CY PERAINS DOPE IS BEARING FRUIT

"Pitchers' Improvement Means Out of Last Place," Said Catcher Before Leaving

HARRIS WINS ANOTHER

Sweltering fandom had one thing to be happy for this morning. The Athletics, thanks to the brilliant pitching of Bryan "Slim" Harris, started what is hoped to be another winning streak when he walloped the daylights out of the Senators. The Texan was aided and abetted by his teammates to such an extent that the men of the Capital never had a chance.

Zachary, who is known among his teammates as a winning factor, received his second setback at the hands of the fighting slugger in the two recent series between the teams. It was "Slim's" second triumph in the same number of starts against President Griffith's nine. As when Brower took the former place at bat in the eighth.

It was the eighth victory out of the last twelve starts for the Mackmen—a record that has not been equaled by a team wearing the elephant since 1914. It is really the most promising exhibition given by the Mack bunnies days when championships rolled in with such frequency that the fans took it all as a matter of course. There is no reason to be unduly excited at the present time.

The pitchers on whom Connie depends most to drag him out of the cellar are finding their true forms in the warm-up while the remainder of the team, given confidence by the work of their brethren on the hill, are rallying with their bats and with such a force in the field to such an extent that no longer do other teams regard them as soft picking and a stepping stone to a better place in the league standing.

Charles Thomas, who pitched for the center in his league, said just before the team started for Boston that he noticed a big improvement in the pitching and that if they continued to play the first of August, adds more heat prostrations to his list. Cy should know for he is catching them all. His dope is bearing fruit.

Mack sent Emmett McCann back to shortstop yesterday, and the West Philadelphia kid knocked out a single that sent the home run to the outfield. In the field game, his only misdeed could do no damage whatever. Shortstop is the weakest link in the chain of inner fortifications, and that if they continued to play the first of August, adds more heat prostrations to his list. Cy should know for he is catching them all. His dope is bearing fruit.

Piani has finished first in 12 out of 14 events at the Point Breeze Velodrome.

FLEISHER BLANKS CHESTER

Yarners Shut Out Frank Miller's Club by Score of 5 to 0

The Fleisher Yarners traveled to Chester yesterday afternoon, defeated Frank Miller's club 5 to 0 and were then escorted to the train by the police. Billy Fossett was the cause of the latter. He objected to one of the umpire's decisions in the sixth, and after the game was over about 1500 fans got after the visiting players on the mound and the Chester batters at his mercy. Walks and Nolan were the batting stars, the former leading in a triple with two on. The score by innings:
