case of war, when herd-with interest, has returned to the same antipodean locale in "The Passionate Pilgrim." another novel of exotic scene and situation. This is a novel of in-tensity, and also one of the unexpected. and restriction. It is a sad commen-th is predicated on the fort the terms of the second science of the second It is predicated on the fact that one tary on national spirit in willing to of the most exciting things about life victory that camouflage is even more is that no one knows just what the important among general staffs than in morrow is to bring forth, even when it the field, but so long as human nature is is premeditatedly planned. Certainly human nature it is hard to see what is strange and unexpected things happen to Sidney Carey, the fascinating heroine Wright doesn't solve this problem. Fence.

"THE NEXT WAR"

rious phases of the region by scientific specialists and educators. The history, geography, botany, zoology, geology, indians and motoring pessibilities are moong the subjects discussed. The book is well illustrated and is provided with identification keys to trees, etc., with identification keys to trees, etc., with identification keys to trees, etc., book as treams and fishing. The basards. The marvelous woman. Yasimitri-basards. The marvelous woman. Yasimitri-thrilling plot. EVERED, By Ben Ames Williams, New York: E. P. Duiton & Co. 'The story of the famous red bull.'' The background is New England of a guist coun-tryside. The story told is full of tenseness and stir.

HUNTING PARK SERVICES

which is brought out by Putnams. There have been all sorts of exposes, exposi-tions, apologias, defenses, charges and counter-charges concerning the British high commands, both naval and mili-tary, and of them this is one of the most sensational in the importance of its targets and the almost reckless qual-ity of its charges, even if no other merits. Beatty and Jellicoe have fought the naval battle over again in their own books and in those of there we have fought the naval battle over again in their own books and in those of there we fought the naval battle over again in their own books and in those of there defenders.

etc. THE SALESMAN'S KINDERGARTEN. By Wilbur Hall. New York: A. A. Knopf. Teils in the form of easy fictional narra-tives how to seil more goods. Actual ex-periences are told breezily. The fundamen-tals of successful merchandising are given in an easily assimilable fashion. A good hook for the young business man in mer-cantile pursuits. or the young business man in pursuits.

Bennett, Arnold—"Things That Have In-itrested Me." Dawson. Coningsby—"It Might Have Happened to You." Francke, Kuno—"German-American's Con-fession of Faith." Gibbs. Philip—"Soul of the War." Gourmont, Remy de—"Night in the Luxembourg." Hindenburg, Marshal von—"Out of My Life."

Irage W. R.—"Outspoken Essays." Kluck, Alexander von—"March on Paris." Lange, D. C.—"Shades and Shadows." Nevinson, H. W.—"Dardanelles Cam-Nevinson, H. W.-"Dardanelies Cam-paign." Santayana. George -- "Chardanelies Cam-Santayana. George -- "Character and Opinion in the United Statss" Shaw. G. B.--"Back to Methuseiah." Shaw. G. B.--"Back to Methuseiah." Moniey. C. K.--"Smoley's Tables" Tilden. J. H.-- "Food." Watson. E. R., edited-"Trial of Thur-tell and Hunt." Worst. E. F. -- "Footpower Loom Weaving" and "Problems in Woodwork."

Fiction

Benjamin, Bens-"Private Gaspard." Do in Pasture, E. E. M.-"Zella Seen Trail." France, Anatole—''Mummer's Tale'' Oppenheim, E. P.—''The Profileers.'' Packard, F. L.—''Pawned.''

Children's Books Adams. Katharine--''Mehitable.'' Seaman, A. H.--''Melissa Across th

DR. FRANK CRANE says: 'If you buy no other book and read no other this year, buy and read 'The Next War' by Irwin." SENATOR BORAH says: "It is important that it should be read. It is especially important that it should be read by the average citizen." MR. ERNEST POOLE writes in The World: "I wish it could be read

The San Francisco Call-Post calls it "the last word on the most

RELIGIOUS NOTICES

Broad and Berks sts. (1900 North). Broad and Berks sts. (1900 North). Bood seats. Home of the Grace Rapiist Church. RUSSELL H. CONWELL. Pastor. M. Dyre McCurdy, Asst. Pastor. J. Marvin Hanna, Musical Director. Preder ck Starke, Organist. Mr. Conwell will breach at 10:30 and 7:43. The Temple Choruses will sing at both services.

Bible School, Jere I. Cresse, supt., at Bible School, Jere I. Cresse, supt., at 230. Prayer Meeting, Friday at S. HENRI SCOTT will be guest soloist Sunday evening.

Priends THERE IS A Sunday School now held every Pirst-day (Sunday) morning at 10 °clock and divine worship at 11 °clock at the Priends' Oid Merion Meeting Mouse iane. Here william Penn worshiped, and many noised Guakers since that day have communed here. The meeting was established in 1662. Every one is welcome. Piessant automobile ride from the city, or auto bus leaves Sisty-third and Market streets every half hour.

Every Sunday afternoon. 3 to 5:30. "That they also might obtain the salvation which is in Christ Jesus with sternal glory."

Presbyterian SECOND PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

21st and Wainut sts. Rev. ALEXANDER MacCOLL, D. D.

Rev. ALVIN B. GURLEY, Assistant. Dr. MacColl will preach at 11 A. M. and 5 P. M.

BETHLEHEM PRESBYTERIAN CHUBCH

ETHLEHEM PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH Broad and Diamond sts. Rev. WILLIAM L. McCORMICK, Pastor. 10:30 A. M.-Sermon by Rev. E. A. Bu-channn of Alaska. 10:30 A. M.-Children's Church: Sermoni 'The Wealth of a Good Name.'' by Rev. S. R. Curry. 2:30 P. M.-Sabbath School. 6:43 P. M.-Christian Endeavor. 7:45 P. M.-Sermon: 'The Church and Wage Disputes,' by Rev. William L. Mo-Cormick. Miss Heien Hil, Violinist.

Cormick, Miss Heien Hill, Violinist. ABCH ST. CHURCH, 18th and Arch. Dr. CLARENCE EDWARD MACARTNET, 10:45— The Gospel in the Present Emer-sency." 8:00—''Is God the Father of All Men?'' Rev J. Greelam Macken, of Princeton, will preach at both services. 7:00 P. M.—Christian Endeavor Societies.

Unitarian FIRST UNITABIAN CHURCH

2125 Chestnut at. Rev. FREDERICK R. GRIFFIN. Minister. 11 A. M.-Rev. Roger S. Forbes will preach.

Rev. FREDERICK R. GRIFFIN. Minister.
 11 A. M. – Rev. Roger S. Forbas will preach.
 UNITARIAN CHURCH OF GERMANTOWN Greene at and W. Cheiten ave.
 Rev. ROGER S. FORBES, Minister.
 Junday. June 19–Services at 11 A. M.
 Rev. Frederick R. Griffin, of the First Uni-tarian Church of Philadelphia. will preach.
 ALL ARE INVITED.

EDUCATIONAL Both Sexes PEIRCE SCHOOL BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION Finishing Touches to Knowledge A special finishing course has been arranged for graduats of com-mercial courses of High Schools. The course provides the practical Pelree training which has short-ened the path to business success for over 50 years. Summer School Opens July 5th Write for 56th Year Book Pine St. West of Broad IMPOBTANT OFFICE POSITIONS students in stenography and type-ins are given real office training to lify them to accept important positions. Individual instruction. Day or night classes. Call or write for catalor. Catalog. PHILA. BUSINESS COLLEGE and College of Commerce 1017 Chestaut Rt. Philadelphis BANKS BUSINESSIFisthe School for you COLLEGE DaySchool flight School PREPARES FOR BUSINESS POSITIONS FOR CRADUATES 1200WALNUT ST. PHILA .. PA

> COLLEGE PREPARATORY REVIEW CLASSES T weeks beginning June 27 Day or Evening Classes or Tutoring All High School Subjects Tuttion Fees Moderate Y. M. C. A.-CENTRAL BUILDING 1421 Arch St.

2008 Whit-A wedding of social interest and im-will portance will be solemnized at 6 o'clock this evening in the Bryn Mawr Pres-t to byterian Church when Miss Catherine H. Lee, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Horace H. Lee, of Haverford, will become the bride of Mr. Evan J. Lester, Jr., of this t tree the bride, who will be given at in marriage by her father, will be attended by t tree in marriage by her father, will be attending from the shoulders. Her veil of tule will be attended to the shoulders. Her veil of tule will be bossoms. She will carry a shower bou-guet of illies of the valley and white Mrs. Lee will be attended. Mrs. Ray and Mrs. Kaller, Mrs. Banks, Mrs. Of t t tree in a beautiful gown of twory white shoulders. Her veil of tule will be at t. Mrs. And Mrs. Sylvan G. Stern have re-turned from their wedding trip and are in their apartment at and Mrs. Miss tran-in their apartment at and Mrs. Mrs. Mrs. Mrs. J. Cohen, Mrs. Mrs. Mrs. Huberman, Mrs. Kohen, Mrs. Keller-Mrs. Bosengarten and Mrs. Mrs. Bylvan G. Stern have re-in their apartment at any will be attended. Mrs. And Mrs. Sylvan G. Stern have re-in their apartment at any will be attended.

surmounted by a wreath of orange blossoms. She will carry a shower bou-bridal roses. Miss Lee will be attended by her sis-ter, Mrs. Herbert J. Painter, as matron of honor. She will wear a frock of hydrangea blue georgette creme with a of this absorbing story, in her quest pay as you enter; in another as you leave, and then there's the "middle-middle of the car. Well, anyway. I was riding downtown yesterday quite placidly in a half-empty car, having some through the center of the car, and having paid my fare then, when I have entering the car a getleman whom you know, and I know, and whether he had attended all four weddings of Thursday or not and was a bit-er-er-overtired or what, I am not here to state, but he approached the conductor and remarking, "I never know whether and remarking. 'I never know whether I pay outside or inside or what side. so this time I think I'll pay upside down. He neatly turned a cartwheel and presented his ticket, and then he walked to his place.

New Zealand in Fiction Jane Mender, whose "Story of a Zealand River"

NANCY WYNNE.

SOCIAL ACTIVITIES

Mr. and Mrs. William D. McIlvaine. of Chicago, announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Priscilla Mclivaine, to Mr. B. H. Brewster, 3d. of Scrooby to Mr. B. H. Brewster, 3d, of Scrooby Manor, Green Spring Valley, Baltimore, son of Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Brewster, and grandson of the late Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Brewster, and also grandson of the late Mr. Daniel Baugh and Mrs. Baugh, of this city.

this city. An engagement of interest announced today is that of Mrs. C. Hughes Manly. of Baltimore, great-standdaughter of Chief Justice Marshall and widow of Mr. Christopher Hughes Manly, to Mr. Rubard Henry Rush Toland, son of Mrs. Edward Dale Toland, of Whitemarsh. Captain Toland is a noted horseman and is master of hounds of the Whitemarsh. Valley Hunt Club. During the recent war he was one of three members of the First Troop, Philadelphia City Cav-alry, to graduate at the head of the French Artillery School, at which Brit-tah. French and American officers were trained for that branch of the service. Mrs. Manly was Miss Mary Marshall Smith, of Baltimore, and lives in Catons-ville, Md. The wedding will take place some time next month. Mrs. William Redwood Wright, of

More time next month. Mrs. William Redwood Wright, of Waldheim, Germantown, will entertain at dinner on Monday evening, June 27. In honor of her daughter, Miss Annette N. Wright, before the dance Mr. and Mrs. James Starr will give at the Ger-mantown Cricket Chub, in honor of their daughter, Miss Sarah Logan Starr. I mone the success who will strend the daughter, Miss Sarah Logan Starr. Imong the guests who will attend the dance on Monday evening, June 27, which Mr. and Mrs. James Starr will tive at the Germantown Cricket Club is honor of their daughter, Miss Sarah Logan Starr, will be Miss Auguata Wain Harrison, Miss Marianne F. Harris, Miss Janet Sabine, of Boston; Miss Elizabeth B. Wayne, Miss Louisa M. Wallis, Miss Louise M. Swain, Miss Katharine Knight Smith, Miss Walburga Kaul Reilly, Miss Mary H. Miller, Miss Helon V. Michell, Miss Emma Martyn George, Miss Ger-rude D. Dougherty, Miss Marion Cahir Denoghue and Miss Annette N. Wright. Miss Banning Grange, daughter of Miss Banning Grange, daughter of Mr, and Mrs. William Drayton Grange, of the Weilington and 1901 Spruce street, of the Wellington and 1901 Spruce street, will be the guest of honor at a dance be given by her parents at the Ritz-Cariton on Thursday evening, December 13. Miss Grange will be formally pre-ented to society at a tea on Thanks-fying atternoon, November 24. Mr. and Mrs. Grange and their family, and Mrs. Grange's mother. Mrs. Herman P. Kremer, of 2016 Walnut street, will invo on Thursday, June 30, for York Harbor, Me., where they expect to re-main until the autumn.

main until the autumn. Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Brewster Koons. of Cottontail. Strafford, are receiving congratulations on the birth of a son on Friday, June 17. Mrs. Koons was Miss Molly Wood Baily. Mrs. Ashton Dorr. Miss Harriet M. Ashton and Miss Emma Ashton Dorr, of Herday for Jamestown, R. L., where they will spend the summer. Miss Emma Ash-ton Dorr will sail for France the latter part of October, where she will join brother, Mr. Ashton Dorr, who is brother, Mr. Ashton Dorr, who is Mr. and Mrs. Robert D. Mccessa and

Mr. and Mrs. Robert P. Hooper and their daughter, Miss Josephine G. Hoop-er, and their son, Mr. Robert P. Hooper, ter, Miss Mary Euram ward, to ar. Charles John Neeland. The announce ment was made at a luncheon given by Miss Ward for her cousin, Miss Eliza-beth Dinkey, of Pittsburgh, who is now visiting her. Miss Ward has just gradbern Dinkey, of Pittsburgh, who is now of pink sweetpeas and larkspur. Miss visiting her. Miss Ward has just grad-uated from Miss Spense's School, in New York, and is the nicce of Mrs. Charles M. Schwab, of New York. Mr. Neeland, M. Schwab, of New York. Mr. Neeland, of Wayne, is a Cornell man of the class of 20, The wedding date has been named as September 12. Mr. Neeland and his bride, will wear a white Peter Thompson as September 12. Mr. Neeland and his bride will live in Montclair or a suburb suit. Mr. Charles Paxton, of Harrisburg, will act as best man. The ushers will include Mr. John K. Lee, brother of the bride: Mr. Sydney Lee, Mr. Herbert J. Painter, Mr. Neal Gilmore and Mr. Ralph Satterthwait. A small reception will follow at the home of the bride's parents, Gulf and Avon roads, Haverford. Mr. and Mrs. John Coleman Hershey, of the Lindens, Wallingford, announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Janet Spear Hershey, to Mr. Palmer Brice Rawley, son of Mr. and Mrs. B. Cutter Rawley, of Wayne. During the war Mr. Rawley was a licutenant in the Signal Corps. He was later sta-tioned at Mexico City, where he was Assistant Military Attache.

MISS CATHERINE LEE

SCHAUM-ELIAS

tioned at Mexico City, where he was Assistant Military Attache. Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Johnston, of West Philadelphia, announce the engage-ment of their daughter. Miss Miriam Johnston, to Dr. William T. Dowd, of Rome, N. Y. Mr. and Mrs. J. Philip Strehle, of Germantown, announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Margaret Strehle, and Mr. Robert C. Pitts, of this city. Mr. and Mrs. Lewis MacAfee Gar-rett, of Overbrook, announce the en-gagement of their daughter. Miss Edith Stahley Garrett, to Mr. Homer Hen-driks Berry, of Chester. Strehle, and Mr. Robert C. Pitts, Context, Strehle, Strehle, and Mrs. Lewis MacAfee Gar-rett, of Overbrook, announce the en-gagement of their daughter. Miss Edith Stahley Garrett, to Mr. Homer Hen-driks Berry, of Chester. Strehle, Strehley, Strehle, Strehle, Strehley, S

driks Berry, of Chester. remony. KIRSCH-ROSENHEIM

CHESTNUT HILL

CHESTNUT HILL Mr. and Mrs. John Jacobs, of 5624 Morton street, announce the marriage of their daughter, Miss Alice B. Jacobs, to Mr. Herman C. Shoemaker, of 17 West Willow Grove avenue, on Wedness, to Mr. Herman C. Shoemaker, of 17 West Willow Grove avenue, on Wedness, to Mr. Herman C. Shoemaker, of 17 West Willow Grove avenue, on Wedness, to Mr. Herman C. Shoemaker, of 17 West Willow Grove avenue, on Wedness, to Mr. Herman C. Shoemaker, of 17 West Willow Grove avenue, on Wedness, to Mr. Herman C. Shoemaker, of 17 West Willow Grove avenue, on Wedness, to Mr. Herman C. Shoemaker, of 17 West Willow Grove avenue, on Wedness, to Mr. Aubert J. Shoemaker, acted as his brother's best man. A reception took place at the new home of the bride and bridegroom, 8000 Germantown ave-nue, at 8 o'clock. The marriage of Miss Margaret Jackson, daughter of Mr. and Mra. Thomas A. Jackson, of Germantown avenue and City line. Chestnut Hill, and Mr. George Rudolph, of New York, will take place on Sunday. Announcement is made of the mar-riage of Mrs. Emma E. Myers, 839 Fast Chelten avenue, to Mr. John P. Clarke, of Ocean City, N. J., in Christ Church, Tulpehocken and McCallum streets, on Wednesday afternoon at 3:80 o'clock, the Rev. Charles Henry State of Orcean City, N. J., in Christ Church, Tulpehocken and McCallum streets, on Wednesday afternoon at 3:80 o'clock, the Rev. Charles Henry Mr. Millam Rose, of Chicago, will act as best man and the brides bother. Mr. Rodman Rosenheim, and Mr. Irwin Parks will act as ushers. The service will be followed by a reception. After will be followed by a reception. After West the state of the marker will be followed by a reception. After West the state of the marker will be followed by a reception. After will be followed by a reception. After GERMANTOWN Announcement is made of the mar-riage of Mrs. Emma E. Myers, 839 East Chelten avenue, to Mr. John P. Clarke, of Ocean City, N. J., in Christ Church, Tulnehocken and McCallum streets, on Wednesday afternoon at 3:80 o'clock, the Rev. Charles Henry Arndt, rector, officiating. Mrs. Myers' son, Mr. Charles Davis, gave her in marriage, and Mr. Charles Clarke acted as best man for his brother. A re-ception followed the ceremony at the horae of the bride. Mr. and Mrs. Clarke will live in Ocean City. Parks will act as ushers. The service will be followed by a reception. After a wedding trip through the West the bride and bridegroom will spend the re-mainder of the summer with the parents of the bride.

Mrs. William H. Wilson, of Rose Cottage, Germantown avenue at Tulpe-hocken street, is the guest of her par-ents, Mr. and Mrs. John McCabe, at their summer home in Ocean City for a few days.

Curley, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Hugh Hanna. of 2843 Diamond street, and Mr. Louis H. Riggles will take place this evening at the home of the bride, the Rev. W. L. McCormick officiating. Mrs. Merton E, 'Sints will act as matron of honor and the maid of honor will be Miss Florence L. Wilkins, Mr. Riggles will have as his best man Mr. Charles D. Nicholas. After a reception Mr. and Mrs. Riggles will leave on their wedding trip, and upon their return they will live at the home of the bride's parents. Miss Rose Schwartz and Miss Ruth Wessel, of New York, are guests for the week of their aunt, Mrs. Joseph B, Feigel of 200 East Johnson street.

NORRISTOWN

NORRISTOWN Miss M. Frances O'Byrne, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John O'Byrne, of 200 De Kalb street. Bridgsport, and Mr. Emanuel Joseph Abrams, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Abrams, of Con-shohocken, were married on Wednesday in St. Augustine's Church. The bride was attended by her alster. Miss Heley of Il1 West Wood street, Norristown, and Mr. Joseph Whitton Gibson, son of Mr. Muscoe M. Gibson, of 1427 Powell street, was solemnized in the Washington by the corremony at the home of the bride's parents. Upon their return from their wedding trip to New York. Niagara Falls and Canada. Mr. and Mrs. Abrams will reside in Conshohocken.

people of her locale and knows the lan Ehmann, Miss Roslyn Well, Miss Helene O'Keefe, Miss Rossyn Weil, Miss Helene O'Keefe, Miss Margaret Lyona, Mr. Roy-land Moylan, Mr. James Cunningham, Mr. Edward Hefferman, Mr. John Me-Guire, Mr. William Weber, Mr. William can readers who know little of New Lentz, Mr. Charles Rudderow and Mr. Zealand will be interested to make the also. She is able to bring both to the Zealand will be interested to make the acquaintance of a most interesting country through the pages of this novel which is an important addition to John Lane's spring list.

WEST PHILADELPHIA Feminists and Flappers

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Paschall, Jr., of 913 South Fifty-fifth street, are occupy-ing their cottage at Cape May for the Anthony M. Ludovici has written a most brilliant novel of not merely con temporaneous femininity in "Too Old for Dolls," but really a searching study summer months. Mr. and Mrs. Nell Coulter, formerly of 5240 Webster street, are occupying their new home at Fifty-second street and Hadfield avenue. Mr. and Mrs. Coulter entertained recently at their home. Mr. and Mrs. The contrasts three or four women with keen analysis touched with satire. The old and aging mother caser to remain young; the summer months.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Duval Wade, 329 Mother, cager to remain young: the elder sister, anxious to be the family beauty till she marries off well, and the younger girl, determined, in her beauty till she marries off well, and the younger girl, determined, in her advanced way, not to remain in flapper-dom, and not to stay on the shelf till noon today.

FRANKFORD

the family aspirations are satisfied, are Mrs. E. L. Forstner, of 918 Fillmore street, entertained yeaterday afternoon at a luncheon and bridge. Mrs. C. Pattison and her family, of Frankford avenue and Orthodox street, are spending the summer at their cottage in Wildwood. He family aspirations are satisfied, are all exceedingly well drawn. There is a bit of humor but little sentiment in the book. It is highly readable. Put-nams bring it out. Beauties of Yosemite

100% Perfect

Beauties of Yosemite Mrs. Walter F. Einwechter, of 4735 Mrs. Walter F. Einwechter, or 4735 Ramona avenue, entertained her sewing circle at a luncheon on Thursday. The guests included Mrs. Charles E. Russell, Mrs. Harry Shirey, Mrs. George D. Cox, Miss Elizabeth Cox, Mrs. A. U. Tuteur, Mrs. John B. Mawson and Mrs. Fred-erick Geizer. Ansell F. Hall, of the United States National Park Service and formerly in-structor in forestry at the A. E. F. University, Beaune, France, has com piled and edited a very seasonable volume, "Handbook of the Yosemite Na-tional Park," which the Putmans bring erick Geiger. A June festival for the benefit of the

A June festival for the benefit of the Frankford Post, 211, Legion House, at Paul street below Orthodox, which opened last evening, will be held this afternoon and evening.

Every Packet of

TEA

ALA

by a million people in the next year."

important subject in the world today."

The New York Herald says "If this novel is not a work of genius it is hard to know where one may look for it in contemporary fiction.

$2.00 in any bookstore or from E. P. DUTTON & CO., 681 5th Av., N.Y.

is to be depended upon for quality and economy

Tartare Sauce, 75c

4

Lamb Platter, $1.00 Roast Leg of Spring Lamb each Peas Mashed Petatoes Boiled Salman, Anchary Sauce New Polatoes New Peas Lettuce Salad Cold Roast Chicken, Sliced Tomatoes, $1.25

Soft Shell Crabs, Cold Roast Sirloin,

Potato Salad, 90c ur Bread, Rolls, Pies and Pastries Baked by Our Electric Ovens Cold Ham, Potato Salad, 75c New Corn on Cob, 25c TORIOR HOELOE

$1.90 at any bookstore or from

E. P. DUTTON & CO., 681 5th Av., N.Y.

1628

At All Bookstores. Price, $1.90 The Penn Publishing Co. PHILADELPHIA and Mexican raids.

-IACOBS The Presbyterian Book Store FOR UROOKS STREET Everything Desirable in Books

WITHERSPOON BLDG, Walnut, Juniper and Sansom Sta. Elevator to 1d Floor "BLA BOOK A WEEK"

UNLESS you have a perfect Less it's altered to your individual reculrements. Let us fit you with Redfern Corsets. The Corset Shop

Longer Wear

From Corsets

That Fit

Ő

121 S. THIRTEENTH ST. Around the Corner on Sansom St. Every fitting receives the personal attention of Miss Pauline Campbell

CHESTNUT (Formerly with Miss Kater)

RIGGLES-CURLEY

The wedding of Miss Lillian Kathryn urley, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Hugh Ianna, of 2843 Diamond street, and