

ELOPERS ARRESTED AFTER LONG CHASE

Allentown Man and Woman Both Married, but Not to Each Other

Milwaukee, June 24.—An Allentown man and woman, both married, but not to each other, were arrested at a hotel here yesterday after they had been trailed by the police and detectives across the continent for three weeks. The couple, who had registered as Mr. and Mrs. William E. Fogel and Mrs. Beattie Gilbert, were found to be William E. Fogel and Mrs. Beattie Gilbert.

Mrs. Gilbert, who is a graduate of the Allentown College for Women in the class of 1907, was secretly wedded to Edward W. Gilbert in New York about fifteen years ago. She is the only child of William H. Ryan, a wealthy paper box manufacturer, and one of the leading citizens of Allentown. In her home town she has long been noted for her beauty and her stylish appearance. Repeated visits to the exclusive Fifth Avenue modistes' shops in New York led her well informed as to the very latest and most attractive Paris styles with the result that her clothes were the envy and despair of her neighbors.

Just how long Mrs. Gilbert has known Fogel she refused to say, but it is believed the acquaintance dates back several years. Fogel was an auto mechanic in an Allentown garage and when they left that city it is said the pair rode in a speedy roadster recently purchased by Mrs. Gilbert.
