

INTERNATIONAL POLO MATCH. One of first photographs to arrive here of combat between American and British fours, with victory for the Americans. Maj. Lockett (British team), heading off Watson Webb (American) International

INVITATION TOURNAMENT. Match play started yesterday in the second annual event of the Old York Road Country Club at Jenkintown. In the group are (left to right) Mrs. Allen M. Matthews, Mrs. Harry P. Clossman, Mrs. William A. Prince, Mrs. Harry D. Stevens, Mrs. Henry M. Paist and Mrs. Robert Beatty, Jr. The lad is hunting in the water for a lost golf ball. Ledger Photo Service

READY FOR THE JUMP. Blanche Strekeigh, of Waterbury, Conn., in the broad jump at a meet in New York, where girls from four States took part. This jump proved the winning effort. U. S. A.

BRITISH GIRLS AT LACROSSE. The game is being staged at Richmond, the play spot of the City of London, where the pick of the London schools play girls from the Southern counties. The alert goal tender of the London team was snapped as she darted out to save a goal. Central News Photo

ENGLISH ACTRESS teaches French old-time dances at Aix-les-Bains during carnival. C. N. P.

PLAYS TILDEN TODAY. B. I. C. Norton, the South African tennis expert, has earned the right to meet the Philadelphian for the British championship. Central News Photo

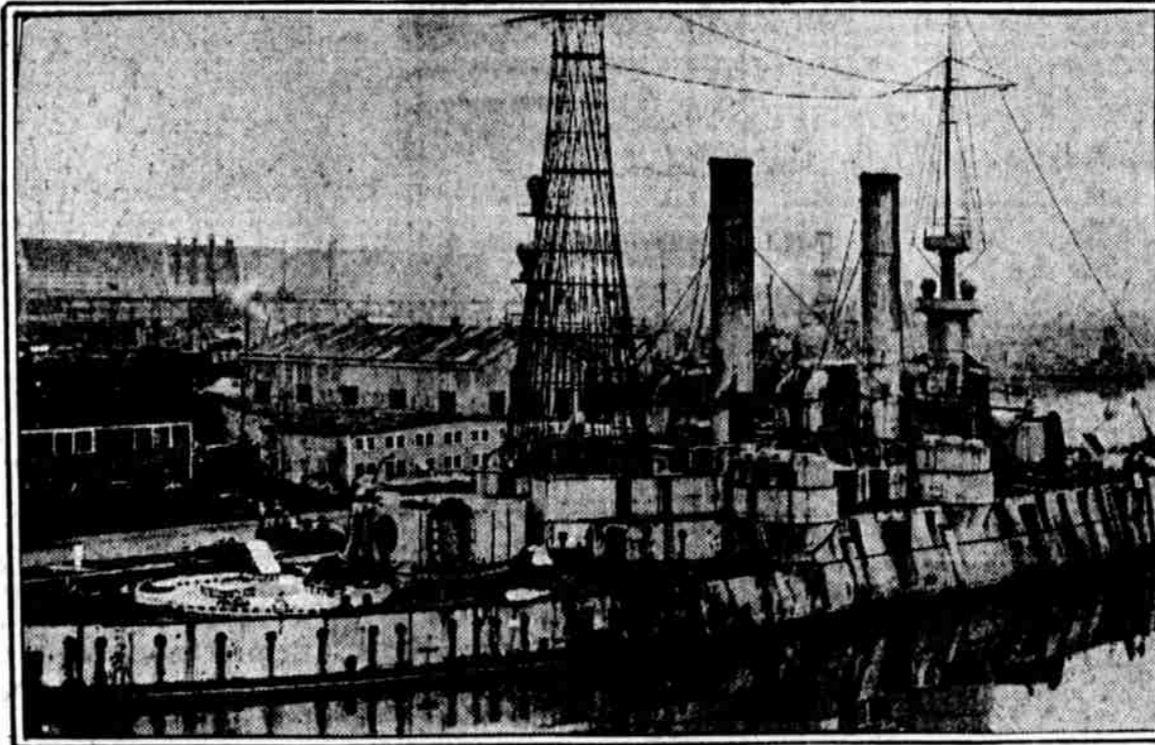

REAL SERVICE. Mrs. Joel Brown, of England, is being carried to her favorite bathing spot by two French servants. Such is the service that summer visitors get at the French resort. Central News Photo

MORE STORM DAMAGE. One of the trees twisted and torn by the storms of the last few days can be seen as it hangs over Leithgow street above Diamond. The street is roped off. Ledger Photo Service

MISS DOROTHY KARDON, driving, as she starts at the Cobbs Creek public golf course. Ledger Photo Service

IOWA BACK TO NAVY YARD. After a few days off Cape Charles Lighthouse, Virginia, as a target for airmen of the U. S. Navy, the battleship, which was twice hit, is again in the back channel at the Philadelphia Navy Yard. Ledger Photo Service

CONGRESSMAN SWING suggests building of dams to transform sands of West. C. N. P.

MISS LAURA VOLSTEAD daughter of Rep. Andrew J. Volstead, back from Panama. C. N. P.

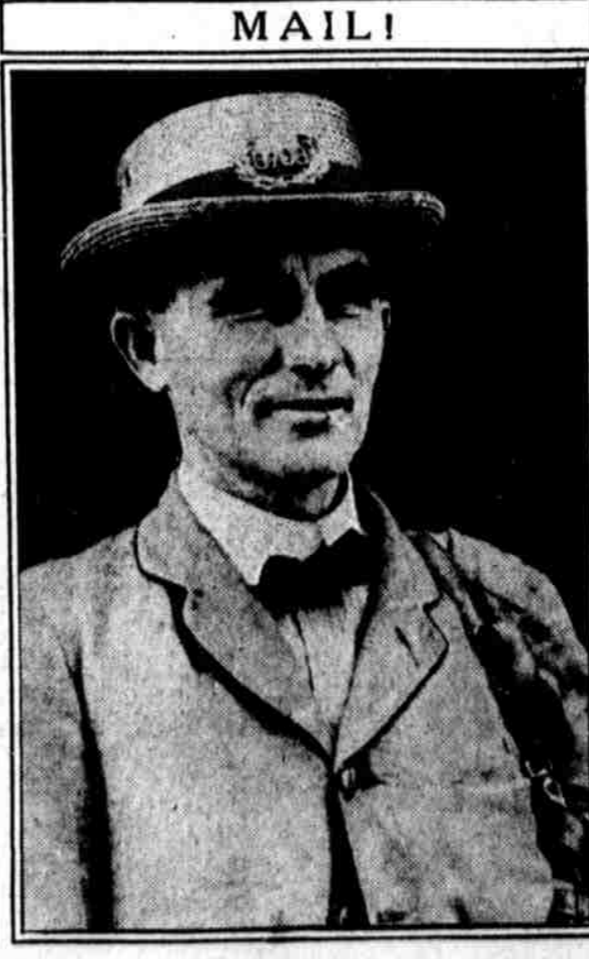

OUR CITY'S WORKERS AND WHAT THEY DO

WAYNE COOK operating a machine in the factory of Mrs. A. K. King, Nineteenth and Brown streets, that puts heels on shoes at the rate of hundreds a day. Ledger Photo Service

UMBRELLAS FOR TRAFFIC MEN. Reserve Patrolman Charles Westchel, at Juniper and Market streets, protected from sun and rain. L. P. S.

SEVENTEEN YEARS AS MAIL CARRIER. William Laning, of 3125 North Bambray street. Route: Fourth to Fifth, Market to Chestnut st. L. P. S.

MRS. JAMES A. STILLMAN leaving divorce hearing, Poughkeepsie, on first day of husband's appearance. L. P. S.

R. E. BROWN, Cornell, will compete in track meet.

HAPPY MOMENTS. A group of children on the scenic railway, at Woodside Park where they were given an outing. L. P. S.