

ALL FOR THE MAYOR. Members of the police training class show Mayor Moore how to attack unruly prisoners, during his visit to the city's model farm.

IN THE DELAWARE TENNIS CHAMPIONSHIP. The semi-final round was reached yesterday. Miss Virginia Carpenter (left), representing the Philadelphia Cricket Club, eliminated Miss Mary Porcher, a clubmate, and was then defeated by Mrs. W. P. Newhall, of the Germantown Cricket Club. At the right is Miss Mildred Willard.

AT WILMINGTON. Mrs. G. G. Green, Woodbury, N. J. (left), and Mrs. M. S. Rupert, Wilmington, battle on links of Wilmington Country Club.

A FIRST PRIZE JUMP. Mrs. Geraldyn L. Redmond, a New York society owner and rider, on Radiant.

EUGENE CORRI, well-known English fight referee, who is on his way to this country. He is holding twins, prize winners at a London baby show.

SAVED GOVERNMENT $10,000,000. Major M. J. Conolly stopped destruction of war explosives by using material in road building.

FASHION SHOW. Girls of Birney Public School, Ninth and Lindley streets, show garments made under tutorage of their teachers, Charlotte Lewis with kimono and Marie Weber wearing sports suit.

IN SCOTLAND. The First King's Dragoon Guards acted as escort to the Lord High Commissioner, the Duke of Sutherland, at opening of the Scottish Assembly. The guards are just leaving the St. Giles Cathedral, Edinburgh.

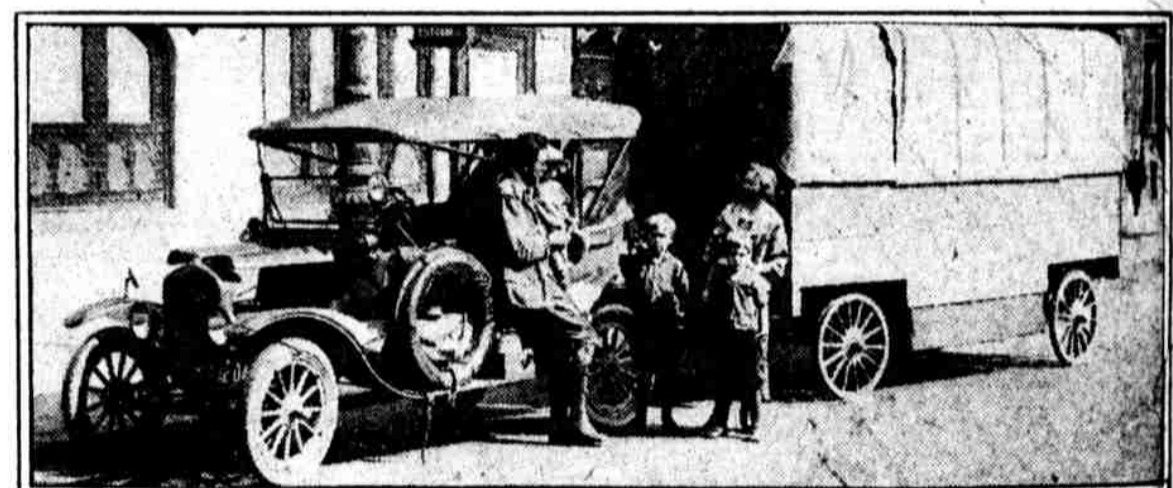

SAND PARTY. Mary Husher and Marie Fleming, both citizens of Germantown, dig into the beach at Atlantic City, as they spend a short vacation.

FORMER JUDGE MAYER SULZBERGER talks on the great war results in Editorial Page interview.

TWO LONDON STAGE FOLK. The Dolly sisters were met in Hyde Park, as they gave their famous collie dogs, which are well known to English playgoers, an outing.

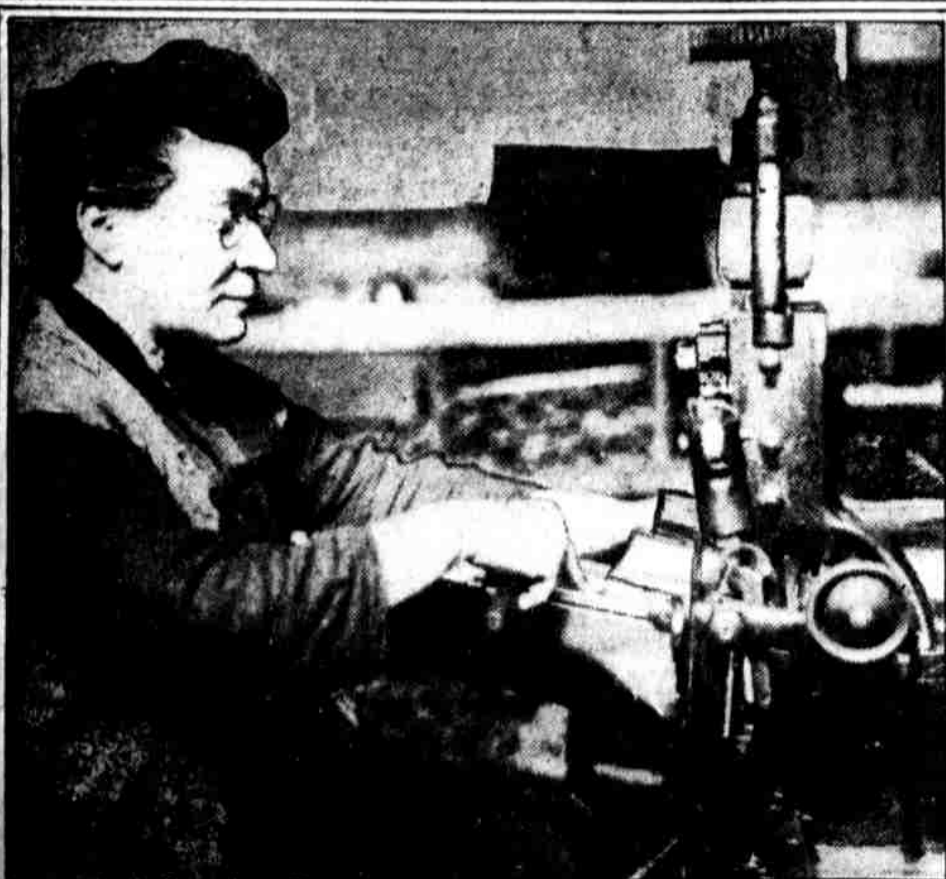

PLAYING WAY ACROSS CONTINENT. Professor Charles Seeger, formerly of the University of California, his wife and three sons, arrived in Philadelphia, yesterday. They are on their way to New York. When not in tents, the family live in the trailer.

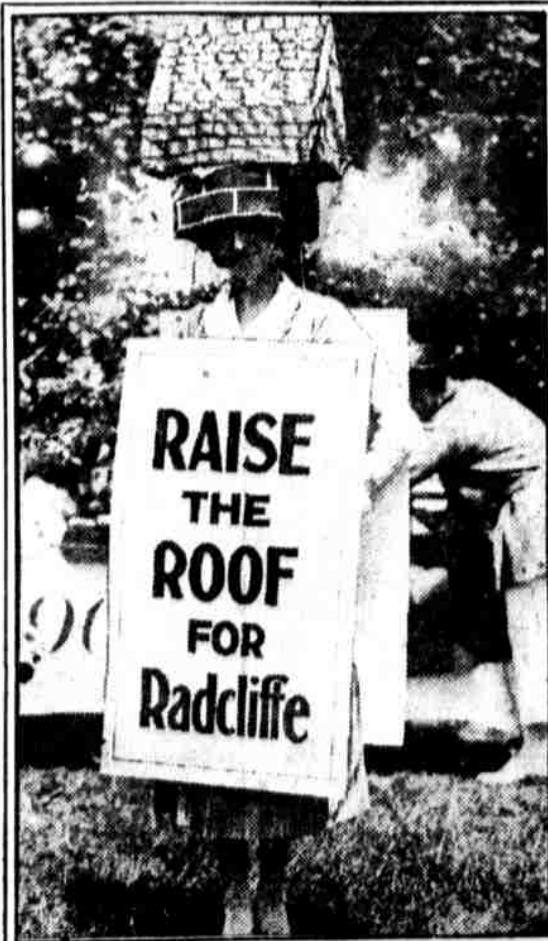

IN TODAY'S BOAT RACE. The varsity eight of Cornell University, as they skim over the waters of the Hudson, preparing for the hard work ahead of them, this afternoon, when they take part in the regatta, at Poughkeepsie, New York.

OUR CITY'S WORKERS AND WHAT THEY DO

ELIZABETH MESSELBERGER, 1124 Peel street, operating a machine that cuts bits at the rate of fifty dozen a day in the mill of the McCaffrey File Co., Fifth street, below Berks.

AGNES RINDGE, a Radcliffe senior, visualizing how the college girls are "raising the roof," to get endowment fund.

MAIL!

CHARLES M. DARRAGH. Twenty-two years in the mail delivery service. Route: Eleventh to Twelfth and Arch to Callowhill streets.

JOAN ELAINE DEUSCH. She was Black-Eyed Susan in pageant of the J. L. Kinsey School.

WASHINGTON'S YOUNGEST AUTHORESS. Miss Madeline Tabbutt Lake, aged fifteen, presented first copy of her novel, autographed to Mrs. Harding.