

HEAVY SCHEDULE FOR LOCAL TEAMS

Many of City's Independent Nines Have Six Games Scheduled for Next Five Days

TONIGHT'S TWILIGHT TILTS

The rain once more put a crimp in the independent baseball games last evening, but the clubs will go at it again tonight and a number of important contests are booked. What is worrying the managers is where they are going to get the pitchers to carry them through the heavy holiday schedule. Many of the city's big clubs are playing five and six days in a row with two contests on July 4.

Phil Haggerty and his Nativty athletes returned this morning from a trip up State and take on Charlie Johnson's Norfolk Stars this evening at Broad and Ontario streets. This has been the best year for the Stars and they have been winning consistently from the start of the season.

The visitors will in all probability start Lee on the mound with Hebrews ready to take his place at any time. Manager Haggerty will depend on "Lefty" Schofield to carry the Nativty colors to victory.

North Phils at Spbas
The North Phillies hope to get in a game with the South Phils at Broad and Bigler. Manager Reifsnnyder and his athletes were unable to play Dobson last evening and the Spbas had a game called off with Tilt Brown on Tuesday. The upturners have David and Steiner in shape to take the mound and either will get the assignment.

Eddie Gottlieb, of the Spbas, announces that Dave Barol will hold down the hot corner for the first time in this game and the twirling honors will be up to Lew Malone. He is a former second baseman of Connie Mack's Athletics, but who has been converted into a pitcher who is making a name for himself on the staff of the Paterson Silk Sox.

The Fleisher Yarners have the Peeks-kill Club here for a twilight engagement. The York Staters are here on a trip, also having a game with Stenton Field Club on Sunday and Nativty Monday. They have one of the best semi-pro clubs in the Empire State, according to reports, and Eddie Garner may be used against them.

Monmouth at Shanahan

Shanahan was all set to meet the Cuban Stars last evening, but Jim Benner is satisfied that the game was unplayed, as it gave his pitchers a much-needed rest. Monmouth, of Gloucester, is this evening's opponent of the West Philadelphia. The Jersey men will depend on Devine to carry off the pitching laurels and Shanahan will use Nichie, the heavy-hitting moundman, who cracked out four doubles in the only game he has hurled.

Eddie Caskey and his Bridgport club will journey over to the home of the Ivins cakemakers at Broad street

Today's Local Games

Norfolk Stars at Nativty, Broad and Ontario streets. Twenty-sixth and Wisconsin streets.
Lincoln Union at Germantown, Chelton avenue and Magnolia street.
Manhattan, of Gloucester, at Shanahan, Forty-sixth and Broad streets.

Haskell E. team at Northtown, North Phillips at South Philly Hebrews, Broad and Dales streets.
Philadelphia Ecclians at Rowland All-stars, Frankford avenue and Pratt street.

and Allegheny avenue. This has been a busy week for Ivins and they have an important game also on the schedule tomorrow in the Industrial League. Manager Mallon has not as yet announced his pitching selection, although it is Jake Hevener's turn to work. Tommy Volz will in all likelihood pitch for Bridgport.
The Lincoln Stars remained in this city overnight, although their game with the Stetson hatmakers was unplayed on account of rain. The New York champions have an engagement with Dave Benis' Germantown nine at Chelton avenue and Magnolia street. The Stars are listed as the colored champions of the United States, but Germantown will try to score a victory with Furey on the hill.

OBTAINS HOME FIELD

Jewish World to Use W. F. Read Field on Mondays and Thursdays
The Jewish World has arranged to play twilight games on Monday and Thursday evenings on the William F. Read grounds, Fifteenth street and Moyamensing avenue. Only first-class teams will be played.
The line-up has been strengthened with the acquisition of Sharkey, of Paschall; Quinn, of Kaywood; McCabe, of St. Francis, and with Ryan, McKee brothers, Nauty, Larkins, Darrow, Cruise and McDonald. The Jewish boys will have a strong combination.

The opening game will be played with the Rosewood Pros, on July 4, A. M. All first-class teams should get in touch with Alex A. Sweeney, 1207 South Bucknell street.

Scottish Soccerists May Be Delayed
Montreal, July 1.—The tour of the United States by the Scottish football team next month may be delayed because American Government regulations cannot be complied with in time. Detailed description of every member of the party must be forwarded to Washington for the official stamp of approval before the party can enter the United States.

Carpentier Has Had No Serious Contest Since Finish of War

Since the war, Georges Carpentier has fought no battle which really tested his strength. Much of his time has been occupied in theatrical tours, including a short trip through the United States last year, at the end of which he met Battling Levinsky at Jersey City, N. J.

After a short rest following demobilization, Carpentier fought Dick Smith, a second-rate heavyweight, in Paris in the summer of 1919. Carpentier was an easy victor in eight rounds. A short time later English sportsmen arranged to have Carpentier meet Joe Beckett, the British heavyweight, in what was expected to be a classic battle. Carpentier knocked out Beckett in a single round. In 1920 "Blink" McCloskey and Girardhaven were easy victims in two rounds each.

On October 12 in Jersey City, Carpentier advertised to be for the "light heavyweight" championship of the world. It was a fiasco. Carpentier had no trouble, however, in knocking out Levinsky in four rounds, but his showing was far from impressive and is the basis for the contentions of those who expect Dempsey to defeat the Frenchman. The Levinsky battle was Carpentier's last appearance in the ring before he meets Dempsey.
