Eloping Heiress TO SEEK DIVORCE

Mrs. Katherine Stevens Fagan Off to Reno, Young Husband Admits

MARRIED TWO MONTHS AGO

New York, June 28.—After two mouths of married life, Mrs. Katherine Stevens Fagan, the eighteen-year-old the estimated $15,000.000 estate of her father. Galvin Amory Stevens, the eccentric recluse of Broad has parted from her nineteen year-old student husband. Richard

Didn't Consult Friends

Without consulting their parents of intimate friends, they agreed between themselves, in the most amicable manner possible, the necessity of a divorce to insure the future happiness of both. William R. Fagan, Stock Exchange broker, said yesterday that his son and the Stevens heiress had parted. The news, broken to him by the handsome. broad-shouldered youth after the bride's saved.

"I promptly took steps to have the marriage annulled, as I wanted Richard to complete his college course be-fore thinking of matrimony. But the New Hampshire lawyer whom 1 con-sulted—they were married in the Episcopal Church at Hanover, N. H.-in-formed me that the couple had conformed to all the requirements and therefore there were no grounds for annullment. So I just had to accept the situation as it stood.

AUSTIN PLEADS GUILTY

Man Accused in Sharon Hill Murder

Admits Complicity in Crime Media, Pa., June 28.-John Austin a Negro, who was chased through eight States by Detective E. G. Crawford, of New York, and finally arrested for murder in the mountains near Morgantown.
W. Va. pleaded guilty yesterday to second-degree murder for his part in the alaying of John Dalton, son of Dr.
David Dalton, of Sharon Hill, last July. udge Johnson suspended sentence until Thursday morning to give counsel op-portunity to prove that Austin had never served time in Southern peniten

The plea of second-degree murder came as a surprise, because Austin had testified during the trial of his confed-erate that he had nothing to do with the murder but stood behind a tree and witnessed Roanoke Jasper and Walter Lewis shoot Dalton. Lewis was con-victed of murder in the first degree. District Attorney William Taylor declared yesterday that although Jasper had escaped conviction of murder, nev-ertheless he will be tried for highway robbery, burglary and assault and bat-

Cows Tipsy, Some Killed After "Moonshine" Spree

Hot Springs, Ark., June 28.—(By A. P.)—Weird antics of milk cows on their way home from pasture and the subsequent death of several of them led dairymen near here to start an investigation which today disclosed that they had been cating mash from which moonshine whisky was made.

An analysis of the mash showed concentrated lye had been mixed with the grain, apparently to hasten fermentation. The added "kick" proved fatal to some of the cous.

The library in the "book corner" of the guild at present consists of a few bound volumes of old magazines and a scattering dozen juvenile books, all of which have been nearly worn out by reading and re-reading. There is no library within walking distance of these children, say the officers of the guild.
