owners as well as chauffeurs Will be nabbed, Judge Barratt says

GIRL HEADS GRAND JURY

Judge Barratt, charging the new Grand Jury, served notice on automobile owners that if their chauffeurs drive recklessly when they are in the car and an accident occurs, owner as well as chauffeur is to be indicted. The judge in very plain terms told the jury that there would be no distinction between rich and poor or high and low in his court, and that every owner who rides with a reckless chauffeur should get all that he deserves, no matter what his name or station. The judge addressed a jury headed by a very pretty and dainty girl student, Miss Helen White, 1138 South Fifty-third street. Miss White took her place at Grand Jury for the first time. She is a brunette with dark blue eyes, she had on a blue gray-stone coat suit, a white shirtwaist, a white straw hat with black checks, and tan and white sports shoes.

Announce an Old-Time Repricing Sale

For several years due to abnormal business conditions we have been unable to have our usual Semi-Annual Repricing Sale of Clothing at the close of seasons. During the period of tensity and strain we maintained the quality of our product and continued to serve the public with merchandise of our usual high standard, thereby giving satisfaction and retaining the confidence and good will of our patrons.

Fortunately conditions have changed—this season our prices have averaged 30% lower than last Spring, and we are now announcing a Repricing Sale which makes very substantial reductions from these prices which already have been much lower than last year.

We lay especial emphasis on the importance of this sale, as it is composed entirely of clothing made on Reed's Standard of Quality, which signifies the best of fabrics—best of tailoring—and includes our regular lines of Spring and Summer weight worsted, unfinished worsteds, tweed and cheviot Suits—the finest, shapeliest and most serviceable ready-to-wear clothing manufactured.

The reduced prices are as follows:—

$30 Suits are repriced to $24	$55 Suits are repriced to $44
$35 Suits are repriced to $28	$60 Suits are repriced to $48
