Paulette Helps You Shop This Week Paulette places only articles in this column which she personally considers of unusual value.

Half Price—Express Wagons, Autos, Velocipedes! What youngster wants an "Irish Mail," rubber-tired, nickel-plated velocipede or a big metal automobile with a tricycle motor?

Blouses 1-2 and 1-3 Original Prices Some exceptional stock taking is going on at another good shop, so that slightly mussed models of the best makes are to be had for only $3.95 instead of former prices of $7.00 to $10.75.

Reduced—Buckles and Ties for Men We must not forget the men folk—they like bargains, when they're real, as well as the petticoated population.

Special Sale for Paulette Readers I do like to find an "odds and ends" sale of really worthwhile merchandise. One of my favorite shops is having one just for our benefit—yours and mine—you must mention my name to get the reduced prices.

Wedding and Table Suggestions Think of a dainty little wedding gift for only $1.75. I am referring to wee jam jars in amber, sapphire and rose-tinted glass, whose lids have painted glass fruit—such as strawberries, blackberries, pears, and the like, for handles.
