Pictures Show Carpenter Was Beaten Down by Body Attack in Clinches

JACK STAGGERED IN 2D

By LOUIS H. JAFFE
Beams of stuff running into hundreds of feet have been written about how that $500,000 right of Jack Dempsey knocked out Georges Carpentier with a blow on his $200,000 jaw, but a glimpse at the movie of this memorial contest, entitled "The Battle of the Century," proves conclusively that the champion did not defend his world's heavyweight crown with a single punch, Dempsey used a lot of wallops to bring down the challenger.

Second Round
The pictures settle without question a doubt that Carpentier was within a fraction of winning the heavyweight crown when he staggered the champion with a right cross, followed by two lefts on the jaw and then two right hands to the body.

After Carpentier had virtually punched himself out, Jack opened up, and then the beginning of the end for the Frenchman. Before the second round was over, even though Carpentier had shown to advantage by far, Dempsey almost pushed himself through the ropes to try to elude the closely following Dempsey. Several times Georges staggered punches of Carpentier that had Dempsey tottering temporarily.

CHAMPS FINISH TRAINING FOR 50-MILE RACE HERE

Maddona, Seres, Cory and Carman in Golden Wheel Tomorrow
Four different champions, such from as many climes, will finish training today for a fifty-mile motor-paced race to be decided tomorrow night at the Point Breeze Velodrome.

George Mead, a Philadelphia sportsman, has put up a silver loving cup to be presented to the winning bicyclist of tomorrow night's race, while he also will award a gold medal to the motorcycleist setting the pace for the victor.

Another feature on this program will be the one-mile sprint match race between Willie Spencer, representing America, against Orlando Piani, the Italian champ.

Two amateur events also will be decided. There will be a score of partridge shoots in these races, including a number of entries from out of town.

Scrapers About Scrapers
Louis Malise, local sportsman, will break into the spotlight as a promoter next Wednesday night when he puts on the first show of the open-air season at Shiloh Park.

Frank Lee will box in the wind-up at the Cambria Friday night. The foe will be Tommy Golden. Other bouts: Freddy Turner vs. Bobby McCann; Johnny Rice vs. Young Andy; and Frankie Smith vs. Kid West.

Kid Masolino, of Southwick, is training for a comeback. He has not boxed since winning the welterweight championship of the Twenty-sixth Division in France. The Kid is working out at Pottersville, N. J., with Erico Lora and Frankie Britton.

Eddie Wason and Johnny Griffiths will meet in a boxing bout on July 22. Other bouts will be between George Russell and Battling Darnley; Lewis and Johnny Mayhook; and Eddie Small and Jimmy Jackson.

Leach Cross' bout with Frankie Rice at Shiloh Park next week will be the New York comeback that appeared here since opposing Teddy Maloney in 1912. Cross is thirty-five years of age.

Tommy Wilson is prepared to meet Tony Donato at 123 Centre writes Johnny Samit.

Louis Kama likes Georges Carpentier better now than he did before the Frenchman's match with Jack Dempsey. "Carpentier showed he had a lot of class," says Kama, "but he was a little out of his mind out there. The boys at Cafe Louis made a clean-up back of Dempsey, and although their money was riding on the champion, still many wanted to see Carpentier win."

St. Paul's Has Open Date
The St. Paul Professionals are without a game for July 14. Manager writes that he is anxious to book a first-class team for this date home at away. Arrivals: Johnny Mack and Danny South (Crosby street).

Eight players will qualify for the championship, and the drawings for the first round of match play will be made as soon as the returns are all in. Then will come the tussle for the crown relinquished by R. K. Hanson, who has passed the age limit for entrance this year.

There will be a medal for low score in the qualifying round and prizes for the winner and runner-up in each flight as usual, with the possibility of special prizes, as last year, for the real young players.

Golf de luxe is rapidly developing feudal tendencies. Now that we have golf balls at $23 the dozen it is perhaps only natural that $15 to $18 apiece which to knock the cover off the expensive balls.

A bookmaking firm offered odds of 30 to 1 that P. McLeod would not win the North and South open the year, the midwest Columbus Cup accomplished the feat. Wonder what the odds are this year on McLeod against Mitchell, Duncan, Hutchison, Barnes, Kirkwood and such.

Frank McCracken wishes to announce, now that the fight turned out as he wrote it would, that he will resume activities as a fighter, though that's one place he won't promise to kick a winner.

In fact, Ed Clary is the only consistent winner of the season so far. He won the old York Road tourney last year and repeated this year, to show it wasn't a fluke. He also won the medal. This may be news at that, for it happened while the fight was on.

On the same page of the P. L. with columns of fight stuff was noted, incidentally, that over 5000 U. S. dead soldier bodies had just arrived at New York.

GEORGES GOING DOWN

L'I' ARTHA TO BOX

Johnson Will Meet Willis at Jersey City August 22
Leavenworth, Kans., July 6.—Jack Johnson, former pugilistic champion, will meet Harry Willis for the negro championship at Jersey City, N. J., August 22. It was learned here today.

The contest previously was announced for August 20 at New York. Johnson, completing a sentence of one year in the federal penitentiary here on a white slave law conviction, has been offered $50,000 or the option of a percentage of the gross receipts for the contest.

The former champion's sentence will expire July 9. A match against Jack Grover, of Chicago, was scheduled for that night at Leavenworth, but recently was called off when members of the ministers' alliance protested to the mayor.

It is understood that after being released in the morning on July 9 Johnson will attend a reception or entertainment here that night and then go immediately to Chicago, his former home.

Dick Stosh Easy for Willis
Mt. Carmel, July 6.—Al Willis, Mt. Carmel, easily defeated Young Dick Stosh, Reading, here in ten rounds. Young Gains and Battling Levinski, of Shamokin, fought the main event in a draw. Younger Mt. Carmel was knocked out by Young Conroy when Finkenburg captured both ends of a double-header, 7-3 and 3-0.

Manager Beltzender is hoping that the weather man will not turn the afternoon evening. The North Phila. has a heavy rain in the afternoon of fourth and Wineshooking streets, and the largest crowd of the season is expected.

Victor Keene still is hurling for Debon. Every time he takes the mill the Falls are black and feel certain of a victory. His string of victories has reached more than twenty-five this season.

League and Semi-Pro Notes

The Adamstown team, which met defeat at the hands of Fishers on Independence Day had one sweet pitcher in Grieshaber and with any kind of support he would have won easily. He was one of the best hurlers that has been seen here this year.

The return of Bill Fish has helped the Fishers. Fish is a former Phila. backstop, who has been playing in Connecticut until his return to the city last week.

Holand, clean-up hitter for Shannahan, had six hits in the double-header with American Club of Chester, and three against Michael last evening.

Phil Huggerts has made few changes in the lineup of his team this year, and the way it looks the uptown leader will finish the season with the same lineup. Phil says he would like to see one better.

The South Phila. Hebrews are drawing big crowds at Broad and Butler streets. The downtowners have a fast team, and the fans apparently appreciate the fact judging by the way they are turning out.

"Chickie" Panson gets better each year, and this is his best season. Judging by the string of victories the cage star is turning in.

That was some job the Ploos handled Roy Thomas' Shaples aggregation on July 4, when Finkenburg captured both ends of a double-header, 7-3 and 3-0.

Lively Ball Is "Making Suckers" Out of Fielders

Hank O'Day, veteran umpire, says the "lively ball is making suckers out of infielders." Hank was discussing this yesterday.

"It's a better ball than it's ever been," he continued. "There is no question about that. It's wound tight, and the cover is stretched so that it's tight as a drum. But it's too lively and hurting the game.

"The ball goes so fast that spectacular stops and fine plays in the infield are getting to be things of the past. Outfielders play back so far you never can see anybody thrown out at the plate any more, or very seldom, and two throws are needed to get the ball in."

The examination disclosed a fracture of the right jaw at its angle. The injury, which was received in the second round, will keep Gill out of the ring for several months.

CARPENTIER'S NEXT BOUT WITH GIBBONS

Tex Rickard Anxious to Hold Go on Columbus Day at Jersey City

WOULD ATTRACT CROWD

New York, July 6.—Tom Gibbons, St. Paul light-heavyweight probably will be the next American opponent of Georges Carpentier in a bout in this country. It remains only for the representatives of the boxers and promoter Tex Rickard to get together in a meeting to arrange the bout definitely.

Rickard is eager to arrange the bout for Columbus Day, at his arena on Boyle's Thirty Acres, Jersey City. Gibbons is reportedly agreeable to a meeting with Carpentier and the French heavyweight is said to be eager to engage in another battle, with the prospect of demonstrating his ability in a contest where the physical conditions would be more nearly equal than they were in the recent Dempsey contest.

A Carpentier-Gibbons bout would be for the world's light-heavyweight title, an honor now held by Carpentier.

Francis Desamps, manager of Carpentier, yesterday visited Madison Square Garden and held a conference with promoter Rickard. At the conclusion of the confab Rickard declared that Carpentier would accept a bout against Gibbons, provided it could be arranged so as to afford plenty of time for recovering from the thumb injury the French heavyweight sustained in the bout against Dempsey, and additional time in which to properly train.

Manager Desamps, Rickard said, declared that Carpentier would not be ready for another bout before three months. He needed this time, Desamps told Rickard, in order to permit the injured thumb to mend properly, to rest, and to train.

Rickard is ready to arrange the battle without delay. He is convinced such a contest would attract a large crowd to the spacious arena in the Commonwealth across the Hudson. Unless the demands of Gibbons are prohibitive, it is expected that announcement of the match soon will be made by Rickard.

Desamps, the promoter said, has already submitted acceptable terms. The battle, if arranged by Rickard, will be held on the afternoon of Columbus Day, October 12. Prices, though not definitely determined, probably will range from $2 to $15.

Desamps did not confine his list of prospective rivals for Carpentier to Gibbons alone. The French manager said he preferred the St. Paul light-heavyweight, but added that he was willing to arrange a meeting against any other formidable foe of Carpentier's weight.

Rickard is also considering the advisability of arranging a return bout between Dempsey and Bill Brennan for the heavyweight title. The pair have clashed in two bouts already. Dempsey knocked out Brennan in six rounds in their first meeting and disposed of the Chicago Celt in twelve rounds in their last bout. The surprising showing of Brennan in the last clash against the champion is accepted as demonstrating that Brennan is one of the strongest contenders for the title. If this battle is arranged it will be held on Labor Day in the Jersey City arena.

In the event that the Dempsey-Brennan contest falls to materialize, Rickard contemplates arranging a light-weight championship match in which Benny Leonard will defend his title against Lew Teller, Philadelphia, contender. If this battle is arranged, the prices, Rickard said, would probably range from $2 to $10.

JESS WILLARD WILLING

Ready to Meet Dempsey After Four Months' Training
Lawrence, Kan., July 6.—Jess Willard is willing to meet Jack Dempsey again, he said, on his farm near here. The former champion added that he was even anxious to get a chance to recapture the world's heavyweight championship, which he lost two years ago at Toledo.

"I've led the simple life; I'm in splendid shape today," he said. "I would need four months for training and conditioning, then I would be ready for Jack Dempsey."

Yank Recruit Hurls Perfect Game

Hartford, Conn., July 6.—Mrs. Thomas Harker, former out to the Hartford City of the Eastern League from the New York American, and a former Penn State star, pitched a perfect, no-run game against Springfield here. Only one player reached second base, and the visitors knocked but two flies to the outfield. Thomas struck out eleven men.

90% of all engine troubles easily prevented

Garage men and engineers report chief causes of common repair expense

"WHY do I have to spend so much on engine repairs?" You've asked yourself this question many a time. That's just the question we asked engineers and garage men all over the United States.

They report that seven preventable troubles—fouled spark plugs, burned-out bearings, scored cylinders, played-out piston rings, loose wrist pins, worn cam shaft, sticking or pitted valves—cause 90% of all repair expense. Almost always these troubles are caused by improper lubrication.

When subjected to the intense heat of the engine—200° to 1000° F.—ordinary oil forms black sediment. Sediment has no lubricating value. Avoid big repair expense. Sediment is reduced 86% when you use Veedol, the lubricant that resists heat. (See the two bottles below).

With Veedol in your engine most serious engine troubles are prevented. Have your engine flushed out. Put in Veedol. Leading dealers have it in stock. Ask for a supply of Veedol today.
