

ROYAL OPENING OF ULSTER PARLIAMENT. Showing King George and Queen Mary in the carriage as they arrived at City Hall in Belfast, Ireland. Central News Photo

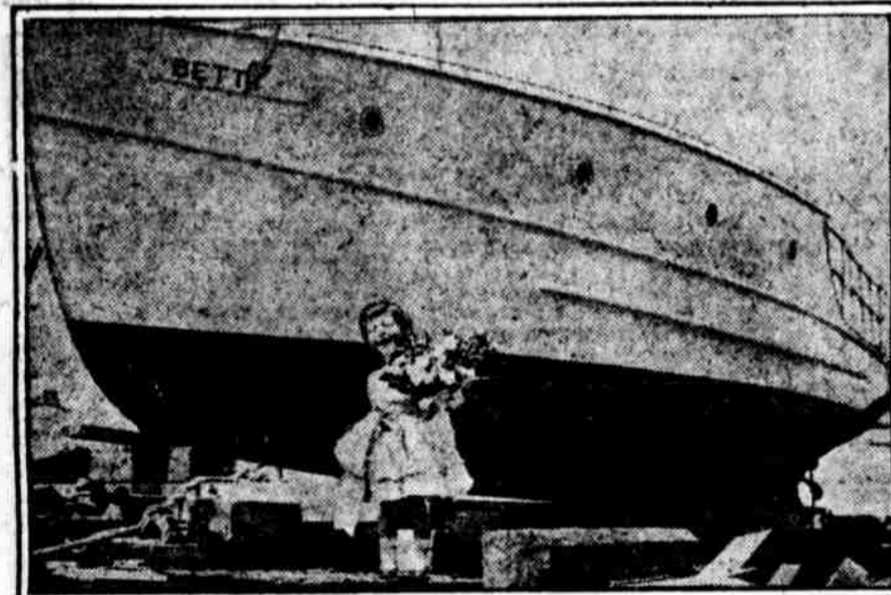

AT SOUTHAMPTON. Mrs. Oliver Perrin and James W. Gerard, former U. S. Ambassador to Germany, at resort. International

TAKING SUN BATH. The baby sea lion at the New York Aquarium will not be placed in the water until six weeks old, when he will be able to swim. Central News Photo

AND THE SWING WENT A LITTLE BIT HIGHER. Emily Risko and Minerva Snyder go as high as the swing will allow them at the Carson-Simpson Memorial Home conducted by the Methodist Episcopal Church near Willow Grove. Ledger Photo Service

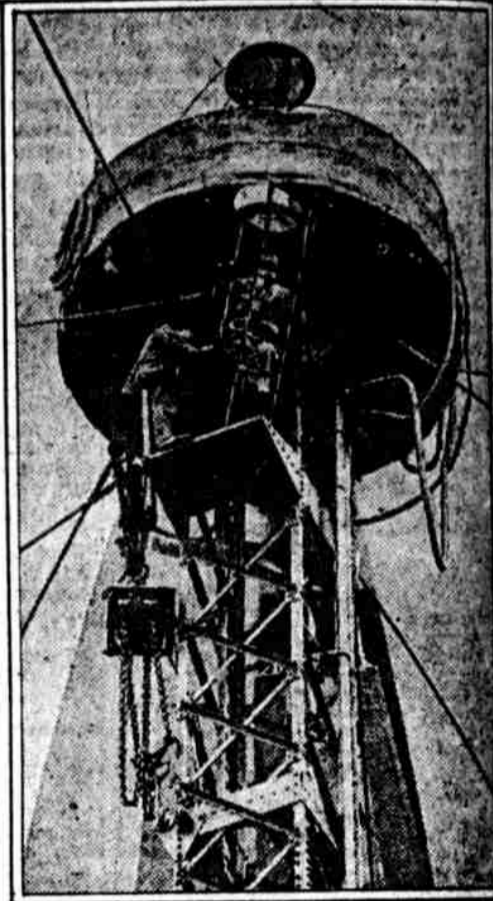

SPONSOR AND BOAT. Betty Weaver, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Weaver, of Philadelphia, who gave the cruiser Betty its name when it was launched at Stone Harbor, N. J.

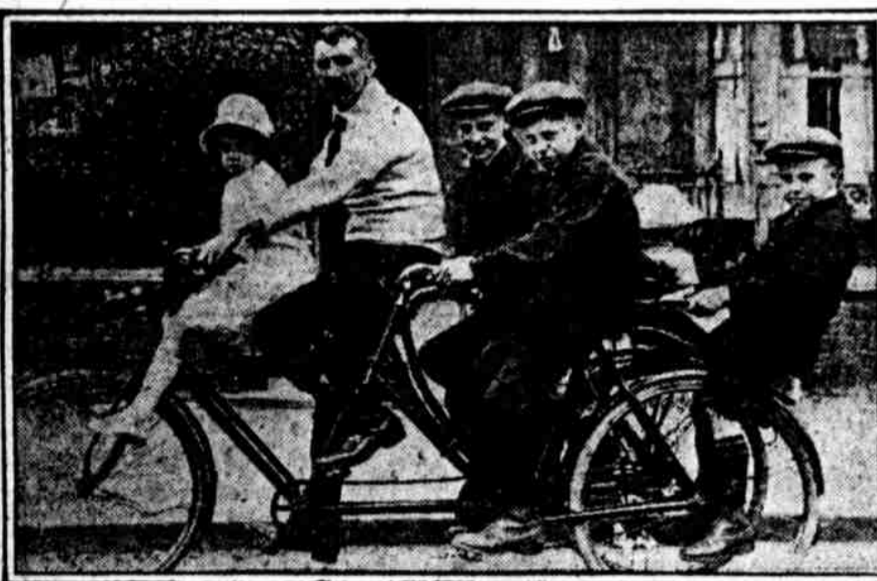

ON COBBS CREEK GOLF COURSE. Jim Daly, who for some time was sparring partner for James J. Corbett, the pugilist, has agreed to see that Gladys Norman gets started as a golfer. Lessons began yesterday. The lad at the right said he had a bank account. He is Thomas Deoro, eight years old, a well-paid caddy. Ledger Photo Service

"TAKE MY DOG'S PICTURE." Pauline Ackerman, in Rittenhouse Square, where she was acting as nurse to her sick pet. U. P. S.

AIRSHIP STATION. The tower where passengers and crew go aboard the R-36, the huge British aircraft. Central News Photo

A FAMILY AFFAIR. This ingenious father prefers his strange vehicle to a small automobile. It is constructed so that all his family can go along. A hill might cause a general order to get off and push. International

KING ALFONSO of Spain (right) played for the Wanderers in a polo game against Roehampton. The Prince of Wales was a member of the latter team. C. N. P.

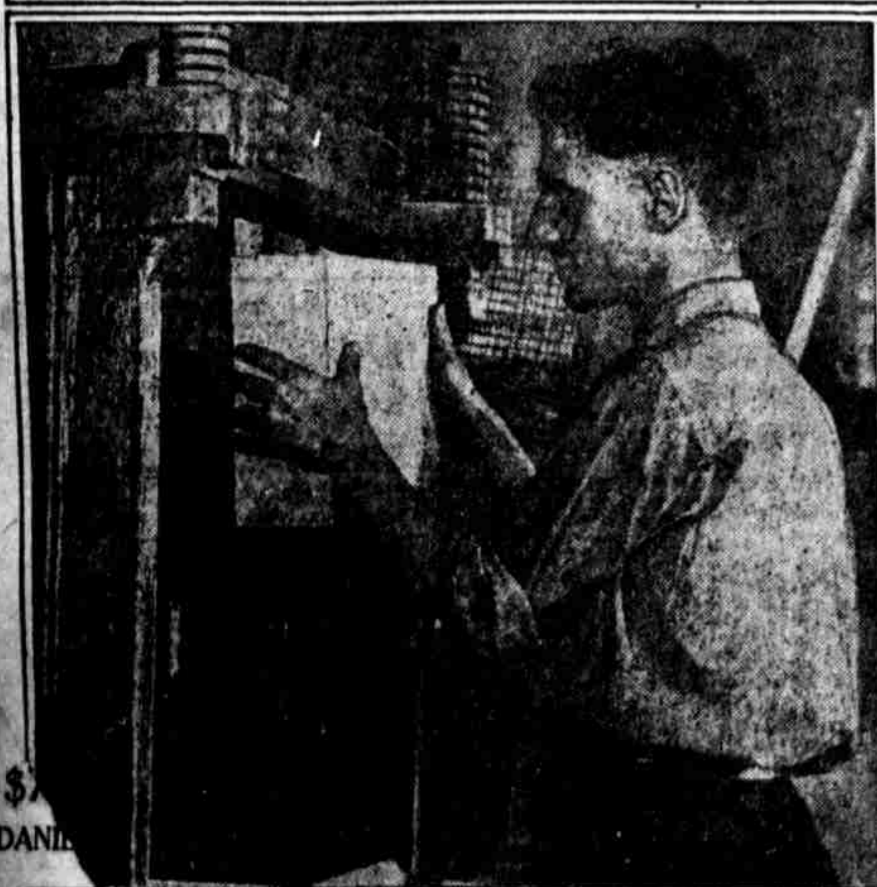

ELEANOR UHL, of Olympic fame, and Raymond Uhl, her brother, swam fifty yards at Knights of Columbus outing. Raymond won. Keystone Photo Studio

PARADING THE AMERICAN PONIES. A British Boy Scout, carrying the Stars and Stripes, led the line of fifty-one American ponies and their caretakers at Hurlingham, England, just before the first match for the international polo honors. Central News Photo

OUR CITY'S WORKERS AND WHAT THEY DO

VALERIO, of 2110 Howell street, Camden, operating a machine that makes the ends of paper boxes at the Consumers' Box Co., 1209-13 Olive street. Ledger Photo Service

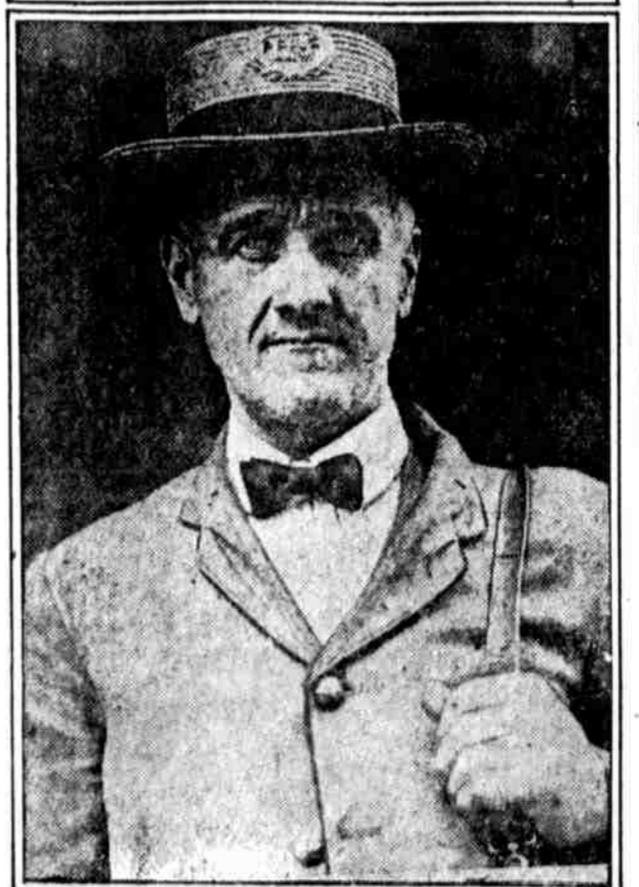

E. D. STEVENS (left) and H. H. Trancini, of the Hunting Valley Country Club golf team. They have participated in many tournaments. Ledger Photo Service

WILLIAM L. MAURER, 127 Creese street, has served mail for 25 years. Route: Delaware avenue to Front, Arch and Calo-hill streets. U. P. S.

MAIL!

CAN YOU SPICE A FEW THINGS NAUTICAL, can show you. Minnie Wilson, at Essington, who qualifies in things nautical, can show you. Roberts

WATCHING THE BATHERS. Frederick Humphreys, of New York, on the sands, Southampton, L. I. International