Werhaps they thought a speech unseessary and wanted to make his triumph complete by waving the cup upto there for them all to see. We thought they would make a formal presentation later, but they didn't. It was the least they could have done, we thought."

This omission brought many indignant letters to the papers abroad from the Britons themselves, it is said.

"Jock told us all on the boat that he wouldn't go over again," continued Hoffner, "but I don't know about that. They cheered him as well as Wethered at the finish. It was the Scotch credit, the ribbed club matter and throwing the cup to bim that angered him."

Hoffner didn't have much praise for St. Andrews which he described as barat out at the time and not very difficult.

"I was sorry for Jim Barnes," remarked Hoffner. "He had a 37 for it and took 43, the same as last year at Deal. But Jim had been sick and certainly played wonder in golf. He was all in at the finish; didn't seem able to hit the hell."

Hoffner said that Hutchison was an Hoffner said that Hutchison was an American citizen, all right, and that it was a real American triumph as se won it and placed three others in the money. He was full of praise for Kerrigan and all the rest of the team. "Of the British players I still like by Vardon best," finished Hoffner. "But young Havers looks like the real comer over there, and I believe he will be a champion some day. It was a great superlence, I had a wonderful time, and I'm sure grateful for being sent over."

Dave Bennis, manager of Chestnut Hill and who also played the same team at his own Germantown field, is out as manager of the Hillers. He has his line-up practically intact and besides playing at home on Tuesday and Fridays has added Saturday to the list of traveling days.

Duncan was bereft of his title as British open champlon by Hutchison.

Mitchell won the international professloual 1000 guineas tourney at Glen-tagles recently and the golf of Barnes is aways an attraction.

Tomorrow the British pair play the Americans thirty-six holes at Felham again and leave the same night for Philadelphia, where they will appear Wednesday, this week, against Max Marston and Jerry Travers, both femous nationally known amateurs.

The match will be a four hell book. The match will be a four-ball best-ball exhibition over thirty-six holes for the benefit of Bryn Mawr Hospital. This is thought to be Duncan and Mitchell's only local engagement and the golfing citizens hereabouts are expected to turn out in a body, both because it's a worthy cause and because it will be a real golf treat.

Harding Will Open

Warren G. Harding is said to be macleing up with his drives in preparation for the first ball he is going to attempt to knock 200 yards off the last tee to open the twenty-fifth annual open golf championship of the United States. It is the first time a rule of a nation has ever essayed this last and some interesting bets are heliar made as to the distance President Harding will get. The President will also present the cup to the winner at Columbia next week.

The tournament has been set forsaid a day to make these ceremonics ossible. It is a wonderful thing for the same to have the Chief Executive life it his personal attention, but the estponement has thrown a barrier in trust of the local open event which was promising.
