All the World Looks to Philadelphia for the Proper Expression of Independence Day—All Philadelphia Looks to Wanamaker's for the Goods to Get Ready for It

Tomorrow Will be the First Saturday of July

which, for the convenience of the public, requires the store to be open to help the people to prepare FOR MONDAY'S HOLIDAY THE 4TH OF JULY

We are, of course, all closed up tight on 4th of July and ready Tuesday morning with lots of new things of every kind, suitable for better enjoyment of the summer holidays, now beginning.

Write to your friends passing through the city to meet you at the store, that you may show them around and take them with you to luncheon wherever you prefer to lunch.

We are reducing all prices as rapidly as possible, but we go slow on food, as we shall always insist on having only the best and freshest of food.

Silk Envelope Handbags Brought Down to $5

Not that $5 is such a remarkable price for a silk handbag, but these have 14-kt. gold corners. A good flat shape, with purse and mirror, and silk lined, and having cord handle. In black and navy. (Main Floor, Chestnut)

New Glove-Silk Underwear That Every Woman Wants

Moderately priced, of good quality and just as popular as desirability can make it. Of excellent, firm glove-silk, easily laundered, always fresh looking—no wonder every woman likes it. Plain pink and white silk camisoles, $2.50. Plain pink and white vests and hosiery, $3. Plain pink bloomers, $4. (First Floor, Market)

Skirts for the Fourth Are Specially Priced

It is always the case that a woman discovers at the last moment that she needs an extra skirt for over the holidays. These are two of the most popular kinds. They are all new and fresh and very economically priced.

100 silk skirts at $12.75 each. In crepe de chine, Canton crepe and many handsome novelty sports silks. All are pleated and they come in white and sweater colors. Mostly two or three of a kind only. 200 surf satin skirts at $3.75 each. In white only, but a very pretty and becoming model with full-gathered waist, deep girle and slashed pockets. (East Aisle)

Cool Summer Waists at Special Prices

Plenty of voile, batiste and muslin waists, in lingerie and semi-tailored styles, $1.65. Plenty of white voile waists with embroidery and lace, $1.85 to $2.85. Sample waists—voiles with real fillet among them—at $3.85. Porto Rican waists—with drawn-work and real fillet—at $3.85 and $5. Georgette waists—light and dark—at $3.85. (East and West Aisles)

Jaunty Felt Sports Hats From $6.50 Up

Ribbon, quills, wings, pheasant tails, owl's heads, or flowers, give to these dashing little hats just the right touch for sports and outing wear. The hats themselves are soft felts of good quality and most becoming shapes. They are white, biscuit, gray, tan, citron, light or dark blue, or one of the season's saucy reds. Priced from $6.50 up. (Second Floor, Chestnut)

Fetching Bathing Caps Made From Silk Squares

They are English, it goes without saying, and the colorings are such as you will find only in these imported squares. Some of them are Liberty silks, but they are all unique in their attractive designs. They will go with practically any bathing costume and will stand the salt water admirably. $2 to $10 each. (Main Floor, Central)

Inexpensive Neckfixings

A fresh lot of collars, vestees and collar and cuff sets are on sale at $1 and $1.50. The vestees are of net and gingham; and the collars and cuffs of net, organdie and lace. (Main Floor, Central)

Cotton Umbrellas at $1.50

Now that the charm of the desert-dry weather has broken it may be hoped that everybody will have more use for them. They are covered with black cotton taffeta on eight-rib paragon frames, and the men's have L and hook handles, while women's have carved and plain mission handles with silk loop cords. Sizes are 28 and 26 inches, respectively. (Main Floor, Market)

Holiday Notes

The Oriental Store has two or three items which have special interest for people planning to be comfortable on the Fourth. Fans at 8c to 35c apiece. Straw samials at 25c a pair. Luncheon sets of blue and white cotton at $1.50 the set. Five designs to choose from. (Fourth Floor, Chestnut)

Bloomers for Bathing

Most women prefer them to be navy or black, and made of washable satin or rayon. We have both, the first material $1.50 and the second $3.50. (Third Floor, Central)

No Bathroom Is Fully Equipped Without a Shower

Once a luxury, the shower is now the daily refreshment of every one possessing a bathtub. Overhead showers with duck curtains—attachable to any walls, $15 to $21.50. Kenney four-spray side showers—attachable to any tub—no curtains necessary, because they don't splash—$10 to $20. Small showers with rubber tubing, 75c to $2.50. (Fourth Floor, Market)

This New Pump for Women Will Lead a Busy Life

A new white canvas trimmed pump at $9.75 is destined for a very useful career. The wing tip, heel foxing, welted sole and Cuban heel are all of either tan calfskin or black patent leather, making it as serviceable for a street shoe as a leather oxford. Yet the white canvas vamp and two pearl-buttoned straps of white canvas across the instep give it all the dressy lightness of a white shoe. Its designer is an expert on the combination shoes so fashionable this year. In all sizes. (First Floor, Market)

New Printed Dimities Are Refreshingly Cool

They are as pretty as anything you will find for little inexpensive summer frocks, and they are but 50c a yard. Tiny flowered designs, small checks and all-over figures—all are in this new shipment. They are 36 inches wide. (First Floor, Chestnut)

Bath Robes for Children Going to the Shore

Turkish toweling robes, in pink or blue, are especially nice to put on over wet bathing suits to prevent a chill. In two to ten-year sizes, $3.50 to $4.50. For those who want something a little better, unlined corduroy robes are both pretty and practical. In pink, blue and coral, two to sixteen-year sizes, $4.50 to $6. (Third Floor, Chestnut)

BOYS have you ever seen a pigeon wink?

If so, you know what "quick as a wink" means. Probably any one of you can wink as fast as a pigeon, but which of you could keep it as long? Just watch a pigeon winking next time you get near one. The reason we talk about the quickness of a pigeon's wink is because tomorrow is the last day to get a new washable suit for the "Fourth," and quickness is a thing that matters a whole lot. We can fit you out in the right kind of washable suits and blouses and trousers "quick as a pigeon's wink," almost. We surely can do it "while a cat would be licking his whiskers." Come on in. Wash suits and garments for boys of all ages from three to eighteen are here "good and plenty." (Second Floor, Central)

One Towel at a Time IS Enough

If you use the new towels of craft paper, a strong absorbent paper that does not lint or tear, 15c for a roll of 150 towels. (Fourth Floor, Market)

A Candy Reminder for the Fourth

There is a special Fourth of July surprise package already made up for those who don't want to take the time or trouble to pick out the various kinds for themselves. It contains chocolate-covered marshmallows, cream mint, assorted chocolates, yellow jack, clear drops and gum-drops, besides snapping bon-bons. All are good, pure kinds that the children, as well as grown-ups, like. For the five-pound package the price is only $2.50. (Down Stairs Store, Chestnut)

Some Men—a Few—Will Like This Kind of Fun for the Fourth

But not many in this day and time. Your average American man wants a Fourth of July with something livelier in it.

He will be going out for a real holiday. He will want to be fixed up for it—right away. Therefore he will want a lot of things tomorrow, and what he wants he wants immediately. Our Men's Clothing Store is ready to serve him with the right things, on the minute, up to the last minute; ready, that is, with tropical suits and other garments for sports and holiday wear; ready, especially for men who look for quality in things and are never satisfied until they have found the things of quality.

They understand, and so do we, that the only tropical suits worth any man's while, or any man's money, are the kind that are really and truly and carefully tailored, and made of the best class of tropical fabrics.

There are other so-called "tropical" suits on the market, far too many of them. Let this not trouble any man who wants a tropical suit of a kind that will enhance, not only his comfort, but his appearance, and his self-respect. He can be sure of finding it at Wanamaker's without delay or difficulty. We wouldn't stock the other kind on a wager. We couldn't afford it. Palm Beach suits, $20 and $22.50. Mohair suits, $25 and $30. Tropical worsted suits, $32 to $40. White flannel trousers, $12. White duck trousers, $3 and $3.50. Khaki trousers, $2 and $3.50. Knitted sports coats, $20. (Third Floor, Market)

Men's Fine Neckties of English Foulard

Made in this country of beautiful imported silk in a variety of gay designs and colorings, including bandanna patterns and dots. They are marked $1.50. No better Summer four-in-hands than foulards. (Main Floor, Market)

$4 for the Finest Sennit Straw Hats for Men

That means all our best Lincoln-Bennett and Redleaf London straw hats that have been a dollar or two more. They are in the newest and most correct shapes and will keep clean longer than any straw hats we know of. (Main Floor, Market)

Fine Additions to the Men's $2.50 Shirts

At this price a man may now choose from excellent woven madras shirts in soft cuff, plain negligé style in seersucker stripes or in broad stripes. The latter have just come in. Good shirts in every particular and low priced for such quality. (Main Floor, Market)

Store Open Tomorrow

So everybody can get ready for the Fourth. Closed Independence Day and on all the eight Saturdays of July and August after the Fourth.
