

SEA HORSES AND MERMAIDS. Bathers at Brighton Beach have found it very interesting sport to ride a horse through the surf of the Atlantic. Ledger Photo Service

CHILDREN HAVE DAY IN PARK. As guests of the Matinee Musical Club several hundred Philadelphia children enjoyed all there was to enjoy at Woodside Park. It was a busy day for the committee of well-known society people. Three kiddies were snapped as they prepared to make the start on the giant slide. At the right several boys and girls are being tossed about on the Virginia reel. Ledger Photo Service

PRINCE M. CANTACUZENE, of Russia, and his bride, who was Miss Clarissa Pelham Curtis, of Boston. They were married at Roxbury, Mass. U. S. T.

DORA BUCKLEY in the nutrition class at the Elkin Public School. She is studying a chart arranged by the Philadelphia Health Council and Tuberculosis Committee. Ledger Photo Service

GOING SOME. Mrs. Molla Bjurstedt Mallory snapped during the match at Wimbledon, England, in which she was defeated by Miss Elizabeth Ryan, of California, now living in England. C. N. P.

WITH THEIR TRUNKS. The lads out at Concourse Lake, Fairmount Park, were dressed yesterday, so that no one could complain. Even the Park Guards didn't make a kick. The boys don't like the new rules on trunks. Ledger Photo Service

IN CONCOURSE LAKE. The girl at the left is acting as swimming instructor for her younger sister, who was an apt pupil. Ledger Photo Service

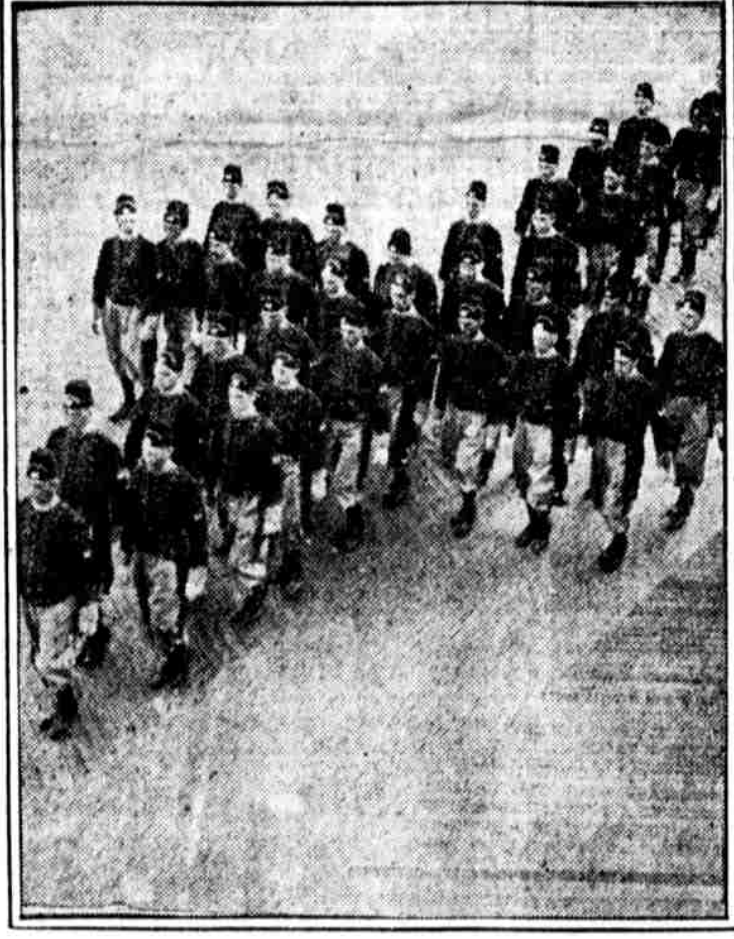

AT NORTH HILLS COUNTRY CLUB. The annual one-day golf tournament of the Philadelphia Auto Trades Association was held yesterday. At the left are John H. Fassitt and H. A. Tillinghast. The golfer at the right is Guy A. Willey. Ledger Photo Service

DANIEL FROHMAN, at 70 years, takes to motorcycling. He was snapped in a New York park. Gilmans

MASTER HOWARD E. ROGERS, of New York, at Southampton, L. I. Central News Photo

IN GROTTOS' PARADE. Members of the Grotto from Elmira, N. Y., form a cross as they march on the Boardwalk in the Atlantic City parade. Ledger Photo Service

CARL F. EGGE, OF MINNEAPOLIS, has been appointed superintendent of the United States air mail service. Harris & Evans

OUR CITY'S WORKERS AND WHAT THEY DO

FRANK E. GOLDKAMP, North Glenside, operating a single scoring machine in the plant of the Novelty Paper Box Manufacturing Co., 72 North Fourth street. Ledger Photo Service

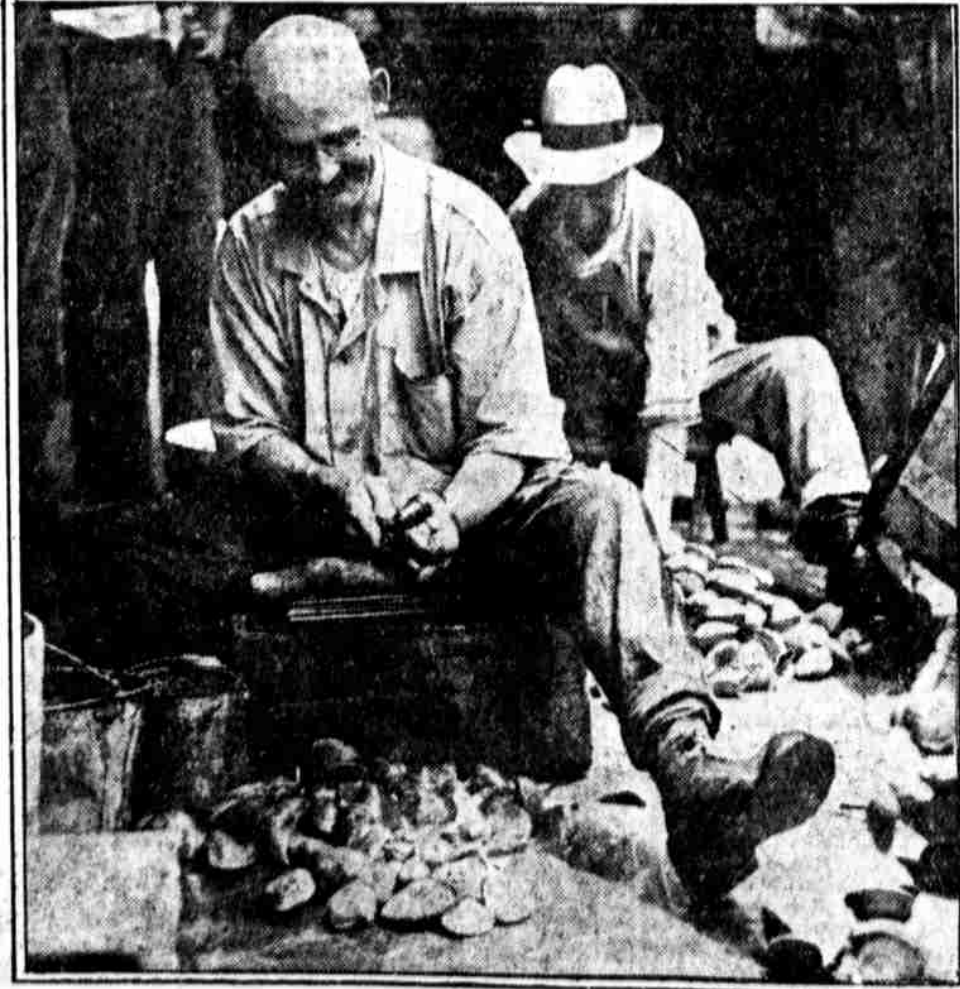

PATROLMAN JOS. DEVINE, of 7th and Market sts., in his new summer attire. L. F. S.

MAIL

SEVENTEEN YEARS IN MAIL SERVICE. August Schimpf, 1219 N. 28th st., serves 2d st. to Delaware ave. and Market to Arch. L. F. S.

THE CHAMPION. In the foreground is Barney McGinnis, who yesterday won first honors in the clam-opening contest held on the pavement at Front and Spruce streets; 6500 clams were opened in the competition. Ledger Photo Service

MISS PEGGY FERGUSON showing speed in tennis tournaments of Pennsylvania and Delaware. L. F. S.