OPEN-WORK TRIMMING IS HERE AGAIN

大事 大学大学 大学

"The Love Cowards"

By HAZEL DEVO BATCHELOR

with a manner that was most unchildbeautiful ever came to live with us be-with a question in them, on Miss Hen-caught in her throat, and she resolved to make Trix happy f she accomplished

Aftenward as she was leaving the oom, she turned back to Miss Hender-was disappointed, for the older woman

Miss Honderson, I'd like to speak to like, she said gravely :

nothing else.

ou for a moment.

you're eyes are like the sea.

ove. She ate her breakfast slowly, with Because she is disappointed in one man, Nancy Hathaway decides never to trust another. On the spur of the her eyes on Nancy's face, and finall she accepts a mysterious offer to become governess to a little child in a lonely house on the coast of Massachusetts. She and Miss Hen-derson, the woman who engages her. errive at Rock Haven late at night. and although stronge things happen. Nancy sleeps soundly and wakes up the next morning to find Trix, her little charge, standing in the doorway looking at her.

CHAPTER VIII The Bruised Wrist

RIX lay quite still by Nancy's side. and propped up on one elbow Nancy ludied the child. Her wonderful taffyolored hair spread out in a cascade over the pillows. and across her white forehead it was cut in a re-fractory bang. thick and beavy. that was somewhat oddly charming. She had long, very light brown eyes that were almost amber-colored, but her small face was ser small face was he small handbeart toward the person who could hart

a little could so cruelly

The could so cruelly

Miss Henderson's brother had not appeared at bronkinst that morning Could a strong

They went down to breakfast hands to the the systemy surrounding this n-hand, and found Miss Henderson in household and anything to do with ne sunny dining room scaled behind a Brace Honderson? And if so, in what There was nothing at way, and way was the child threatened? all mysterious about the house that In ner neart of hears, some and norning, with the sun streaming in that Mr. Hennerson had not incorrect, therefore and the delictors aroma of Sie had no desire to see any man, and becon and eggs filling the air. mysterious about the house that In her heart of hearts Namey was glad-

Nancy noticed that Miss Henneyson, family so much the better. was kine to Trix, but a wa-a't in her to be demonstrative, and the calld craved tained a position through Julian Vanda-teer, an unscrupulous adventurer, who has known Dick in Alaska and is anx-lous to get a diamond which Dick owns and always carries. Dick is in love seith Mary, but Eve has her eye on him as well as on Julian. Bellairs wants to marry Mary, who is staying at his country estate to do some work

DICK'S DILEMMA

N grasped at it. The situation demanded not only flatters, but a large

No! It could not surely be.
Her sympathy struck the young man.

It seemed to the young man as though gan as a heart.

And this girl seemed to care for him, mean

She was looking at him with her whole another voice was answering "Yes. She swung around a little, placing her other hand upon his arm. 'Dick.'

Soul in her eyes. "Dick! My dear-

TOW was Eve's chance.

mon sense.

pressure.

know what pain and trouble mean!

"I don't know what is troubling you. Dick — and I'm not going to

At Cupid's Call

Please Tell Me What to Do By CYNTHIA

Glad to Hear of "Raindrop" Dear Cynthia—May I please address a few words to "Raindrop"? Thank you, "Raindrop." I can hardly believe that there is a fellow left like you. I have always wanted the pleasure of meeting a fellow pleasure of meeting "I think you are very beautiful. Your bair is like the sunset, isn't it? And fore." and she turned her strange eyes.

always wanted the pleasure of meeting a fellow who doesn't dance, and who doesn't ask for a good-night kiss, and who doesn't call you a poor sport if you refuse to be mushed up. I would like very much to meet you, and get the thrill of talking to a 'ellow who is not like those dance-hall Johnnies, and who Nancy flushed and laughed, but a sob those dance-half Johnnies, and who doesn't care to dance. Maybe some people will say that the reason 1 don't care for dancing is because I can't dance, but I assure them they are all wrong there, because I do know how to dance, but I haven't been to a dance hall for quite some time, and I don't intend to go there for some time to come tither. These dance-half Johnnies are either These dance-half annula according to disgust any one.

Every time I meet a fellow the first thing he asks is, "Po you dance". And then when they take you home, they say "How about a good-night kiss?" You refuse and they say, "Aw, come dn. The older woman turned from the door that led into the kitchen and came Why was my door locked from the y, but softly, so that Trix could not be a sport " How about it, girls-don't ear what was said.

If she had expected Miss Henderson

Maybe Raindrop' will favor me wi reply. "RAINBOW." to look embarrassed or taken back she a reply.

A Strange View of Love regarded her with perfect serenity and answered quickly:

"It's the dampness, we're so close to the sea that everything sticks, You'll find the same trouble with your bureau drawers.

Her eyes did not faiter from Namy's and the girl was finally compeled to turn away. But later when she went up to her room she examined the door carefully. She closed and opened it them.

ruise on the white HAZEL DELY STIST as though BATCHELOR ome one's heavy meet a superson and explained. Later on in the saked softly, but Trix quickly nulled be asked softly but Trix quickly nulled but to the softly nulled be asked softly but Trix quickly nulled but to the softly nulled but to dorever.

Unlike other poisons love rarely kills—at least not immeriately. It takes a strong hold upon the heart and from this fortress it controls the whole body, which it has already narelyzed. It lends one to a living death. They who suffer from love forget their studies and their duties, their friends are treated coldly, their interests in everything but love are dead.

The symptoms and effects of this

The symptoms and affects toison are numerous an aching heart and excessive sighing, the victim is blindfolded so that he can see only the mage he calls his love. But alas, of what value are the symptoms, three the poison has taken effect the victim never into space, unseeing.

'Oh. Dick.' I—there's no one in the world like you.' Dick, dear—

The polson is taken in the form of the large New York newsseemed to generate an atmosphere of electricity. The air was charged with it.

Dick—lonely, miserable and unstrumed as a Vampire.

The danger from love is very great to be kissed.

Eve—the eternal Eve—had won.'

I—I always knew you loved me—Dick.' A trumphant gleam was shinling on the girl's pretty, shallow little face. You thought you egred for each of the large New York newssome one else—but it was I, Dick.

The polson is taken in the form of Hugs and option of Hugs and the search of the large New York newspapers says. 'So many of the fashionabid leaders have already decided that to their present opportunity to return the papers says. 'So many of the fashionabid leaders have already decided that to the plis are contained is characterized as a blessing to the plus as a blessing of the plus as some people would have us believe.

The danger from love is very great as a blessing that no one evinces even the midest insince people regard it as a blessing that no one evinces even the midest insince people regard it less one preventive—that is, to be brought up as and to lead the life of a hermit. But this cannot be. The world is not large enough to allow every one-to be a herpint, and besides the human race would always some one else—but it was I, Dick.

All we can do, therefore, a to endure the possion in stience and pray which the was required to the first time of the large New York newsto remain the form of the large New York newsto remain the plant as a blessing that no one evinces even the midest insince people regard to a hermit. But the vast number of society that no one evinces even the midest insince people regard to a hermit. But the vast number of society that no one evinces even the midest insince people would have us believe.

The truth is that these girls and women who worked for the first time of the freshing advantage of the fir some one cise—but it was I. Dick.

dear—

Dick woke up with a thud. Tremendously astumed of himself he stared at Eve. The word "love" had started lum:

She local bin. He had been the started lum:

All we can not necession in stience and pray good that He lead us to sweet repose. The above is rather a pessinistic unknown that the war brought into all spheres, including many where work had been unknown, they tasted the wine of interest and group-lishment, and so idlented him. She was in his arms now, with her head against his shoulder. He was a Doubtie's your letter will receive an- attraction for us. It has been said that for any other but our own.

And, strange as this may sound, it true. For when, is sometimes hapens, neonle have an opportunity to beome acquainted with the life for which bey have yearned, it is not long, usu-lly, before they are eager to change

The stage-struck girl who gets into

Bands of insertion which look almost like drawnwork trim a dress of gray crepe satin, allowing a vest and underskirt of henna satin to show them up in all their delicacy of line. The short sleeves are also edged in the same way. More like a lace are the neck and border of the other frock, seen at the races in London. White satin is worn be neath the frock to show through the holes of the trimming and accentuate

Through a Woman's Eyes

"Society" Punching the Time Clock

can be cured.

I usually love is somewhat neutralized by an herb called marriage; although not immediately divorce, like death, destroys the effect of love temporarily, rarely permanently, since dispersions, some for "pin money."

Every once in a while we see by the papers that another member of the crome do daily problems, complicated perhaps, by decided to a new love.

Every once in a while we see by the papers that another member of the crome do daily problems, complicated perhaps, by decided to a new love. Love at first sight is the most de some as a substitute for the war work. So, while the working girl envies the

of life. I am what is called a "pessimistic optimist. No one laughs more heartily at the pessimism I write than myself I may know that it is true and yet I won't let myself believe it. Some one however, must give the other side of any controversy, and I have tried to do so in this case, so that I may learn what others think of love. My one hope is that those who attack my views will not attack me as harrow-minded and the like I am realous of my good name
the like I am realous of my good name.

I am jealous of my good name. glamour round the other side of life, the mystery, is what lends it penultur other phases of life we would never wish the theatre is soon disillusioned. And the other circle and sew it into the top the daughter of a modest family who weaves fairy tales round the charmed lives if the people in the big house finds, when it happens that she is admitted card as well.

The theatre is soon disillusioned. And the other circle and sew it into the top. If the guest's initials are embroidered on the silk before covering the card-board this FIRECRACKER-FAVOR DARNING CASE will serve as a place when it happens that she is admitted.

Mary Drew is Carrington Bellairs private secretary, and is in love with loirs ward. Ever Rochester, has obtained a position through Julian Vandateer, an unscrippulous adventureer, who has known Dick in Alaska and is anx.

Love at first sight is the most described in the most described firecrackfer Favor Darning Case

A FIRECRACKER-FAVOR DARN-ING CASE makes an interesting favor for an Independence Day gathering. Roll a six-inch strip of cardboard to form the foundation of the firecracker. Glue the foundation of the firecracker. Glue a strip of paper over the edges that meet to hold them together. Cut two circles of cardboard to fit the top and bottom. Cover the "cracker" with red silk or satin. Make a small hole in the center of each circle, cover each with the silk. I after buttonholing a small hole in the center of the rilk covers. New in the bottom circle. Place a ball of black darning cotton into the "cracker" and pull the end of the cotton through the hole in the bottom. Place a ball of white on top of the black. Pull the end through the other circle and sew it into the top.

DREAMLAND ADVENTURES

Twinkling Isle By DADDY

CHAPTER II

Tickling Fingers COME queer magic seemed to be in the nightingale music, to which danced the fairies of Twinkling Isle. Peggy at—the stunts we go through in order to take three inches off our waists or six youth and maid, who danced on the off our hips! deck of the sailboat, did not grow a Women who have absolutely lived on to the fairy music was like having a potatoes which might make them fat. sound, restful sleep without going to How we dread that word! sound, restful sleep without going to

"Wouldn't it be fine to have this play all the time without ever going to

"Yes, it would be nice." agreed you're a fast worker. Peggy. "I wish—" Peggy was just going to wish they might have the fairy music every night when she noticed meals makes you fat." music every night when she noticed Folly Wisher chuckling to himself as he Folly Wisher chuckling to himself as he did every time she made a foolish wish. A ND now we hear of a girl who was enjoyed being in bed-on stormy nights out.

un showed a scene even more entrancing. Around the bay ran a broad sandy Beyond the peach was a velvety lawn, shaded by a fringe of trees, from which vines bung like draperies, with here and there swings in which monkeys swayed back and forth. Becond this fringe of trees were green hills bearing bushes and orchards laden with

"I wish we could go ashore now." said Peggy, and she quickly got her tain wish. The invisible sailors swung a her rowbont over the side of the sailbont and helped aboard Peggy. Billy. Folly Wisher and the chocolate-colored youth and maid. Then the invisible sailors rowed the boat ashere.

As the children stepped upon the soft joy. It was just such sand in which they delighted to play.
"I wish we had on bathing suits.

ried Peggy, scarcely thinking of what she was saying. At once they all found themselves clad in bathing suits. Peggy had on a suit of pink and white. Billy one of blue, the chocolate-colored maid one of red, the brave youth one of pur-ple, while Folly Wisher had a suit of

They had a jolly romp in the sand nd a snappy splash in the clear waters of the bay. And while they were having a good time, birds were singing a ong of greeting to them and monkey were pecking at them from among the leaves of the trees. But of the fairies whose lanterns they had seen all during the night, there was no sign.

"I wish we would see a fairy," cried Peggy. As she said the words she felt something tickling her ear. Thinking hand to slap it av zy. Before she could slap, Lowever, Biliy startled her by seizing her raised annal: "It's a fairy!" he shouted. Peggy dodged her head and a little winged creature buzzed in front of her eyes. She thought it a dragon fly and struck at it, but a second time Billy Again Peggy felt a tickling of her car and, as she dodged, a second fairy floated into view. And then appeared a third and a fourth, until fairies were hovering around by the dozens.

Smiling and hughing the fairies

Smiling and laughing, the fairles beckened to the children to follow them among the trees. What happened then will be told tomorrow

She Hiked In Order to Get Thinner and Gained Thirty Pounds Instead

We Do All Kinds of Stunts and Make All Kinds of Sacrifices to Lose a Few Pounds-And Sometimes We Succeed

WHAT we will do to reduce! The people we consult, the weighing machines we apply to-and get mad

Usually staying up late made them | Girls who adore good food say goodsleepy and heavy-eyed. Now their eyes by forever-or for duration-to the grew brighter and brighter. Dancing delicious, richly buttered, nourishing

Women who have been known to say, "I don't mind anything about housemagic fairy music to rest us every long washing dishes!" make a prac-night?" said Billy. "Then we could lice of standing up for twenty whole minutes after every meal!

And you can wash a whole meal's worth of dishes in fifteen minutes-if

She stopped her wish short. She would thinner. She wasn't especially erazy think it over a bit before speaking it. stout shoes, tramping togs and a com-There were lots of times when she really fortable hat every morning and started Dawn came suddenly. The sun rose above the trees. The twinkling lights business and she went at it in a businesslike way. that marked the dancing fairies blinked No silly little "Sunday afternoon out; the music of the nightingale ev-chestra was lost in the joyous morning ular hike, songs of thousands of day birds; the Living conveniently near mountain

Peggy and Billy had thought the view wondrously fair when they could see only the flark shore with the fairy lights sparkling on it. Now the rosy morning sun showed a scene even more entrance.

those impertinent scales that went gayly up, up and up every time she stepped on weighing machine. For a long time she kept up this daily hike until she grew to enjoy it, the air was so fine, the exercise so invigorat-ing, her appetite so keen when she got

A ND then she was weighed-and the nasty, disagreeable, spiteful mountain road had gained thirty pounds for

What a disappointment! What a Thirty whole pounds! And she had wanted to lose about fifteen!

wanted to lose about fifteen; Evidently hiking was not the cure
she should have chosen.
That's the one trouble with exercise as a cure. You can make it gain or lose for you—but the trouble lies in deck of the sailboat, did not grow a bit tired as the night went on. Rather, they seemed to grow more rested and fresh.

Women who have absolutely hvey to lose for you—but the trouble lies in knowing just which it is going to do, and what kind will do it.

One girl tells you that she was so thin, almost skinny, until she took up

Immediately you try swimming in order to gain a little—and your weight remains the same.

It was good for her, but you needed something a little different.

STILL, we enjoy ourselves talking Sabout our half pound loss or gain, we really have a pretty good time pretending that we are benefiting by our stunts And no doubt our dicting, our hik. ing, and our standing up for twenty minutes do do, us a great deal of good and bring us a measure of health, even if they do not always make the pounds drop off us like sacks of meal.

Clever Women

Ore of the first money change boxes, designed for the convenience of ticket sellers and cashiers, was invented by Miss Eather J. Bruce, a sixteen-year-old girl of New York, in 1877.

Miss B. Schottler, Chicago real estate broker, has caused the big brokers in thut city "to sit up and take notice," by putting through a $115,000 sale of sub-urban property.

Queer Ideas

A woman who underwent an operation for appendicitis has had her appendix plated with gold and she now wears it

A woman of Richmond, Va. is re-ported to have paid $150 for a casket in which to bury her pet poodle and quite a sum in addition for telegrams notify-ing her friends of the dog's demise.

A San Francisco several years ago left $5000 each to ten of her nephews, on condition that her tombstone was to be replaced every two years with a new one on which each rephew in turn should put ion in verse setting forth his love and

sands of the beach they thrilled with BEFORE THE MORNING DIP

It's a pleasure each morning, When down at the shore. Before you go in for your dip, To drink with your breakfast, Just one cup, or more, Of the coffee de luxe

MORNING SIP

The Better Coffee In Air-Tight Tins

Roasted and Packed by Alex. Sheppard & Sons, Inc. Philadelphia, Pa.

Buy before we move and save

Attractive Reductions

to enable us to clear our stocks prior to moving to our new store, Chestnut corner of 17th Street. Items of particular interest at CLEARANCE PRICES

Summer Sweaters Bathing Suits Golf Hose Sport Hats

In fact, everything in Woolware for men, women and children—for dress and sport.

Dr. Jaeger's Co. 1516 Chestnut St. PHILADELPHIA

ම්ලිවලවලට අතුවලට අ

What other cereal food offers as much nourishing value as

Grape:Nuts

when eaten with good milk or cream

Consider the sustaining quality of each dish of this prime wheat and malted barley food, and you will have the answer.

A ready-cooked cereal so palatable that you will want to eat it again and again.

"There's a Reason" Grape: Nuts is sold by grocers everywhere!

Made by Postum Cereal Co..Inc. Battle Creek, Michigan

The Woman's Exchange

"Is-is the situation so awfully- again with a vengeance.

bad?" A direct challenge lay in her tree as they met Dek's "Are—nre Eve desperately. You don't know you so awfully tired of me of being wont he valls my escapades! He's Dick stammered. Phease don't say This this will be the dimax! Besthat!"

"And—and, Dick you do like me, stone was telling!—
"And—and, Dick you do like me, just a little?"

Fye's face was tilted steen—in told me so—and I il be turned away—without a triend—

A curious something welfed up in read in well-feagued coveres. She Dick's heart. He did not care for Eve his heart was all with Mary Drew but Mary had no use for such an orlowness.

with me?" what he calls my escapades! "I-I'm not tired of you at all," anges with me, anyhow, just a

Games for Lawn Party

some games to be played at a small lawn party of about twenty girls whose agest range from fourteen to eighteen years. Also, if it is not too much trouble, kindly explain briefly how the games are played.

These games are one long to be described in the column but if you walkend me a self-addressed standard revelope repeating your request I shall be lad to send you some good games that you can easily learn.

s lad to send you some good games that you can easily learn.

To Sell Fancy Work

To the Editor of Woman = Pag:

Dear Madam—I am nextous to obtain the address of a "woman's exchange" or other place where they conduct a sate of fancy work. Will you please help of fancy work Will you please help of south for the South Seventeenth street. Send a sample of your work, so that it can be judged by the committee, and if it is accepted the fee will be taken out of your sales.

Is best until you are sure of yourself. You are doing the best thing to make your armo and legs stouter. Coron but fer will help and you ought to notice the difference by the end of the summer. No, don't be discouraged, it does take a long time but the change is so grad ual that you can hardly see it until at that you can hardly see it until at that you can hardly see it until at the part of a sudden you notice that your arms are fatter than they were and by that time it is all done. Keep using cocon but the will have you will see the difference—and incidentally get lots of for out of it.

Zane Grey's very latest hook is "The woman's exchange" or a long time but the change is so grad ual that you can hardly see it until at the part of a sudden you notice that your arms are fatter than they were and by that time it is all done. Keep using cocon much as you can and I know you will see the difference—and incidentally get lots of for out of it.

Zane Grey's very latest hook is "The your arms are doing the best thing to make you are the difference and you notice that you can hardly see it until at the part of the summer.

"What do you want me to do?" The words very hind but they were houst. Eve saw her charte. She pressed it. "There's only one thing that will coar the situation up. She hang her

'An engagement' Is that what you

Tomorrow-The Return

unstable-quite unworthy of a

He did not answer.

the fee will be taken out of your sales.

She Has Seen Helped Before

To the Editor of Wanders Pane

Dear Madam—I have written you before and received some valuable advice. I am coming to you again for more. Where is the right place for the server's partner to stand when playing tennis? Close to the net or along nelline?

I wish to make my arms and legs atouter. How can I do this? Will come butter help any and how long will I take for noticeable effect?

Nams some of Zane Grey's latest books.

Is a shoe size 615, considered above the average size for a girl whose height.

t possible that she was referring to and mean nothing? Dick-don't say unself as the problematic 'some one'?' that all this is preferse. The Question Corner Eve went on: "If-if you don't care for me as genuine. He was in a sore hurt incod, and sympathy was very sweet. can't go home. I can't indeed. My 'Come. Eve.' We've got to go.' guardan will be furious. He'll say Dick rose to his feet. He was smiling you've compromised me. Every one Today's Inquiries

Describe an appropriate center-piece for the Fourth of July party which will please the children. What helpful protection for the Dick rose to his feet. He was smiling now. Miss Eve's remarks had cheered him. "Let's make one hig effort to locate ourselves. And let us both make the hest of a bad situation."

The still clung to his agm.

The still clung to his agm. thermos bottle would be useful on a picnic? In cleaning cloth dresses what fabric should be used to do the rubbing?

Of what material should gifts for the twentieth wedding anniversary w made? Describe a small, inexpensive present that could be given at this

ii. How is a piquant bathing cap fushioned:

Yesterday's Answers Statistics show that the modern college girl is an inch taller than the college girl of 1800, and that spe weight six or seven pounds 2. An attractive new apron for the waiters to wear on dressy or-ensions is made of dimity in a block design with lace insertion around the edge, and little lace 3 New purses and handbags which look like gold fleeked with an in-even design are made of Norway

The fitteenth wedding anniversary The annising gifts which would be appropriate for this would be a box of crystal mint candies and a small bottle of water from a 'crystal spring.' A striking pair of black patent leather slippers has a decoration of white across the strap.

The cup of goodness

ASCO Coffee At all our Stores

AMERICAN