

DO YOUR OWN SAILING. Borrow your neighbor's wash tub. Also ask if they can spare an umbrella. Then hunt a river or pond. All this must be done on a windy day. Wide World Photo.

WHEN THE THERMOMETER REGISTERED 94. Summer's first full day was hottest of year. John Inge befriended Billie Coon, of 419 Spruce street, when he tried to get a drink in Independence Square, but was too short to reach the fountain. Two neighbors, also of Spruce street, took turns in using a newspaper as a fan. Ledger Photo Service.

GIVING THE TREES A DRINK. In all of the parks of Philadelphia caretakers are busy, due to the lack of rain. Ledger Photo Service.

BARBARA CASTLETON, actress, seeks divorce from husband, a Canadian lawyer K. V. C.

DR. ADALBERT KORFANTY, the Polish Insurgents' leader in Silesia, is one of the busy men of Poland. He was photographed at Oppeln, Upper Silesia, with the dog, his inseparable companion. International.

CAMP MERRITT'S THIRD FIRE. Virtually all the wooden buildings left in New Jersey's camp were destroyed. Fire companies from a score of nearby towns, including New York, gave assistance. Many explosives were destroyed.

THE OLD LADIES' HOME OF WISSINOMING, benefited by the garden party, held at the home of Mr. E. I. Bacon, Jenkintown. Clementine Webb is taking an "orange" from the prize tree. Katherine Stevenson sells a balloon to Morton Fetterolf. L. P. S.

RICHARD SCHMIDT, band conductor, talks on public concerts in an Editorial Page interview.

IN BROOKLYN. Federal Judge Landis, head of organized baseball, at the flag-raising ceremonies, on Ebbets Field. In his arms are the children of Zach Wheat, the Brooklyn outfielder. Underwood & Underwood.

MISS MOLLIE THAYER (left), a finalist in the women's tennis championship of the State of Delaware. She will oppose Miss Eleanor Cottman, of Baltimore. At the right is Miss Helen Sewell, who reached the semi-finals. Ledger Photo Service.

MADAME VARELA, wife of the Minister from Uruguay, is summing at Rehoboth Beach. N. P.

POLO PRACTICE. While the United States polo players were defeating the British four in England, local enthusiasts practiced at the Philadelphia Country Club. They are preparing for a game, planned for charity, on Saturday afternoon. L. P. S.

OUR CITY'S WORKERS AND WHAT THEY DO

OPERATING PIE-MAKING MACHINE. Ruth Smith, 8520 Harley street (left), and Mary Smith, 2525 Lombard street, at the bakery of the New York Pie Baking Co., Twenty-fifth and Lombard streets. 12,000 pies are made daily. Ledger Photo Service.

DOROTHY ELLIOTT, who danced at the benefit given for the St. Christopher's Hospital. She lives at 2802 Lee street. Withers.

MAIL! TWENTY YEARS IN SERVICE. Jesse Leister, looks after mail delivery from Fourth to Fifth and Arch to Vine streets. L. P. S.

THEY BOTH WON! Dr. F. S. Ferris (left) and Horace Boyer, of the Reading Terminal, before their two-round go. Boyer won fifteen years ago.

NORMAN MAXWELL, of White-mars Country Club, in tournament for golf championship of Phila.