

A PAINTER. Walter Blythe, one of the men employed in beautifying City Hall tower. He was standing on the back of a copper eagle, twenty feet above the south clock dial when snapped. Ledger Photo Service

SARAH BERNHARDT HONORED. She is leaving Royal Palace, Madrid, after receiving Grand Cross of Alfonso XII from King Alfonso. U. & L.

CITY IMPROVEMENT. The task of moving a large hill from the edge of Fairmount Park, at the Green street entrance, and the building of the Art Gallery is progressing nicely. Three drilling machines were found in action as they bored into the rocks that will be removed. Then, on another section of the site, steel workers were riding girders to their places. Ledger Photo Service

L. F. DEMING, Philadelphia amateur golf champion. Deming played in interclub matches. L. P. S.

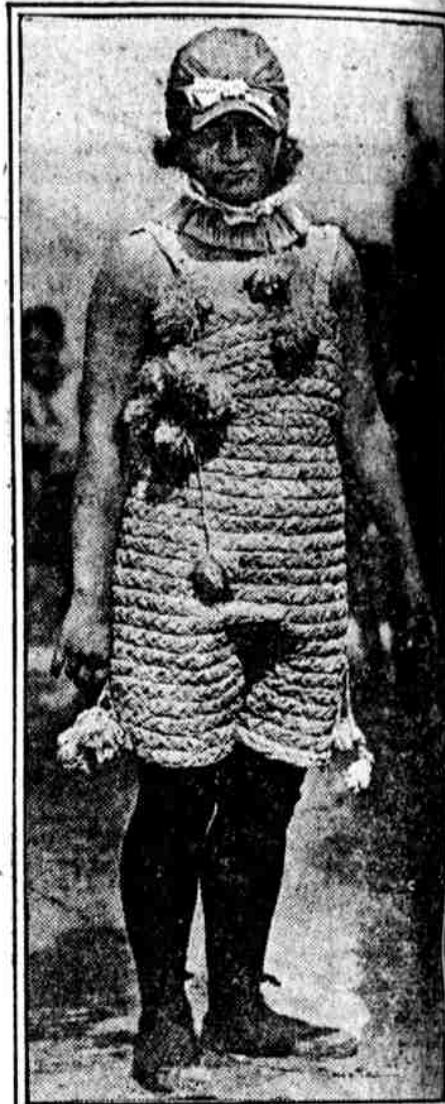

H. R. CARTWRIGHT will represent Philadelphia C. C. in England. Ledger Photo Service

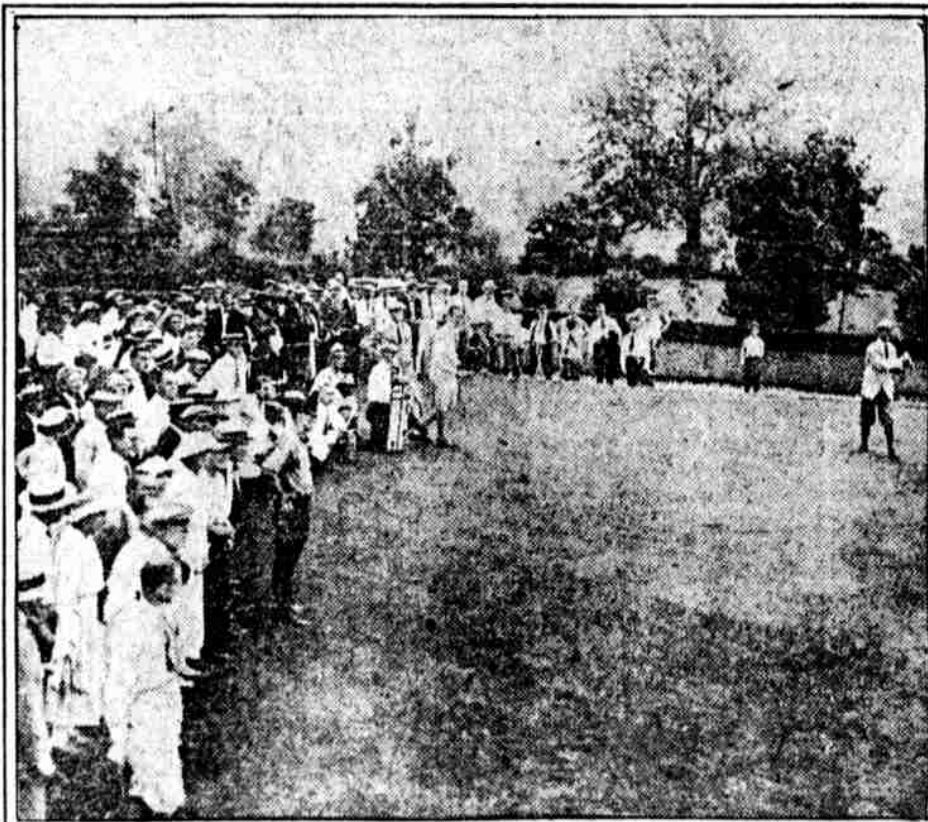

IN CAMP. The 114th Infantry, a South Jersey National Guard organization, is spending two weeks at Camp Edwards, Sea Girt, N. J. Captain Robert Peacock, Co. E, of Salem, was enjoying an easy chair at the headquarters tent. Russell Stow, of Camden, is shaving. L. P. S.

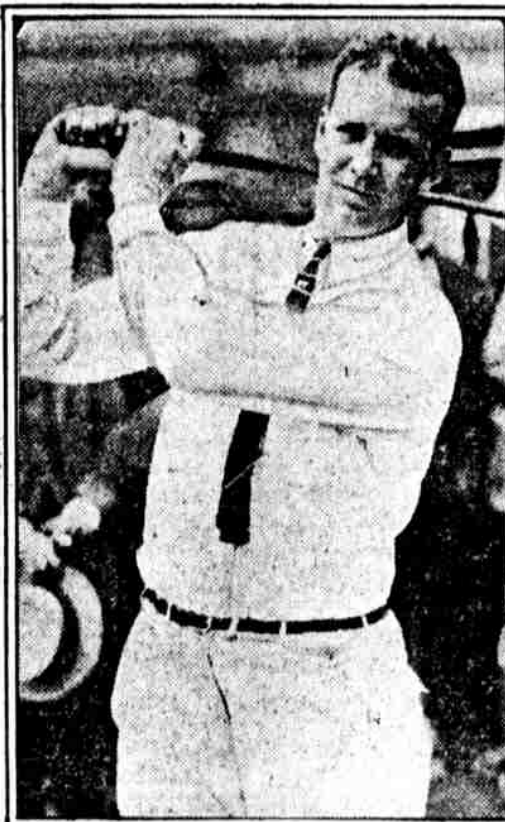

MISS FLORENCE BARRETT. She won the mile water-bicycle race held in New York City. It started at the Battery and finished at Midland Beach. Central News Photo

PAPER BATHING SUIT. Miss Florence, a Chicago girl, tried the new water costume and liked it. Underwood & Underwood

THE GALLERY. Yesterday was a great day for admirers of American amateur golfers who played in exhibition match on Merion Cricket Club course. They cheered each of the four players in their many excellent plays. Ledger Photo Service

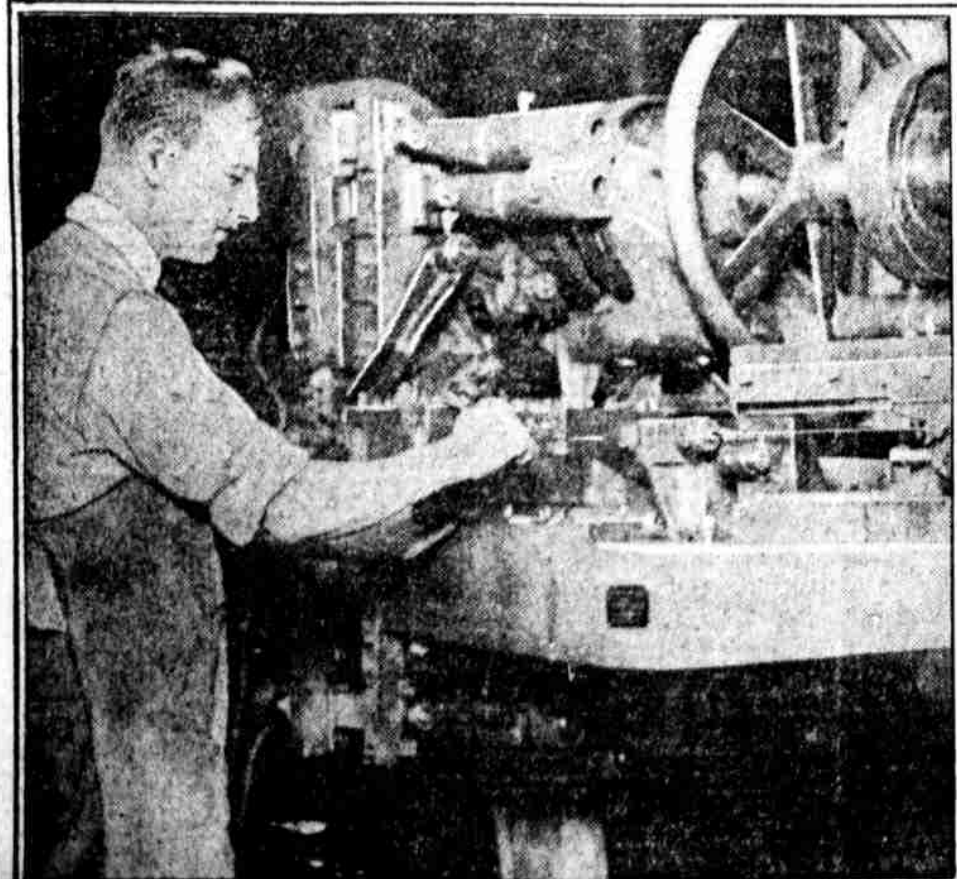

THE WINNERS. Max Marston, a Philadelphian (left), and Jerry Travers, of New York, American amateurs, won the 36-hole exhibition match from George Duncan and Abe Mitchell, English golfers, at the Merion Cricket Club. Ledger Photo Service

SAMUEL H. MILLS talks on the care of trees in an interview on the Editorial Page

OUR CITY'S WORKERS AND WHAT THEY DO

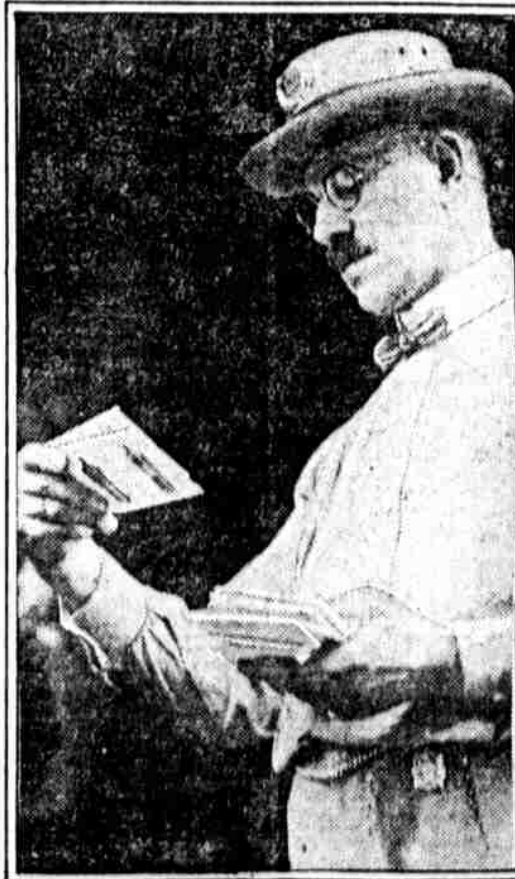

FRED HYZ, 5653 Appletree street, doing final adjusting on an automatic machine for manufacturing loose-leaf book rings in factory of Automatic Machinery Co., 222 E. 24th street. The machine is tested to make six rings a minute. U. & L.

GEORGES CLEMENCEAU, ex-Premier of France, returning from visit to England. U. & L.

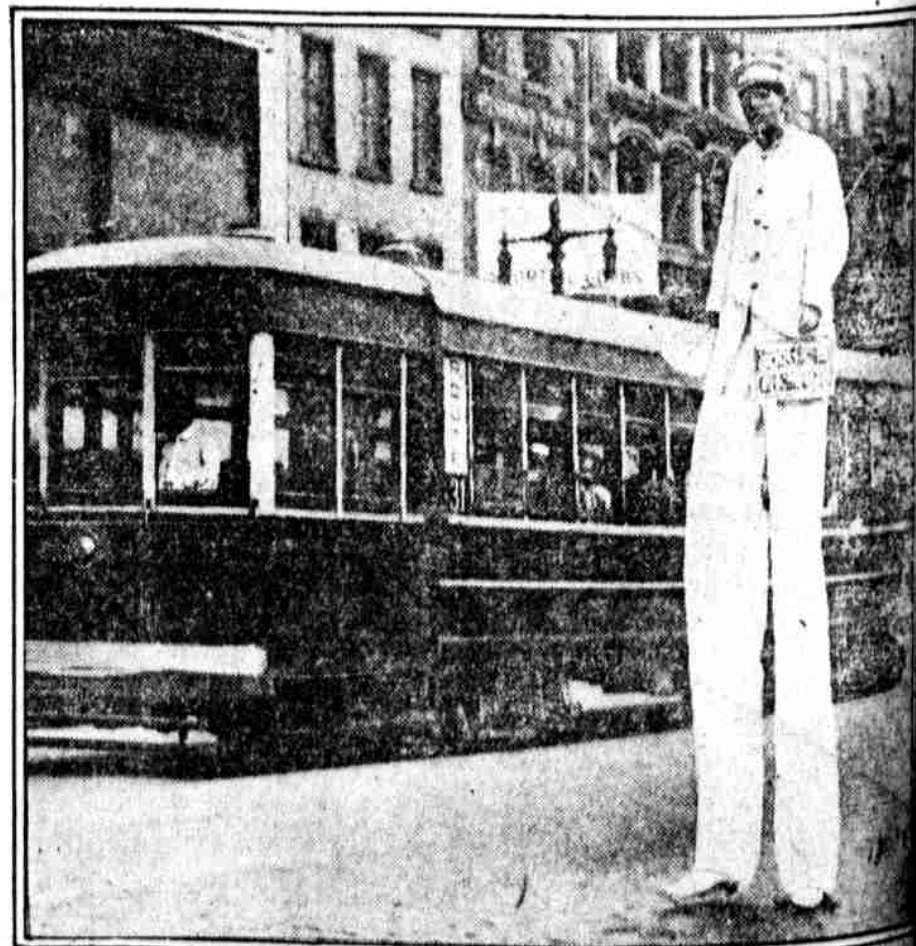

MAIL!

GEORGE G. SCHULTICE, 3009 N. Eighth street, has been in service 26 years. Route: Market to Walnut, Front to 2d street. U. & L.

YOUNGEST CONGRESSMAN. Rep. Thomas Ryan, of New York, who is only 31 years-old. K. & H.

A BUS ON MARKET STREET. The central intersection was not very busy when the camera clicked on the car of Route 31 and the "giant" in white. The photograph was taken at Sixth street. Ledger Photo Service