GIRL WINS BICYCLE; BEATS BOY'S MARK

Marguerite Russell Gets Needed Subscriptions in Less Time Than Brother

BOTH ARE SATISFIED

When Marguerite Russell, of 2330 orth Twenty-fifth street, announced hat she wanted to win a bleycle her parents laughed at her and said. "Be a sood girl."

Marguerite's hig brother, canvassing harguerite's hig brother, ennyassing the neighborhood for subscriptions. laughed longest and loudest.

"You couldn't win a flat tire," he mid to Marguerite. Her parents were firmly convinced that Marguerite could never win the bike. She kept coaxing, however, and finally her mother said the might. bowever, and finally her mother said che might try after brother won his Black Heauty.

The brother, Clinton, obtained thirty-ave subscriptions after ten days' of work. He strutted in the presence of little sister and said patronizingly that he might give her a ride, that is Marguerite didn't say yes, no or if

She went to the PUBLIC LEDGER ofto obtain thirty-five subscriptions to Evening, Morning or Sanday Punher brother had taken ten days to do.

"Nobody helped. I got every subscription myself." she said. "When people would say 'No." I kept putting it up to them until they said 'Yes."

Marguerite is going to repay her parents for letting her enter the contest.
With her bicycle she can now go to Fairmount Park every day and bring home spring water for the family. She is a pupil at the McIntyre School, Thirtieth and Gordon streets.

Morris Jastrow, Jr., Dies Suddenly

Continued from Page One not before it, as the Bible nacrative

The translation continued that Noah and not Adam ate the forbidden fruit. The translation gave no record of an expulsion of "Noah" from the garden. but said that he was punished with ordinary mortality. Ir. Langdon's entire position was disputed by Dr. Jastrow, who declared that Nippur tablets did not show anything of the kind.

Ridiculed Pro-Germanism

During the recent was Dr. Jastrow's name was found among a list of noted the Bodieian Library.

In 1909-10 he was appointed lecturer of the Bible.

In 1909-10 he was appointed lecturer for the Bible.

In 1909-10 he was appointed lecturer for the Bible.

Among other positions held by Professor Jastrow was that of delegate on the history of religious, taking as his subject. "Aspects of Religious Belief and Practice in Babylonia and Assyria."

Dr. Jastrow ridiculed the aspersion Assyria. pro-Germanism. Ten months after war started and nearly two years before America entered the great strugcle, Dr. Jastrow had expressed himself forcibly on the conduct of Germany. Dr. Jactrow admitted his sentiments had inclined toward Germany, where he studied for years, but he said the wanton sinking of the Lusitania had changed his views. The scholar's controversy was with Dr. Felix E. Schelling, pro-fessor of English literature at the University. It grew out of Dr. Schelling's comments on "The War and the Bag-dad Railway." a book written by Dr. Jastrow. The author heatedly denied Germantsm. This was in 1918.

Jastrow was born August 13. the Rev. Dr. Marcus Jastrow, was at the time minister of the German Jewish Congregation. In 1886 the family came to this city, where Rubbi Jastrow had

He was the editor in charge accepted a call to become the minister of the Jewish Congregation Rodef

Dr. Jastrow received his early trainof Bible in the Jewish Encyclopaedia; In the pleasure of talking with him the has been an active collaborator in the new clition of the Encyclopaedia Brillians. The degree of bachelor of arts in June.

1881. A few months after graduation he proceeded to Germany and carried on his studies in Oriental languages and literatures at the universities of Breslau. Leipzig and Strasburg, besides spending one winter in Paris at. Breslau, Leipzig and Strasburg, besides spending one winter in Paris attending lectures at the College de France, the Ecole des Hantes Etudes and at the Ecole des Lungues Orientales Vivantes.

It was his original intention to enter the ministry, and with this in view he also attended courses in the Jewish Theological Seminary at Breslau from 1881 to 1884. In July, 1884, he passed his examinations at the University of Leipzig and received the degree of doctor of philosophy, his graduation thesis being a portion of the unpublished grammatical works of a Jewish Arabic grammarian of the Middle Ages, Abu Zakariyya Hayyug.

Returned to Philadelphia in 1885 Returning to this city in the full of 1885, he was appointed lecturer on Semitic languages at the University of Pennsylvania in that year. In 1888 he also became connected with the library of the University, serving as assistant Ifbrarian until 1898, when he was made librarian in chief. In 1892 he was appointed to the chair of Semine languages and literatures.

In 1898 he published his first larger work on "The Religion of Babylonia and Assyria," which was subsequently enlarged by him from one to three volumes, and, together with a portfolio of illustrations bearing on the religion, appeared in German form under the title "Religion Babyloniens and Assertion" issued in twenty three parts during the years 1902-1912. In 1992 Dr. Jastrow published a volume in the contemporary science series on the Children thrive on

AND THE REPORT OF THE PARTY OF

Dictor Bread

At all our Stores

GIRL SETS SPEED MARK

Marguerite Russell, of 2330 North Twenty-fifth street, is a regular speed demon-not on her bicycle, but in getting the subscriptions for the archaeology, Dr. Jastrow is represented for the History of Religions held at by a monograph, "A Fragment of the Babylonian Dibbarra Epic," published in 1891. In addition to these larger crosses before the Third Congress. works, Professor Justrow has published a large number of technical articles in scientific periodicals of this country and Europe. A bibliography of his publications, prepared in 1910 by his colleagues, Professors Clay and Montgomery, in commemoration of the completion of twenty-five years of service on the part of Dr. Justrow at the University of Pennsylvania, contains over one hundred and fifty entries of separate articles covering investigations in Assyrtian. Arabic, Hebrew, Old Testavert ticles covering investigations in Assyr-ian, Arabic, Hebrew, Old Testament, the history of religions and many publications of a miscellaneous character in various other fields, such as library economy, educational problems, bio-

Semitic department of the new edition of the International Encyclopaedia, was for a time the editor of the department of Bible in the Jewish Encyclopaedia; of the grammatical works of Abu Zaka-riyya Hayyug from two manuscripts in the Bodleian Library. He regarded the story of Job as the composite work of numerous writers gathered into a whole in that portion

Many Technical Articles
In the University series of publications in philology, literature and publications in philology, literature and liter these essays from the French were made by Mrs. Justrow, while Dr. Jasrow contributed an introductory me-noir on Darmesteter, who was a great French Orientalist of unusually problems, blo. range and great attainments.

J. H. Merrick, assistant to Acting He was the editor in charge of the Provost Penniman, said the news of Dr. Jastrow's death was an overwhelming "I have just learned of Dr. Jastrow" ath." he said. "Only the other da

Made by The Wahl Company, Chicago

Coal Men Seeking Scalp of Hoover

Centinued from Page One

the Secretary. It avoids the coal issue, but devotes itself to the Secretary's activities in his reorganization of his department

"The retirement of Herbert Hoover from the Harding Administration in the near future is one of the political pos-sibilities developing in Washington."

"Hoover has not given any indication that he is considering a move of this kind, or that he has any intention other than that of retaining his official posi-

"Developments taking place in con-nection with his plan for wholesule re-organization of the departments of the Government, however, with annexation of the important bureaus of other departments to his own department, have roused a volume of opposition whice Federal official has seldom faced be of government as they revolve in Mr.

Hoover's particular bureau.

It is a patient endeavor to create distrust in his ability and purposes. It is a slap at the Administration, indirectly of course, and a reflection of President Harding's judgment in select ing his cabinet.

This is clearly brought out in the following further observation:

"The proposals and suggestions in any quarter except in that of the transfer of a bureau of the Department of Labor to his department.

An editorial in this same issue is devoted to the Frelinghuysen bill exclusively. It refers to the 'spectacle presented by the members of the Gov-and the premeditated attempts to belittle the work of Secretary Hoover within four months of his induction into office, is: If the anthracite coal industry, as claimed, is squarely conducted, and has nothing to fear, why all The apparent reply is that if it is not possible to force Secretary Hoover out of the Cabinet, he can at least be discredited in advance should the Freling-mysen bill become a law and he be made the instrument for its practical

Study of Religion," which is widely used as an introductory textbook to the published the complete Arabic text of published the complete Arabic text the grammatical works of Abu Zakatiyya Hayyug from two manuscripts in the Book of the Bible. They are certainly marked to be seen. viction that something is really and radically wrong with the business to create such a furore.

COAL MEN CONDEMN TAX

Retailers Hope Supreme Court Will Invalidate It

Harrisburg, June 22.—(By A. P.)— Hope that the State Supreme Court will declare unconstitutional the re-cently enacted State coal tax and be-consumer.

King Hopes for Cessation of Strife in Ireland

Belfast, June 22.—(By A, P.)— I speak from a full heart," said King George in his speech formally opcoing the Ulster Parliament here "when I pray that my coming to Ireland today may prove to be the first step toward an end of strife emong her people, whatever their race or erced.

"In that hope I appeal to all Irishmen to pause, to stretch out the hand of forbearance and conciliation, to forgive and forget, and to join in making for the land which they love a new era of peace, contentment and good will."

"It is my earnest desire that in Southern Ireland, too, there may ere long take place a parallel to what is now passing in this hall; that there a smiliar occasion may present itself and a similar ceremony be performed.

Sims Lands at N. Y.; Police Guard Him

have something to say later. He said that after going to Washington, he expected to return to Newport.

There was no demonstration outside he pier nor on the way to the Penn? sylvania Station, where only a handful of persons were gathered.

day and will report to Secretary by for questioning regarding his Lon-don speech in which he has been quoted as criticizing Sinn Feiners in America. Secretary Denby plans to receive him none would be made unless a request was made by the Navy Department. Secretary Denby has taken the pofurnish a guard for an admiral of the United States Navy and it was indi-

Woodruff, N. J., June 22.—After six defiance of Ireland, slections have failed to bring about any solution of the problem of better school facilities for Deerfield Township, the Board of Education announces that an slightest provision to safeguard "the slightest provision to safeguard "the other election will be conducted here on July 5. A project to purchase a three-acre site on the Woodruff Station road and the Vineland pike for $600 and the erection of a four-room brick building, to cost approximately $28.200, will be voted upon.

"Until repression ceases and the first control of government is recognized, there is no prospect for peace," says the declara-

Woman Held as Leather Thief Minnie Feder, of Fourth street near

BATTEN

Your Son's

Inheritance

THE man who leaves his son a factory producing unknown goods, leaves him

The man who leaves his son a factory producing goods that have a place in the public opinion of the nation, leaves that son an inheritance which only his

This shows what it is that advertising expenditure really buys. Unknown merit is merely unknown merit. Merit recognized by public opinion is riches.

ONCE a month, or more frequently, we issue a publication called Batten's Wedge. Each issue is devoted to a single editorial on some phase of business. If you are abusiness executive and would like to receive copies, write us.

George Batten Company, Inc.

Advertising

381 Fourth Avenue

New York

McCormick Bldg.

own folly can destroy.

Baston

10 State Street

merely a chance to fight for business.

King and Queen Arrive in Belfast

the Duke of York, and he and his con sort received a right royal welcome From the moment their yacht, the Vic From the moment their yacht, the Victoria and Albert, dropped her escort at the entrance to Belfast Lough to make her way up the straight channel to the dock, the King and the Queen were the objects of enthusiastic demonstrations by the loyalists of Gister. The people of County Down, on the south side of the Lough, and County Antrim, on the northern shore, vied with each other in extending greetings. other in extending greetings.

An even noisier welcome awaited the royal pair as their yacht steamed past the shippards, where the cheers of thou-sands of workmen mingled with the shricks of siren and whistle. King George and his consort stood on the bridge of the steamship and acknowl-cdged the greeting.

As the monarchs set foot on the dock, the royal salute boomed out, announceing that they were on Irish soil, and the crowds that lined the long street leading to the City Hall strained at the barrier walls of soldiery and police to catch a glimpse of the approaching pro-

The wait was short, for, with the exception of the formal reception by Vis-count Fitzalan, Lord Lieutenant of Ire-land, and Lord Pirrie, who appeared in behalf of the city, there were no cere-monies at the dock. A squadron of police headed the procession, and the carriages of the royal pair were fol-lowed by those of officers and digni-taries. The escort of honor was chosen from the Torth Husser. from the Tenth Hussars.
On each side of the street was stationed a force of nearly 6000 regular At the station, however, there were troops, standing shoulder to shoulder few boos and cheers and one woman and separated from the crowds by a presented by the members of the Government who are interested in bringing the coal industry under the provisions of Secretary Hoover and the promotion of Secretary Hoover and the promotion of Secretary Hoover and the promotion of Secretary Hoover and the process and cheers and one woman was and separated from the crowds by a heavy railing. In other parts of the coal industry under the provisions of the reference to jackasses reported to have been made by Admiral Sims in his London speech. The woman was not troubled by the police.

The question that naturally arises, in connection with these trantic attempts to defeat the Frelinghuysen bill, and the premeditated attempts to believe the process of the crowds by a heavy railing. In other parts of the crowds by a heavy railing. In other parts of the city police kept vigilant guard against untoward incidents. Arriving at the City Hall, the King and the Queen were met by the Lori Mayor and members of the Pelfast Council, and the sovergence of the Belfast Council, and the sovergence of the city police kept vigilant guard against untoward incidents. Arriving at the city police kept vigilant guard against untoward incidents. Arriving at the city police kept vigilant guard against untoward incidents. Arriving at the city police kept vigilant guard against untoward incidents. Arriving at the city police kept vigilant guard against untoward incidents. Arriving at the city police kept vigilant guard against untoward incidents. Arriving at the city police kept vigilant guard against untoward incidents. Arriving at the city police kept vigilant guard against untoward incidents. Arriving at the city police kept vigilant guard against untoward incidents.

When they were completed the King and Queen were entertained at lunch-con by Sir James Craig, the Premier of Washington, June 22.—(By A. P.)

Rear Admiral Sims is expected to once more through the flag-decorated streets to Ulster Hall, where they received addresses of loyalty from various organizations.

The police in the Upper Falls district of the city heard firing in that area and pursued eight men they suspected. Three of them were captured and were found to have ammunition in On the other hand, it is a fresh and striking instance of the manner in which the coal trade leaders are plungwhich the coal trade leaders are plungGessford, the police superintendent, said

The Washington police have made no arrangements for a guard for Admiral their possession. Soldiers with maching guns are occupying vantage points in the Falls district.

Dublin, June 22 .- (By A. P.)-The Catholic heirarchy has issued a declaration in which it declares that "indignities, outrages and every hor-ror have been intensified in Ireland. which is now threatened with even darker deeds because Irishmen rightly SEVENTH ELECTION ON SCHOOL vised by the British Government in The declaration complains that a slightest provision to safeguard "the victims of ever-recurring cruelty and persecution directed against the Catholies of Belfast."

"Until repression ceases and Ire-

London, June 22 .- More troops are to Minnie Feder, of Fourth street near Retail Coal Dealers' Association in this city today.

Samuel B. Crowell, president of the cassociation, said that the Calder bill would merely have increased the price of coal to the consumer and would have helped to block the efforts the retailers are making to get lower prices for the consumer.

Minnie Feder, of Fourth street near London, June 22.—More troops are to be sent to Ireland, according to a statemannafacture, as a leather manufactory at S31 Cherry street, was arrested this morning by Detective Lavery on the charge of systematically robbing her employer of small leather articles. A pocketbook, manufactured in the establishment, was found in her the consumer and would have helped to block the efforts the retailers are making to get lower prices for the consumer.

going as quickly as possible. It is neces-sary to support the troops in Ireland, who are doing duties which are often distasteful to them, with the full might of England. Therefore all troops avail-able should be sent to their support.

GIRL'S VICTIM FORGIVES

clines to Prosecute

HARDING PLANS STUDY OF RACE QUESTIONS

Tells Association for Advancement of Colored People His Purpose New York, June 22.—(By A. P.)-President Harding, in a letter to the National Association for the Advance. Man Slashed With Razor Blade De ment of Colored People, made public

clines to Prosecute

When Miss May O'Rourke, of Tenth street near Oxford, was haled before Magistrate Yates today, charged with having slashed Joseph Donnell, of Mascher stret near Montgomery avenue, with a razor blade, Mr. Donnell gallantly declined to prosecute.

Miss O'Rourke was discharged and Donnell departed to have a new dressing put over his eye. He had a long cut, which, according to the police, Miss O'Rourke gave him when she drew a razor blade during an argument at American and Jefferson streets. Donnell's injury was treated at St. Mary's Hospital.

ment of Colored People, made public today, said he planned to proceed a carly as possible to study the race cuestion, with a view to ameliorating the treatment accorded to Negroes, a cuestion with a view to ameliorating the treatment accorded to Negroes, and the treatme lt's thin!

Dame Fashion has set the seal of her approval on the Strap Pump—and here is the way the La France designers have interpreted her latest whim.

In Black or Brown Kid these slippers are lovely for informal evening wear — or in the sturdier Calfskin for afternoon.

We'd like to have you come in and try them on — for otherwise you'd never believe a shoe so slender and fragile looking could really be both comfortable and practical. But comfort is one of the great features of La France Shoes — and long wear is another. Their prices, too, help make them attractive.

In making installation of the "HOT WAVE" method of heating homes it is not necessary to remove the coal-fired boiler.

THE "HOT-WAVE" AUTOMATIC GAS-FIRED BOILER is quickly connected to your present heating system, since it requires no foundation. The "HOT WAVE" is the only method of heating homes posi-tively, conveniently and safely.

Write for Booklet

GAS UTILITIES SALES COMPANY & PHILA

WM. AKERS, JR. CO., 10TH AND FILBERT STS. Logan Fixture Shop, 4942 N. Broad St.,

Robert Howarth Sons, Simpson Heating Co. Chester. Pa.

Moulding favorable public opinion for articles or services that deserve it